

PURELY PERSONAL

E. J. Warner had business at Davis City Monday.

Oscar Judd, of Davis City, was a Leon visitor last Thursday.

D. F. Avery made a business trip to Davis City last Friday.

J. A. Caster made a business trip to Creston last Thursday.

E. B. McClelland made a business trip to Grand River Monday.

Prof. F. P. Reed had business at Pleasanton last Thursday.

J. H. Evans had business calling him to Davis City last Friday.

Tom Artt went to Decatur City Tuesday afternoon on business.

C. R. Riley, of Decatur City, had business in this city last Friday.

Deputy Sheriff Ira Wallace had official business at Lamoni Tuesday.

Miss Minnie Miller visited over Sunday with friends in Van Wert.

John F. Hacker, of Long Creek, had business in this city Tuesday.

Miss Mida Bradley visited over Sunday with friends at Humeston.

C. C. Little was visiting with friends at Garden Grove last Thursday.

F. M. Osborn had business calling him to Des Moines last Saturday.

County attorney W. B. Kelley had legal business at Lamoni Saturday.

Miss Ruoy Hazlet returned Saturday from a visit with friends at Lamoni.

Mrs. Forest Lorey visited over Sunday with her parents at Davis City.

Rev. D. F. Sellards went to Mt. Ayr Tuesday morning on a short business trip.

Will Epperley, of Osceola, spent Sunday at the home of his parents in this city.

Mrs. Ollie Hasty went to Des Moines Thursday for a visit with friends in that city.

Dr. B. L. Eiker, of Decatur City, had professional business in this city last Friday.

Miss Estella Konklin, of Garden Grove, was visiting in this city last Friday.

Dr. L. J. Landis, of Grand River, spent a few hours in this city on business last Friday.

C. E. Buchanan, the Humeston real estate man, had business in this city Tuesday.

M. L. Temple, of Osceola, was in Leon last Thursday on some important legal business.

Miss Marian Woodard left Saturday for a few days visit with friends at Chariton.

C. H. Harp, of the Capital Hotel, was visiting with friends at Davis City last Thursday.

Mrs. O. C. Clark went to Des Moines Tuesday for a short visit with relatives in that city.

Elder Duncan Campbell, of Pleasanton, was an over Sunday visitor with friends in this city.

John W. Dunn and wife went to Van Wert Tuesday to visit a couple of days with friends.

R. A. Sigler spent a couple of days at Cainsville the latter part of last week buying horses.

Misses Myrtle and Ocean Hamilton left Monday for a short visit with friends in St. Joe.

Dr. Willard Jeffrey and wife, of Davis City, were visiting with friends in this city last Thursday.

Mrs. A. D. Brannaman went to Grand River Friday for a short visit with relatives and friends.

Miss Alice Jeffrey, of Davis City, came Monday for a short visit with friends in this city.

J. T. Lane returned Saturday from a visit of several weeks with a son residing in Kansas City.

Edgar Ketcham was a passenger Tuesday for Chariton to see the circus which exhibited in that city.

Capt. J. D. Brown returned Tuesday from Chicago where he had been with a shipment of fat cattle.

Mrs. W. A. McCann, went to Kellerton Monday morning for a short visit at the home of her parents.

Mrs. Marion F. Stookey went to Des Moines Tuesday for a short visit with friends in that city.

Senator Marion F. Stookey went to Des Moines Saturday to attend the republican state convention.

Miss Enid Alexander left Tuesday for a few days visit in Des Moines at the home of Herbert Wiseman.

Attorneys W. B. Kelley and A. P. Olsen had legal business calling them to Grand River last Thursday.

Mrs. Frank Jenks and little son, left Tuesday for a visit in Des Moines at the home of W. L. Caldwell.

Master Harry Lemley went to Blythedale, Mo., Saturday to visit a week at the home of his grandfather.

N. Craig and wife went to Garden Grove Tuesday to visit at the home of his brother over the reunion.

Harry Stover returned Monday to Knoxville, where he has a good position in the hospital for inebriates.

Rev. Sadie Gibbons went to New Virginia Saturday to fill her appointment to preach at that place.

Postal clerk John W. Dunn came in from Albia Tuesday to spend his off week with his wife in this city.

I. N. Ruark, the Rawleigh Medicine Co. man, went to Allerton Saturday to spend Sunday with his family.

Mrs. Laura Riley, of Corydon, arrived Saturday for a short visit at the home of I. N. McPherrin in this city.

Lester Willoughby, of Des Moines, was an over Sunday visitor in this city, the guest of Miss Winnie Mills.

Mrs. A. B. Pierce, of Van Wert, came Monday to visit a few days in this city, the guest of Mrs. J. L. Gardner.

Mrs. Walter Rupe, of Akron, Mo., arrived Monday on a visit to her sister, Mrs. Norman Morgan, of this city.

Miss Alice Leffer returned Saturday to her home at Van Wert after visiting a few days with friends in this city.

Mrs. F. M. Hamilton, of Davis City, came Friday for a short visit at the home of W. C. Hamilton in this city.

James R. Penniwell came down from Derby Saturday and visited a few days at the home of his parents in this city.

Rev. Father Aide, of Chariton, came down Saturday and preached at the Catholic church at Woodland on Sunday.

James Harris went to Osceola Tuesday, having been notified to appear before the pension board for examination.

W. F. Ghormley was a passenger Tuesday for Osceola, having some insurance losses in that vicinity to adjust.

Geo. M. Hamilton, wife and daughter Winifred returned Thursday from a ten day visit with relatives at Princeton, Mo.

D. J. Hullinger, of Davis City, came up last Thursday and spent a couple of days visiting with old friends in this city.

Miss Gladys Ghormley, of Bondurant, Iowa, came Saturday for a visit in this city at the home of W. F. Ghormley, her uncle.

Mrs. A. W. Cain, of Chicago, arrived Friday for a visit at the home of her sister, Mrs. J. D. Brown, of south Main Street.

H. O. Harvey and little son returned Saturday from Creston where they spent a week visiting relatives and friends.

Uncle Bob Bowsher, C. M. Akes and R. A. Sigler went to Des Moines Tuesday to attend the republican state convention.

Our good old friend, S. H. Briley, of Garden Grove, was a Leon visitor Monday, and dropped in for a short chat with us.

Messrs Glenn Tidrick and Fred Allen, of Des Moines, were over Sunday visitors at the home of W. F. Ghormley in this city.

P. G. Harris, of Long Creek township, returned Tuesday from a trip to Chicago, where he accompanied a shipment of live stock.

Misses Lenna Beavers and Kate Hull returned Saturday from Cedar Falls where they were attending the State Normal School.

John Ledgerwood went to Des Moines Friday to attend the republican state convention, going early to take a hand in the big fight.

Mrs. Thurman Craig, of Blythedale, Mo., came Monday for a short visit in this city at the home of her daughter Mrs. J. L. Warner.

Mrs. Ben Stewart and little son Harry, of St. Joe, came last Thursday for a short visit with relatives in this city and vicinity.

Miss Lena McConnell, of Boise, Idaho, arrived Monday for a visit of several weeks in this city, the guest of Miss Elizabeth Springer.

Mrs. Catharine Wernitch, of Andover, Mo., came Monday for a visit at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Charles W. Reeder in this city.

Mrs. Nancy Hardy left Saturday for Bevington, Iowa, being called there to attend the funeral of her mother-in-law, Mrs. Hannah Hardy.

Mrs. Morris Gardner went to Grand River Friday to visit a few days at the homes of Mrs. Schuyler Jennings and Mrs. Madison Chick.

Miss Ruth Sanger returned Saturday from Cedar Falls, where she had been taking a special summer course at the State Normal School.

Misses Sophia and Frankie Adkins returned Thursday to their home at Davis City having been in this city taking teachers' examination.

C. B. Simpson, one of the "Country Girl" firm, returned Thursday from Ottumwa, where he had been recuperating from a spell of sickness.

J. H. Alldredge went over to Kellerton Tuesday to arrange for a wrestling match to be held in that place during their reunion this week.

Mrs. A. L. Curry returned Tuesday from Des Moines, where she had been visiting for several weeks with her sister, Miss Clare Lunbeck.

Mrs. John Gore and little daughter returned to their home at Davis City Friday after visiting for a few days with friends in this city.

Ralph Stover and little son departed Monday for their home at Waco, Texas, after visiting a few days at the home of his mother near Pleasanton.

John W. Aten, of Garden Grove, spent a few hours in Leon Tuesday, being on his way to Des Moines to attend the republican state convention.

Earl and Dora Bown, of Humeston, who were visiting at the home of their sister, Mrs. John Zimmerman, in this city, returned home Tuesday.

C. W. Hoffman, wife and daughter Dorothy went to Des Moines Tuesday to visit a few days and see the sights at the republican state convention.

Misses Maud Stocker and Mabel Chase returned Saturday from Cedar Falls where they were taking a special course at the State Normal School.

Conrad Poush and wife, of Blythedale, Mo., arrived Tuesday for a few days visit at the home of their son in this city, county recorder W. A. Poush.

Mrs. Edith McFerron and children, of Clearfield, arrived Monday evening for a visit at the home of her parents, Dr. and Mrs. W. F. Waigant, in this city.

Mrs. C. E. Cardner left Tuesday for a visit in Chicago at the home of her sister, Mrs. G. H. Goodrich. Mr. Gardner accompanied her as far as Chariton.

E. Pace and wife and Mrs. George W. LaFollette returned last Thursday from Ft. Madison, where they had been visiting at the home of Henry LaFollette.

Mrs. E. E. Kelley and baby, of Des Moines, came down last Thursday and visited a couple of days at the home of her uncle, Henry Farnes, in this city.

M. MAYER

The Old Reliable Clothier

A Square Deal for Every Man

that's what you get here. There's no sliding scale of price at this store. Nobody pays any more for an article than anybody else pays. Whenever you buy here you get honest value for your money. No matter how little or how much you pay for anything, there's intrinsic worth goes with it. Why not let us prove this to your permanent satisfaction?

My Prices Always the Lowest

Suits for the Little Men

Bring the boy in and fit him out now and save money as we are making special low prices on all boys' clothing to make room for new fall stock.

We are making special prices on all summer clothing and furnishings.

M. MAYER

The Old Reliable Clothier.

Ed. C. Smith, of Center township, went to Des Moines Monday to attend the republican state convention, being one of the delegates from this county.

Mrs. W. R. Ellinwood and son Beryl returned Monday morning from a visit of several weeks with relatives at Akron, Ohio, and other points in the east.

Mrs. D. E. Morgan and daughter, Mrs. Lloyd Conroy, returned Saturday from Humeston where they had been visiting at the home of Mrs. Morgan's mother.

Mrs. A. E. Brown and son Alva, of Hennessey, Oklahoma, returned Tuesday to their home after a short visit at the home of her son Orville Brown, in Woodland.

F. E. French and wife, of St. Joe, came in Monday evening and visited until Wednesday morning at the home of Mrs. French's parents, Dr. and Mrs. W. F. Waigant.

Mrs. P. F. Bradley and daughter Mabel returned Tuesday to their home at Chillicothe, Mo., after a pleasant visit of several weeks with many friends in this city.

Mrs. Anna Sayre, who was visiting at the home of her mother, Mrs. Watsbaugh and other relatives in this city, returned Tuesday to her home in Des Moines.

Misses Florence and Grace Bennett, of Garden Grove, returned home Thursday after spending a few days in this city, taking examination for teachers' certificates.

Miss Fannie Clark went to Des Moines Saturday to visit her sister, Mrs. J. L. Parrish, and will then accompany the Parrish family to Lake Okoboji for a month's stay.

Dr. J. O. Woodmansee left Tuesday on a short trip to Des Moines where he will attend the republican state convention and visit at the home of his sister, Mrs. B. W. Garrett.

H. W. Fisher and wife, of Peoria, Ill., spent a few hours in this city Saturday, being enroute to Garden Grove for a visit at the home of Mrs. Fisher's brother, George M. Russell.

Miss Josephine Johnson returned Tuesday morning from Berkeley, California, where she has been for a year past visiting an aunt and attending the university at that place.

Mrs. H. C. Quiett left Wednesday for her home in Leon, after a week's stay at the home of her sister, Mrs. W. M. Calfee. Mrs. Calfee's health is much improved.—Mt. Ayr News.

L. P. Keim and wife, of Rockingham, Mo., arrived Friday from Batavia, Iowa, where they had been visiting relatives, and are guests at the home of their son, Charles Keim, north of town.

Miss Bell Day and little nephew, Willard Day, of Des Moines, who were visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. E. D. Dorn in this city, left Monday for a visit with relatives at Fairfield.

Miss Eva Rhea, stenographer in the office of Temple & Temple, at Osceola, came down Saturday for a few days visit at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Amanda McClelland, in this city.

Miss Jane Reddick, of Seymour, Iowa, who was visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. Wm. Pottorff in this city, left Friday for Des Moines, where she goes to take some special school work.

Miss Fannie Evans, who is employed in a large department store at Albia, came Monday to spend a two weeks vacation at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Evans, in this city.

John S. Strong, wife and baby, of Latham, Kas., stopped off here Monday and visited a day at the home of J. L. Gardner, being on their way home from a visit with relatives at Van Wert.

Charles Carroll returned Sunday from a vacation trip of several weeks, which he spent visiting with old friends at Kansas City, St. Joe, Leavenworth, Topeka, St. Louis and other points.

Capt. Garrett Gibson left Tuesday to visit with old friends at Princeton, Mo., during the big reunion which is being held this week, and will also visit with friends at Trenton before returning home.

Dr. J. C. Long and wife, former residents of this city, now living near Chillicothe, Mo., passed through this city Saturday on their way to Van Wert, where they are visiting this week with relatives.

Ralph Stover and little son, Raymond, of Waco, Texas, arrived last Thursday for a short visit at the home of his mother near Pleasanton. Ralph has a good position in the Western Union office at Waco.

W. C. Overholzer, of Grand River, was in Leon Tuesday on his way home from Chicago, where he took a shipment of live stock last Saturday. He reports the market for both cattle and hogs as being a little off.

James Daughton and wife, Mrs. James Cain and Patrick Griffin, of Grand River, were in Leon Friday evening, on their way to the home of Mike Griffin, in Eden township, being called by the illness of Mrs. Griffin.

Mrs. J. F. Bryant returned Thursday to her home in Osceola after a pleasant visit in this city at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Moore. Her sisters, Misses Marie and Hazel Moore accompanied her home.

Walter Kimport, a clerk in the post-office at Des Moines, came down Saturday for an over Sunday visit, his wife having been visiting at the home of her mother, Mrs. Mary Walton, of Eden prairie, for several weeks.

Mrs. A. W. Bryant, of Osceola, stopped off in this city Tuesday and visited over night at the home of her grandfather, G. W. Machlan, while returning from a visit at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. P. Britt, at Davis City.

Mrs. A. M. Pardee and daughter Florence, of Madison, Wis., who have been visiting at the home of her brother, O. E. Hull, for several weeks, went to Centerville Wednesday afternoon to visit a few days with relatives in that city.

Mrs. W. H. Howard and two little nieces, Isabel and Gertrude McCaul, went to Garden Grove Saturday where they will spend a week at the home of Mrs. Howard's parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. J. McCaul and attend the Old Settlers Reunion.

A. S. Ladd, one of the old residents of Grand River, who came down to attend the Mexican Veterans' annual meeting Saturday, returned home Monday, having visited over Sunday at the home of his daughter, Mrs. S. D. Miller, near High Point.

N. Halstead, who has been in this city for several weeks taking medical treatment from Dr. J. O. Woodmansee, returned Saturday to his home east of Pleasanton, considerably improved. He was accompanied by his daughter, Mrs. M. E. Gammill.

C. M. Lenox and wife, of Des Moines, who were visiting at the home of his brother-in-law, E. J. Teale, in this city went to Mt. Moriah, Mo., Thursday to visit a few days with relatives and friends in that vicinity. Mrs. Teale accompanied them.

F. C. Sanborn and wife, former well known citizens of this town, came in Saturday from Ottumwa, their goods having been left here when they went to Des Moines a few months ago. Mr. Sanborn is contemplating going to Washington state to engage in business.

Thomas House, of Los Angeles, California, visited over Sunday in this city at the home of his brother John House.

Mr. House is a prominent real estate dealer of Los Angeles, and was on his way home from a two months trip to his old home in England and also made a tour of Germany while away.

Mrs. M. J. Powers and Mrs. I. E. Evans returned Thursday from Albany, Mo., where they were visiting with relatives. They were accompanied to this city by their sisters, Mrs. Wm. Hinds, of Albany, Mo., and Mrs. Anna Peters, of Kansas City, Mo., who are now enjoying a visit with numerous friends and old acquaintances in this vicinity.

Dr. H. R. Layton, wife and son Ray finally got away Friday afternoon for Lake Okoboji for their summer outing, having been delayed in departing for several days on account of Ray's illness. They were accompanied by Miss Edith Harris and will spend the coming month at the pleasant Layton cottage at Camp Leon, one of the prettiest spots at the lakes.

Sam Stover, one of the city mail carriers, at Cherokee, Iowa, came in last Thursday to visit a week at the home of his mother, Mrs. J. H. Stover, near Pleasanton, and attend a family reunion, all the boys being at home, Ralph from Waco, Texas, and Harry from Knoxville, the later being one of the attendants at the state hospital for inebriates at Knoxville.

Prof. John R. Beavers and wife, who have been visiting for a few weeks at the home of his father, J. K. Beavers, in High Point, left Tuesday for Colorado Springs, Colorado, where Prof. Beavers will attend the State Normal Institute. He has accepted the superintendency of the public schools at Calhan, Colorado, to which place they will go after attending the normal at Colorado Springs.

John Fennell, wife and niece, Miss Margaret Rogers, of Corydon, drove over Sunday and visited a few days with relatives and friends in this city and vicinity. Mr. Fennell is a member of the well known firm of Fennell Bros., the celebrated Corydon auctioneers, who cry a goodly number of sales in Decatur county every year, and has many friends here who are always pleased to see him.

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC—We wish it understood that we will meet any prices offered by any telephone company for telephone service of the same value. 48-St. LEON TELEPHONE CO.

Gem City Business College, Quincy, Illinois.

The largest, most successful Business College in America. 20 teachers, 1400 students, and $100,000 College Building. Bookkeeping, Shorthand and Typewriting, Penmanship, Banking, Etc. Graduates readily secure employment. Write today for 64-page Illustrated Catalogue Free, showing how to qualify for a good situation as stenographer or bookkeeper. Address, D. L. Musselman, Pres., 43-10t Quincy, Illinois.

New Second-Hand Store!

I have again engaged in the second-hand business and located in the Sam Hamilton building on south side of square ready to buy or sell anything in my line. Furniture and stoves is where I shine. I have the goods to sell, not to keep. Come and see me. 50

O. E. TULLIS & CO.

SHERIFF'S SALE.
By virtue of an execution, directed to me from the clerk of the district court of Decatur county, Iowa, on a judgment obtained before D. W. Keller, a justice of the peace of Leroy township, Decatur county, Iowa, on the 15th day of August, 1905, a transcript of which was duly filed in the office of the clerk of the district court of Decatur county, Iowa, on the 10th day of February, 1906, in favor of E. J. Keenan as plaintiff and against Adam Hay and Laura A. Hay as defendants, for the sum of thirty-five dollars and 2 cents, and costs taxed at $3.55 and accruing costs, I have levied upon the following real estate, taken as the property of said defendants to satisfy said execution to-wit:

Lot one (1) and two (2) block twenty-two (22) in the town of Leroy, Decatur county, Iowa, and will offer the same for sale to the highest bidder for cash in hand, on the 27th day of Aug., A. D. 1906, in front of the court house door in Leon, Iowa, at the hour of 10 o'clock a. m. of said day, when and where due attendance will be given by the undersigned.

Dated at Leon, Iowa, July 24, 1906.

T. E. WALLACE,
Sheriff of said County.