

PRESENCE OF MIND.

Irate Father—Didn't I tell you not to go skating?

Quick-Witted Son—Stay where you be, pop. The ice is awful thin.—Truth.

LAPAZ.

April 23, 1896.

Mrs. Yockey a music teacher, of Tyner City, makes this town every Wednesday, she has quite a class here at present.

buggy. The horse arrived home safely but was considerably lacerated from coming in contact with the wire fences.

Mr. Dean an old Sunday-school worker here bade the members good bye last Sunday. His class of old ladies presented him with a valuable bible and a handkerchief. He will make his future home in Cando, North Dakota.

Mr. Robinson and wife, of Plymouth, were visiting their niece, Mrs. Mc Chesney, over Sunday.

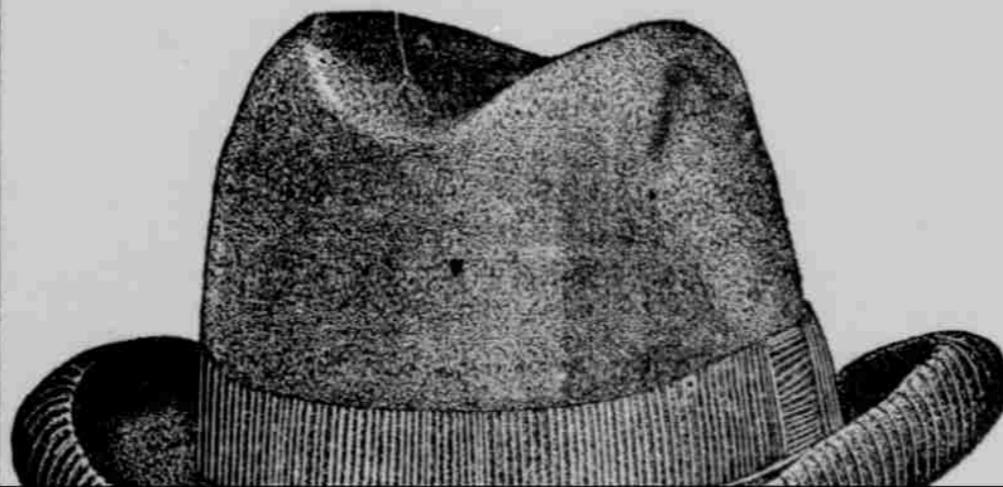

While Dan Point, who lives three miles north-east was working in the woods a tree fell on him and pinned him to the ground. Several ribs were broken and some internal injuries were sustained. Dr. Holtendorff was called.

The convention at the county line church was a success. The crowd and dinner were immense. The topics were ably discussed by their authors.

LaPaz citizens send a full delegation to the Lake of the Woods every night

Again that . .

“Longley” Hat

A Terrible Crime!

A MAN HUNG

around our store for an hour, getting prices on our goods, and in conclusion said he could buy good goods cheaper of us than any other place in the county. Below we give you a few prices we gave him:

Machine thread, 2c. per spool.

Steel shears, 21c. per pair.

Good seamless hosiery, 5c. per pair.

Steel frame wringers, $1.49.

Good crash, 4½c. per yard.

Tea and coffee pots, 8c. up.

Dinner pails, 23c.