

Published every day (except Sunday) by the Star Publishing Company, at their office, 221 Walnut street, Cincinnati, Ohio.

The Daily Star is served by carriers to subscribers in the city of Cincinnati, and to all the surrounding cities and towns, for six cents per week.

BY TELEGRAPH. Metropolitan Items.

New York, April 30.—John C. Green, the eminent New York merchant, died yesterday.

Carl Schurz and family sailed for Europe yesterday in the steamship Pomona.

Gen. Wm. F. (Baldy) Smith is to be appointed a Police Commissioner in New York.

Miss Ida Lillian Greeley, elder daughter of the late Horace Greeley, will in a few days be married in New York to Col. Nicholas Smith, of Kansas.

Suit has been commenced in New York against Henry Stark, an attorney-in-law of Ex-Governor Hoffman and an ex-city official, for $105,000.

Cardinal McCloskey yesterday united in marriage General Adam Badeau, United States Consul at London, and Miss Marie Elise Niles, daughter of the late minister to Italy.

The will of the late Mrs. Conway was filed yesterday in New York for probate. The estate is valued at less than twenty thousand dollars, and is apportioned among her children, Minnie, Lillian and Frederick Conway.

The suit of the Emma Silver Mining Company against Tremor W. Park and others has been transferred to the United States Circuit Court of New York, on the petition of the defendants, who state that their co-defendant, Stewart, has not been served, that the plaintiff is an English corporation, and that the claim in suit is for five million dollars.

Special to the Star.

DETROIT, April 30.—The coroner's inquest on the bodies of Harriet Fisher and Elizabeth Thomas was resumed this morning, but no real clue to the cause of the horrible deed has been found.

John Thomas, who was arrested yesterday, is still in custody, but has been released from the jail, and is now at home.

The A. O. U. W. will have a grand anniversary celebration here Thursday, May 6th. Mayor Johnston, of Cincinnati, and other prominent personages will be present and deliver addresses.

Mr. Alex. McNitt, a farmer, living near Brookville, this county, was drowned in a creek near his house yesterday morning. He was fishing at the time, and it is supposed was overcome with a sudden fit, to which complaint he had been subject, and falling into the water was drowned before assistance reached him.

Special to the Star.

DETROIT, April 30.—The large amphitheater built at the fair grounds here last fall, was blown down during the severe gale yesterday afternoon.

The A. O. U. W. will have a grand anniversary celebration here Thursday, May 6th. Mayor Johnston, of Cincinnati, and other prominent personages will be present and deliver addresses.

Mr. Alex. McNitt, a farmer, living near Brookville, this county, was drowned in a creek near his house yesterday morning. He was fishing at the time, and it is supposed was overcome with a sudden fit, to which complaint he had been subject, and falling into the water was drowned before assistance reached him.

Special to the Star.

DETROIT, April 30.—The coroner's inquest on the bodies of Harriet Fisher and Elizabeth Thomas was resumed this morning, but no real clue to the cause of the horrible deed has been found.

John Thomas, who was arrested yesterday, is still in custody, but has been released from the jail, and is now at home.

The A. O. U. W. will have a grand anniversary celebration here Thursday, May 6th. Mayor Johnston, of Cincinnati, and other prominent personages will be present and deliver addresses.

Mr. Alex. McNitt, a farmer, living near Brookville, this county, was drowned in a creek near his house yesterday morning. He was fishing at the time, and it is supposed was overcome with a sudden fit, to which complaint he had been subject, and falling into the water was drowned before assistance reached him.

Special to the Star.

DETROIT, April 30.—The coroner's inquest on the bodies of Harriet Fisher and Elizabeth Thomas was resumed this morning, but no real clue to the cause of the horrible deed has been found.

John Thomas, who was arrested yesterday, is still in custody, but has been released from the jail, and is now at home.

The A. O. U. W. will have a grand anniversary celebration here Thursday, May 6th. Mayor Johnston, of Cincinnati, and other prominent personages will be present and deliver addresses.

Mr. Alex. McNitt, a farmer, living near Brookville, this county, was drowned in a creek near his house yesterday morning. He was fishing at the time, and it is supposed was overcome with a sudden fit, to which complaint he had been subject, and falling into the water was drowned before assistance reached him.

Special to the Star.

DETROIT, April 30.—The coroner's inquest on the bodies of Harriet Fisher and Elizabeth Thomas was resumed this morning, but no real clue to the cause of the horrible deed has been found.

John Thomas, who was arrested yesterday, is still in custody, but has been released from the jail, and is now at home.

The A. O. U. W. will have a grand anniversary celebration here Thursday, May 6th. Mayor Johnston, of Cincinnati, and other prominent personages will be present and deliver addresses.

Mr. Alex. McNitt, a farmer, living near Brookville, this county, was drowned in a creek near his house yesterday morning. He was fishing at the time, and it is supposed was overcome with a sudden fit, to which complaint he had been subject, and falling into the water was drowned before assistance reached him.

Special to the Star.

DETROIT, April 30.—The coroner's inquest on the bodies of Harriet Fisher and Elizabeth Thomas was resumed this morning, but no real clue to the cause of the horrible deed has been found.

John Thomas, who was arrested yesterday, is still in custody, but has been released from the jail, and is now at home.

The A. O. U. W. will have a grand anniversary celebration here Thursday, May 6th. Mayor Johnston, of Cincinnati, and other prominent personages will be present and deliver addresses.

Mr. Alex. McNitt, a farmer, living near Brookville, this county, was drowned in a creek near his house yesterday morning. He was fishing at the time, and it is supposed was overcome with a sudden fit, to which complaint he had been subject, and falling into the water was drowned before assistance reached him.

Special to the Star.

DETROIT, April 30.—The coroner's inquest on the bodies of Harriet Fisher and Elizabeth Thomas was resumed this morning, but no real clue to the cause of the horrible deed has been found.

John Thomas, who was arrested yesterday, is still in custody, but has been released from the jail, and is now at home.

The A. O. U. W. will have a grand anniversary celebration here Thursday, May 6th. Mayor Johnston, of Cincinnati, and other prominent personages will be present and deliver addresses.

Mr. Alex. McNitt, a farmer, living near Brookville, this county, was drowned in a creek near his house yesterday morning. He was fishing at the time, and it is supposed was overcome with a sudden fit, to which complaint he had been subject, and falling into the water was drowned before assistance reached him.

Special to the Star.

DETROIT, April 30.—The coroner's inquest on the bodies of Harriet Fisher and Elizabeth Thomas was resumed this morning, but no real clue to the cause of the horrible deed has been found.

John Thomas, who was arrested yesterday, is still in custody, but has been released from the jail, and is now at home.

The A. O. U. W. will have a grand anniversary celebration here Thursday, May 6th. Mayor Johnston, of Cincinnati, and other prominent personages will be present and deliver addresses.

Mr. Alex. McNitt, a farmer, living near Brookville, this county, was drowned in a creek near his house yesterday morning. He was fishing at the time, and it is supposed was overcome with a sudden fit, to which complaint he had been subject, and falling into the water was drowned before assistance reached him.

Special to the Star.

DETROIT, April 30.—The coroner's inquest on the bodies of Harriet Fisher and Elizabeth Thomas was resumed this morning, but no real clue to the cause of the horrible deed has been found.

John Thomas, who was arrested yesterday, is still in custody, but has been released from the jail, and is now at home.

The A. O. U. W. will have a grand anniversary celebration here Thursday, May 6th. Mayor Johnston, of Cincinnati, and other prominent personages will be present and deliver addresses.

NEWS FROM THE OLD WORLD.

LONDON, April 30.—A dispatch to the Daily Telegraph from Berlin says the Prussian Government intends to ignore the letter of sympathy addressed by the Roman Catholic Bishops of Great Britain to those of Germany.

The Times' special dispatch from Berlin reports that the Belgian Minister of Justice has made an explicit statement that Belgian Courts are incompetent to take up proceedings against Duchesne, and that this statement has been transmitted to the Berlin Government.

A committee of the Prussian Diet has prepared a bill declaring the Old Catholics entitled to a share of the Roman Catholic churches, cemeteries and revenues, proportionate to their number as compared with other Catholics.

Special to the Star.

SPRINGFIELD, O., April 30.—Every one should attend the last Narrow Gauge meeting on Saturday night.

G. Heitkemper, whose jewelry establishment is at No. 53 Main street, has made an assignment. Liabilities nearly $5,000; assets about $3,500.

Full particulars of the accident on the A. & G. W. railroad, near Meadville, Pa., are given by Mrs. Morris, who was on the train and somewhat injured by the accident. She states that two of three passengers were killed and several others seriously injured, and the sleeper and one passenger car burned. The accident was caused by the train being thrown down an embankment.

Rev. S. P. Fay, of Bangor, Me., will preach in the Congregational church Sunday morning.

An extra subscription of $25,000, to build a bridge, must be raised.

Building Destroyed.—A. O. U. W. Celebration.—Accident.—Drowned.

Special to the Star.

DAYTON, O., April 30.—The large amphitheater built at the fair grounds here last fall, was blown down during the severe gale yesterday afternoon.

The A. O. U. W. will have a grand anniversary celebration here Thursday, May 6th. Mayor Johnston, of Cincinnati, and other prominent personages will be present and deliver addresses.

Mr. Alex. McNitt, a farmer, living near Brookville, this county, was drowned in a creek near his house yesterday morning. He was fishing at the time, and it is supposed was overcome with a sudden fit, to which complaint he had been subject, and falling into the water was drowned before assistance reached him.

Special to the Star.

DETROIT, April 30.—The coroner's inquest on the bodies of Harriet Fisher and Elizabeth Thomas was resumed this morning, but no real clue to the cause of the horrible deed has been found.

John Thomas, who was arrested yesterday, is still in custody, but has been released from the jail, and is now at home.

The A. O. U. W. will have a grand anniversary celebration here Thursday, May 6th. Mayor Johnston, of Cincinnati, and other prominent personages will be present and deliver addresses.

Mr. Alex. McNitt, a farmer, living near Brookville, this county, was drowned in a creek near his house yesterday morning. He was fishing at the time, and it is supposed was overcome with a sudden fit, to which complaint he had been subject, and falling into the water was drowned before assistance reached him.

Special to the Star.

DETROIT, April 30.—The coroner's inquest on the bodies of Harriet Fisher and Elizabeth Thomas was resumed this morning, but no real clue to the cause of the horrible deed has been found.

John Thomas, who was arrested yesterday, is still in custody, but has been released from the jail, and is now at home.

The A. O. U. W. will have a grand anniversary celebration here Thursday, May 6th. Mayor Johnston, of Cincinnati, and other prominent personages will be present and deliver addresses.

Mr. Alex. McNitt, a farmer, living near Brookville, this county, was drowned in a creek near his house yesterday morning. He was fishing at the time, and it is supposed was overcome with a sudden fit, to which complaint he had been subject, and falling into the water was drowned before assistance reached him.

Special to the Star.

DETROIT, April 30.—The coroner's inquest on the bodies of Harriet Fisher and Elizabeth Thomas was resumed this morning, but no real clue to the cause of the horrible deed has been found.

John Thomas, who was arrested yesterday, is still in custody, but has been released from the jail, and is now at home.

The A. O. U. W. will have a grand anniversary celebration here Thursday, May 6th. Mayor Johnston, of Cincinnati, and other prominent personages will be present and deliver addresses.

Mr. Alex. McNitt, a farmer, living near Brookville, this county, was drowned in a creek near his house yesterday morning. He was fishing at the time, and it is supposed was overcome with a sudden fit, to which complaint he had been subject, and falling into the water was drowned before assistance reached him.

Special to the Star.

DETROIT, April 30.—The coroner's inquest on the bodies of Harriet Fisher and Elizabeth Thomas was resumed this morning, but no real clue to the cause of the horrible deed has been found.

John Thomas, who was arrested yesterday, is still in custody, but has been released from the jail, and is now at home.

The A. O. U. W. will have a grand anniversary celebration here Thursday, May 6th. Mayor Johnston, of Cincinnati, and other prominent personages will be present and deliver addresses.

Mr. Alex. McNitt, a farmer, living near Brookville, this county, was drowned in a creek near his house yesterday morning. He was fishing at the time, and it is supposed was overcome with a sudden fit, to which complaint he had been subject, and falling into the water was drowned before assistance reached him.

Special to the Star.

DETROIT, April 30.—The coroner's inquest on the bodies of Harriet Fisher and Elizabeth Thomas was resumed this morning, but no real clue to the cause of the horrible deed has been found.

John Thomas, who was arrested yesterday, is still in custody, but has been released from the jail, and is now at home.

The A. O. U. W. will have a grand anniversary celebration here Thursday, May 6th. Mayor Johnston, of Cincinnati, and other prominent personages will be present and deliver addresses.

Mr. Alex. McNitt, a farmer, living near Brookville, this county, was drowned in a creek near his house yesterday morning. He was fishing at the time, and it is supposed was overcome with a sudden fit, to which complaint he had been subject, and falling into the water was drowned before assistance reached him.

Special to the Star.

DETROIT, April 30.—The coroner's inquest on the bodies of Harriet Fisher and Elizabeth Thomas was resumed this morning, but no real clue to the cause of the horrible deed has been found.

John Thomas, who was arrested yesterday, is still in custody, but has been released from the jail, and is now at home.

The A. O. U. W. will have a grand anniversary celebration here Thursday, May 6th. Mayor Johnston, of Cincinnati, and other prominent personages will be present and deliver addresses.

WHAT THE WIRES WHISPER.

The Michigan Legislature has adjourned.

Scarlet fever, in an epidemic form, is raging in Liberty, Ind.

Specie in the Bank of France increased 5,800,000 francs the past week.

The Post-office of McArthur, O., was robbed of two dollars last night.

An all-day temperance prayer meeting is being held in Richmond, Indiana, today.

Considerable damage has been done to railroad tracks in the vicinity of Omaha by high water.

Two more women were arrested at Columbus City, Ind., yesterday, charged with car robbery.

Joseph Marlow, an old resident of Monroeville, Indiana, was killed by a passing train yesterday.

The woods opposite Gallipolis, in West Virginia, were on fire all yesterday afternoon, and burning fiercely.

Over twenty thousand dollars were raised by the New York theater last night for the benefit of Dan Bryan's family.

Seven hundred returned California emigrants have arrived at Omaha in the last two days, and hundreds are en route East.

The woods are on fire back of Riverport, Kentucky, and at Etna Furnace, near Lebanon; about 2,500 cords of wood were burned.

The residence of R. D. Williams, of Urbana, was entered by burglars, and robbed of a small amount of money on Tuesday night.

George H. Greeley, a clerk for Emory & Co., Boston suit brokers, was yesterday arrested on a charge of embezzling $20,000 of his employers' funds.

A lady named Brown, living north of Marietta, Ohio, was severely burned, Wednesday night, by her clothes taking fire, that she died yesterday morning.

Elijah Davidson, an old resident of Latonia, Ohio, the victim of a murderous assault, last Saturday afternoon, at the hands of Samuel Mead, died yesterday.

A German woman named Schmidt was burned to death, near Wapakoneta, yesterday, while attempting to extinguish a fire which had caught the fence near her home.

John Mathers, a prominent lawyer of Sidney, Ohio, died at noon yesterday of consumption, making the third lawyer of that place that has died within a year. He will be buried Saturday afternoon.

It is announced that no successor to Assistant Attorney General Hill, who retires on the same day with Mr. Williams, will be appointed until Judge Herppert takes his seat in the Cabinet.

During the strong gale yesterday the gable of the old Court-house at Ironton was blown down, crushing through the ceiling of the hall and the Commissioners' room. Fortunately no one was in the room.

The spire of the First Presbyterian Church in Cleveland was demolished by the wind yesterday, and much other damage was done. The roof of the new Union Depot at Columbus was also blown off.

John S. Toof, Secretary of the National Cotton Exchange, has issued a call for a meeting of the National Cotton Exchange at Greenbrier, White Sulphur Springs, Greenbrier county, W. Va., on Wednesday, July 21.

The daughter of M. Kelting, at Peninsula, three miles from Sandusky, Ohio, while drawing water from a well yesterday, fell in head first and drowned. She was the water an hour before found. She was 16 years old.

W. P. Tenny and party, who have been appointed to make an accurate survey of the Black Hills country, passed through Omaha yesterday, en route to Fort Laramie, where an escort of six companies of cavalry await their arrival.

General George Crook and staff and the garrison officers were entertained by the Merchants' Club of Omaha last evening. A large attendance was present, and the meeting was highly complimentary to the guests of the Club.

The strike at the coal mines at Cambridge, Ohio, has been completely wiped out, and the strikers are replaced by colored miners from Virginia. Threats were made to drive away the colored miners, but they gave them no heed.

Lewis Correllius, of Hamilton county, Indiana, made an ineffectual attempt at suicide in Indianapolis last night. He took morphine and was about to take a tincture of acetone when he was surprised and prevented. He may recover.

The Attorney General of Louisiana has taken steps to oust Duboulet, the acting State Treasurer, claiming that Moncreux was elected and deprived of his office by the illegal act of the Returning Board in refusing to count the votes of certain parishes.

Ex-Congressman Bowen, of Charleston, S. C., was arrested for instigating the murder of Colonel White, committed eleven years ago. This was the charge for the publication of which the News and Courier was last week prosecuted for libel. Judge Reed released Bowen upon a $4,000 bond.

The Indiana State Board of Education yesterday elected the following Trustees of the State University: Dr. A. Patton, Vincennes; Dr. E. W. H. Ellis, Goshen; Hon. Milton McPhairidge, Bloomington; John B. Elder, whose term expires in 1878, tendered his resignation, which was accepted. General John Love, of Indianapolis, was elected to fill his place.

The residence of Mrs. Lucy Bakewell, of Shelbyville, Ky., in which was the library of the great naturalist, Audubon, was destroyed by fire yesterday. Mrs. Bakewell was Audubon's sister-in-law, and his library had been left with her. The collection consisted of about eight hundred volumes, and was of very great value to scientists. Nothing was saved.

A majority of the stockholders of the Vermont & Canada railroad have voted to transfer the road to the Vermont Central Company for $3,000,000 bonds of the latter, carrying six per cent. interest, secured by the conditional deed of the Vermont & Canada road. Immediately upon an injunction was served upon the Directors to prevent the execution of that portion of the papers relating to the placing of the stock in trust, and a hearing will be held May 13. The terms of the proposed sale will be hotly contested.

GOSSIP.

Why does Wintef last so late?—We pray him gone, and Spring appear; With one's hand on his forehead, we wait To see him walk off on his ear.

Spring has some trouble with its snows. Short horns are preferred by temperance Grangers.

A New York man has increased 71 lbs. in fifty days in Florida.

This is a horrid rumor of crinoline, restored, which is good news for hungry goats but rough on humanity.

The man who was carried away by a string band is supposed to have died because it was drawn too tight.

A Grand Jury in Ohio has undertaken to suppress a class of raffles, as well as other raffish not considered fair.

When Dan Rice can command a salary of $10,000 per season, it's no wonder that Harvard professors are discouraged.

The Advertisers have considerably arranged to have the world come to an end in this year, before moving day.

Judge Nathan has ordered a six-inch pipe to be laid from where Shearman sits to the main sewer, to carry away his tears.

Don't locate your grandfather "in the front rank" in the Concord and Lexington fight. That was the one that returned.

A grocer, when complained to about selling bad eggs, said, "At this season the hens ain't well, and very often they lay bad eggs."

Oregon has already spoken for a place for board at the Centennial. She proposes to send on a first class one hundred feet long and twelve feet wide for exhibition.

Bismarck is a lucky fellow. Besides being a Prince, wearing good clothes, and having lots of money to go to circuses and horse races, he has had a carriage named after him.

An economical Connecticut girl refused to be married by the clergyman of her lover's church because another person owed her $2 for knitting stockings, and was too poor to pay cash.

The teacher of a district school is in the habit of asking his pupils to define the words which they are given to spell. The boy who had to wrestle with the word "ulcer" said with a good deal of confidence, that it was President Grant's first name.

"There was an old family feud between them," was what a witness in a Chicago murder case said to the jury. The Judge asked her if she didn't mean "lied," and she asked him who was telling that story.

Mrs. Steady—"But why are you making so many dolls' pantaloons, my dear Mrs. Jinx?" Mrs. Jinx—"These are for the poor frogs who go exposed in the water in our pond."

"Are the young ladies of the present day it for wives?" asked a lecturer of his audience. "They are fit for husbands," responded a feminine voice; "but the trouble is that you men are not fit for wives!"

The boy and girl whom Mayor Hunter refused to marry last week are at present the victims of a settled melancholy. Several heroic attempts to revive them by offers of peanut candy and doughnuts has indignantly failed.

An Italian has invented an earthquake indicator. When a trembling of the earth occurs his machine immediately fires off a gun. Persons so warned then have time to run into the streets and be killed by falling buildings.

Was edrontery ever more sublime than that of the noble who, when taken there on his annual raid and impelled to go out of his annual raid and shoot a soldier or two, first takes the precaution to house his squaw and papoose comfortably at the nearest Government agency?

These are the days when the thrifty housewife goes into the garret, the woodshed, the cupboard and the closet, and takes therefrom the old butts, hoop skirts and boots that see can find, and quietly throws them over the fence into the neighbor's yard.

"O, your shameful laws!" said Mrs. Henry, when she found she couldn't sell her property without John Henry's joining in the deed. "A woman can't own a thing," said the lawyer. "I don't know," said Mrs. Henry, gravely, "you are mistaken. In this free country a woman can own anything but her age."

A Bakersfield man dropped into the Post-office and wanted to know how much merchandise he could send in one parcel. "Four pounds," was the reply. Then he wanted to know how much he could send out to Arizona four pounds of those toy-balloons, inflated; but he had difficulty in getting out of the door in time to dodge a mail bag.

A Brooklyn lady, whose husband has an unpleasant habit of falling at her, has hit upon the plan of calling in her servants and having them let out his temper and then turning to him and saying sweetly: "Now, my dear, please go on with your remarks." He doesn't go on, at least not as he began.

Cardinal Points to be Observed on my Return to England, (from the note-book of C-r-d-n-l M-n-n-g.)—"Not to wear my red hat in wet weather, nor when Pius F. sends over a new bull; to give up wearing paper collars; to send back to Whalley the cotton umbrella I borrowed from him; to invite Messrs. Moody and Stanley to supper; to write to Mr. Spurgeon as to precedence; to ask Madame Tussaud not to put me next to Kennedy!"

—Punch.

Some men can do so such a disagreeable thing in such a way as to remove more than half the sting. Thus George Smith, who worked by nights in a Troy car shop, when called upon to stoop with the public in the Andersons' firm, made arrangements with his employer that Anderson should be promoted to the position he vacated. The contract was fulfilled all around, and Anderson, with his increased wages, has bought a new house and is looking for a young wife.

There is a farmer in Phelps, Ontario county, who has on hand the wheat product of his farm for the past four years, refusing to sell from time to time because he believed wheat was "going higher." His granaries and every available place in his barn and other outbuildings are occupied, and there are piles of wheat in his garret and elsewhere in his house. He has "set his stake," he says, and will hold on to his wheat until it brings the price he has named to himself, "if it isn't for forty years."

A young daughter of Mr. Wm. McDonald, of Sydney, C. B., had been engaged to be married, but a protracted illness prevented the performance of the rite. A young man last Sunday evening the young man to whom she was engaged procured the services of a clergyman, and the pair were united. At 9 o'clock the bride was a corpse.

ADDITIONAL LOCAL.

The Common Council yesterday confirmed all of the Mayor's appointments, except that of Mr. Ed. Mullen, as Sealer of Weights and Measures. This was laid aside, as a proposition was pending to change this office from a fee office to a salaried office.

The following is the schedule of the remaining rehearsals for the May Festival: Rehearsals for men's voices, Friday night, April 30; rehearsal for women's voices, Saturday afternoon, May 1; mass rehearsal, Monday night, May 3; rehearsal men's voices, Tuesday night, May 4; mass rehearsal, Wednesday night, May 5; mass rehearsal with orchestra, Friday night, May 7; mass rehearsal with orchestra, Saturday night, May 8; mass rehearsal with orchestra, Monday night, May 10. All subsequent rehearsals will take place at Exposition Hall.

The rehearsals of Friday, Saturday and Monday nights, May 7, 8 and 10, with orchestra, will take place at 7 P. M., instead of 7:30 P. M., as usual. This change is made at the special request of Mr. Thomas. The other rehearsals of the chorus and orchestra will be announced next week.

Inclined Plane Railroad.

The Cincinnati, Walnut Hills, Avondale and Pleasant Ridge Street Inclined Plane Railway Company, has adopted the following preamble and resolution:

Whereas, it has been publicly asserted that the object of the incorporators of the Cincinnati, Walnut Hills, Avondale and Pleasant Ridge Street and Inclined Plane Railway Company, otherwise known as Route No. 13, was for the purpose of selling, or otherwise disposing of the same as a matter of speculation, and also for the purpose of interfering with, or causing delay in the construction of some other street railroad, with a view to a monopoly; therefore be it

Resolved, that we do hereby disclaim all and singular the above allegations, individually and as a body corporate; and that the speedy construction and completion of said Route No. 13 has been and still is our sole purpose, believing, as we do, that the interest of the community at large imperatively demands it.

East End Grievances.

EDITOR STAR: I noticed in your columns a few days ago the assertion that the people of the East End were fast becoming reconciled to the double-fare charge adopted by the Consolidated Railroad Company. Allow me to say that this