The special term of court which Judge Towner was to have commenced in this city on Tuesday, was postponed until August so that the new court house will be used.

A number of the friends of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Finch gave them a surprise party last Friday evening. Ice cream and cake were served and a very pleasant evening was spent.

Mrs. J. W. Harvey entertained about eighty ladies at an afternoon luncheon last Friday at her home on south Main street which was one of the most elaborate society functions of the season.

By an oversight we failed to record last week the news of the arrival of a fine 10 pound Bryan democrat at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Garrett, of Colorado Springs, former residents of this city.

John W. Wasson has purchased the fine residence property of Geo. W. LaFollette for $2,500 and expects to occupy it soon. Mr. LaFollette we are pleased to state will not leave Leon, and will probably buy other property.

Rev. Scott Jones, the cowboy preacher, will preach at the Christian church in Decatur City on next Sunday evening, subject: "Jesus or Barabas in Decatur." Come to a cleaning and bring your own soap and a towel. Come early and get a good seat.

There was a pretty good game of baseball played Tuesday afternoon at Warner's park between Davis City and Leon, the game being won by Davis City by a score of 7 to 1. The batteries were Pickering and Tye for Leon and Osborn and Batcher for Davis City.

A. F. Kemp, the well known contractor of this city, has been awarded the contract for building the fine new residence which W. F. Blair will erect in Van Wert. The new house will be one of the most modern and up-to-date residences in Decatur county and will cost in the neighborhood of $4,000.

People who come to Leon on the Fourth will have no trouble in securing places for their teams, as well as a place to eat, for a number of our citizens have signified their intention of opening their yards and barn lots to accommodate the people and teams. Make your preparations to come to Leon and enjoy a good time.

Harry Bradfield returned last Thursday from a visit at the home of his father-in-law, John Stout, at Mine LaMotte, Mo. Mrs. Bradfield and the children remained there for a more extended visit with her parents. Harry greatly enjoyed his vacation and saw many new sights, but like many others he was glad to get back to old Decatur county, where good crops are raised every year.

With his usual liberality, Mr. C. M. Akes extends a cordial invitation to the people of Decatur county to make their headquarters on July Fourth at his home residence in south Leon. He says his house will be open all day so that people can leave their lunch baskets and they are welcome to eat their meals on his porches or under the big shade trees on the lawn. He has ample facilities for teams and plenty of water for drinking purposes and for teams, and the public in general will be welcome to anything on the place. We are sure the people from the country will appreciate Mr. Akes' hospitality in throwing open his magnificent place.

Special reduction sale on all shoes until July 4th.
LOYD CONREY.

Uncle John Tullis received last Saturday a small box of extra fine large California cherries from his son-in-law, F. E. Claver, who lives at Campbell, Calif., and Uncle John kindly remembered the Reporter man with a sample of the delicious fruit.

Each member of the various Fourth of July committees is requested to attend the final meeting of the committees which will be held at the Leon Commercial Club rooms on Friday evening of this week at 8 o'clock. Please be present.
JAMES W. HURST, Chm.

Walter Workman, of Lineville, came up last Thursday to meet Ray Layton and accompany him to Des Moines, having purchased a new Mason touring car through Mr. Layton. They brought the car to Leon Friday evening and Mr. Workman took it home with him on Saturday.

Charles Sipes, the seven year old son of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Sipes, of south Leon, was seriously burned on the face and eyes while playing with his older brother at their home Tuesday evening. The boys were trying to make sky-rockets out of some gunpowder and the younger boy was the victim.

Arrangements have been made for two big wrestling matches in this city on the afternoon and evening of July 4th. War Eagle, the big indian, will wrestle James H. Alldredge, and Tom Wray, of Lamoni and either Oscar Wasson or Jack Carey, and possibly Lewis Andrew may be secured to meet Wray. These will be great matches as the wrestler are all well known.

Col. Will N. Calhoun, principal of the Tiptonville, Tenn., high school, departed Tuesday for home after visiting a few days in this city. Col. Calhoun is on the staff of the governor of Tennessee, and is an exceedingly pleasant southern gentleman and a sterling democrat. While here he made many friends, and they all hope he may at some future time to return to Leon for another visit. During the war his father was captured by members of the 3rd Iowa Cavalry, many members of which reside in this city.

Mr. Grover G. Hamilton and Miss Helen Keller slipped away from their friends and went to Des Moines where they were quietly married today. They will be at home on the Hamilton farm at Kingston after July 1st. The groom is the eldest son of Mrs. Josiah Hamilton and one of the promising and enterprising young farmers of this county, and has won one of our popular young ladies, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fletcher Keller, of near Van Wert. The many friends of these worthy young people extend hearty congratulations and wish them every happiness.

John Goodman, of north of town, has left samples of some Prolific gooseberries at this office which will be hard to beat. They are on exhibition and if you are interested in big berries drop in and see them.

Frank Caster who has been very sick for several weeks, was operated upon Tuesday at the home of his parents in east Leon for pyo-thorax, and is recovering nicely from the operation and the physicians have every hope that he will soon be entirely restored to health.

The following was clipped from the Iowa Homestead: "We received many inquiries regarding care of little chicks. In cold rainy weather they need closer attention. A good tonic is especially beneficial. Many of our readers report most satisfactory results from Walker's Roup and Cholera Cure. It acts as a preventative and general tonic, preventing colds and bowel trouble. The chicks develop quicker, are stronger and feather earlier."

I. O. O. F. Decoration at Davis City.

DAVIS CITY, IOWA, June 23, 1908.
EDITOR REPORTER:—We desire to thank the brothers from a distance who assisted with our Odd Fellows' Decoration services last Sunday afternoon. The day was delightful and there was about sixty of the brethren and 30 to 40 of the members of the R. of R. lodge met at the Odd Fellows' hall, and after forming in line headed by the Lamoni band, marched to both cemeteries where the ritualistic services were rendered in the presence of a large crowd of spectators. On their return from the I. O. O. F. cemetery the line of march brought us past the home of brother Dock Daniels, who has been confined to his home for ten years by affliction, and the procession was halted and while the band played several fine selections the brothers and sisters went in to greet him, followed by the people in general. Brother Daniels sitting in his chair with tears streaming down his cheeks tried to express his thanks but words failed him. When the leader of the band requested the boys to play "Marching Through Georgia" as Brother Daniels is a veteran of the civil war, it brought him to his feet, and leaning on his cane he tried to cheer, but again words failed him. After wishing him many more such greetings the procession again formed and marched back to the hall where the closing ceremonies were held in honor of our departed brethren. The band then played some fine music in the park and we wish to say that the Lamoni band is composed of as fine a lot of gentlemen and can play as fine music as any lot of boys we have ever met, and we cheerfully recommend them to any community wishing the services of a band.
