What's the secret of happy, vigorous health? Simply keeping the bowels, the stomach, the liver and kidneys strong and active. Burdock Blood Bitters does it.

Two old and rare Spanish coins were found this summer by one of Clint McIntosh's sons in plowing on the farm of his father five miles southwest of Mercer. The coins are somewhat larger than the standard American dollar and appear to be composed of a combination of silver and copper. On the coins were stamped the date of 1828 and the words "Ferdinand-Rex." They were somewhat corroded and very strongly stuck together. The field where they were found has been in cultivation about 60 years. How, when and by whom they were lost is an unexplained mystery.—Lineville Tribune.

Quick Relief for Asthma Sufferers.
 Foley's Honey and Tar affords immediate relief to asthma sufferers in worse stages and if taken in time will effect a cure. L. Van Van Werden.

We have been informed by a gentleman who was present that Baucher's snake-eater and the people of Marengo had quite an exciting experience last Thursday. About forty or fifty persons were on the raised snake den which surrounded the platform when the timbers gave way and precipitated the frightened spectators into the pit among the serpents. Our informant says that he never saw people in as big a hurry to get away from something which had but a moment before been an attraction. About twenty of the snakes were killed, including three of the big rattlers. The snake-eater was bruised considerably and some of the frightened Marengoes are running yet.—Knoxville Journal.

Experiments are sometimes expensive, sometimes painful and sometimes both. Jess Lindsey tried one in J. J. Rabinson's shop Wednesday evening of last week which must be placed in the last named class. He gathered the idea that a gasoline engine, though of course a useful article, is also a plaything, an idea that altogether too many people get in regard to what they see around workshops—and so proceeded to put his foot in between the wheels and start the engine. Operating according to the law of its being—the principle of its construction—the driver came around and crushed the big toe of his left foot almost off. Dr. Crofford stitched it on in an effort to save the toe. We are sorry, very sorry, for the boy; but it should teach him and all others who become acquainted with it, that tools and machinery in shops are placed there solely for the use of the proprietor, and not to be used as playthings.—Lamoni Patriot.

A Physician Healed.
 Dr. Geo. W. Ewing, a practicing physician of Smith's Grove, Ky., for over thirty years, writes his personal experience with Foley's Kidney Cure. "For years I had been greatly bothered with kidney and bladder trouble and enlarged prostate gland. I used everything known to the profession without relief, until I commenced to use Foley's Kidney Cure. After taking three bottles I was entirely relieved and cured. I prescribe it now daily in my practice and heartily recommended its use to all physicians for such troubles. I have prescribed in hundreds of cases with perfect success." L. Van Werden.

Indianola's council by a vote of eight to one at last week's meeting adopted a resolution to pave around the square and one-half block each way with asphalt. The dissenting councilman, Wm. Burton Jr., represents interests who own two blocks facing the proposed paving.

Foley's Kidney Cure is a medicine free from poisons and will cure any case of Kidney disease that is not beyond the reach of medicine. L. Van Werden.

Mayor Marion Woodard of Leon, was in our city Saturday forenoon. Owing either to over indulgence at one numerous soda fountains, bashfulness arising from the fact that a number of young ladies boarded the accommodation train, financial embarrassment, or some such similar cause, he returned to the county seat in a forty-foot furniture car.—Lamoni Chronicle.

A little life may be sacrificed to an hour's delay. Cholera infantum, dysentery, diarrhoea come suddenly. Only safe plan is to have Dr. Flower's Extract of Wild Strawberry always on hand.

A serious accident occurred on the Riggs' farm last week. C. P. McNeal and All Stafford were returning to the field for a fresh load of hay when the team became frightened and ran away, piling men, wagon, and hay rack in a heap. C. P. McNeal received a broken leg and is now confined to his room as a result of the accident. One of the horses legs was broken also, and the animal was killed and put out of its misery.—Lamoni Chronicle.

If Banner Salve

Mr. G. C. McLaurey, of near Kellerton, while pulling the trip of the hay fork, a slip occurred and he received a fall from which he fractured his collar bone, Saturday. Some Kellerton doctors were sent for Saturday and Sunday Dr. Hohner, who has been treating him for some time, was also called. The accident was peculiarly unfortunate as it is likely to complicate other troubles from which he was suffering.—Lamoni Patriot.

The C. B. & Q. has declared war on the habit of jumping trains. Detective Jim Harrison is authorized to arrest all parties he can catch thus violating the law. Six boys were arrested at Russell recently and Tuesday a boy named Elmer Camp hailing from Ogden, Utah, was arrested here and had his preliminary trial before Squire Trent who remanded him to jail where he is liable to stay for awhile. This should be a warning to others.—Osceola Democrat.

If Harrison wants to do a land office business he had better pay Leon a visit.

The farm residence belonging to Ira Price was totally destroyed by fire last Saturday afternoon, at 4 o'clock. It is supposed to have been caused by some defect in the chimney. The house was insured. It was a hard fight to save the barns and outbuildings. This house was an old landmark, having been built by Uncle Seth Samson in 1860, where he lived with his family for sixteen years, and we are not surprised because Uncle Seth feels quite broken up to see the ruins of his old home, although it had passed into other hands.—Van Wert Record.

The day of the newspaper obituary poem has long since gone by in most civilized portions of the country, but there still remain benighted regions where the light of common sense has not yet penetrated. In those localities it is possible to see almost any kind of tom foolery in struggling newspapers of the place. Missouri has such a region down in one of her corners, and from the columns of a paper of that locality is printed the following actual obituary poem:

The window was open,
 The curtain was drawn;
 A microbe flew in
 And our darling was gone.

End of Bitter Fight.

It conquers all Coughs, Colds and Lung troubles. Guaranteed by L. P. Van Werden Drug store. Price 50cts, and $1.00. Trial bottles free.
