

WEATHER PREDICTIONS. CINCINNATI, Tuesday, March 2--Cool. Probably fair, or partly cloudy and cool, the next 24 hours.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

MONTHLY business meeting of Y. M. C. A. this evening.

REV. A. RITCHIE led the noon prayer meeting at Y. M. C. A. Hall today.

MEETING of Principals' Institute at Normal School Hall, next Saturday at 10 A. M.

MR. J. K. ENNETT, with his wife and child, passed through the city yesterday.

ANNUAL election of officers of Ohio Mechanics' Institute on Thursday evening.

AN overcoat thief relieved Gov. Noyes of his Ulster yesterday at Common Pleas Court Room No. 2.

THE spelling-school at Findlay Chapel occurs to-night, and the five-dollar gold piece will be there.

FIVE drunken females were locked up for safe keeping at the Ninth street Station-house last night.

A MEETING of those interested in the Temperance Fair, is to be held at Y. M. C. A. Hall, at 8 P. M., today.

MISS LORING, a returned missionary, will lecture this evening at the Presbyterian Church, Delhi, at 8 o'clock.

BIDS for a lot of iron trestles and cross-ties for the Southern road were opened yesterday and are being figured on.

THE Work-house Directors held their regular business meeting yesterday, transacting nothing of special importance.

THE Harugari Mannerbor gave their annual grand masked ball at Arbeiter Hall last night. It was very largely attended.

MEETING at the Y. M. C. A. Hall to-night, to complete arrangements for obtaining the services of Whittle and Bliss, the revivalists.

JACK GARDNER fell into the river near his coal boats last evening, but was pulled out, well soaked, by some parties who happened to be near by.

BENJAMIN WINTERS, colored, for assaulting James Bentley at Dodsworth's last night, was fined $5, and costs in the Police Court this morning.

FIFTEEN cars were required to bring into this city yesterday the passengers who left St. Louis by the Vandalia and Indianapolis, Cincinnati and Lafayette routes at one dollar each.

THERE is an exhibition at Wiswell's a model in plaster of the proposed monument of David Sinton. It is the work of Leopold Fetweis, of this city, but at present pursuing his studies in Rome, Italy.

THE rehearsal for tenors and basses of the Festival Chorus will be resumed on Thursday evening, March 4, 1875, at 7 1/2 o'clock, at Melodion Hall, and will continue weekly at the same time and place until further notice.

WYLLIE played fourteen games of checkers yesterday, winning all but two, which were "drawn." His stay will probably result as did the other, in a failure on the part of Cincinnati players to win a single game.

JOHN BAKER, arrested yesterday on the charge of obtaining under false pretenses, a receipted bill for $30, from the brewery firm of Foss, Schneider & Brenner, on Freeman street, had his case continued to the 9th of March, on account of the absence from the city of Mr. Logan, his attorney.

J. T. REESE, who swore out a warrant in the case of Frank Hyde, also caused the arrest of Frank Hyde yesterday on a charge of stealing 2,000 cigars. This morning he was arraigned in the Police Court and had his case continued till tomorrow morning. Bonds, $500.

THE Odd-fellows' Fair, at Greenwood Hall, from April 19th to the 25th, promises to be a grand affair. The Lodges of this jurisdiction have nearly three hundred commitments completing the arrangements. The Fair is in the interests of the Odd-fellows' Monumental Association.

A new ladies' society was organized yesterday, with the following officers: President, Julia Lindauer; Vice-President, Barbara Lazarus; Treasurer, Eva Spohn; Secretary, Babet Wertheimer; Financial Secretary, Rosa Bohn. The society takes the name of "The Daughters of Israel."

ROBERT (alias Frank) JORDAN, a lad of eighteen, was arrested last Friday, at the C. & D. depot, for breaking open a box and extracting two books, a lot of candies, cigars, &c., to the value of $4.00, the property of one Inskow. This morning he was convicted of the theft and sentenced to the Work-house for thirty days and to pay a fine of $50.

THE arrest of Mr. W. H. Trimble mentioned yesterday seems to have grown out of a misunderstanding between himself and his former partner, Mr. Reese, and the charge, it is believed by his friends, will be satisfactorily cleared up when an examination of the facts is made. Suspension of public opinion is asked by them until such examination.

MR. J. L. KECK, yesterday, at the office of the Police Court clerk, swore out a warrant for the arrest of Wm. Hood for libel, in publishing certain false and malicious statements in the Commercial last Friday against Mr. Keck. Hood, this morning in the Police Court, gave bail of $500 to answer to the charge on next Saturday.

HARRY WILSON, arrested by Officers Quinn and Ryan on the 25th of February, at 183 Race, for exhibiting gambling devices in a game of faro, was arraigned in the Police Court this morning, and sentenced to ten days in the Work-house and a fine of $100; but the sentence was suspended till the 12th of March to allow Mr. Fitzgerald to file a bill of exceptions.

A WELL-DRESSED young man, name unknown, on the pretense of being an employe in Cook's jewelry store, on Fifth street, yesterday confiscated Mrs. Edmondson, who keeps a notion store on the next square, of about $350 worth of goods. Mrs. Edmondson, who had claimed to be a "nephew of Uncle Charlie Cook," out of about the same amount. He represented to both ladies that the bills would be paid by Mr. Cook on their presentation. The ladies now, however, think otherwise.

ANOTHER thousand dollar daylight robbery was perpetrated yesterday afternoon, at about four o'clock. Sneak thieves entered the residence of Jacob Meyer, at No. 2 Moore street, while Mrs. Meyer was in the upper part of the building, and after chloroforming a young girl who lay asleep in the room, proceeded to rifle the trunks and bureau and succeeded in getting a note against Theodore Hill, Esq., for $800, another upon Mr. Carl Adas for $150, and $70 in money. No arrests have been made.

CONSTABLE MIKE GROGAN, the tried wheel-horse of Cincinnati's constabulary force, is on the track again in the Fourth Ward. The Fourth warders have had a good chance to find out that Mike is a man that means business.

THE Commencement exercises of Miami Medical College were held at Pike's tomorrow evening. The Cincinnati Orchestra furnish excellent music for the occasion and addresses will be delivered by Prof. John A. Murphy, M. D., and Hon. M. B. Hagans. The public are cordially invited to attend. The exercises will undoubtedly be as always the case in the commencement of this college, of a highly instructive nature, and will be well worthy the attention of all.

WILLIAM J. PRESCOTT is very much agitated over that game of checkers that Wylie did not lose when last in Cincinnati and wants a correction of his report. We should be glad to take Prescott's word for the matter, but for the trifling circumstance that Mr. Prescott was not present and a STAR representative was. We know what we are talking about and Prescott does not. The audience was a very small one, it is true, but when anything is going on of interest to the public a STAR reporter is very liable to be found in that locality. We never heard of any one insulting Mr. Wylie, and if Mr. Prescott has been doing anything of that kind he ought to be ashamed of himself.

At the meeting of the Evangelical Ministerial Association held last Saturday, it was voted to invite the successful Evangelists, Whittle and Bliss, to come to this city and conduct a series of meetings. A business committee was appointed and a daily meeting for prayer announced to be held in Association Hall, corner of Ninth and Elm streets, from 11 A. M. to 1 P. M. The leaders of the work are as follows: Monday, Rev. James Murray; Tuesday, Rev. A. Ritchie; Wednesday, Rev. E. McHugh; Thursday, Rev. A. B. Morey; Friday, Rev. J. Krebbel; Saturday, Rev. G. B. Beecher. The meetings are to be union and undenominational in their character, and cordial invitations are given to all to attend.

THE Board of Improvements transacted the following business yesterday after our time of going to press: A resolution was adopted that $5 be paid for permit to tear up the streets for the repair of water pipes in order to pay for other re-improvements. The claim of Mr. E. Kenney for rent of his lot on East Fifth street at $50 per year for six years was referred. The lot had been used by the Board for the storage of tools. The communication of Mr. L. H. Burnett, asking compensation for vacation of his lot on Butler street was referred. The defective grading of Union street, on being called attention to, was referred to the Commissioners. Permission was asked by the Kemper Bros. to place projecting signs over the sidewalk, and if not to have the ordinance prohibiting the same enforced. The ordinance was ordered to be enforced. On motion, the Gest and Harriet street assessment, referred to the Board by the Board of Aldermen, in order to change the assessment, was referred back to Council. The weekly payroll, amounting to $5,241.32, was ordered paid. The contract for 2000 perches of broken stone for McMillan street was awarded to John T. Wright. The contract to supply 400 perches of gravel for the same place was awarded to Michael Burke and John Croty, 200 perches each. The amended ordinance for Route No. 10 was referred to Council. Adjourned.

WOOD'S THEATER.—Miss Charlotte Cushman's first appearance last evening attracted a full and highly appreciative audience. Her personation of Meg Merrilees is as grand, as perfect, and as thrilling as of yore. Time has apparently wrought no change in the splendid genius that delighted a former generation of play-goers. The support from the stock company was very satisfactory. Meg Merrilees will be repeated this evening.

The Concert at Pike's. No one should forget that Gilmore's Band makes its last appearance at Pike's this evening. Those who were so fortunate as to obtain seats when the Band was here last week will not need to be advised to go to-night, and those who were not, should not let this last opportunity pass to hear the finest military band in the United States. The programme, which is an excellent one, was published in yesterday's STAR.

Horrible Railroad Accident. A fatal accident occurred last night on the 7 o'clock departing train of the I., C. & L. Railroad, about five miles beyond the Lawrenceburg station, by which the front platform of the baggage car, containing an unknown man about five years of age, a well dressed, intelligent appearing man, was instantly killed.

From the circumstances connected with the case it seems that the unfortunate man, wishing to go to Indianapolis and having no means, stole a ride on the front platform of the baggage car. Arriving at Lawrenceburg he was ordered off, but as soon as the train began to move he stepped on again and resumed his former position. After some five miles more had been traveled over, however, one of the axles of the tender of the engine broke, immediately stopping the engine, and on account of a violent reaction causing the first car to be thrown off the track. The victim, who, at the time, was standing on the platform, was caught between the two cars, and when picked up presented a frightfully mutilated conglomeration of mangled bones and flesh, with the features altogether unrecognizable.

His legs were both crushed and his head and other parts of the body particularly. His breast was simply a mass of bleeding flesh. None of the other passengers were seriously injured by the accident, and, after considerable delay, the train was re-arranged, and the disabled engines sent to the shops. An inquest will be held on the body and efforts made to identify him.

The following dispatch was received by the train dispatcher of the I., C. & L. Railroad last night and speaks for itself: S. A. Pattison, Superintendent.

Sir: No. 5 not at Hansville yet, delayed by breaking an axle under the tender of engine 83, about one mile west of Newton.

The tender and postal car were thrown from the track and the forward end of the baggage car off. A man, supposed to be a tramp, who was stealing a ride on the forward end of the postal car, was killed.

No injury to any of the passengers. All other trains on time up to the time of the accident, but are now delayed on this account.

LATER.—Track all clear and trains moving regularly.

Free Lunch at a Revival Meeting.

A certain class of Revivalists of New York are adopting the free lunch system.

They are holding a meeting at Harry Hill's theater, a few nights ago, led by Rev. Martin Lutz, a large boiler filled with beef tea was dealt out during the services. The subject for the evening was "Stop Thief," and it is but proper to state that the Elder, as usual, did justice to the subject. Arrangements have been made for the reception of "Bendigo," the reformed English prize-fighter, and recently ordained clergyman, who has received a call to the Houston Street Chapel. Extensive correspondence has passed between Mr. Hill and "Bendigo," and the latter gentleman will shortly start on his habitues of Harry Hill's with his eloquence.

The first indications of spring styles are found in suits of plaid and striped wool goods, and in the new lace-trimmed percale costumes. There is nothing yet very new in the manner of making these. Most of the early imported dresses have a basque and tablier, with sometimes a jacket; the skirt is, as usual, trimmed with bouffes, both pleated and shirred, headed by puffs. Great variety, however, is given to costumes by employing two materials, one of plaid and the other striped in the colors of the plaid, and the object seems to be to have no two dresses exactly alike. There is no doubt that we are to have a quadruple season, not of high-colored tarriens, but of well-blended Debevoise will be the popular material in these designs, and a large percentage of the importations is of brown shades. The novelty in soft-finished French percales is a lace-like design of white upon a color, blue, brown, ecru, gray or black. This lace figure is in open webs, and in star and compass patterns like those found in Hamourg work and English embroidery. Sometimes the design is in stripes, again it covers the entire ground, and in many cases it frays side bands near the selvedge for trimming the tablier, sash and cuffs. Small checks and plain or striped grounds from the foundation of many percale suits that are trimmed with bouffes bordered with plaids of the shades in the dress.

Cladens Worth Saving.

The Treasury Department redeems burnt and charred notes when forwarded by the owners. In many cases the clinders of the notes forwarded from safes which have been through heavy fires and from burnt drawers are only with great difficulty recognized as to the denomination.

Up in one of the sunny, well-lighted rooms of the Treasury Department four ladies from the Treasury office are at work on these charred treasures, and their process is one of the most interesting features of the service.

Each little, shriveled piece is detached with a thin knife and laid on rough blotting paper. There the ladies examine it with magnifying glasses, and, if they can push the matter as far as they please it, they paste it, in a strip of thin paper, and so, bit by bit, a whole note is pieced out. It is such trying exercise for the eyes that those engaged in it can work only three hours at a time and on bright days. The trust reposed in them is great, for the money delivered during the burning of the Treasury office are their reports without further questioning.

After the terrible fire of October, 1871, Chicago sent 203 cases of burnt money, at owners' valuation, $164,967 98. It came in sheets, in bundles, in tiny packages, rumples, and crushed as careless hands had pushed them into pockets or purses. Each little parcel was swathed in cotton as carefully as if it were the most precious jewelry, and as the black, brittle packages were unrolled it seemed really impossible that anything could be made of such clinders. Yet out of that $164,967, 98 $120,541 33 was re-secured, and the remainder, $44,426 65, Boston profited by Chicago's experience, and packed her burnt money so carefully that nearly all of it was redeemed. Eighty-three cases containing $88,812 90, came from Boston, and $88,290 80 were returned to her, besides a number of policies, notes, bills, and other valuable papers.

Dr. Wilkes, in his recent work on physiology, remarks "it is estimated that the bones of every adult person require to be fed with lime enough to make a marble mantle every eight months." It will be perceived, therefore, that in the course of about ten years each of us eats three or four man-eucians and a few seats of lime, not steps. And in a long life I suppose it is fair to estimate that a healthy American could devour the capital at Washington, and perhaps two or three medium-sized quarries besides. It is awful to think of the consequences if a man should be shut off from his supply of lime, and when he could not get loose in a cemetery. An ordinary tombstone would hardly be enough for a lunch for him.—Adele.

Centennial Pictures.

Centennial Pictures and drawings are in great demand in this city for the low the city office of the Centennial Commission are being applied for with great eagerness by many Europeans, who wish to send them to friends in the Old World. Yesterday afternoon and English gentleman, among others, called at the office and was perfectly delighted at seeing and touching the drawings. One of the said, would be viewed with very great interest in London. He gave it as his opinion that the number of Englishmen who would attend the Exhibition in Philadelphia would be very large, as there were many people, he said, who were just waiting for a good opportunity or "good excuse" to pay a visit to this country. He was the representative of a large machinery manufacturer in London and said his firm would probably apply for a considerable amount of space. Some of these drawings were sent even to Sweden during the last few days, and a few are to be transmitted to Japan or China.

In one of the marble quarries connected with Sing Sing Prison recently a shocking accident occurred, which resulted in the instant death of one person, while two others were seriously if not fatally injured. It appears that several cans of nitro-glycerine were being conveyed to the quarries where a powerful steam drill is at work opening up a new vein of marble, when one of them, containing about twenty-five pounds of the dangerous compound was accidentally overturned. A terrific explosion followed, instantly killing Orlando Humphrey, a keeper who had charge of the blasting operations, and inflicting terrible injuries on Charles Diny, a citizen, and Edward F. Matthews, one of the convicts. The injured men were promptly cared for, but it is feared the last named can not survive.
