

WEATHER PREDICTIONS.

JAMES SOUTHWARD, who was hurt day before yesterday by a fall from a scaffold on a new building near Sportsman's Hall, in Fulton, died this morning about two o'clock.

DEPUTY AUDITOR CAPELLAR, the handsome individual who sits at the omission desk, at the Court-house, has put on the tax duplicate, during the past year, the nice little sum of $3,005,500, the tax on which amounted to $299,112.73.

The Sinton Cadets have elected the following officers to serve for one year: Captain, A. Whitney; First Lieutenant, Charles Horst; Second Lieutenant, Harvey Allen; Third Lieutenant, Edward Merriman; Captain Daniel Webster, who remains with the company as instructor.

ERNEST BLATTE, a German butcher, from Covington, is missing since night before last, when he came to this city and paid $40 for meat purchased from Loewenstein & Bros., at the corner of Ninth and John streets. He is a man about forty years of age and of steady habits.

The annual lunch and festival, given by the Board of Lady Managers of the Children's Home, will occur on Thursday, the 27th of this month. Contributions of all sorts of provisions are solicited, and all the good people of Cincinnati are requested to remember the object and the day.

SUPERVISOR POWELL, in the investigation which he is making of the charges against Pike, Barrett & Dole, yesterday afternoon, discovered four of the barrels which it had been alleged were shipped to Parker B. Mason, of Chicago. This appears to prove conclusively that at least a portion of the lot said to have been shipped to Chicago to be refilled, is still here, and has never been out of the city since they came into their possession.

JAMES WILSON last night succeeded with skeleton keys in forcing an entrance into the house of Mrs. Madden, who keeps a saloon on Fifth street near Central avenue. He was caught in the act of rummaging some bureau drawers and trunks that he had broken open. Officers Bateman and Parks, who were called in, found him under the bed. In the Police Court this morning he waived an examination and was bound over to the Grand Jury to answer the charge of burglary.

The contractors engaged on the Southern railroad bridge, yesterday commenced work on a railroad switch leading from the O. & M. track down the leading to the water, for the purpose of transporting material in cars to the place where they are needed, and saving the labor and expense of reloading wagons. In the evening Alderman Jake Gardner and Patrick O'Brien asked Col. Snellbaker to instruct the police to prevent a track from being constructed during the night time. Jake Gardner to-day will take out an injunction to prevent the laying of the track.

CHARLES HAIGHT and a friend named Bartlett, while driving on the Avenue, near Cumminsville, about 8 o'clock last night, collided with a road wagon that was being furiously carried along by a horse. The wagon looked weirdly with the buggy and was upset, throwing the two men it contained under the wagon. Neither Haight nor Bartlett were hurt, but the driver of the road wagon, whose name was given as H. H. Kaitboff, 139 Hamilton road, had his head cut badly.

The Buckeye Race Track, near Carthage, yesterday offered some fine sport to the admirers of races. Saxe Knauer entered in a black horse named "Frank," and the race was to be in mile heats, best three in five. "Joe" was the favorite before and through the race, and won in three straight heats. Time: 2:40, 2:41, and 2:42. The race was for a purse of $500. A foot race took place between the second and third heats, by two men named Sulze and Rice, for a purse of $300, distance five miles. After a run of four miles Seize gave out, leaving Rice the victor.

The delegates to the German Roman Catholic Convention were tendered a complimentary banquet last evening at the Lookout House. The building was brilliantly illuminated, and Seidensticker's band provided a concert for the occasion. The house and grounds were thronged with immense crowds of people. The banquet was held in the concert room above, and was attended by nearly 500 delegates. The order of toasts and responses was as follows: 1. The German Central Verein; response by President Spauhorst. 2. The Future of the Roman Catholic Church in America; response by Father Schwenninger. 3. The Press; response by Mr. Weichmann, publisher of the Catholic Aurora, of Buffalo, New York. 4. The Queen City; response by Mayor Johnston. 5. The Remarkable Steadfastness of the Catholic Church in Germany; response by Father Schwenninger. 6. The Pope; response by Father Schwenninger. 7. The American Union; response by President Spauhorst.

The Citizens' Committee appointed to make arrangements for the decoration of soldiers' graves, May 23rd, held an adjourned meeting at the Financial Committee room last night. A motion that wooden steps be built from the railroad track at the arroyo into the cemetery itself, so that on Decoration Day the trains could be stopped at Spring Grove grounds, and visitors could thus be spared a long roundabout drive, was referred to the Committee on Cemetery. The Committee on Transportation reported that the same arrangements for special trains had been effected as those of last year. The C., H. and D. railroad would furnish all the cars, and charge only a fare of twenty-five cents the round trip. Dr. J. D. W. Roberts, of the Military Committee, reported that the United States command at Newport would send for parade four or five companies of fifty men each. The Joy Lodge No. 16, Knights of Pythias, and the Washington Lodge No. 9, P. O. S. of A., will participate in the ceremonies. Mrs. Wilde was appointed President of the Flower Committee. Col. R. M. Moore offered a resolution asking that citizens lend or donate flowers and other decorations to decorating the soldiers' graves on the 23rd inst. Rooms have been secured for General Hurlbut at the Gibson House. Rev. Mr. Kreibiel will pronounce the benediction.

Amusements.

WOOD'S THEATER.—The Haverly Minstrels are doing a splendid business at this house. Their performance last evening drew another overflowing audience. The entertainments given by this troupe are of a superior kind and they fully deserve the immense patronage now being bestowed upon them. They give a matinee at two o'clock to-day and another performance this evening. They announce a new bill for each occasion.

Board of Health.

The Board of Health met in regular session, with President Johnston in the chair and a quorum present. Journal read and approved.

Mr. Benninger asked for an extension of time to abate the nuisance at the East End Fertilizing Company. Referred to the Committee.

Dr. Baum made a motion that the Market-master instruct his Assistants to occasionally weigh the butter on the markets, and if found below the weight to confiscate it. Carried.

The River Testimonial.

The next musical treat in store for our city is the concert of Miss Julia Rive, to be given Friday evening, May 23rd.

The success that attends the concert performing of Miss Rive in concert in New York city, is something marvelous. She there went before a critical public who have not the same interest in her that Cincinnatians have. Few, if any, cared anything of her antecedents and knew less. On her merits alone she won the generous appreciation of the Cincinnatians. The entire press of New York city gave her unstinted praise. Said one leading journal, "Not since the visit of the great pianist, Rubinstein, have we had among us so wonderful a performer as Miss Rive."

Miss Rive's success shows what perseverance, hard labor and superior instruction can accomplish. Miss Rive does not sing at all, and consequently is a better pianist, all her energies being turned in the one direction. Ever since we first heard her play in public when she was so young and so petite she could scarcely reach an octave, we have been interested in her future, and believed in her success. We are glad she has so early become famous.

In the concert of May 23rd Miss Rive will be assisted by Prof. Andres, Michael Brand, Henry Eich, George Newhall, Alf. Newhall, Mrs. Hester Spades and Mrs. Kitchell.

The Water-works Investigation.

The Council Committee met last night to investigate the Water-works affairs. Mr. Edwin Henderson, the local editor of the Commercial, was the first witness called. He testified that in an interview with Mr. Crotty, the substance of which was published in the Commercial, Mr. Crotty said he had a document showing where one of the Trustees of the Water-works had allowed a note for $275 of $500, to go to a positive which, to go to a collector and that a collector for the Works had lifted it for him with Water-works money. He said that Mose Kramer was the collector who had furnished the money to meet this note, and that Mr. Dannenhold was the Trustee.

Crotty said on that occasion that Kramer had sold cards for $100,000, and of this amount had bought $7,000 on his own account and taken the risk of selling it himself. Crotty spoke of a pair of diamond earrings given by Mose Kramer, to a city official by Mose Kramer. He said pay-rolls were crooked; that Bowman's son took a name in signing the pay-rolls, and that there were more names drawn on cards working on the Water-works than there was paid to the carts. One case was that of a lady who had two horses and carts in the service, and who received eight dollars per week for them than was drawn for them on the pay-rolls. Crotty said the "gang" would like to treat Mose Kramer square, and that he would defend him if necessary.

Q. Did he say who that lady was? A. Yes, sir; his brother's wife.

Q. To what city official did he allude in regard to the $2,300? A. I am not positive about that. Mr. Snellbaker's name was mentioned in that connection, but I did not make up my mind that he meant Mr. Snellbaker, and did not publish it.

Mr. W. J. O'Neal testified that Mr. Crotty showed him a note for $2,300, given by Kramer, signed by T. S. Snellbaker, Secretary. Mr. Crotty told him it was Water-works money borrowed. Another paper was a due-bill, signed by Mose Kramer to Crotty, for $1,000. There were several memoranda on one of the notes—the $2,300 note. It was a memorandum of $150 for diamond earrings, which Crotty said were purchased for Trustee Dannenhold, with Water-works money. He said that he had another paper—a note for $500 or $575, indorsed by Dannenhold, put in bank, protested, but lifted by Mose Kramer with Water-works money.

Convention of the German Catholic Central Association.

The Convention opened at the usual hour this morning, with President Spauhorst in the chair and all the members present. At the close of yesterday afternoon's session, the whole of the Constitution as given in yesterday's edition of THE STAR was unanimously adopted.

After the roll call the special order of this morning's session, the election of officers for the ensuing year, was taken up. Messrs. Grover, Stack and Ernst were appointed tellers. At the first ballot 100 votes were cast, of which Mr. H. A. Spauhorst, the former President, received 137 votes; F. Springmeier, 22; G. Balduz, 2, and J. P. Stack, 1.

On motion, Mr. Spauhorst was unanimously declared re-elected. A committee consisting of Messrs. Springmeier and Fiedlerman, were then appointed, who introduced Mr. H. A. Spauhorst to the meeting as President of the Central Association for the ensuing year.

The usual speech of thanks was given, after which, on suspension of the rules, Sheriff F. Springmeier was unanimously elected as Vice President by acclamation. Rev. Schwenninger, of St. Ludwig's Church, Cincinnati, was then chosen as Recording Secretary by acclamation. Mr. F. Hoelner, of Buffalo, was elected as Corresponding Secretary.

Mr. F. Grover was nominated for Treasurer, but that gentleman declining to accept this office, Mr. Jos. P. Strack, of New York, was elected by acclamation.

After a recess of ten minutes had been taken, the election of a Vice President for each State represented in the Convention was proceeded with.

For California was chosen Mr. H. Obermoelle, of San Francisco; for Connecticut, F. A. Ertle, of New Haven; for Illinois, F. G. Fiedlerman, of Fort Wayne; for Iowa, N. G. Long, of Hamilton.

The Southern Diocese.

The first convention of the Southern Diocese of Ohio, Episcopal Church, met at St. Paul's Episcopal Church, on Fourth street, this morning.

A large number of delegates were present, and many prominent members of the church, both in Southern Ohio and other parts of the country. The Convention promises to be one of unusual interest.

The services this morning were of a devotional nature. In the afternoon at two o'clock, Bishop Jagger will preach the Convention sermon, and in the evening he will give a reception to all who wish to call on him at the Burnet House between the hours of eight and eleven o'clock.

Hon. Charles Hudson, in dedicating the statue of Hancock and Adams in Lexington on the 19th of May 1776, or not, but a bad grammatical error. Richard H. Dana, Jr., the orator of the day, noticed it, and, leaning over toward a friend, whispered, "I have been studying Massachusetts history very thoroughly, and for my life can not say whether a British soldier was killed in Lexington on the 19th of May 1776, or not; but when the next centennial comes around I will be ready to swear that Hudson murdered the King's English here to-day."

A man is harder than a woman except in the hands. When she sees him take his coat tail to hold a stove-lid lifter she pushes him away in disgust, and takes the hot object in her bare hand without wincing. If he should do that he would drop it at once and couldn't help it. When he has a dish to lift from the stove, he very properly starts off to hunt up a cloth, and while he's gone she removes it with her naked hands, and is there ready to say things that make him feel small and worthless when he gets back.

At a recently produced drama a gentleman in the stalls was frequently observed to wipe his eyes with his handkerchief, and to evince signs of sorrow by smothered groans. At last his next door neighbor observed to him, "I hope that such trash as this is not the cause of your emotion?" "No, my dear sir," answered the melancholy man, "I am only grieving for the seven-and-sixpence which I paid to see it."

Mr. L. H. Carlyle, a New Orleans actor, was recently engaged by an amateur dramatic association at Kirksville, Missouri, to help them bring out "Richard III." Mr. Carlyle has now a deep-seated wound seven inches long inflicted by the maiden sword of "Richmond," an untamed amateur named Dick Pickler, who "got excited" and "identified himself with the character."

If you want to bring an American boy up right, appeal to his patriotic feelings. There is a lad in this city whose mother has the bad habit of just by saying to him one day, when she felt very nervous, "Willie, George Washington never cracked hickory-nuts with his teeth."

"Goodness gracious, James! what are you doing with that child?" she shrieked at her husband, who was hitting the infant with a stick. "No, my dear sir," answered a word, while she danced around wildly, crying, "Oh, it only serves me right; I ought to have known better than to marry a St. Louis man!"

The Duluth people are facetiously called Dumbergs.
