SHAW'S PROMISED NEW MOVE.

Chicago Chronicle: It now appears that when Wall street operators said some time ago that Secretary Shaw was thinking about accepting other high-class bonds instead of governments as security for national bank circulation they did not mean exactly that. What they meant was that he was thinking about accepting other securities for public money deposited with the banks.

The treasury department has never accepted any other security than government bonds for money of the United States deposited with the banks but Secretary Shaw differs from all his predecessors in his interpretation of the law and declares that he has "nerve enough" to accept other securities "if that is the only thing that can be done" for the relief of Wall street.

It requires some nerve to set aside the construction placed upon the law by all the secretaries who have had to deal with the same question. The more so if because Mr. Shaw should accept other securities he would find it necessary for the first time to decide what securities other than government bonds are "satisfactory" and to discriminate in favor of some and against others when there is no rule prescribed by act of congress to govern the choice.

Such discrimination would give rise to complaints even if there was a rule of law to govern its exercise.

In the absence of any such rule the secretary will be likely to bring a tempest of protests about his ears if he ventures to discriminate in favor of the bonds of, say, one state and against those of another.

The reason for officially considering this new departure is that government bonds are so high a premium in the market that the banks cannot afford to buy them as security for government deposits. If they can afford to buy other bonds it will be because they are inferior as securities. The act of the secretary, then, in accepting certain other bonds would tend to place them on the same level with those of the government.

An outgiving from Washington leads us to think that departmental officials believe that the proposed departure would at once release about $50,000,000 from the treasury and make it available for commercial purposes.

It has been explained repeatedly that money cannot be taken out of the treasury for deposit in banks, because under the constitution money can be drawn from the treasury only in pursuance of an appropriation by act of congress.

Current receipts of internal revenue can be deposited under the law, but that is a very different thing from taking $50,000,000 out of the treasury and putting it in bank.

There are obstacles to prevent the secretary from doing all he seems disposed to do, for the "relief of the market," which means the relief of speculators in inflated stocks.

A Typical South African Store.

O. R. Larson of Bay Villa, Sundays River Cape Colony, conducts a store typical of South Africa, at which can be purchased anything from the proverbial "needle to an anchor." This store is situated in a valley nine miles from the nearest railway station and about twenty-five miles from the nearest town. Mr. Larson says: "I am favored with the custom of farmers within a radius of thirty miles, to many of whom I have supplied Chamberlain's remedies. All testify to their value in a household where a doctor's advice is almost out of the question. Within one mile of my store the population is perhaps sixty. Of these, within the past twelve months, no less than fourteen have been absolutely cured by Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. This must surely be a record." For sale by W. A. Alexander, druggist.

Four presidents have visited Iowa during their terms as president—Fillmore, Grant, McKinley and Cleveland. When Roosevelt comes it will make five. President Fillmore came to Iowa by way of Galena and down the Mississippi river by steamboat. The old settlers along the river fail to agree as to whether or not he landed at any of the places, but it is certain he saw Iowa. President Grant made his famous visit to Des Moines at the time of the meeting of the Army of the Tennessee and delivered his great speech. President McKinley crossed the state twice while president. President Cleveland passed in Sioux City while president, but very briefly.

Goals Like Hot Cakes.

"The fastest selling article I have in my store," writes druggist C. T. Smith, of Davis, Ky., "is Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, because it always cures. In my six years of sales it has never failed. I have known it to save sufferers from Throat and Lung diseases, who could get no help from doctors or any other remedy." Mothers rely on it, best physicians prescribe it and L. Van Werden guarantees satisfaction or refunds price. Trial bottles free. Regular sizes, 50c and $1.

The average man is kept so busy criticizing the faults of his neighbors that he has no time to correct his own.

"HOT TIME IN THE OLD TOWN!" or Why Did Mother Leave Home"

SYNOPSIS—It will be plainly seen by reading the balance of this program that the reason that mother left home was to make a visit to Ruby's New Store to purchase some bargains offered at this bargain store during the hot time sale. We will endeavor to represent every act as it will be during the time of this hot time sale. We would urge every one to attend it as it will help you to lighten the pocket book and we will gladden the hearts of the children and we will guarantee to give you more than your money's worth.

ACT I—As the curtain rises you see 500 men's fur hats in Pashas, Graecos, Fedoras and staple shapes and in all colors. These hats are worth from $1.50 to $2.25, but to create a scene in this act we say take your choice of hats at 85c, 75c, 68c.

ACT. II—Ladies' dongola shoes, silk sewed stock, tips, new toe with fine cloth toping and card trimmed, worth $1.50, they play leading part in this act at 88c.

The dipsomaniac ward of the state hospital at Mt. Pleasant is running along smoothly with about fifty inmates on an average. After the first large batch of victims of whiskey, cocaine and morphine the judges of the state appear to have ceased upon this branch of their work. Now the October terms of court are opening up all over the state, it is expected that there will be an increase in the number sent to the hospital for treatment. On the first of August there were fifteen in the dipsomaniac ward. During the month thirty-six were admitted and two died. At the close of the month there were forty-eight men and one woman at the hospital in this department. Since the first of the month a number have been admitted. The governor has issued no paroles in this department as yet.

A Dozen Times a Night.

Mr. Owen Dunn, of Benton Ferry, W. Va., writes: "I have had kidney and bladder trouble for years, and it became so bad that I was obliged to get up at least a dozen times a night. I never received any permanent benefit from any medicine until I tried Foley's Kidney Cure. After using two bottles, I am cured." Sold by L. Van Werden.

A crazy man in tattered clothing created a great sensation in Murray Sunday. He met Miss Bertha Pammell on the streets, and frightened her by threatened, crazy-like actions. It was noised about that he had assaulted her and fifty men gathered together to pursue him. He was run until he climbed a tree. He was finally induced to come down, and was put in care of Marshal Ahern who brought him to Osceola and locked him up. The commissioners of insane met Monday and adjudged him insane. The fellow is about forty years of age. He tells various tales of his home and gives several names for himself. He is evidently an incurable insane person. A few hours before he was found in Murray he was in Osceola and had badly frightened Mrs. George Robinson by walking in the house and demanding food, but finally went out. Owing to his being a non-resident here he was ordered held here until word could be received from the board of control.—Osceola Sentinel.

"Watch the Kidneys"

"When they are affected, life is in danger," says Dr. Abernethy, the great English physician. Foley's Kidney Cure makes sound kidney. Sold by L. Van Werden.

THE NEW YORK WORLD

THIRICE-A-WEEK EDITION.

Read Wherever the English Language is Spoken.

The Thrice-a-Week World was a brilliant success in the beginning and has been steadily growing ever since. Time has set its seal of approval on the Thrice-a-Week World, which is widely circulated in every State and Territory of the Union, and wherever there are people who can read our mother tongue.

This paper for the coming winter and the year 1903, will make its news service, if possible, more extensive than ever. All events of importance, no matter where they happen, are reported accurately and promptly.

The subscriber, for only one dollar a year, gets three papers every week and more news and general reading than most great dailies can furnish at five or six times the price.

The Thrice-a-Week World is absolutely fair in its political news, Partisan bias is never allowed to affect its news columns, and Democrat and Republican alike can obtain in its pages truthful accounts of all the great political campaigns.

In addition to all the news, the Thrice-a-Week World furnishes the best serial fiction, elaborate market reports and other features of interest.

The Thrice-a-Week World's regular subscription price is only $1.00 per year and this pays for 156 papers. We offer this unequalled newspaper and THE LEON REPORTER together one year for $1.95.

The regular subscription price of the two papers is $2.50.
