

Possum Trot.

Miss Lissie Worden is helping Mrs. Arthur Worden with her work this week. Mr. and Mrs. Roland Ball were calling at Arthur Worden's Monday afternoon. Mrs. Lloyd Smith and daughter Lois returned home from Osceola Monday afternoon. Charley Hacker was a business caller at Van Wert Monday afternoon. Arthur Worden did considerable grinding for the people of this neighborhood Monday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Smith were calling at Lew Smith's Monday morning. Miss Gertrude Davis was a guest of Mrs. Lloyd Smith Monday night. M. E. Davis and son Ralph were business callers at Weldon Monday. There are several cases of measles in this neighborhood. Leon and Ella Smith and Fred Warner took them last week. Lloyd Hensley was calling at the home of Frank Worden last Monday. Ralph and Gertrude Davis spent Tuesday night with Mrs. Lloyd Smith. Mrs. Will Davis spent Tuesday afternoon in Weldon. Mrs. Perry Worden's sister and family, of Leon, came Tuesday for a few days visit. Mrs. Gus Sigler was a business visitor at Weldon Tuesday afternoon. The veterinary of Leon was called out to Claude Worden's Tuesday morning. They have a very sick cow with milk fever. Mrs. F. Worden was calling on Mrs. Lloyd Smith Wednesday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Smith were business callers at Leon Wednesday. Claude Worden and wife were calling at Gus Sigler's Wednesday evening. Mrs. Lloyd Smith and daughter and Miss Gertrude Davis were business callers at Weldon Thursday. Mrs. Mart Brittain, of Humeston, came Friday to care for her daughter and family as they are having a siege of the measles. Mrs. Lloyd Smith and daughter made a business trip to Osceola last Friday. Miss Gertrude Davis was calling on Weldon friends last Friday. Lloyd Smith and family returned home from Osceola last Friday. This section was visited with quite a heavy rain Friday and Saturday. Ralph and Gertrude Davis were business callers at Weldon Saturday afternoon. Mrs. F. Worden was calling on the sick at Lew Smith's Saturday afternoon. Ivan Ball and Ogle Warner are both having the measles this week. Ina Frank was calling on Miss Gertrude Davis Sunday afternoon. Hugh Smith and family and Claude Worden and wife spent Sunday at Gus Sigler's. Those calling at Lew Smith's last Sunday afternoon were Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Smith and Abe Pollard and wife. Harvey Worden and Mordis Pollard spent Sunday with Lloyd Hensley. Mrs. Lloyd Smith, Gertrude Davis and Ina Frank were out horseback riding Sunday evening. Olan Monroe was calling at C. Meacham's Sunday evening. Frank Worden and wife were calling at Rolland Ball's Sunday afternoon. Charley Hacker and family spent Sunday near Van Wert at the home of John Hacker. Ira Worden attended church at Weldon Sunday evening. Would you have better health, more strength, clearer skin, stronger nerves, more elastic step? Use Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea, the great vegetable regulator and tonic. One 35c package makes 105 cups of tea. W. C. Stempel & Co. Bethel. Several of our farmers are planting corn and some are replanting. Mr. and Mrs. John McNeely visited Monday at Uncle Hiram Hatfield's. Mr. and Mrs. Bert Graham spent Sunday with her parents.

Mr. and Mrs. John Weidner were business visitors at Davis City last Monday. Mrs. Joe Dobson and son Charles spent Monday afternoon at the home of her son, Bert Dobson. Lewis Hamilton had a horse badly cut on the wire last Wednesday. Mr. and Mrs. Will Pickens visited with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Pickens, northeast of Davis City. Mr. Parker and son and Mark Teaters were business visitors at Davis City Monday. Charley Dobson was a Davis City caller Tuesday. Harve Morgan will soon have his new house completed and ready to move into. Lew Dobson, of Lineville, had business at Leon last week and spent a few days visiting relatives in this section. He also visited his sister, Mrs. Jessie Goodman, north of Leon. Fred Smith, of Morgan, was transacting business in these parts and in Leon last week. Charley Akes, of Leon, had business in this section last week. Mr. and Mrs. John Weidner called on Mr. and Mrs. Bert Millsap last Sunday. Grandpa Himelrich and granddaughter, Mabel Briggaman, were Leon visitors last Friday. For More Than Three Decades Foley's Honey and Tar has been a household favorite for all ailments of the throat, chest and lungs. For infants and children it is best and safest as it contains no opiates and no harmful drugs. None genuine but Foley's Honey and Tar in the yellow package. Refuse substitutes. Bell & Robinson. Good Hope. Nathan Smith returned to his home near Lamoni Monday after visiting a few days with Ed McGahuey and family. Mrs. A. B. Richey attended the meeting of the Ladies Aid Society at T. J. Wolf's, near Van Wert, Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Barger, of Van Wert, came Sunday for several days visit at the home of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Wise. Lew Thompson and family had business at the county seat Tuesday. Nathan Smith and Oll McGahuey spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Wise. H. A. Thompson is suffering from a gathering in his head. Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Hoadley and two daughters took dinner with Mrs. Anna Pierce, of Van Wert, Sunday. An insurance adjuster for the Hawkeye Insurance Co. had business at Bruff Thompson's Tuesday morning. L. P. Sigler, of Leon, was in this vicinity Monday. Miss Dale Wise spent Thursday afternoon with her sister, Mrs. L. E. Barger, of Van Wert. Percy Black is able to be around again. Mrs. Joe Baxter, of Des Moines, came Saturday for a visit at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Thompson. Miss Grace Wise returned to her home Sunday after a week's visit with her brother, Grant Wise, and family, of Van Wert. Mrs. F. A. Keller returned to her home Monday after visiting for a few days at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Thompson. Sunday school and church were quite well attended Sunday afternoon. Morgan. Mrs. Wm. Massey, of Woodland, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. J. W. Hubbard. A. B. McClaran and wife were Sunday visitors at Mrs. S. J. Cozad's. Mr. Kerins called on M. L. Dale Sunday. Marion Zimmerman was numbered with the sick last week. Clyde Petty and family visited at J. B. Robinson's Sunday. Mrs. Mary Moore, of Lineville, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. A. T. Hubbard. Mrs. M. L. Dale and daughter Nellie and Dell Cozad called on Mrs. S. J. Cozad Sunday afternoon. Cecile and Ethel Hubbard spent

Sunday afternoon with their cousin, Miss Hallie Hubbard. Miss Myrtle Newlin, of Woodland, has several music scholars in this neighborhood. Miss Nellie Dale departed Monday for Cainsville to visit her friend, Miss Margaret Crawley. Jim Hubbard and wife and Mrs. Wm. Massey called at the Mike Griffin home Sunday afternoon. Kilgore. Planting corn is the order of the day. Miss Bessie Stanford spent one afternoon last week with Alice Horney. John Robison and A. J. Woolsey were transacting business at the county seat last Tuesday. Miss Mary McDaniel spent one day last week with her brother, J. H. McDaniel, and family, of Eden Center. Jack Comerford, of Woodland, had business in this city one evening last week. Sunday school next Sunday at the Eden Center school house at 2 p. m. Preaching at 3 by Rev. Hughes, of Leon. Rev. Hughes came down last Thursday evening and gave a splendid illustrated lecture at the Eden Center school house. Word has been received in this vicinity of the death of Mrs. George Jennings from tuberculosis at her home in Woodland township. Mrs. Jennings was a former resident of this neighborhood, and many friends here greatly sympathize with the grief stricken husband and children. She leaves two little children besides one married daughter, Mrs. James Rumley. Miss Lucile Asbury came down from Leon last week and spent a few days with her mother, Mrs. Asbury, who is carrying for Solon Bevins during his sickness. Uncle Solon still continues in a very serious condition, and but little hopes are entertained for his recovery. Orphan Ridge. Mrs. Jacob Butts had business at Leon Monday. George Stephens and son Macy called on the Barlean boys Saturday. Those who spent Sunday at Lee Davis' were Macy and Dode Stephens and Lewis Piper. Charley Leahy, Fred and Wid Jones spent Sunday with Mr. Coleman. George Leahy was breaking his pony Sunday. E. Merryman, wife and daughter spent Sunday in Leon. A. J. Fulton hauled hay Thursday and Friday from the Barlean farm. Ned Campbell passed through here Monday with a drove of sheep. Whalen Blake spent Sunday with Jim Smith. A nice rain visited this section last Sunday which was badly needed. Hank Millsap finished planting corn Friday. Bert Graham and family, of Davis City, spent Sunday at J. W. McNeely's. C. A. Hatfield and family, and Miss Bessie Butts, spent Sunday at John McNeely's. Shreve & Gassett, the veterinaries of Leon, were called Monday to doctor a colt owned by the Barlean boys. Little River. Most all the farmers in this vicinity were trading in Pleasanton last Saturday. Rose and Kate Still spent one afternoon last week with Mrs. T. L. Wynne. Mae Spargur and Alice Davis visited the Mofett school last Tuesday afternoon. Marion Davis and family visited Sunday at the home of his father. Beulah Drury went to Cainsville to visit relatives. Seth Davis and wife visited at the home of Robert Dunham, near Lineville, one day last week. Al Spargur visited a few days last week with his daughter, Mrs. Will Henderson and family. Andrew Wynne had business in Leon the first of the week. Ed Still has been doing some papering. Vergie and Susie Schoonover visited Sunday with Pearl and Murl Blakesley. Jasper Spargur and daughter Mae visited Sunday afternoon at Jim Drury's. Bert Ingram spent the latter part of last week with his sister, Mrs. Marion Davis. R. F. D. No. 3. W. D. Smith and family were visitors at Levi Gattion's. Pete Hoover and Gid Sage will go to Des Moines this week to buy a gasoline engine. Sherman Simpson and Zeke Merryman and families spent Sunday at Al Gardner's. Neddy Campbell, of Jimmy Creek, was a business caller at Milt Manchester's Sunday. The recent rain was a great benefit to the small grain and grass. Isaac R. Smith and family were Sunday callers at Ed Campbell's. The boys gave Jasper Smith a surprise Saturday, it being his birthday. He treated them to a fine dinner and refreshments. Shreve & Gassett, the veterinaries, were doing work in this vicinity the past week. Jeff Fulton was a caller at D. P. Leahy's Monday. Mr. Leahy has been on the sick list. Clarence and George Baker, of north of Leon, visited at Tom Baker's Sunday. There will be a school picnic at Welcome Friday for the children, it being the last day of Miss Cooney's school. Garden Grove. Miss Hicks, of Osceola, is spending the summer with her sister, Mrs. Harry McKinney. Miss Marie Wells, of Indianola, is a guest at the W. H. Jennings home. Miss Churchill was a recent visitor at Corydon. The P. E. O.'s held a pleasant picnic supper Wednesday in the G. A. R. hall in honor of Mrs. Viola Roberts, who leaves soon for Kansas City. It was also the 21st anniversary of the order. Mrs. J. W. Luce left Wednesday for Turon, Kas., to visit her daughter Mrs. John Wood. Misses Esther and Mabel Burrell left Saturday for Davis City, and from there will return to their home at St. Joe. Mrs. Duff, of Blocton, was a guest at the Sheffer home last week. Miss Dilsaver returned from St. Joe Friday. Mrs. Mary McCleary returned from Des Moines Thursday. Miss Herma Boeger, of Davis City, visited here last week at the Boeger home. Mrs. Alice Adams returned to Denver, Colorado, after a visit with her mother, Mrs. Briley. The seniors entertained the juniors, faculty and school board at the school house Thursday evening in an enjoyable manner. Clyde Spidle went to Leon Monday. George Spaeth and wife were in Leon Wednesday. Misses Harriet Clark and Coral Daniels were Leon visitors Thursday. Mrs. A. E. Northrup, Mrs. Dug Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. John Aten and Mrs. Buffum were guests at the Ed Macy home in Leon Wednesday. The community was much saddened Saturday by the news of the death of one of our most highly respected citizens, T. J. Sheffer. His death occurred at his home that morning at 5 o'clock. The funeral services were conducted at the Presbyterian church Monday afternoon by the pastor, Rev. John Wilson, assisted by Rev. Goodsell, and the remains were interred in the Garden Grove cemetery. Mrs. Anna Zook entertained the Country Culture Club very delightfully Saturday afternoon. Mrs. L. E. Smith, of Webster City, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. G. W. Hoadley. Wesley Items. Eli Hutchinson, our census taker, was calling on everyone in this vicinity the past week. The rain of the past week has delayed corn planting, but was just what the pastures and small grain needed. Mrs. Nelle Peck called on Grandma Lowrance Monday afternoon. Miss Lenna Spencer clerked for Mr. Miller Wednesday while he made a business trip to Mercer, Mo. Mrs. Jane Halstead returned from Oklahoma last Friday. H. B. Perkins and wife called at Oscar Peck's Sunday afternoon. Wm. Lowrance sold Mrs. C. D.

75c SPECIAL 75c

Saturday and for One Week

10 dozen Ladies' White Lingerie Waists. These are Shirtwaists worth wholesale from $1.00 to $1.50 each. Few samples most all new and the best values we ever bought at anywhere near the price. All new styles from a Pennsylvania manufacture. All sizes. This means to you the best shirtwaist values ever shown in Leon. Saturday and for one week.

Special Price, Each 75c

Also 30 pairs Huiskamp Welt Work Shoes, genuine Kip uppers, all leather, welted soles and this shoe made to retail at $3.00 per pair. If you have tender or tired feet these shoes will be a pleasure to you and save you money. All sizes at present. One lot only.

Special, Per Pair $2.48

You will find our stock complete in all lines. We want your patronage

FRANK N. HANSELL

The Imported Shire Stallion

LANE'S MARMION

Imported from England in 1907; recorded in the stud book of the Shire Horse Society, of London, England, and in the American Shire Horse Association, of Chicago. Is a dark brown, has strip down face and three white legs. Weight 2,000 pounds. Will make the season at the Robbins barn, in north Decatur, Iowa. TERMS—$15.00 to insure colt to stand and suck. Mare and colt held for service fee. Service fee becomes due at once if owner disposes of mare. Care will be taken to prevent accidents but will not be responsible should any occur.

S. W. ROBBINS, Keeper.

Burr Oak Ridge. George McCalla and family, also Willard Chastain, of Davis City, spent the first of the week at Charles Chastain's. Mrs. Gill Vanderpool is so much improved in health as to be able to call on her nearest neighbors. Mrs. Maude Chastain unfortunately came in contact with a poison vine of some kind and has been having a severe time ever since. Miss Vivian Meek arrived from Stockton, Kas., for a visit at the home of her grandparents and other relatives before going to Texas to make her future home. Mrs. Lou Adams returned to her home at Van Wert last Saturday after a week's visit with relatives at Davis City and Leon. Mr. and Mrs. Dougherty returned to their home at Pleasanton after a short visit at the homes of A. J. Rumley and Ernest Hamilton. Mrs. Edgington and Ralph and Ruth were very pleasant callers at Charley Chastain's last Sunday afternoon.

NO WONDER SHE'S CROSS. The woman who has a thousand petty cares and annoyances while she suffers with headache or side-ache must not be blamed if she cannot always be angelically amiable. What she needs is thoughtful-ness from her family and such a simple and natural remedy as Lane's Family Medicine, the herb tea that makes weak women strong and well. Sold by druggists and dealers, 25c.

A straight, honest, healthful cream of tartar baking powder. Made from Grapes. Contains not a grain of injurious ingredient

Dr. PRICE'S CREAM BAKING POWDER

Fifty Years the Standard

No Alum No Lime Phosphate

CASTORIA For Infants and Children. The Kind You Have Always Bought. Bears the Signature of Chas. H. Pritchett