A packed house greeted the class of '02 at Van Werder's opera house last Friday evening, when the thrilling drama "Under Two Flags" was presented. Friday of last week Dr. H. R. Layton received a postal card printed in colors with the picture of a fish suspended by the side of a portly citizen with white mustach and burnside whiskers large and flowing and printed under the picture the following: "This fish weighs 384 pounds and was caught with rod and reel off Santa Catalina Islands." In the Judge's well known writing appeared the following: "Dear Doctor. This is the kind of fish we catch over here. I caught this, one morning before breakfast and had my picture taken with it. Don't you think it is a good picture of me and the fish? J. W. Harvey." The card was dated Avalan, Cal., May 25th, 1902. We don't wish to cast any reflection on the Judge's veracity but must say that California air must have a great effect on the growth of beard as the Judge didn't have any burnside whiskers three weeks ago.
