R. A. Rice and wife, of Atlanta, Kans., formerly of this city, left Wednesday morning for Decatur City, Ia., after a pleasant visit of a few days with old time friends. Shenandoah Sentinel.

Ten thousand demons gnawing away at one's vitals couldn't be much worse than the tortures of itching piles. Yet there's a cure. Doan's Ointment never fails.

The Clarinda Herald tells of a new game which is being played in that city. It is claimed that it far exceeds ping-pong or flinch. The game is called "Christianity." This is how it is played: The girls get on one side and are the Christians. The boys get on the other side and are the heathens. Then the heathens embrace the Christians.

A wheelman's tool bag isn't complete without a bottle of Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil. Heals cuts, bruises, stings, sprains, Monarch over pain.

Some months ago, H. W. Potts brought a thoroughbred, imported Yorkshire sow. On April 29, 1903, she farrow a litter of nine pigs. On July 16, two months and one half later, one of the pigs was weighed and tipped the beam at 90. This is a fair specimen of what these hogs will do and owing to this fact breeders are taking considerable interest in them, several have been imported into Decatur county.—Garden Grove Express.

Foley's Kidney Cure purifies the blood by straining out impurities and tones up the whole system. Cures kidney and bladder troubles. L. Van Werden.

Charles Dupree Smith, mining engineer and metallurgist, who is extensively engaged in mining in South America, arrived in Newton Thursday morning on his way from New York to San Francisco to embark for Bolivia. He will visit for a short time with his brother-in-law, G. F. Rinehart, and his little son Harold who is now in Newton, after which he will join his wife in Denver for a brief stop.—Newton Herald.

The horse show at the Iowa State Fair at Des Moines this year, from August 21 to 29, will be the best ever held in the state. There will be an exceptionally strong showing of heavy horses and it is predicted it will be the best ever seen in Iowa. Prof. C. F. Curtiss, of the Iowa State College, has been selected to judge the horses, this arrangement giving general satisfaction to the exhibitors.

A. R. Bass, of Morgantown, Ind., had to get up ten or twelve times in the night and had severe backache and pains in the kidneys. Was cured by Foley's kidney cure. L. Van Werden.

Harold Smith the ten year old son of Mrs. Carrie Smith, of Leon, Iowa, arrived Monday night for a visit of some length with his aunt, Mrs. G. F. Rinehart. Though a little fellow, Harold has been long distances on both oceans, has lived in Mexico, Chili and Bolivia, and can talk Spanish some though he is now out of practice. His father is engaged in mining operations in South America while Mrs. Smith is educating the children in this country.—Newton Herald.

A boon to travelers. Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry. Cures dysentery, diarrhoea, seasickness, nausea. Pleasant to take. Perfectly harmless.

The many friends of Mrs. C. O. Hartsook will be grieved to hear of her passing away at the family home yesterday. She has been sick for some weeks and it was thought she was rapidly recovering until last Monday morning she took worse and at no time afterwards seem to rally for the better only at short intervals, until at last the end came relieving her of this life's burden. She leaves a husband and three children the youngest about six weeks old, a mother, sisters and brothers and many friends. Funeral services will be held at Bethel today.—Pleasanton Index.

The navy which gives England the supremacy of the seas, costs $855,000,000 a year, or a little more than that United States pays in pensions.

F. C. Mullinix, of Leon, Iowa, was in our city, last Monday, and contracted with the Board of Aldermen for twelve concrete crossings around the public square. The crossings will be at least six feet wide. Mr. Mullinix put a two years guarantee on his work, and if anything unsatisfactory shows up during that time, he will replace same without cost to the city. Good gravel beds were found close to the city, which is a great saving, as in many places this material has to be shipped in. The contract price was 23 cents per square foot. The city council are to be commended for this act, and we hope that in the near future they will continue and reach further out from the square. If this proves to be satisfactory, which we believe it will. The new crossings will be in by the time of the Big Street Fair.—Bethany Republican.

Golden Wedding Anniversary.

At their home east of town, Mr. and Mrs. McIntosh Hill, last Friday, July 10, 1903, occurred one of those occasions which can come to a married couple only once, and that the observing of their fiftieth wedding day.

Their children and grandchildren gathered at the home to help this aged and respected couple enjoy themselves in a way that they, if a like occasion should be their lot, too may feel proud of the blessings of life. The afternoon was pleasantly spent in talking over the occurrences of the past fifty years, the present and future and should the young generation heed the much lofty advice ground from years of experience, their difficulties in facing the great problems would be partly over with. All wished father and mother and grandfather and grandmother many happy years yet. Those present were, J. Henry Hill, George Hill, O. J. Hill and their families, Mr. Henry Underwood and daughter Huldah, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Moorman and son Homer. One son, John Hill and family were not present living in Oklahoma.—Pleasanton Index.

Brutally Tortured.

A case came to light that for persistent and unmerciful torture has perhaps never been equalled. Joe Golobiek of Colusa, Calif., writes, "for 15 years I endured insufferable pain from Rheumatism and nothing relieved me though I tried everything known. I came across Electric Bitters and it's the greatest medicine on earth for that trouble. A few bottles of it completely relieved and cured me." Just as good for Liver and Kidney troubles and general debility. Only 50c. Satisfaction guaranteed by L. Van Werden Duggist.

Metier-McCaull.

On Tuesday evening, July 21st, the marriage of Mrs. Elizabeth Metier, of this place and Samuel John McCaull, of Minneapolis, Minn., was solemnized at the M. E. parsonage, the Rev. E. C. Newland officiating. Mr. and Mrs. McCaull left the same evening for Chicago and from there they go to their future home at 639 E. 18th St., Minneapolis, where they will be "at home" after August 15th. The bride is well known in Garden Grove and she is a charming young lady, admirably qualified to make a worthy wife and helpmate. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Wheeler. The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Robt. McCaull, and is a man of sterling worth and integrity. The Express joins with a host of friends in extending felicitations and hope that Mr. and Mrs. McCaull may enjoy peace, prosperity and happiness in their new home.—Garden Grove Express.

Mrs. J. S. Brown Is Dead.

On Saturday morning our community was shocked by the sad intelligence of the sudden death of Mrs. J. S. Brown at Melrose, Ohio, her old home. She died on Friday evening and the interment took place Monday in Rock Creek cemetery where her only son, Harry, lies buried. Mrs. Brown had been in ill health for some time, so her death was not wholly unexpected. She leaves a husband and three daughters, Mrs. Geo. Russell and Mrs. O. C. Jordan, of this place and Mrs. Nort Pyle, of Kirksville, Mo., also a sister and brother in Ohio to mourn her loss. Mr. and Mrs. Brown moved here in 1889 with their family where they have resided for the past fourteen years. Mrs. Brown possessed many noble womanly qualities of both heart and mind, which endeared her, not only to her beloved ones, but to a large circle of friends and acquaintances who deeply deplore her death. In their sad bereavement the family have the deepest sympathy of all.—Garden Grove Express.

Iowa Falls capitalists have become interested in a corn husker that it is believed solves the question of a practical harvester of corn and the invention will be put on the market this summer and fall to demonstrate the practicability of the machine. It is invented by a man named Lanning and in order that its practicability may be demonstrated to the farmers of this part of the state about thirty of the machines will be made and one will be placed in each of thirty counties in this part of the state, showing the machine at work and its utility. If the enterprise receives public endorsement, the husker will be manufactured on a much larger scale another year.—Hampton Globe.
