Use Down to Here

Take home a 48-pound sack of Zephyr Flour—or have your grocer send it to you—today. Use it for bread, pies, cake, pastry—all your baking—down to the middle of the sack. By that time we expect you to be so well pleased with it that you wouldn't have any other kind. But if you are not—just send the remaining 24 pounds back to the dealer. And he will cheerfully refund you the price of the entire sack. This is the meaning of the guaranty shown here, which is printed on each sack.

ZEPHYR FLOUR

We can afford to make this Guaranty—the only Guaranty you ever saw on flour—because the superiority of Zephyr has been proved by every test. And your sack got our mill test before it was shipped. It gives you the most loaves because it is made of the finest grade of Kansas Hard Wheat—extra rich in gluten. And it gives you the best bread and pastry because it is the product of 30 years' experience, and the latest milling process. You can obtain Zephyr Flour from the following:
