

The Sentinel.

TUESDAY, JUNE 2.

Indiana independence must bear in mind that the tenth of June has been selected by the Illinois farmers and independents for the assembling of the hosts in that state.

It is especially stated by the officers that everybody interested in the manufacture and handling of butter in the United States is invited to the butter convention, June 17, in this city.

One of the best journalists of Indiana, whose paper is a credit to its locality, writes in a friendly private note of the June 10 convention.

We shall certainly send a delegation from here respectable not alone in numbers, but in moral strength and political influence also.

If the Sentinel's advice weighs with the people who meet here on the 10th of June, sound currency and free trade shall be explicitly stipulated in the platform.

The controller of the currency has lately sent to the house a comprehensive report in reply to the resolution of Mr. Merriam.

All the commercial papers of New York are sounding the note of warning that the city is about to lose her commerce, or a large part of it.

Michigan has felt the reform impulse. A call has been issued by a legislative committee signed by members of both parties. This document sets forth these generally recognized truths:

ambition of Chicago is backed by executive promptitude. She aspires to become practically a "seaport town," to carry on her traffic directly with foreign countries.

Intellectual and religious instruction to each prisoner, and all jail-buildings should be commodious, healthy and provide accommodations for physical exercise and recreation.

Miss Carpenter is strongly opposed to the contract system for making profitable the labor of the convicts. All these suggestions recommend themselves as eminently practical and humane.

When the contemplative patriot feels disposed to enter the vale of despond because of the political degeneracy of the day and generation, there are some compensations which may tend to lift the burden of gloom and uphold the ancient pride of Americans.

From some quarter the Lafayette Courier claims to have obtained the key-note of the republican campaign of the fall.

Hanging and kindred "hideousities," of modern practice are in a fair way to be swept aside by the general discussion carried on against them.

to the Courier's temperance plank, and expects to make a fair and square fight on the other side of the question.

Oliver hasn't given up the snip of inflation by any means. While the country is laughing at his late letter, which virtually makes him a foe of inflation, it has come to pass that the office-holders in the state are working to get delegates sent to the republican convention.

Missouri farmers are giving the loyal partisan mind trouble. The state, it may be remembered, is strongly democratic, and gave Greeley its electoral vote.

That was a signal piece of common sense, as well as legal well doing, which came from the Pittsburg judge in deciding on the crusade question.

There is to be a fair, square fight this fall. The republican party in county and state will endorse the Baxter bill—and give no uncertain sound on finance, monopoly and all the great questions of the hour.

How near to the throne the Courier may be able to speak for the state, can be only a matter of conjecture.

Illustrated by the court which had vindicated the cause of the women, promptly suppressing their expressions of joy, and silencing the suggestion of a prayer meeting in the court room with a warning that it would be an act of contempt, making them liable to be sent to jail.

Jeremiah Wilson of this state is a man of a thousand good works and but one conspicuous error. He fell into the crime of the grab; before and since that fatal error, he built himself up in the respect and admiration of every man who loves an incorruptible public official.

In the case of ordinary chronic office-seekers it is always fair to consider an announcement of this kind as an intimation that the person making it is particularly desirous of avoiding retirement from public life.

General Coburn did a masterful work in the army bill. To appreciate the prodigious proportions of the thing you should understand the forces in opposition.

THE GRANGERS CONDEMNED. THE REFORMED PRESBYTERIANS DO NOT APPROVE OF THEM. PHILADELPHIA, June 1.—At the session of the Reformed Presbyterian synod to-day the committee on the order known as patrons of husbandry and grangers presented their report which states that they emphatically and unequivocally condemn this and all other secret orders as ensnaring, deceiving and sinful in themselves, as prejudicial to the best interests of society, and as a lawless and ineffectual way of obtaining redress of grievances.

BURGLES AND HORSES. HARDWARE STORE OPERATORS VISIT CAMBRIDGE CITY AGAIN—THE COMING RACES—MORE ARRIVALS—JOINING THE NATIONAL ASSOCIATION. CAMBRIDGE CITY, IND., June 1.—The burglars who made a specialty of hardware stores in this vicinity about a year ago, are again on the war-path.

A furious opposition met the bill on every stage, and General Coburn was denounced as a demagogue catering to vulgar popular prejudices. The fight against it will be doubled in the Senate and we shall see how much power the lobby has then.

A combination of artists and journalists has been formed in Paris for the purpose of hissing the immoral drama off the stage. The three county commissioners of Barnwell county, South Carolina, convicted of corruption, have been sentenced respectively to ten years, nine years, and thirteen months in the penitentiary.

Illustrated by the court which had vindicated the cause of the women, promptly suppressing their expressions of joy, and silencing the suggestion of a prayer meeting in the court room with a warning that it would be an act of contempt, making them liable to be sent to jail.

Jeremiah Wilson of this state is a man of a thousand good works and but one conspicuous error. He fell into the crime of the grab; before and since that fatal error, he built himself up in the respect and admiration of every man who loves an incorruptible public official.

In the case of ordinary chronic office-seekers it is always fair to consider an announcement of this kind as an intimation that the person making it is particularly desirous of avoiding retirement from public life.

General Coburn did a masterful work in the army bill. To appreciate the prodigious proportions of the thing you should understand the forces in opposition.

THE GRANGERS CONDEMNED. THE REFORMED PRESBYTERIANS DO NOT APPROVE OF THEM. PHILADELPHIA, June 1.—At the session of the Reformed Presbyterian synod to-day the committee on the order known as patrons of husbandry and grangers presented their report which states that they emphatically and unequivocally condemn this and all other secret orders as ensnaring, deceiving and sinful in themselves, as prejudicial to the best interests of society, and as a lawless and ineffectual way of obtaining redress of grievances.

BURGLES AND HORSES. HARDWARE STORE OPERATORS VISIT CAMBRIDGE CITY AGAIN—THE COMING RACES—MORE ARRIVALS—JOINING THE NATIONAL ASSOCIATION. CAMBRIDGE CITY, IND., June 1.—The burglars who made a specialty of hardware stores in this vicinity about a year ago, are again on the war-path.

A furious opposition met the bill on every stage, and General Coburn was denounced as a demagogue catering to vulgar popular prejudices. The fight against it will be doubled in the Senate and we shall see how much power the lobby has then.

COUNTERFEITERS CAUGHT.

THE DETECTIVES IN CINCINNATI—THE PERSECUTION OF THE GANG—TRICKS OF THE TRADE.

The Cincinnati Enquirer of the 30th contains the following account of a haul of counterfeiters in that city: The largest and about the only thorough strike the counterfeiters of Cincinnati ever got they received yesterday from five detectives of Uncle Sam's secret service.

ASSUMED NAMES. The chief of police was not aware of their presence. In various ways they were interfered with by the police, unwittingly, to be sure, but no interference succeeded in extracting from them their mission and true character.

FIFTY CENT CURRENCY.

Mollie Brown is noted as having been the mistress of Charles Ulrich, the celebrated counterfeit plate engraver sent from this city for eleven years for that crime.

THE GRANGERS CONDEMNED.

THE REFORMED PRESBYTERIANS DO NOT APPROVE OF THEM.

PHILADELPHIA, June 1.—At the session of the Reformed Presbyterian synod to-day the committee on the order known as patrons of husbandry and grangers presented their report which states that they emphatically and unequivocally condemn this and all other secret orders as ensnaring, deceiving and sinful in themselves, as prejudicial to the best interests of society, and as a lawless and ineffectual way of obtaining redress of grievances.

BURGLES AND HORSES.

HARDWARE STORE OPERATORS VISIT CAMBRIDGE CITY AGAIN—THE COMING RACES—MORE ARRIVALS—JOINING THE NATIONAL ASSOCIATION.

CAMBRIDGE CITY, IND., June 1.—The burglars who made a specialty of hardware stores in this vicinity about a year ago, are again on the war-path.

The interest in the coming races is largely increased by the arrival of one hundred additional horses, making the total number two hundred.