

PURELY PERSONAL

C. E. Wood was a Blockley visitor last Friday. A. E. Price, of Van Wert, was a Leon visitor last Friday. John Akers had business at Garden Grove last Thursday. E. M. Peck went to Chariton Monday on real estate business. P. E. Shirley, of Davis City, was a Leon visitor last Friday. Elmer Harris had business calling him to Humeaston Monday. Miss Ona Riley, of Decatur City, was a Leon visitor last Friday. U. G. John returned Thursday from a business trip to Van Wert. A. E. Dorn returned Friday from a business trip to Des Moines. E. H. Alexander had business at Garden Grove the first of the week. H. B. Lunbeck and wife, of Decatur City, were Leon visitors Monday. Miss Clara Leahy, of Blockley, was visiting in this city last Thursday. Geo. W. Johnston, of Van Wert, was a business caller in this city Monday. J. O. McKibben, of Garden Grove, had business in this city last Thursday. Frank Aldredge went to Kellerton Tuesday to remain over the reunion. S. A. Gates left Thursday afternoon on a business trip to Greencastle, Mo. A. T. Ross, of Decatur City, was a business visitor in this city Tuesday. County attorney Geo. W. Baker had legal business at Davis City last Friday. Miss Artie Forbes went to Weldon Friday to visit a few days with friends. Mrs. O. E. Tullis, of Chariton, came Monday for a few days visit in this city. E. W. Teale, of Davis City, was a business visitor in this city last Thursday. James F. Gill, of Garden Grove, was a business visitor in this city last Thursday. Senator W. B. Tallman, of Osceola, had legal business in this city last Friday. J. E. Vail, of Garden Grove, was a business visitor in this city last Saturday. Roy Phillips went to Grand River Thursday to visit a few days with relatives. Miss Wilda Jennings returned Friday from a few days visit with relatives at Leary. Paul Stookey went to Chillicothe, Mo., Saturday for a short visit with Willie Bradley. Fletcher Layton, of Des Moines, was visiting his many friends in this city Tuesday. Miss Ola Pitman left Monday for a visit with friends at Van Wert and Des Moines. Abe Blakesley left Thursday for a two months' visit with relatives at Gothenburg, Neb. Miss Grace Ironsides left Friday for a week's visit with friends in Des Moines and Ames. Ed. H. Sharp went to Bethany, Mo., Saturday and visited over Sunday with his parents. Dr. J. W. Greenman returned Thursday afternoon from a business trip to Kansas City. Attorney A. K. Aten, of Chariton, was looking after legal business in this city last Thursday. William Hoffman, who has been working in Des Moines, came home Monday for a short visit. Clyde Pickering went to Garden Grove Tuesday to visit with friends over the reunion. William Vanostrand left Monday for a few days visit with a brother living at Fairfield. Charles Norton was down at Bethany, Mo., the latter part of last week buying some good horses. Hon. E. J. Sankey returned Thursday from spending a few days in Des Moines on business. Mrs. G. E. Acton went to Davis City Thursday and visited a few days with friends in that town. Mrs. Henry Emmons returned Saturday from spending a few days with relatives at Pleasanton. C. M. Wheeler, of Pleasanton, passed through this city Saturday going to Des Moines on business. H. A. Hilliker went to Des Moines Friday to pack his household goods for shipment to this city. Miss Helen Hamilton went to Garden Grove Monday for a week's visit with friends in that vicinity. D. L. Olphat, one of the prominent citizens of Cainsville, had business in this city last Thursday. Miss Eula Waigt went to St. Joe Monday for a two weeks visit with her sister, Mrs. F. E. French. Misses Blanche Stanley and Maggie Taylor went to Garden Grove Tuesday to visit over the reunion. Mrs. W. A. Poush went to Blythedale, Mo., Friday to visit a few days with relatives in that vicinity. Roy Cox, who has been working north of town, went to his home at Humeaston Tuesday for a short visit. S. E. Carmean left Monday for a few days visit at the home of his brother, Geo. W. Carmean, in Albia. Mrs. A. McIntosh and baby went to Decatur City Monday for a short visit at the home of her parents. Miss Maud Stocker returned Saturday from Cedar Falls, where she was attending the State Normal School. George Stewart, of Chariton, was visiting with his many friends in this city last Saturday afternoon. Mrs. F. E. Thompson, of Des Moines, came Tuesday to visit her sister, Mrs. W. W. Warner for a few days. C. M. Keller returned Saturday from a trip to Kirksville, Mo., where he was engaged in a real estate deal. Mrs. Emma Bowman went to Cainsville Saturday to visit her daughter, Mrs. T. S. Duff, for a few days. Miss Myrtle Quiett returned Tuesday from Kansas City where she was visiting her brother, Grover Quiett. Fred Watsabaugh returned Saturday from Des Moines where he had been working for a couple of weeks. J. B. Tye, of Pleasanton, returned Friday from a trip to Chicago, where he took a shipment of live stock. J. T. Lane and granddaughter Phyllis Lane went to St. Joe Friday for a visit at the home of his son, Ed. Lane. Stewart Fulmer, editor of the Van Wert Record, passed through this city Monday on his way to Davis City. Mrs. Mary Meek, of Eden township, went to Van Wert Tuesday to visit a few days at the home of E. J. Blair. Dr. T. S. Duff, of Cainsville, was visiting with his brother-in-law, Dr. F. A. Bowman, in this city last Thursday.

Elder Duncan Campbell, of Pleasanton, was an over Sunday visitor in this city, and preached at the L. D. S. church. Mrs. James V. Hurst and son James Jr., returned Thursday from a ten days visit with her sisters, in Des Moines. Mrs. John Wilson left Tuesday for Bloomfield, to visit her mother, Mrs. Jacob Helsher for a couple of weeks. Mrs. Lem Vanostrand and son Horry returned Monday from a visit at the home of I. N. McDonough, at Moravia. Dr. J. W. Rowell went to Afton Saturday and visited over Sunday with his parents, Judge and Mrs. N. W. Rowell. Mrs. S. M. Grayson and little son, of Creston, came Monday for a short visit with relatives and friends in this city. Will F. Lindsay and Miss Sada Penniwell spent a few hours in Pleasanton Friday, the guests of Dr. F. H. Penniwell. Miss Essie Hill, of Paris, Mo., came Friday for a visit in this city, the guest of her friend, Miss Elizabeth Springer. Mrs. Willis Cornett went to Davis City Monday to visit her grand-daughter, Mrs. Gertie Flora, who is quite sick. John Tullis went to Chariton Tuesday to assist his son Bert in his second-hand store in that city. Mrs. Isaac Smith and Mrs. W. D. Smith went to Weldon Tuesday to visit a few days with relatives in that vicinity. Miss Nellie Cassill, of Monmouth, Ill., came Thursday for a few days visit in this city, the guest of Mrs. W. W. Warner. Fred Watsabaugh returned to Des Moines Monday after visiting over Sunday at the home of his parents in this city. Mrs. E. Yarrington returned Monday from a week's visit at the home of her daughter, Mrs. John Cooper, near Pleasanton. J. H. Pitman left Friday afternoon for Casey, Iowa, where Mrs. Pitman had been visiting her mother for a couple of weeks. Will Lorey, of Decatur City and Forrest Lorey, of this city, were visiting their father at Pleasanton last Thursday. Miss Rue Hamilton left Tuesday for Jefferson, Iowa, where she has accepted a position as operator in a telephone exchange. Misses Bertha Fultz and Rosamond Severe returned Friday to their home at Davis City after visiting a few days in this city. Mrs. S. E. Terry returned Monday to her home near Davis City after a short visit in this city at the home of Mrs. Willis Cornett. Mrs. Wm. Woodard returned Tuesday to her home at Decatur City after visiting in this city at the home of her son, Marion Woodard. Miss Myrtle Quiett left Friday for a visit in Kansas City with her brother Grover Quiett, who is employed in a bank in that city. Harry Sell, who has been employed as a carpenter in Des Moines all summer, came Monday for a short visit with his parents in this city. Mrs. H. J. Close passed through this city Saturday returning to her home at Joplin, Mo., after a short visit with friends at Indianapolis. Master Clifford Merwin, of Iola, Kas., came last week and will spend some time at the home of his aunt, Mrs. W. A. Alexander, in this city. Mrs. Alice Dasky and daughter Ruby, of Humeaston, were in Leon last Monday being on their way to Saline, Mo., for a visit with relatives. Mrs. Mary Lytle went to Cainsville Tuesday to meet Miss Lona Wiggins, of Princeton, Mo., who came home with her for an extended visit. Mrs. J. W. Attebury and little daughter went to Davis City Saturday and visited over Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Brown. Green Parsons and wife returned Saturday from a few days visit with their daughters, Mrs. O. E. Tullis and Mrs. Will Atha, at Chariton. Mrs. T. E. Cummings and son Arthur, of Davis City, came Tuesday to visit a few days in this city at the home of her daughter, Mrs. W. G. Jeffries. Mrs. H. J. Lillard returned Thursday to her home at Weldon after a pleasant visit in this city at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Charles Norton. Ed Coffin returned Friday to his home at St. Joe after visiting a few days in this city with his brother, Charles Coffin and numerous old friends. Henry Pitman and wife returned Tuesday from Casey, Iowa, where they had been visiting at the home of Mrs. Pitman's mother, Mrs. Sarah Knox. Fred Neice, of St. Joe, a former well known resident of this city, came up last Wednesday evening and visited a couple of days with friends in this city. Mrs. Ethel Fisher and daughter Irene, of Cordova, S. D., arrived Saturday for a visit at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Campbell, south of Leon. Mrs. F. P. Han, of Northwood, N. D., arrived Saturday for a short visit at the home of her mother, Mrs. Samuel Miller, who has been very sick for some time. Mrs. Otis McKern and two children, of Albia, arrived Saturday for a visit at the home of her brother, A. J. Hughes and sister, Mrs. John Perdue, in this city. Mrs. J. L. Young returned last Thursday from Des Moines where she had been visiting for several weeks with her three daughters who reside in that city. Mrs. S. G. Swisher returned Saturday to her home at Osceola after visiting a few days in this city at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Bowman. Mrs. R. R. Hopton returned Monday to her home at Danville, Iowa, after a pleasant visit in this city at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Hamilton. George W. Sanger, who is building the new Masonic hall at Decatur City, came over Saturday and visited over Sunday with his family northeast of Leon. Mrs. L. T. Long returned Saturday to her home at Ellston, Iowa, after a pleasant visit in this city at the home of her son, county superintendent J. W. Long. Misses Hazel Bonser and Corine Branham, who were visiting in this city at the home of their grandmother, Mrs. S. J. Koger, returned to Bethany, Mo., Monday. C. M. Akes and son Earl left Thursday for Gillette, Wyoming, where Mr. Akes will pick up a car or two of extra good western horses and ship them to this city. J. W. Attebury and family returned Monday from Davis City where they visited over Sunday at the home of Mrs. Attebury's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Brown.

Elder R. A. Bixler returned Monday to his home at Corning. He held well attended meetings at the Advent church at Woodland on Sunday morning and evening. William Phillips who is employed on Kurtley Bros. big stock farm at Ford City, Mo., visited over Sunday with his family in this city, returning to Ford City Monday. O. D. and B. T. Davenport and Archie Blatt left Monday for Mitchell, S. D., where they expect to secure work in the harvest fields for some time to come at good wages. S. U. Rush, of Burlington, stopped off in this city Saturday and visited until Sunday with relatives, being on his way home from a visit with his mother at Blythedale, Mo. Misses Mabel and Bessie Gray returned Tuesday to their home at Keokuk after a pleasant visit in this city at the home of their uncle Arthur Forbes and other relatives. W. L. Hinds and wife departed Thursday afternoon for their home at Lexington, Neb., after visiting several months in this city at the home of his mother, Aunt Mary Hinds. Mrs. Mary Umphress, of Leroy, who has been visiting at the home of her son, Thomas Umphress, southwest of Leon, went to Andover, Mo., Saturday to visit a few days with relatives. Mrs. Suel F. Shaw and children returned Friday to their home at Des Moines after visiting for a couple of weeks at the home of her mother, Mrs. A. Fulton, in Eden township. A. C. Merwin, who has been visiting his parents in this city, will return tonight to his home at Tulsa, Ind. Ty. Roe Caster Jr., will accompany him and will visit for a couple of weeks. Deputy treasurer Carl Monroe returned last Thursday from enjoying a two weeks' vacation which he spent with relatives and friends at Bloomington, Ill., and Ft. Madison, Iowa. Mrs. R. J. Smith, of Iola, Kas., who was called here by the serious illness of her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Fred Smith, went to Blockley Thursday to visit a few days at the home of her son. Mrs. M. J. Girdner, of Ellensburg, Washington, and her mother, Mrs. M. J. Elmore, of Bethany, Mo., returned to Bethany Saturday, after a few days visit with relatives at Pleasanton. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Chastain, of Eden township, went to Des Moines Tuesday to visit a few days with relatives of Mrs. Chastain, after which they go to Lake Okoboji for a two weeks outing. Miss Hazel Bonser, of Bethany, Mo., accompanied by her cousin, Miss Corine Branham, of Gainsville, Texas, came Thursday for a visit with their grandmother, Mrs. S. J. Koger, in this city. Miss Berna Cole, of Plattsmouth, Neb., will arrive today for a short visit at the home of her cousins, Mr. and Mrs. J. Hollins. She is returning from Chicago where she has been studying music. R. E. Brant and wife, of Humeaston, passed through this city Friday afternoon returning from a two months' trip to Salt Lake City, and numerous points of interest in Colorado and other western states. J. E. Cummins, the well known postal clerk of Cedar Rapids, accompanied by his daughters June and Artis, came Thursday to visit a few days at the home of his father, F. M. Cummins, just west of town. Mr. Chase C. Glidden, of DeKalb, Ill., was an over Sunday guest in Leon at the home of Prof. J. M. Pierce, being a special friend of Mrs. Pierce's sister, Miss Glenn Wilson, of Atlantic, who is here visiting. Mrs. J. D. Pope and daughter Margaret, of Searcy, Ark., came Thursday and visited until the following day at the home of her uncle, H. J. Landis, being on her way home from a visit with relatives at Murry. Georgia and Nadine Throckmorton returned to their home at Derby last Thursday after a short visit in this city. Their two cousins, Barbara and Maurine Penniwell went home with them for a few days visit. Mrs. Bess Bruce Beard and little daughter, of St. Joe, passed through this city Saturday going to Garden Grove to visit a couple of weeks with her mother, Mrs. Mary Bruce. Her brother, Howard Bruce, accompanied her. John Waggoner and wife, of Portis, Kas., arrived Thursday for a visit at the home of their nephew, Charles Leim, north of Leon. They had been visiting relatives in the eastern part of the state, and are on their way home. Mrs. O. P. Phillips, of Berkeley, California, who was visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. J. C. Johnson, west of Leon, went to Humeaston Thursday, where she is visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. P. Bishop. Mrs. Phil Butler and children, of Osceola, who were visiting in this city at the home of her cousin, Mrs. Frank Allen, went to Van Wert Monday to visit at the home of her uncle, John F. Hacker, a few days before returning home. Prof. A. C. Voelker, who will have charge of the Leon schools the coming year, spent Friday and Saturday in this city unloading his household goods. He is now taking advanced work in Des Moines, but will soon be here with his family. J. S. Parrish, private secretary for United States attorney M. L. Temple, at Osceola, came down Saturday and visited over Sunday with his wife and son Frederick, who came on Wednesday evening to visit her sister, Mrs. J. A. McIntosh. George Moran, the well known horse buyer, of King City, Mo., spent a couple of days in this city the first of the week. It has been some time since George has been in Leon and it kept him busy renewing acquaintance with his many friends. Mrs. C. A. Cherrington and baby came over from Decatur City Tuesday and are visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Miller, in south Leon. Mr. Cherrington was compelled to return to his duties in a drug store at Cherokee Monday. Miss Pearl Hoffman, who is employed as stenographer in the office of the Chamberlin Medicine Co., at Des Moines, arrived Monday for a visit with friends in this city after which she will visit with her parents at Kellerton while enjoying her summer vacation. Mrs. R. L. Parrish and daughter Sasie returned Monday to their home in Des Moines after a pleasant three weeks' visit with relatives in this city. Miss Flora Coons returned to Des Moines with them and will remain with Mrs. Parrish for several months.

Oliver Still and wife who have been living in this county for the past year left Monday for their former home at Buffalo, Wyoming, and will again take up their residence at that place. The Reporter follows them to keep them posted on Decatur county news. Beryl Ellinwood who is attending the Gem City College at Quincy, Ill., came in last week and visited a few days with his parents in this city, returning to Quincy Saturday. In addition to attending college he is playing in an orchestra at Quincy and getting good wages. Charles Carroll, the efficient janitor of the High School building returned Thursday from a two months stay at the Soldier's Home at Marshalltown, where he enjoyed a visit with old comrades. He was re-elected as janitor for the coming year and came in plenty of time to get everything around the school house fixed up in good shape by the time school opens. Dr. and Mrs. H. R. Layton returned last Friday from a three weeks trip to Saratoga Springs, N. Y., where they attended the Grand Encampment of Knights Templars. They also visited with relatives in New York and then took a trip down to Washington City, the Jamestown exposition and visited many points of interest in the east, having a most delightful trip. Nothing I have ever used for poultry gave as prompt and satisfactory results as Walker's Roup & Cholera Cure. We use it both for Roup and Bowel Troubles and find it especially good in Bowel Troubles among little chicks. Sold by L. P. Van Werden and W. C. Stempel. FOR SALE—Complete saw mill outfit with 20 h. p. engine and corn burrs for sale cheap on account of my health. 27ft D. A. BRIGHT. FOR SALE—1000 bushels of corn at 55 cents. C. M. AKES.

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC!

I will be at the Woodmansee House, in Leon, Iowa, during the Chautauqua. All persons afflicted with nervous sensations, or dull headache, caused from eye strain, I can relieve on a guarantee. I have all the improved tests for insuring the best results. Lenses changed free of charge. Examination and consultation free.

P. P. BRADLEY OPTICIAN.

POSITIVE CURE FOR SORE SHOULDERS ON HORSES & MULES. At very small expense you can cure your work horses' sore shoulders, sore necks or sore backs and not lose a single day's work. Security Gail Salve will do it, and after the first application he will be out of pain. You can then look him in the eye and feel right. It is also good policy, for he will do more work without running down. If your stock gets cut from barb wire, or anything else, be sure and use Security Antiseptic Healer. It will cure a cut very quickly. We can supply you. H. A. WRIGHT.

MONEY FOR YOU! We are pleased to announce to you that our creamery at LEON, IOWA, is almost completed and that we will receive cream for it SATURDAY, JULY 13. We have one of the best equipped creameries in the state and hope by fair dealing and courteous treatment to have the largest patronage of any creamery in the state. Bring us your cream and let us SHOW you that it is to your individual interest to sell us. If you are not already one of our customers you are surely missing it to not to become one at once. Our facilities for handling poultry, eggs, butter and cream are unexcelled. Give us a trial. Yours truly, Clarinda Poultry, Butter & Egg Co. W. R. Grace, Supt. at Leon, Iowa.

HARVEST BARGAINS. WHITE FISH, pails..... 65c. WHITE FISH, 1/2 bbl..... $1.90. These fish are full weight and best quality. FLOUR, "Crowning Glory," high patent, sack..... $1.25. FLOUR, "Border Queen," highest patent, sack..... $1.25. Can't be matched at this price. TOMATOES, standard, 3-lb. can..... 10c. PEACHES, standard, 3-lb. can..... 15c. DRIED PEACHES, extra quality, pound..... 15c. PRUNES, extra quality, pound..... 5c. COFFEE, "Bell's," pound..... 20c. COFFEE, "Golden Rio," pound..... 15c. SOAP, Swift's Pride, 8 bars..... 25c. VINEGAR, pure cider, gallon..... 20c. CHEAP FLOUR, 100-lb. sack..... $1.50. CORN CHOP, 100-lb. sack..... $1.25. McClelland-Ogilvie Grocery Co.

SALT SPECIAL!

Have just secured a car of salt at an unusual low price and are giving you the benefit while it lasts.

Special Salt, per bbl. only $1.15

Protect your chickens and keep them healthy with our Poultry Grit; 100-lb. bag for 55c. Have just unloaded a car of chop corn for your small chicks; per 100-lb. bag for $1.35.

Chick Food prepared especially for young chicks just from the incubator. Per pound..... 3c.

We are again handling M. DeHaans & French Bros.' Cream Cheese

They have given entire satisfaction for the last five years and we are very fortunate in again securing these two makes of cheese.

Harry J. Vogt & Co.