Some malicious person of not even ordinary "horse sense," imposed upon editor Neapass, of the Marmont Herald, by sending him a notice of a church social that was to meet at the home of a supposed member of the church. It seems to have raised quite a breeze around his ears, and now he asserts, whoever brings a church notice for publication, must also produce an affidavit to his character and reliability. It is a pity such fools cannot be discovered and shown up in their true light.

James A. Gilmore and wife attended the golden wedding of George W. Bennett and wife, at Warsaw, Ind., Tuesday last. This is the second golden wedding Mr. and Mrs. Gilmore has attended in Warsaw, within the past six months.
Our correspondent at Bourbon says there is a movement on foot to raise the saloon license in that town for $75 to $150. This movement is headed by the ministers who have drawn up a petition which has been signed by many prominent citizens.
Engine No. 194 pulling the local freight train on the Pennsylvania road, east on Monday morning last, broke down just east of Inwood. A break in the brake chain caused it, and after a short delay the trouble was remedied and the train proceeded.
The boxes ordered for hydrant covers were placed in position Monday, their appearance is neither attractive nor beautiful. Although their usefulness may in part compensate for this defect, it might be possible to render them less unsightly by a coat or two of paint.
A number of local sportsmen indulged in a trap shoot at the fair ground, Thursday afternoon. They have secured one of the latest improved traps for peoria black birds, and it is probable that in the near future a first class gun club will be organized in this city.

There will be an effort made to try the fidelity of the single tax. Five hundred families from Pullman, Illinois, will remove to Alabama, and settle upon two thousand acres of land. The location is about twelve miles from Mobile. The result will be watched with interest.
The Bremen Enquirer says: The young ladies of Elkhart have formed a foot ball team, and are all "high kickers." He further insinuates that the denizens of his burgh would pay one dollar for reserved seats, in order to witness a game by this unique club.
The city of New York claims a saloon to every 200 inhabitants, Chicago 212, and Philadelphia 870. They are all very modest in their claims. We know of a town in Illinois with a population of over 6,000, that has a saloon to every eighty-one inhabitants. And yet no missionaries have been sent into that field.
Three years ago "The Burglar," when produced at the Madison Square Theatre, was the most potent drawing attraction at any of the theatres in New York and it is produced in tone with all the attention to detail that characterizes the production at the home theatre. As pretty and interesting a play as ever graced the boards of any theatre is "The Burglar."

"I don't never read them lyn' newspapers," said Farmer Bahly to the gentleman in the next seat. "That's right," repeated his fellow passenger, "you can't believe a word they say." And on the strength of the slight acquaintance thus formed, the polished stranger sold the self-sufficient countryman two brass bricks for $1,500 each.
Several of the young people from this place attended the opening ball of the season, at Plymouth, given by the Alpha Pleasure Club, of that city, on Thanksgiving eve, Wednesday the 28th inst. Evidently the Club knows how to entertain, for all speak in highly complimentary terms of the manner in which they were received and entertained.—Argos Reflector.
Do you remember, says an exchange how pleased you used to be when your parents called at the school you were attending? Do you remember how you would study so as to be sure of a perfect lesson when your class was called on before your father and mother? Well you have children of your own now, who are attending school. Have you ever thought of visiting the school where your girls and boys attend? Remember the pupils of to-day are as well pleased to have their parents visit them as you were in your school days, besides it encourages them to do better work and also convinces the teachers that you are interested in the work.

Geo. W. Baxter and wife, John Baxter and wife, and Ed Baxter and wife will attend a family reunion at the home of John Shatto, at Etna Green. Mr. Shatto will celebrate his 90 birthday, Dec. 7. E. church. He was the youngest of the family, aged 4 years, 7 months and 1 day old. A bright and happy child, the pet of the household.
J. P. Allen of Hibbard, died last week of typhoid fever. Mr. Allen was but twenty-six years of age, and leaves a wife and two small children. Mr. Allen was the day operator at the Vandalia depot at that place. The deceased had accepted the position of correspondent for the INDEPENDENT, and the last communication from him was written while he lay in bed wasting away by the ravages of disease. The sympathy of the entire community where he resided is extended to the bereaved family.
To be a gentleman on all occasions, is a trait that should be studied by all. Especially is this commendable by young men, if they are holding a position where they are frequently coming in contact with ladies. If a lady should happen to make a mistake and enter a clothing house instead of a drug store and inquire for an article foreign to wearing apparel, it does become a young man to invite a "horse laugh," when the would be purchaser discovers her error.
Wednesday afternoon Dr. Knott missed his horse and buggy which had been standing at the corner of Garro and Michigan streets. His first thought was that some horse thief had appropriated it. Investigation proved later that Gene Marshall had borrowed the rig for a few minutes, under the impression that it belonged to Dr. Linkenhelt. Mutual explanations ensued and Dr. Knott was glad to get his horse and buggy under his control. The joke was about equally divided between Knott, Marshall and Linkenhelt.
A Card.
TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:
It is with a grateful heart I acknowledge my thanks to the faithful and humane few who purchased tickets for my lecture, and to those who honored me with their presence. The twenty five cent pieces contributed and the personal presence of the brave few, were the straw to the drowning man, and as assuredly as the sun shines and grass grows and will continue, so will I continue to shine and grow. As you would, that others feel toward you for kindness extended, so do I feel toward all who have extended a helping hand, for all such are numbered with friends indeed to one in need. Come thou fount of every blessing, tune my heart to sing thy praise and keep it in tune with humane sentiments. Tune the heart of the heartless, puncture the bump of arrogance and minister to the prejudiced mind, if any such there be in Plymouth. To all who assisted in making my lecture materialize and especially to the few womanly women who were present, my prayer is—May your shadow never grow less, and to the members of J. Hansen's male quartette, I want to return my most sincere thanks for the kind way in which they donated their services, and the excellent singing which added much to the enjoyment of my audience.
Sincerely,
V. P. KIRK.
University Extension Lecture
The lecture delivered on Tuesday evening last, the fourth of the course was one of the most interesting so far. The views exhibited by the powerful calcium light were appropriate and beautiful, and added not a little to the power of the interesting lecture delivered by Prof. Howard B. Grose, of Chicago University. The next lecture of this course which will be delivered on Tuesday next, will have for its subject "The history of England since 1792," and will be given by the same lecturer. This lecture and the balance of the series will be given in the K. of P. hall. It is only due to the effort of those citizens who have been instrumental in bringing these Professors to this city and presenting such lectures in our midst to day, that these entertainments should be accorded liberal patronage.
PROBATE CAUSE NO. 1229.
In the Circuit Court of Marshall County, Indiana, December term, 1894. Charles M. Walker, Administrator of Estate of Elliott Walker deceased, vs. Anna M. Walker et al.
To Elliott B. Walker, Andrew Walker, Mary Emery, Jane Watkins, Francis Marion Walker, Minerva Bollinger.
You are severally hereby notified that the estate aforesaid, has filed in the Circuit Court of Marshall County, Indiana, a petition asking you defendants thereto, and praying therein for an order and decree of said Court authorizing the sale of certain Real Estate belonging to the estate of said decedent, and in said petition described, to make assets for the payment of the debts and liabilities of said estate; and that said petition, so filed and pending, is set for hearing in said Circuit Court at the Court house in Plymouth, Indiana, on the 2nd judicial day of the December term, 1894, at said Court, the same being the 10th day of January 1895.
Witness, the Clerk and Seal of said Court, this 6th day of December 1894.
D. A. SNYDER, Clerk.
