

The state superintendent of public instruction has issued a pamphlet of 54 pages containing the school laws enacted by the recent session of the general assembly.

A number of well-known eastern men have signed a petition to the president to stop the Filipino war. We have no doubt the president would be glad to stop it.

The Michigan City and Laporte papers announce that the Indiana Electric Railway company will extend its line to both of those places during the coming summer. A street railway between Laporte and Michigan City! That sounds like a fairy tale. What those cities need most is a Chinese wall between them.—Elkhart Truth.

Congressman Landis says he finds his duties in the house of representatives very congenial and has not made up his mind whether it will be for his best interests to enter the gubernatorial race. He says there is plenty of time to think about the matter. Senator Newby of Knights-town is an avowed candidate for lieutenant governor on the republican ticket.

The California anti-cartoon bill prohibits the printing of any portrait of a citizen, except a public official, without his consent, or of any caricature "calculated to reflect on the honor, dignity or political motives of the original, or to hold him up to public hatred, ridicule or contempt." It needs but the governor's signature to become a law, and is the outcome of the fight over the senatorial deadlock.

Regret is now being expressed that the emergency clause was stricken from the township government act. Attention has been called to the fact that as the law will not go into effect until June 1 and it provides that the circuit judges at the following term of court shall appoint the advisory boards, and as in some of the counties the following term of court will not be held till October or November, too late for the September levies, much inconvenience is going to result. It was to prevent this condition that the framers of the law inserted the emergency clause. The attention of the attorney-general has been called to the matter.—Goshen Democrat.

A Henry county farmer has solved the problem of "what shall we do with sugar beets without a sugar factory?" by feeding the beets to his cattle. He claims that he is feeding ninety head of the "evenest" cattle to be found in eastern Indiana, weighing right at 1,200 pounds each. He has them divided into two herds of forty-five each, and their rations consist of good corn, bran and sugar beets, and every beast of the two herds will drop bran or corn for a chew of the rich vegetable. The Henry county farmer furnishes one more vindication of the wisdom of the Indiana legislature in its refusal to vote a sugar bounty.

Another law of great importance is that authorizing machine voting. This is entirely in the interest of honest elections. We have learned in Indiana that it is possible to "beat" even the Australian system. But it is difficult to see how the most ingenious corruptionist can successfully tamper with the machines. Under the new system the voting will be absolutely secret, automatic, and without even a hint of how the citizen votes. Moreover as each vote is registered the count is made, and when the voting is over the result is given instantaneously. The change is also in the interest of economy. We hope the local authorities everywhere will use the power given them to secure honest elections.—Indianapolis News.

Forbes. 2w. John Behring's little daughter Hazel is quite ill with the chicken pox. Wm. Pierce, a traveling man, left this city today. He has been confined with a serious illness for some time. Jno. S. Garver, one of the oldest citizens in Marshall county who lives on the Burr Oak flats, is very low with pneumonia. W. W. Clark of Stark county has been visiting his relative, John Lowery of Burr Oak, who is very low. Mr. Clark was in Plymouth today. The two children Ethel and Mary, of Mr. Fanning, who have been sick, the former with peritonitis resulting from an injury, are recovering. Mrs. Wm. Gregg, of Minnehaha, North Dakota, is very sick at the home of her father D. C. Smith. She returned here for medical treatment. Henry Rankard has sold his farm implements, etc., and taken his family to Harbor Springs, Mich., where he expects to reside indefinitely. Under a new law passed by the legislature, all contracts for bridges and public works over $100 must be let by bids. The law went into effect March 1. The Reed band was entertained by Henry Stein last night the occasion being the anniversary of his birthday. A rousing good time was the result. P. I. Grube says he is sorry of the hard feeling existing between himself and Eugene Marshall, and hopes that hereafter quiet may reign and all be forgiven. Late licenses for marriage issued by the county clerk are those of Marion L. Hershberger and Catherine R. Suter on March 11th, and George Schambeck and Minnie Keenly on March 13th. Last evening the council granted a petition asking for a crosswalk on South street. Work was begun on the walk today. Such is the dispatch with which orders are executed in Plymouth. A decision of the commissioner of internal revenue does away with the order requiring that a 10 cent document revenue stamp be affixed to the bonds of guardians, administrators and executors. This decision will be generally appreciated. During the past three weeks twelve people have been killed and forty-four seriously injured by explosions of gas in the Indiana gas belt, and property amounting to $300,000 destroyed. Hunting for gas leaks with lighted matches caused most of the explosions. Gov. Mount expresses himself in full sympathy with the new exemption law. He thinks it will encourage men to invest in homes. Under this law an exemption of $700 is allowed, but it is necessary to file an affidavit with the county auditor during the month of March or April. The Eastern Star chapter had a delightful meeting in their hall last night. A large attendance, comprising sixty or more members, were present. Lunch was served and social pastime resorted to. One of the principal points in the business session was the initiation of two new members. The court house officials and employees were treated to fruit or cigars this morning according to their preference. The out-going auditor Oscar Porter and his successor H. H. Miller were the liberal givers. Mr. Porter has been a faithful servant to the public and his best wishes go with him. Mr. Miller will be a worthy successor. James Dyer, near Inwood, bought a township right, as he supposed, to sell an infallible cure for rheumatism, the alleged state agent selling it to him for $30 and also selling six bottles of the cure. When he went to have the receipt filled he found that it was an old timer that had been going the rounds of the country for years, in the Chase Receipt Book. Admiral Dewey now has a salary of $40 a day. A little while ago the admiral complained that he had no buttons on his coat. He, probably, will have a double portion of buttons now, as he can well afford to buy them and to use a few extra toothpicks every day. The salary is none too much for the admiral, though. He has earned all that he is likely to get.

From Wednesday's Daily.

Harry Ruge is still confined to his bed. Selected Golden Dent seed corn. Forbes' Seed Store. 2w. O. G. Soice and son Claud went to Valparaiso this morning. Claud will take a commercial course there. The delay in issuing the "Headlight" has been caused by the sickness of Benj. Solomon, who is still ill at Milwaukee. Levi Hartman, of Culver, Seth Henderson, of Mentone, and Calvin Pierce-ton, of Argos, were before the pension board for examination, in this city, today. The Ben Hur lodge gave a box social in their hall last night. Conversation and social diversions made the evening a delightful one. The attendance was good. Why don't you plan to raise a few Sugar Beets. They have great value for stock feed and the seed will not cost you much if you buy it at Forbes' Seed Store. 2w. Herbert Gibson, who has been employed at H. A. Shambaugh's shoe store, will resign his position within a few weeks and devote his attention entirely to the sheep business. Mrs. G. A. Williams was called to Knox this morning on account of the death of her father, Stephen Cole. Mr. Cole has a number of friends and acquaintances in Plymouth. Last Friday evening the Hatzel company gave their minstrel performance at the Schafer school house. Some slight difficulty presented itself in obtaining permission of the school mistress to open the door but that was overcome amicably. Miss Jennie Southworth received a few friends at her home last night in honor of Misses Mae Griffin and Nettie Myers, of Bourbon, who are her guests. Refreshments were served and the ordinary sources of amusement were resorted to. A highly enjoyable evening was the inevitable result. Bert Stansbury transferred several sheep in a wagon from Argos to Plymouth yesterday. When he had traveled about half of the distance he discovered that one of the animals had escaped. It may be imagined that the state of his mind was not the most placid when he turned to retrace his steps and search for the lost one. Editor Swain, of the Hammond News, last Saturday trimmed up Editor Towle, of the Hammond Leader. Towle wrote a cowardly, insulting article about Swain's wife, which caused the attack. Swain was arrested and fined $9.71, which was raised by a popular subscription ten times over by Hammond citizens and presented to Swain. Samuel Cox and his wife, Angeline Cox, and their neighbor, Mrs. Mary Firestone, of Ligonier, are in jail at Goshen charged with shoplifting and every indication points to an early indictment and a quick trial of the charge. They did a wholesale business at the county seat of Elkhart county, but were detected with a raft of plunder. They had three valises full of stolen goods. A pleasant surprise awaited Mr. and Mrs. Cleveland today on their return from Kentucky. During their absence their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Zach Tanner, had completely refitted and furnished the house of Hugh Brownlee, and today the parental couple were lovingly invited to take possession. Bert Cleveland added to the value of the present by placing a handsome new Majestic range in the kitchen. Several cars were derailed and the services of the wreck train were required before the right of way was cleared. This is the second accident of the kind on the same spot within a short time. Elder Brenam, of Goshen, arrived today noon and will assist in conducting services at the U. B. church on the Michigan road four and one-half miles north. Mrs. Sam Parker has returned from California and describes her trip as a delightful one, as indeed it must have been through a land of perpetual summer, sunshine and flowers. It should be remembered that a person desiring to take advantage of the provisions of the new exemption law must file a statement with the county auditor during the next six weeks. Fred Daufel has become proprietor of the Windsor. Under the new management it is expected that the house will do a thriving business. Look for his advertisement in this paper tomorrow. The fish law will have the effect of depopulating many summer resorts in Indiana and send thousands who have heretofore spent their vacation in Indiana to Michigan waters where fishing is lawful. The death of Jacob Koontz is announced. He was one of the old residents of Union township and has lived at Culver a number of years. At an early date he came here from Tennessee in which state he was born. News has come confirming the death of Grove Pomeroy, who died March 10 at Lompoc, Cal. He will be known by many of our old residents as a nephew of Mrs. A. P. Elliott and a cousin of the Pomeroy's of this city. His father, Mark Pomeroy, was one of the old residents of this county. One of the principal acts of the commissioners court last week was the election of Peter Krueyer as superintendent of the county farm for the coming term of two years. The present term expires April 1. Mr. Krueyer has conducted the farm in the best manner possible and merits the office. Charles Carey, a conductor on the Pennsylvania road, was killed last night at Arcola. The accident was brought about by him falling between two engines as they were about to collide. Mr. Carey is well known in this city having lived here a number of years. His mother, Mrs. Galentine lives in the country east of Inwood. Last evening the new literary society composed of young men, completed its organization. It will hereafter be called the "Self Culture" club. In the election of officers J. A. Shunk became president; Ed. Corbin, secretary; Dr. Stevens, treasurer; Adam Wise, director. The object of the club is for the general enlightenment of its members. A meeting of the Michigan, Indiana & St. Louis railway company will be held at Plymouth on Tuesday, April 11. This company is working for the construction of an electric line through some of the most prosperous counties in Northern Indiana, striking Plymouth, Bourbon, Warsaw, and Goshen. Much right of way has been donated. In a modest way the re-organization of the Indiana national guard will begin by the mustering in of a company in each congressional district, says the Indianapolis Sun. The state turned over its equipment to the general government and has not the funds to equip a guard at once as large as was the guard taken into the federal service. The Indiana penitentiary at Michigan City will next week lose two of its largest contractors and 200 more convicts will be forced to join the 300 already in idleness. The George P. Dodge company has for nearly twenty years had its boots and shoes made by convict labor at the prison, but the law forbidding the renewal of contracts at the penitentiary forces the firm which has been operating at Michigan City to quit. All the machinery will be moved to Chicago.

Will be Provided For. Harvey Whitaker, the boy that was refused admission at the Julia E. Work Home last week, which was told exclusively in the Independent, was yesterday turned over to his mother at Logansport. It is said that she is heart broken at the turn affairs have taken and promises to give the child a home as soon as she can make arrangements. She was divorced from Daniel Whitaker, now of Galveston, Indiana, two years ago. Counterfeit Money in Circulation. A number of counterfeit quarters are in circulation in this locality. They are apparently made of a soft metal and silver plated and bear the date of 1891. They are good imitations and will readily pass. If thrown down the lack of the proper ring to the metal exposes the fraud. Advertisers Letter. Letters remaining unclaimed in the Plymouth, Ind., postoffice for the week ending March 14, 1899: Susie Carpenter, Mrs. Mary Knouff, John K. Leehr, Louis Thompson, Will Wheaton. A fee of one cent will be charged on all letters advertised. Please say "Advertised" when calling for the letters. W. H. CONGER, P.M.

Council Meeting. Monday evening council met and discussed questions with usual alacrity and wisdom. A number of minor petitions for the building of crosswalks, etc., were considered and referred each to the proper committee. Among others was a prayer of uncommon concern because it denoted that the popular desire for street paving had at last materialized into a real effort to bring about such an object. The names of most of the property owners on Sophia street had been affixed to the appeal, which was in substance as follows: That the street be paved with vitrified brick to length extending from its terminus on Michigan street to the western limits of the Novelty works; said street to be 50 feet wide and divided in a manner so that the center be paved to the extent of 28 feet, while 11 feet be allowed on each side for lawn and sidewalk. After deliberation in the council handed back the petition to the petitioners with the recommendation that certain additional names be secured so that an order to pave the entire street might not be deemed an impropriety. This last action was taken in consideration of the fact that only seven hundred feet remained after that portion of the street mentioned in the petition was disposed of. Property owners along this section were judged to be in favor of paving. The investigating committee appointed on street paving declined the privilege of making a report. They gave assurance, however, that the subject was receiving due attention. It is entirely probable that their report will be made at next meeting. Senator Drummond's Open Letter. State Senator Drummond's open letter shows up the Indianapolis Sentinel, in its inimical style, he strips the thin mask from traitorous and slimy sheet, and holds the dirty thing up to public gaze in its true colors. Read the open letter in this issue of the Public Press. Senator Drummond is one among the ablest democrats in northern Indiana; he is an honest, conscientious and true representative of the democracy of his section of the state, and is respected by all who have the honor of his acquaintance. The late Indiana senate, not only commended his personal conduct, but with one acclamation tendered the confidence and esteem of that body to him in unmeasured terms. Republicans as well as democrats stayed with him like brothers. On the other hand, the resolution endorsing the Sentinel was speedily laid on the table by a vote of 48 to 2 in the senate. The Sentinel is thoroughly despised by the true democracy of Indiana, and now that its mask is torn from its hideous face, it will cease to do further injury to the party of Jefferson, Jackson, Hendricks and Bryan.—New Albany Public Press. No Efforts are Spared. The People's Drug Store is without doubt one of the nearest stores of its kind in Northern Indiana. Everything is tastefully arranged and the goods handed are fresh and selected with the greatest possible care. You will make no mistake if you select your fancy stationary, toilet articles, toilet soap, etc., at the People's Drug Store. It has been the constant aim of the establishment to cater to the wishes of the public in every particular and if in any instance it has failed to satisfy the most fastidious in the selection of its goods, such failure has not yet come to light. It pays to trade, where strenuous efforts are made to please. wtf
