Are You Interested in the South

Do you care to know of the marvelous development now going on in the

of innumerable opportunities for young men or old ones—to grow rich?

Do you want to know about rich farming lands, fertile, well located, on a trunk line railroad, which produce two, three and four crops from the same field each year, and which can be purchased at very low prices on easy terms? About stock raising where the extreme of winter feeding is but (6) short weeks? Of places where truck growing and fruit raising yield enormous returns each year? Of a land where you can live out of doors every day in the year? Of opportunities for establishing profitable manufacturing industries; of rich mineral locations and splendid business openings? If you want to know the details of any or all of these write me. I will gladly advise you fully and truthfully.

O. G. Hutchinson has purchased of Assignee Gardner the R. Richardson 320 acre farm south of town, consideration $11,000. He has lived on this farm for eight years, renting it of Mr. Richardson and has been able to handle it with but little help. How would you feel reader if you had to give up your property, to make good the appropriating of funds by another?—Pleasanton Index.

Best Remedy for Constipation.

"The finest remedy for constipation I ever used in Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets," says Mr. Eli Butler, of Franklinville, N. Y. "They act gently and without any unpleasant effect, and leave the bowels in a perfect condition." Sold by L. P. Van Werden.

H. M. Kern and family arrived in Ridgeway Thursday of last week and have gone to hosekeeping in the Mrs. Kirk residence in the north part of town. As stated before, Mr. Kern has purchased the business of the Kern poultry establishment and will take possession Dec. 1. Mr. Kern is experienced in the business and a hustler for trade. He proposes to keep up with the market and get his share of the business.—Ridgeway Journal.

Report from the Reform School.

J. C. Gluck, Superintendent, Pruntytown, W. Va., writes: "After trying all other advertised cough medicines we have decided to use Foley's Honey and Tar exclusively in the West Virginia Reform School. I find it the most effective and absolutely harmless." L. P. Van Werden, Druggist.

Knoxville is objecting strenuously to the locating of the inebriate asylum there, and they will fight to the last ditch to prevent it. The boozers must feel proud of the welcome they receive over Iowa. No town objects to having an insane asylum, or even a penitentiary or a reform school, but they are all fighting like sin to keep from getting the inebriate asylum. Even the insane patients at Mt. Pleasant refuse to associate with the inebriates, saying that they themselves cannot help their mental infirmities, but the boozers can help theirs, and won't. It is a pretty predicament, indeed, and shows the drunkard to be considered by all classes as on a lower level than lunatics or convicts.

Don't be imposed upon by taking substitutes offered for Foley's Honey and Tar. For sale by L. P. Van Werden.

Quite an exciting runaway occurred on Main street Wednesday morning. A. C. Bunney's team which was tied near the Boyce elevator got away and started to run east and met Joe Bailey driving west from the National bank. Mr. Bailey tried to give them the road but they struck the rear of his buggy turning it around and smashing it up, throwing him under the buggy. His team started to run east dragging him a short distance before they could be stopped. Mr. Bailey received a severe bruise on his shoulder. Mr. Bunney's team ran up the street and struck a telephone pole. Both buggies were badly demolished.—Garden Grove Express.

A Costly Mistake.

Blunders are sometimes very expensive. Occasionally life itself is the price of a mistake, but you'll never be wrong if you take Dr. King's New Life Pills for dyspepsia, dizziness, headache, liver or bowel troubles. They are gentle yet thorough. 25c at L. P. Van Werden's Drug Store.

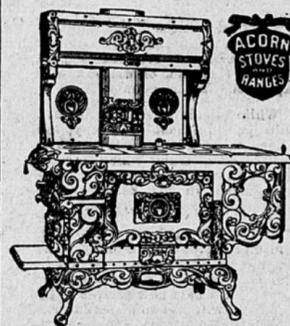

When much younger, we were taught to either speak good of the dead or keep our bazoo closed. Remembering this we are not going to say ill of "Doc" Scott, an old fellow who died quite suddenly Tuesday noon of heart disease. There is an old saying, to the effect that when one dies he will be a long time dead, and without speaking desparingly we must say that but few around here will care if "Doc" stays dead a little longer than that. "Doc" was a pensioner and as he left a widow to mourn(?) his demise it was naturally supposed that she would get his pension and as the check for the last quarter reached here shortly after his death she, at the request of some of his old soldier comrades, rumaged through his papers for his pension voucher. In doing so she found (what do you suppose?) a divorce decree, granted to him over four years ago! And that was the first intimation she ever had that she was not his lawful wife. The old lady is unable to read or write and it is supposed that he had published his intentions at some time when she was away from home on a visit, charging desertion, and got the decree on that ground. "Doc" Scott will be a long time dead. "Doc" Scott ought to be!—Davis City Lariat.
