Home for Sale. I have a house and two lots in Central addition, Plymouth, that I will sell at a fine bargain for some one who wants a comfortable home in town. These lots are No. 119 and 120 in Central Addition, which is on west Jackson street, two blocks west of the barrel factory. Each of these lots is 40x140 feet and one of one of them is a good house of five rooms, built in 1908. The three rooms down stairs are 8x14, 12x14 and 14x14 in size, and the upstairs rooms are each 10x14 feet. The building is cased with good hard pine, has three glass doors and large windows. There is a well of good water 42 feet deep. These lots are high and dry, and most of the people here own their homes. The residence is near the beautiful Packard wood, one of the most pleasant places in Plymouth, and is also within easy distance of most of the factories of the city. I will take for this property $600 cash. Call at this office or see John Wively.

Petition for New Road. At the last meeting of the County Commissioners Frank Boyd of Polk township filed a petition for the opening of a new road, J. W. Wade, Geo. Holt and Geo. McCullough, were instructed to look after it and if they deem it necessary it will probably be done soon.

Wall Paper At Your Price

Likely enough if you were given the opportunity you would not ask us to sell you wall paper as cheap as we are going to sell it without asking.

We have started a clearance sale and it means a clearance in fact. If you have the remotest idea of papering this fall, bring in the size of your rooms and let us give you some surprising prices. We wish to start next season with an entire new stock and we have in operation a sale that is going to make this possible.

Better pick soon, nothing to be gained by waiting

THEY WANT MUD. Lapaz Officials Think People Should Not Have Useless Things Like Crosswalks.

Special to the Republican: Lapaz, Oct. 11—Some time ago large petition was presented to our town council praying for the construction of a cement crosswalk from in front of the postoffice to the sidewalk on the east side of Michigan street.

The petition was signed by all the business men and the heavy tax payers of the town and yet the men chosen to do the wishes of the people consigned the petition to the waste basket and the people to wade the mud at the busiest crossing in town until the term of office of these "dutiful" officers expire and up-to-date men chosen in their places.

Of course we know it is proper to suppose an official knows better than any one else, but it looks "queer."

At Keith's Theatre. The biggest show of the season so far will be offered at B. F. Keith's Theatre, Indianapolis, next week beginning Monday matinee, Oct. 16th. The feature production will be a bright, lavish musical comedy called "The Photosop," a highly embellished novelty with a cast of twenty-five clever people mostly pretty girls who are equipped with gorgeous wardrobes and blessed with good looks and ability to sing and dance well. Another surprising novelty will be the first appearance in Indianapolis of Princess Barotoff, a beautiful Russian noblewoman who will offer her delightful entertainment exactly as she gave it in Paris during the past summer when she created a genuine furore. A thrilling dramatic sketch will be given under the title of "The Little Stranger," one of the most forceful and at the same time artistic short dramas ever offered in variety. A quantity of starchy nonsense will be given by Raymond and Caverly, those famous exponents of German fun and dialect songs. The Cole de Lasse trio are three wonderfully skillful wire performers who have recently been imported from Europe for exclusive appearance on the Keith Circuit. Another big European sensation will be seen in the appearance of the Havelocks. Four other big acts will be seen on the bill. Latest imported motion picture novelties will be offered at the close of each performance.

MARRIAGES

Borton-Mason. Mr. Louis Borton and Miss Eva Mason were married at six o'clock Saturday evening at the Episcopal church, Rev. Mr. Ivins officiating. The matter was to be a very secret one, but a reporter of the Republican discovered the intentions of the couple.

This wedding had been expected by a number of their Plymouth friends for some time, but no one knew exactly when it was to occur. The couple left for South Bend on the 6:30 Vandalia train, where a number of their friends were in waiting to bid them God speed. Mr. and Mrs. Borton will leave South Bend for the southland where they will make their home.

Yazel-Uplinger. At the U. B. parsonage on Saturday, Oct. 7, 1911, Willis R. Yazel of Plymouth and Miss Phebie Uplinger of Bourbon were united in marriage. Rev. S. H. Yager officiating. Willis Yazel is an energetic young man, well known in the city. Miss Phebie Uplinger is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Amos Uplinger of Bourbon and a lady highly esteemed. Mr. and Mrs. Yazel will take a short wedding tour after this they will make Plymouth their future home. May they have a long and happy life in the wish of their many friends.

Hazelwood-Davis. Mr. Samuel Hazelwood and Miss Nellie Davis, both of Culver, were married Wednesday at the Manse by Rev. W. C. Logan. The groom is the son of John Hazelwood and drives a school wagon at Culver. The bride is a daughter of Robert Davis. The couple will make their home at Culver.

Sands-Fritz. Ed Sands, who lives on west Garro street, says that he was married at St. Joseph, Mich., on Sunday, Oct. 1, to Miss Oma J. Fritz, of Cincinnati.

DEATHS

Mrs. E. W. Wooldrich. Mrs. E. W. Wooldrich of north-east of Culver died Sunday at her home at about 9 o'clock. She was about 43 years of age of leaves a husband and seven children. The funeral arrangements have not yet been completed.

J. P. Parks. Dr. J. P. Parks of Bourbon died Friday evening at about 10 o'clock. Mr. Parks had been ill for about two months and his death was not unexpected. The funeral will be held Monday at 2 p. m. and burial made in the Bourbon cemetery.

Lowell Nehr. Lowell Nehr, the three months old son of Henry Nehr died Saturday morning at about 8 o'clock at his home in Bremen. The funeral was held this afternoon and interment made in the Bremen cemetery.

Bertha Fletcher. Bertha Fletcher, wife of O. Fletcher of Walnut died Thursday evening at about 7 o'clock. She was about 30 years of age and leaves a husband and three children, a girl and two boys. The funeral was held Sunday at 10:30 a. m. at the Walnut church and interment was made in the Richland Center cemetery.

Ernest Paul Dickson. Ernest Paul Dickson, the three months old child of Elias Dickson, died at the home of Earl Cox, Friday, Oct. 6. The child was a victim of stomach and bowel trouble, and had been ill about twenty days. The burial was made yesterday afternoon in the Poplar Grove cemetery, after a short funeral service at the Cox residence by Rev. S. A. Mow. The father lives near Lake Maxinkuckee, but was here visiting his sister, Mrs. Cox, when the baby took sick.

Jasper Mann. John W. Mann of Inwood, son of Jasper Mann, formerly of Inwood, received a telegram Oct. 5 stating that his father, Jasper Mann, had died on Wednesday, Oct. 4 and the remains would be interred at the National cemetery at Arlington, Va. Mr. Mann was 68 years, five months and 14 days old at the time of his death. Thus another of the old soldiers of Marshall county is gone and will appropriately rest in the National cemetery, near which were some of the first scenes of the great struggle in which he took part.

Funeral of John H. Chase. The funeral of John H. Chase was held this afternoon at the residence of L. M. Lauer, the service being conducted by Rev. Mr. Logan of the Presbyterian church. The burial was in Oak Hill cemetery.

John H. Chase was born in New York City February 27th, 1833, and died at the Soldiers' Home, Lafayette, Ind., October 3rd, 1911, aged 78 years, 7 months and 6 days.

His early boyhood was spent in the city of Newburg, on the Hudson where he followed various employ-

Garments that young man he turned westward and was successively employed on the Erie Canal, on railroad construction in Pennsylvania, and later on after moving to Indiana he had a contract for building a portion of the Lake Erie and Western railroad.

On March 26th, 1857, he was united in marriage to Mary J. Conger, and to them were born the following surviving children: Snyder Arthur, William Henry, Oliver Morton, Melvin A. and one daughter, Mrs. L. M. Lauer. They had two other children who died in infancy.

When the Civil war broke out Mr. Chase was engaged in farming in North township, Marshall county, Indiana, and while his heart was thoroughly aroused in the union cause, he could not leave his young family until 1864, when he enlisted in the 58th Regiment Indiana volunteer infantry, and was assigned to Company D, and served until the close of the war. While his company was not actively engaged in any great battle he saw considerable service with Sherman on his march to the sea.

After the close of the war Mr. Chase lived in Evert, Michigan, and for awhile the family lived in New Albany, Indiana, and for a time at Saginaw, Michigan. In 1885 he returned to Marshall county and has resided in Plymouth most of the time since, leaving for the Soldiers' Home at Lafayette, Indiana, about ten years ago where he continued to reside until his death.

Mr. Chase was a man of few words, of a rather retiring disposition, gentle and kind and always ready to perform acts of tender sympathy for friends and neighbors. He was a good citizen, never aggressive in his methods, but withal a man of fixed views and purpose in any undertaking. He took an active interest in civic affairs and was a firm believer in the best citizenship, and was always found ready to do his duty when called upon.

Mr. Chase did not unite with any church but frequently attended services at various churches and in religious affairs was broad and tolerant.

In all the places in which he resided he made many warm friends and few if any enemies.

During his last residence in Plymouth he joined and was a faithful member of the Grand Army Post, and of the Grand Army Post at the Soldiers' Home.

Obituary. Charles H. Harris was born in Argos, Marshall county, May 3rd, 1870 and departed this life at his home in Plymouth, Oct. 6, 1911, aged 41 years, 5 months and 11 days. He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Harris of Indianapolis and was a young man that grew to manhood in Plymouth.

Mr. Harris was united in marriage to Miss Harriet Patterson on June 7, 1884. To this union were born nine children, five sons and four daughters. Four children survive their father: Mrs. Arizona Ostrum, Don and Delbert of Plymouth, and Mrs. Zna. Himes also of Plymouth. His companion superceded him Aug. 5, 1903. He was united to Miss Nellie Ostrum, who survives him, in 1910.

The deceased had been in poor health during the past year and on Thursday evening he was taken with a hemorrhage and within fifteen minutes his spirit had taken its flight. He was an industrial worker and six young men from the Novelty Works acted as pall-bearers. He leaves to mourn their loss one brother, James of Plymouth, one half brother, Dennis of Indianapolis a companion, four children, three step children, Edgar, Albert and Vergel Morrow and a host of friends. The funeral took place at the U. B. church Sunday, Oct. 8, Rev. S. H. Yager officiating, and was largely attended.

Brotherhood Meeting. The Presbyterian Brotherhood will hold its monthly meeting at the Manse Friday night. It will be a business meeting and a good attendance is desired. Men are invited to bring a friend.

TESTED AND PROVEN. There is a Heap of Solace in Being Able to Depend Upon a Well-Earned Reputation.

For months Plymouth readers have seen the constant expression of praise for Doan's Kidney Pills, and read about the good work they have done in this locality. Not another remedy ever produced such convincing proof of merit.

Edwin Gibson, 742 S. Michigan St. Plymouth, Ind., says, "I was troubled by a weakness of my kidneys for several years. My back was lame and painful and I was hardly able to stoop or lift. I finally began using Doan's Kidney Pills and they soon removed the pain in my back and improved my health. Doan's Kidney Pills deserve all the credit I can give them. I have no reason to change my opinion of this remedy expressed in the testimonial given three years ago. I have had but little kidney trouble since then."

A Quick Recovery. "Mamma," said Johnny, "if you will let me go just this one time I won't ask for anything to eat."

"All right," said his mother. "Get your hat."

Johnny, perched on the edge of a big chair, became restless as savory odors came from the region of the kitchen. At last he blurted out:

"There's lots of pie and cake in the house."

The astonishing face of his mother recalled his promise and he added:

"But what's that to me?"—From "Success Magazine."
