What Have You To Offer?

Geo. Morey north of town has a white mule colt, the first our eyes "ever gazed upon," though we have heard of the "white mule" for years. Charlie Cornett said he had seen a white elephant and "James" Estes said that Jno. Smith had told him he (Jno.) had seen a white bear, but a white mule colt was a curiosity.—Pleasanton Index.

It pours the oil of life into your system. It warms you up and starts the life blood circulating. That's what Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea does. 35 cents. Tea or tablets. W. C. Stempel & Co.

It was reported here the first of the week that a lad of 12 years by the name of Moore living near Saline, was bit by a dog about two weeks ago, and that last Monday the boy arose early, left home and the last heard of him he was passing Marion Elmore's about noon Monday acting very strange. Diligent search has been made and they claim no trace of him can be had.—Pleasanton Index.

You never heard of any one using Foley's Honey and Tar and not being satisfied. Sold by L. P. Van Werden.

Mr. John Brown had an experience with a compound made of lively horse flesh and bee stings livelier still, Monday, which he will quite often think about and long remember. He had a couple of horses hitched to a vehicle on a vacant lot near his home, when a swarm of bees, regarding them as intruders, gave them battle. The scene which ensued beggars description. The animals became wild, and Mr. Brown had to rush into the fray and get one animal away at a time, getting himself very badly stung in doing so. The animals were for a time seriously affected, but have recovered.—Lamoni Patriot.

J. W. Smith has recently purchased a new twenty-two horse-power touring car. The new car is a $2,500 machine of the Buick make and will carry six passengers. Mr. Smith traded his Stephens in on the new car. The exchange will be made this week. Bill is an enthusiastic autoist and believes in having as good as there is to be had.—Lamoni Chronicle.

Foley's Honey and Tar is peculiarly adapted for asthma, bronchitis and hoarseness. Sold by L. P. Van Werden

During the thunder storm, Tuesday afternoon, the residence of Auston Payton of Tuskeega was struck by lightning and considerably damaged. The bolt shattered the southeast corner of the house including a door on the south and a window on the east. Window lights were broken up stairs and considerable other damage done, the contents of the adjoining rooms being damaged somewhat. We are not informed that any of the family were injured. The loss, which was estimated at from fifty to sixty dollars, is covered by insurance.—Lamoni Chronicle.

Have you weakness of any kind—stomach, back, or any organs of the body? Don't dope yourself with ordinary medicine. Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea is the supreme curative power. 35 cents, Tea or tablets. W. C. Stempel & Co.

Like wild fire, spread the news a few days ago, that an anti-saloon league man was in town. One of The Lariat's corps of reporters, with a small roll of note paper, two pencils, a smile on his face, and a signal of distress flying at half-mast from the end-gate of his pants was started out for an interview, and who do you suppose he run to earth? None but "Bill" Young, the county treasurer who was down from Leon to get a drink of Grand river water and pick out his camping place during the reunion.—Davis City Lariat.
