

$2,000.00

WORTH OF DRY GOODS At Auction and Private Sale

First Door North of Hurst Bros. Opens Saturday, Dec. 3

Warren Sankey, Manager

Buchanan & Watchbaugh, Aucts.

At 1 o'clock Saturday p. m. the auction sale opens. It's you and Mr. Watchbaugh for it. All afternoon and evening you can buy these goods at your own price.

This stock of goods is composed of principally

Men's and Boys' hats and caps

Rugs, lace curtains and dress goods

Ladies' and children's winter coats

Shoes for men, women and children

Misses' and childrens' head gear

This sale on winter goods, will be of unusual interest to fathers and mothers, who care to reduce the family expense. There are items of utility for every member of the family at prices that will make your Christmas allowance go the round easily.

Our big stock is being gone over carefully and all lines that we have too much of are being divided and the over plus removed to our new sales room.

On part of the goods we'll name the price, on the rest you do the marking.

Our lines will be ready for the sale next Saturday morning.

Don't miss this chance to lay in a good supply cheap.

HURST BROS.

If you had rather buy at private sale, come on; your way suits us. The goods are here and goodness knows they are cheap enough. Doors open at 9 o'clock Saturday morning.

This stock is composed of principally

Men's Underwear

Ladies' Shirt Waists

Men's, Boys' sweaters

Ladies' 2 piece and union

underwear

Childrens' union suits

Men's work day trousers

Rubber foot wear for all

Ladies' neck wear and belts

There are dozens of other items to be included that cannot be listed yet. You are assured that there will be at least $2,000 dollars worth of winter goods offered you at the lowest prices of the season.

Top of the Market for Butter and Eggs.

40c In Trade For Corn.

HURST BROS. ANNEX, LEON, IOWA