

SUPPLEMENT TO THE LEON REPORTER.

VOL. 52.

LEON, IOWA, NOVEMBER 14, 1910.

No. 13.

Davis City.

The ladies of the M. E. church gave a chicken pie dinner and supper on election day which netted them something near $40.

The ladies of our city got up a sewing bee and rummage party, and taking several sewing machines hied to the opera house which the managers kindly let them use and collected all the clothing and poor children they thought in need and spent the day in making and repairing clothing which they kindly donated to the deserving poor of our city, and many a poor little one went away happy and warm who came barefooted and shivering with cold. Let the good work go on. Why worry to send to foreign lands when our small mite is needed at our own door.

Mrs. G. P. Reed received bad news which called her to St. Charles, Mo., last Wednesday.

Mrs. E. S. Grimes returned from a visit in Leon last Friday.

Mrs. Alice Stokes, of Columbus, Ohio, is here visiting her father, James Boldman, and other friends.

O. E. Lovett, of Garden Grove, has been engaged with a force of carpenters building granaries and in other ways improving his fine farm just north of our city the past two weeks.

Wm. Mitchell returned from a business trip and prospecting tour to South Dakota last Tuesday.

Mrs. Alice Stokes was a guest at the Wm. Asbach home north of our city Friday and Saturday.

James Parker was on the St. Joe market with a couple of cars of stock on election day, so it is no wonder the republicans had a surprise.

Alfred Burrell traded his Colorado farm for the balance of the Bason stock of goods and will soon open up in the Merritt building on Bridge street with Clarence Osborn as head salesman. Success to them.

Mrs. Allie Franklin, of Pleasanton, and Henry Doss, of Nebraska, were over last Friday looking after the selling of the real estate of their father, T. D. Doss. They sold his 5 acre farm west of town to John Newton, but his town property and 20 acre farm have not yet been sold.

Dr. George Harmon, of Genoa, Kansas, came in last week to visit his mother.

Miss Jae Shirley came in from Des Moines last week for a short visit with her parents.

It is currently reported that L. Bason will soon open up at his old stand with a new stock of general merchandise of all kinds, and then we presume his clock will again begin to run, the ticking of which draws a large patronage, especially as Mr. Bason is one of our best and most enterprising businessmen.

We understand the Cooper Hotel has changed hands since our last communication, Mr. Cooper getting a farm in exchange.

Mrs. A. B. Norman visited with her daughter, Dr. Estella Norman, at Moline, Ill., the past two weeks.

Mrs. Jesse Poush and daughters were over Sunday visitors with Mrs. Wm. Mitchell north of this city.

Miss Hattie Lindsey left last Saturday for Jefferson county, where she has been employed as teacher of a winter term of school.

Mrs. Dick Scott and children returned last Wednesday from a ten day visit with her parents at Bethany, Mo.

Mrs. W. E. Brewer, of Decatur, was a visitor in our city last week.

Earl Scott returned last Tuesday from a two weeks visit with the family of T. M. Walters in South Dakota.

A. L. Teale came in off the road to spend Sunday with his family.

Mrs. Charles Burrell, who has been dangerously ill is reported to be convalescent, and in a fair way to recover. Their infant child died last Wednesday and was buried in the Davis City cemetery the following day.

Mrs. W. M. Akins, whose husband lost his life in the mountains of Montana last month, gave birth to a fine son on Nov. 2nd, which will be a great comfort to the bereaved mother.

Mr. and Mrs. Gillette came from California recently and will remain and it is said will take charge of the farm of her father, Mr. S. Radnish and make their future home here.

Miss Laura Attebury has resigned her position as telephone girl for G. P. Campbell and perhaps will take a new position for life.

Miss Ethel Sprague, of Missouri, is a guest at the Dug Davis home west of town.

Miss Nellie Allen left for St. Joe Sunday and was to be married on her arrival in that city. We did not learn the name of her husband, but understand he is a brakeman on the Burlington railroad. He has won a good, hard working girl and one who will make him a good wife. Her many friends in this city wish her much happiness and prosperity.

Mrs. George Kimball spent Sunday at Lamoni.

Mrs. Charles Vandall has been on the sick list.

Mr. and Mrs. B. D. Adams spent Sunday at Decatur.

The children of the late Thomas Doss came over last week and divided his household goods and moved the most of them to Pleasanton.

Pleasant Valley.

Sarah and Maude Virden were visiting at Charles Beasley's Sunday.

Miss Kate Dobozy was visiting with her mother near Davis City Sunday.

Mrs. T. A. Sutherlin and Miss Kate Dobozy spent one afternoon last week with Mrs. George Virden.

Miss Lucille Christofel was visiting in Leon from Friday until Monday.

Mrs. T. R. Roberts and daughter, Blanche, were Leon callers Saturday.

Mrs. Charles Beasley spent Sunday afternoon at Fred Zika's.

Miss Julia Virden called on Miss Faye Ellis last Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Virden had business in Leon Saturday.

Bethel.

Mrs. Bert Millsap returned home from Shenandoah last Wednesday, where she had been called by the serious illness and death of her brother, Otto Pritchard, who died last Sunday and was buried last Tuesday.

Mr. Dow Parker and family visited their son-in-law, Fletch Honn, and family last Sunday.

Lewis Gammon and family of east Eden visited with their daughter, Mrs. Lewis Hamilton, last Sunday and also to see the new son that arrived at their home last Monday, November 7th.

Miss Mabel Briggaman spent a couple of days in Leon last week visiting her father and sisters.

Mrs. Will Pickens was a Davis City caller Monday.

Will Wood of Decatur City is doing some cement work for Harve Morgan this week.

We understand that one of Jeff Fulton's teams indulged in a little runaway one day last week. They were going at a lively gate and Jeff fell out. One of the horses kicked him and since then he has going around with his head tied up.

Mack Teaters and wife are gathering corn for Emmett Gore this week. A good many of our women folks are helping gather corn.

Mrs. Bert Dobson visited with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. M. Cox last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Cox visited their son Arthur and wife one day last week.

Bert Dobson is helping Charley Beasley with his corn gathering.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Graham called on her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John McNelly one day last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Millsap were business visitors at Davis City Saturday evening.

Charley Leahy and family visited at Dow Parker's last Sunday.

There are several of our neighbors threshing clover and cane seed the last couple of weeks.

Bert Millsap hauled one load of cane tops and had it threshed and it made 35 bushels of cane seed.
