DEATHS

Mrs. Mary Heckert.
Mrs. Mary Heckert, widow of John Heckert, died this morning at four o'clock at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Ed Zimmer, 7 miles northeast of here. The funeral will be held at the Reformed church Sunday afternoon at 2:30. Interment at Oak Hill cemetery.

Hugh S. Clifton.
Hugh S. Clifton of Hibbard, died Wednesday, May 3, 1911, aged 61 years. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. Van Vactor of Argos at the Poplar Grove church, and interment was made in the adjoining cemetery.

Obituary.

Caroline M. Craig was born in Mayfield, Ohio, Jan. 29, 1840, and departed this life at her home on South street April 29, 1911, at the age of 71 years, 3 months. Mrs. Craig was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ansel B. Jones. She was reared in Ohio and was highly esteemed by all who knew her. She came to Indiana and located in Marshall county in 1861 and for 44 years has been an honored citizen in and about Plymouth. Her former marriage was to Augustus Hoppe, and to this union were born two children, a son, Mr. Aneel G. Hoppe, of Wolcott, Ind., and a daughter, Mrs. Elizabeth McLaughlin, who is so well and favorably known in this city.

On March 27, 1883 she was united in marriage to William F. Craig, who with one brother, John E. Jones, the only surviving member of a family of nine, are left to mourn their loss.

The deceased became a christian in early life, making the U. B. church her choice. She was faithful until death. A number of years ago she became a charter member of the Ladies Relief Corps and no one could do more for the order than she did. For some time past she was the press correspondent, and whatever our city papers had to say came largely from her pen. She seldom missed a meeting and was active in all its work. Her deeds of Charity did not stop here. About four years ago her sister was stricken down and was brought to her home and kindly cared for until the end came. One year ago her brother and wife also became affected and were in like manner brought to her home and her untiring efforts were with them until death. She meeting all expenses of sickness and death. Also her brother, a Veteran of the war of Rebellion, is being cared for at her home at this time.

This labor of both mind and body was more than she could endure and on Saturday, April 29, she quietly fell asleep. Thus a noble life passed out of our midst. Aside from her husband, son and daughter, are grandchildren, Mrs. Rose Vangilder Nelson McLaughlin of this city and Herman Hoppe of Wolcott, Ind. Wm. Powell of Laporte, Martin Mosier and Palmer Tenny of South Bend, distant relatives, were in attendance at the funeral.

The funeral took place at the U. B. church Tuesday, May 2, Rev. S. H. Yager officiating, and was in charge of the G. A. R. and Ladies Relief Corps. The ceremony by the Relief Corps was very impressive. The floral offerings presented by the G. A. R. Corps and by her many other friends were worthy of note. A large number of her old neighbors and friends were present at the church.

Obituary.

Miss Maud Nier was born in West township, Marshall county, June 6, 1878, and departed this life at her home on Nursery street May 3, 1911, aged 32 years, 10 months and 27 days.

Maud was the second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Nier and grew to mature life in Marshall county and was a young lady that was highly esteemed by all that knew her. About 1891 the family moved to Plymouth and obtained a home 417 Nursery street where they have lived since that time. Her education was obtained at the Baehal school, and for a time attended the city schools. In 1899 the first death of the family occurred it being the death of Martha, the twin sister of Maud. These bright girls were the pride of the community.

On March 24, 1893 the mother was laid to rest leaving a family of three daughters and one son. Maud was but 15 years old at this time and with her older sisters took charge of the home performing her part with alidity and in so doing kept the home together. About one year ago she sought her Saviour under the preaching of Rev. Mow and became a member of the Wesleyan Methodist church. She was always present at prayer meeting and was devoted to her Sunday school class and was a very happy consecrated Christian until the end.

she fell asleep, just at high noon. It was a scene where one could not mourn.

She leaves her father, Robert Nier, two sisters, Mrs. Thomas Chaney and Miss Ida M., a brother, William J. Nier, also the relatives that were present from South Bend, who were Henry Nier, Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Cupp, Mrs. Susan Kinsey, Mrs. F. Whittaker, Mrs. S. F. Sluss, W. Bower, G. F. Bower, Mrs. F. Bower and Mrs. H. O. Conner and son Russel, and a host of friends.

The funeral took place at the U. B. church Saturday, May 6. The entire arrangements for the service was made by herself a number of days before death. There were four flower girls, and lady pall bearers and the floral offerings included a large wheel with a broken spoke, which was presented by the basket factory. Service was conducted by Rev. S. A. Mow, her pastor, and Rev. S. H. Yager. It was largely attended.

Obituary.

Alice Sophona McDuffie, daughter of Cyrus and Thamer Crum, was born in Holmes county, Ohio, June 3, 1854, died at her home on north Walnut street, Plymouth, Ind., April 29, 1911, aged 56 years, 10 months and 26 days. She was married to Wm. McDuffie Jan. 20, 1883, and had shared life's joys and sorrows with him for twenty-eight years.

In her death her husband has lost a kind and loving companion and the community a good and obliging neighbor.

She leaves to mourn their loss besides her husband a step daughter, Mrs. Ada May Pritchett of Marion, Ind., one sister, Mrs. Elizabeth Hindman and one brother, Miland Crum, both of Lapaz, Ind.

We trust that their loss is her eternal gain.

The funeral was held at their home and conducted by Elder J. F. Pressnall in the presence of a large congregation. Interment in Oak Hill cemetery.

TWO BAD FIRES NEAR TO LAPAZ MUCH DAMAGE

MOTHER AND BABY BARELY ESCAPE FALLING CEILING IN FLAMES AND LOSE ALL GOODS.

PLAYS WITH MATCHES

Small Boy Starts Fire Which Burns Barn, Straw Stack, Hogs and Chickens—Woman Saves Calf.

Special to the Republican: Lapaz, May 9—A house owned by Sam Knott and occupied by Ben Sherwood was burned Saturday noon. It caught from a chimney and the ceiling falling through upon the stove was the first warning of the fire.

Mrs. Sherwood was dressing her baby near the stove and just escaped the falling timbers. She carried the child to a neighbor's and hurrying back found it impossible to save any of the furniture and it was with great difficulty the home of Henry Thornburg was saved.

Mr. and Mrs. Thornburg, who live in Bremen desire to thank those who gave their services in saving their property.

Kaser Fire.
While playing with matches which he found in his grandfather's coat, Ralph, the small son of Frank Kaser living four miles northwest of Lapaz, set fire to a straw stack which destroyed the barn, wagon shed corn crib and her house, burning some machinery, several tons of hay about 250 bushels corn and burning to death four hogs, one lamb and about 100 chickens mostly young chicks but about a dozen setting hens, refusing to leave the nest.

Mrs. Kaser had a narrow escape while trying to save a calf. Her hair was badly singed and the calf with nearly all the hair burned off was brought out safely.

Had the wind been from the northwest instead of southwest, not a building could have been saved.

Neither Frank Kaser nor his father carried any insurance and their loss is heavy.
