

Special Sale

Thursday, Friday and Saturday

To introduce the Rexall Trailing Arbutus Talcum

we will give you free

One-half oz. Trailing Arbutus Perfume All For 25 Cents

BELL & ROBINSON

The True Druggists

West Side Square Leon, Iowa

Electric Light Suggestion Number Two

If there's anything wrong with the service you're getting, or the bill doesn't seem right --TELL US.

If you are pleased, and everything is satisfactory---TELL THE PEOPLE NEXT DOOR

Cook with electricity, cleaner, safer, quicker. See our Westinghouse stoves, stove toaster and frying pan all in one unit.

Price $5.75

Help us to make Leon the best lighted town in Iowa.

Leon Electric Co.
Telephone 141.

HARRIS

Photographer
North Side Studio
Leon, Iowa

Buy your granite ware and notions at Caster's.

The quality in "Scottish Rite" cigars is better than ever.

"Farming to me was nothing short of slavery before I purchased my Maxwell. My whole family have grown younger." Lewis E. Hunt, Southampton, L. I.

Mrs. Lenna Hamilton, of St. Joe, came last Wednesday for a short visit in this city with her brother, D. F. Avery and with her son, Grover Hamilton, near Van Wert.

See Bradley, the optician, at Dr. Woodmansee's Saturdays and Mondays of each week.

"My Maxwell has made three 10-mile trips per day, six days a week, for the past 8 months at a cost of 17c. per trip. What's more I never missed a trip." Newton C. Palmer, Wahoo, Neb.

Clerk Mendenhall has not issued any marriage licenses the past week. In fact business in this line is decidedly dull, as he has issued but one license since May 15th. And this is the month for weddings, too.

E. J. Sankey buys and sells land on commission, makes farm loans on approved security at the best rates, and does a general real estate business. Has had 30 years' experience in the business. Office upstairs, northwest corner Main and Commercial streets, Leon, Iowa.

Try Crisco at Caster's Grocery.

Native lumber for sale. Phone Dan Alley, F. 61.

Smoke "Scottish Rite" cigars, better than ever this year.

"With the added income I paid for my Maxwell runabout in about 14 months." Raymond H. Titlar, Rome, N. Y.

Estes & Co. last week purchased the opera house grocery from S. S. Oiler, and took possession of the store at once.

For Sale—A Dain Jr. hay stacker, used only to stack four stacks. Have no use for it and will sell. E. H. Alexander. 443-2t*

Go to Mrs. R. Rosen's millinery store for up-to-date and fashionable dressmaking. Reasonable prices and the best of work.

"The Maxwell is my first love in automobiles. You'd have to go some to alienate my affections." H. E. Witherby, LeRoy, Ill.

"New business created since I've had my Maxwell has enabled me in two years to pay off the mortgage on my farm." Alfred N. Turner, Pasadena, California.

Mrs. D. J. Garrett returned last Thursday to her home at Colorado Springs, Colorado, after visiting for several weeks in this city at the home of her daughter, Mrs. M. S. Benefel.

The regular fourth Sunday meeting of the Palestine church will be held on Sunday, June 23. This will be an all day meeting, with a basket dinner. Everybody invited to come and meet with us. Do not forget the baskets.

The members of the Sorosis Club entertained their husbands at a six o'clock dinner at the home of Mrs. Marion Woodard on last Friday evening, and the guests enjoyed a most delightful evening following the dinner.

The Black Cross degree was conferred upon J. F. Smith by the Knights Templar last Thursday evening and after the work in the lodge room the Knights enjoyed a splendid lunch which was served at Carmean's Cafe.

For Sale—Some extra good utility White Orpington cockerels of heavy laying strains. I need the room and these will be sold very cheap, quality considered. Call soon and get first choice cheap. C. W. Reeder, The Leon Orpingtons.

Sheriff J. E. Andrew went to Van Wert Monday morning and took Charles Evans, of Van Wert, before Judge Evans, at Corydon, an information charging him with inebriacy having been fled. Judge Evans ordered that he be taken to the inebriate hospital at Knoxville for a period of not exceeding three years and sheriff Andrew took him there the same day.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Teale and son Bob left last Friday morning in their auto for Fairbault, Minn., to attend the commencement exercises of St. Mary's Academy, their daughter, Miss Freda, being one of the graduates. They expect while gone to visit St. Paul and other cities, and will probably reach home this evening. Miss Freda and a girl friend will return with them.

Virgil and Francis Cherrington entertained a large number of their young friends at a party given at the home of their parents Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cherrington last Saturday afternoon. The youngsters all attended the matinee at the Photoplay theatre and then marched to the home of their hostess where refreshments were served and the balance of the afternoon spent in playing games. They had a splendid good time.

Pasture for a few colts. Nathan Boyce, Leon, Iowa. 43-2t*

Havana Spikes, Havana Spikes. Absolutely the best cigar in town.

Special Saturday June 15, Jordan Almonds, 31 cents per pound. Bell & Robinson.

For Rent—A suit of three office rooms opposite the postoffice. See Fred Teale.

Try our Royal Deodorized Gasoline. High gravity test. 20 cents per gallon. Wm. Crichton & Son.

See the fine pictures which will be shown at the Photoplay Theatre this evening. Admission only 10 cents.

"I never thought so much pleasure could be obtained at so little cost with a Maxwell." Walter B. Evers, Cherrystone, Kas.

Native Lumber—All kinds of native lumber at my mill 3 miles northwest of Decatur City, one mile south of the Springer bridge. T. J. Swisher, Decatur, Iowa.

"My wife does all her errands in town and the children are enabled to attend better schools. My Maxwell is a gem." Elmer E. Bedell, Hood River, Oregon.

Order cut flowers and floral designs from O. E. Hull, local agent of Lozier, of Des Moines, at The Reporter office. Orders sent by phone or mail, but order as early as possible.

J. A. Harris and son Clay Harris have purchased a fine new Maxwell Mascotte touring car from Bowsher & Bowsher, the local agents, and the new car was driven to Leon from Des Moines last Sunday.

"All kinds of truck is carried to town on my Maxwell. I have had receptacles made for barrels, crates, baskets and cans. There is absolutely no comparison to horse and buggy." Henry A. Silver, McCreary, Ark.

We have sold three Decatur county farms within the past 15 days. And again, on Monday, June 10th, we sold 200 acres in Ringgold county, Iowa. See us for bargains. The Iron U. McCrystal & Co., Decatur City, Iowa. 43-2t

Miss Eva Rhea went to Goshen, Missouri, Saturday to attend the Decoration Day exercises at that place. She was accompanied by her father, who will visit a short time with relatives there, Miss Eva returning to Leon Monday.

Mrs. Nelle Lyman and little daughter, of Washington Center, Kansas, who have been visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Sanger, near Van Wert, came Tuesday evening to visit a few days with friends in this city.

Patrick Griffin returned last Thursday to his home at Grand River after spending a few days in this city attending to his duties as member of the board of supervisors, the board having adjourned on Thursday until Tuesday of this week.

Manager Harry Penniwell, of the Clarinda Poultry, Butter and Egg Co., in this city, returned last Friday morning from a business trip to Keokuk. He says the big dam now nearing completion is a great undertaking and that few people who have not seen it have any conception of the big undertaking.

We again want to ask our correspondents to send in their letters early. This week we received letters from White Oak, Sweet Creek No. 2, Decatur R. F. D. No. 2, Jack Oak and Pleasant Valley on Wednesday, too late to print this week. The Reporter is printed on Wednesday and we cannot print correspondence received later than Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Tedford, of Mt. Ayr, passed through this city in their auto Tuesday, going to Keosauqua for a visit with relatives. Dr. and Mrs. D. R. Dudley came over with them as far as Leon. Dr. returning home Wednesday morning and Mrs. Dudley and little daughter will remain here for a few days visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Allen.

A. G. West, of Runnells, Iowa, was in Leon last Saturday, on his way to Andover, Mo., where parties are preparing to do some coal prospecting. Mr. West recently completed a contract of drilling for coal at Saline, Mo., but did not strike anything larger than a three foot vein, while they expected to strike the same big vein which was found at Cainsville.

Lucille, the four year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Phillips, who live in the northwest part of the city, broke her right arm just above the elbow last Thursday. The little girl was playing upstairs and in some manner, not exactly known, fell and sustained the broken arm. Mr. Phillips' family is unfortunate this summer, as another daughter fell from a plow and cut off one of her fingers only a couple of weeks ago.

Dr. J. W. Rowell went to Osceola last Friday morning to attend the funeral of his friend, Dr. J. A. Ross, a prominent dentist of that city, who died suddenly at his home on Tuesday morning, after a short illness, having voted on Monday at the primary and gone riding with his wife that evening. On arising Tuesday morning he complained of a pain in his side, and in a few minutes became unconscious and died immediately.

The work of cutting down the big Coffin hill just south of the depot is progressing nicely and the force of men and teams who are working have made a splendid showing for the time they have been at it. It is one of the biggest pieces of road improvement ever undertaken in Decatur county, and we trust that the people south of Leon who travel over this road will appreciate what Leon is doing and see that the roads leading to it are dragged and graded.

Smoke "Havana Spikes" the cigar that is always the same.

Special Saturday June 15, Jordan Almonds, 31 cents per pound. Bell & Robinson.

"My Maxwell costs me about .015c per mile to run. Of course I have no garage bill." Christian Jorginsere, South Lyon, Mich.

Mrs. R. Rosen has added a dress-making department to her millinery establishment and is prepared to do up-to-date dressmaking.

"I can make five trips to town with my Maxwell against one with my horse, and I only live five miles from town." Elbert N. Pease, Stafford, Kas.

Mrs. R. Rosen has opened a dress-making department in connection with her millinery store, and the ladies of Leon can secure first-class work in this line.

For Sale—Good single driving horse, safe for lady to drive, not afraid of autos. Also rubber tire buggy and harness. See O. E. Hull at The Reporter office.

"I never knew so much about my part of the State. My Maxwell keeps me well informed. Its economy is wonderful." August Cristenson, Golden Valley, Minnesota.

I will keep on hand for sale brick and washed sand. Will contract cement curbing and sidewalk. Guaranteed side walk at 10c per square foot. F. C. Mullinix.

All members of the City Federation of Women's Clubs are requested to meet at the assembly room of the library building Thursday, June 13, at 2:30 o'clock for the election of officers.

W. C. McGee, of Carthage, Oklahoma, for many years a resident of this county, passed through this city last Thursday on his way to Cainsville to visit a few days with old friends at that place.

Anetta and Arthur Howard, who have been attending the school for the deaf at Council Bluffs the past year, came Tuesday evening to spend the summer vacation at the home of their mother, Mrs. A. L. Howard, in this city.

Prof. F. P. Reed, of Osceola, one of the instructors in the Summer School, went to Van Wert Saturday to visit over Sunday with Mrs. Reed, who is visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Belding, at Van Wert.

Mr. F. M. West and family and Mr. J. S. Garrett, of Corydon, were Leon visitors Sunday, driving over in Mr. West's auto. It was their first visit to Leon in many years and they were greatly surprised to find such a well improved city so near to them.

Miss Mate Parrish and neices, Misses Martha and Marjorie Hoffman, went to Des Moines Monday for a few days visit with relatives and will go to Indianola the latter part of this week to attend the commencement exercises of Simpson College.

After a pleasant visit with her brother, D. F. Avery in this city, Mrs. Mildred Mickelson and little daughter, departed last Thursday for a visit with relatives and friends at Clayton, Indiana. Her neice, Miss Mildred Avery, accompanied her to Clayton.

Prof. Erven Spencer, the republican candidate for county superintendent, spent last Friday in this city, visiting relatives and receiving the congratulations of his many friends over his nomination. He returned to his home at Pleasanton on the evening train.

Friday, June 14th, is Flag day. We trust the national emblem will be very generally displayed by all the business houses and public places in Decatur county. Respect and reverence for the flag are evidences of true patriotism and it is feared that we are not careful enough in our efforts to instill such sentiments. Let us have a glorious display of "Old Glory" on Flag day. Make it impressive.

Uncle Jack Phipps, of Shenandoah, probably the oldest man in the state of Iowa, came last Thursday evening for a short visit at the home of his daughter, Mrs. F. A. Gardner. Uncle Jack was one hundred years old last February, but is still hale and hearty, walking around like a man thirty years younger. He issued a challenge to run a foot race or wrestle with any eighty year old man in the county, and when J. P. Fisher, of Morgan township, who is only 80 years old came up to accept the challenge he said he wanted to wrestle a man, not a young boy.

A subscriber of The Iowa Homestead who has taken that paper for more than fifty years says he and his wife have always appreciated it very highly. The Homestead is now even more powerful in its influence for good than at any time in the last half century. It is worthy of and should find a place in every farm home. We recommend it and are glad to supply it to our subscribers at the rate of $1.50 per year for both papers. The Homestead wants farmer agents in this county. The very liberal terms to agents may be learned by writing to James M. Pierce, Des Moines, Iowa.

Robt. McLees had a narrow escape from losing his arm and possibly his life a few days ago at his wagon shop. He was running the machinery with his gasoline engine and had been using the grind stone. In trying to throw the belt from the pulley wheel on the grindstone his arm caught and he was immediately jerked up to the shafting on the ceiling. There he hung until his father, who happened to be in the shop, stopped the engine. Just then the belt broke and he managed to get away. It was real exciting for a few moments for Bob and he doesn't care for this kind of experience often.—Lamoni Chronicle.

Cherries For Sale—W. R. Chastain, box 1, Route 2, Leon, Iowa.

Special Saturday June 15, Jordan Almonds, 31 cents per pound. Bell & Robinson.

"Though ten miles from town my Maxwell enables me to practically live in town." Ernest H. Hendricks, Clay Center, Neb.

"The Maxwell in use on our farm is a great time saver. In emergency cases we can go to town and back in a jiffy." Rudolph E. Baker, Girard, Ill.

Mr. W. C. Spicer, of Bloomfield, Iowa, who was visiting at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Guy Beavers, near this city, went to Diagonal, Iowa, Tuesday to visit a brother.

Mrs. A. D. Davis and son Gerald returned to their home at Lamoni Thursday evening after visiting a few days in this city at the home of her sister, Mrs. A. L. Ackerley.

Mrs. G. W. Hoadley, of Garden Grove, and her sister, Mrs. Anna Woodbury, of Newton, who is visiting at Garden Grove, visited over Sunday with friends in this city.

Mrs. C. K. Cherrington, of Decatur City, was visiting with her son, Charles Cherrington, and daughters, Mrs. J. A. McIntosh and Mrs. J. S. Parrish in this city last Thursday.

Harry Stover, of Pleasanton, passed through this city last Thursday, going to Burlington to attend the Masonic Grand Lodge, as the representative of the Pleasanton lodge.

Miss Florence McNelly, who is attending Summer School in this city, went to Davis City Monday evening for a short visit. She was accompanied by her cousin, Miss Hazel Hatfield.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Wilkinson, of Iowa City, who had been visiting at Los Angeles, California, stopped off here Monday to visit a few days with their daughter, Mrs. W. R. West, while enroute home.

Mrs. C. W. Hoffman and daughter Dorothy went to Indianola Monday to attend the commencement exercises of Simpson College this week. Her daughter, Miss Himena Hoffman, being one of the graduates.

Several auto loads of Leon people made the trip to Osceola last Sunday afternoon.

"To catch the 4 o'clock milk train 10 miles distant it took me over two hours with the horse. I'm back home in an hour with my Maxwell." Bart A. Ryder, Crowley, La.

O. C. Clark and family returned to their home at Des Moines Monday after a few days visit with relatives in this city, having been called here by the death of Mr. Clark's mother.

Mrs. R. C. Chaney returned to her home west of Decatur City last Thursday, having been called to see her mother, Mrs. Ellis, who broke her limb at the county home last week.

Miss Blanche Gibbs, of Corydon, who has been attending college at Grinnell, came Tuesday evening to visit a few days at the home of her uncle, J. C. Johnson, just west of Leon.

Mrs. R. E. Craig, of Saline, Mo., was in Leon last Friday, coming here to meet her mother, Mrs. Nancy Moreland, of Bethany, Mo., who will visit at the home of Mrs. Craig for a time.

Mrs. Ethel Cohnheim, who was visiting at the home of her mother, Mrs. Hannah Hayden, southeast of Leon, departed last Saturday for Denver, Colorado, where she goes for the benefit of her health.

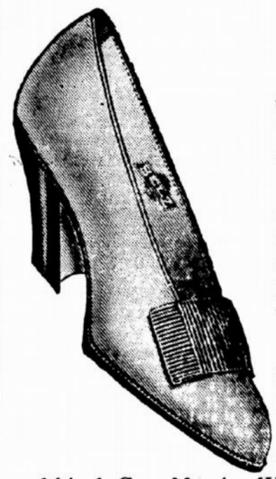

Mrs. Mary McDonough and daughters, Mrs. J. E. Chick, of Seattle, Wash., and Mrs. M. M. Bothwell and daughters, Miss Ula, of this city, went to Grand River Thursday to visit a few days with relatives and friends.

Misses Wilma and Frances Gilreath, of Yankton, S. D., arrived last Thursday for a visit of several weeks at the home of their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Marion Woodard, in this city. The little girls made the long trip to this city alone, having to change cars four times.

Mrs. J. S. Arney, who had been staying at the home of her son, county recorder Ira B. Officer, in this city for the past few weeks, drove to Van Wert Saturday, returning to this city Sunday. She was accompanied by Walter and Wallace Officer, her grandchildren.

CLASSY FOOT WEAR

At Only $2.50

Here is a line of new shoes at $2.50 a pair that would be hard to equal any place.

The new models are all represented in this line and come in black or tan and in Gun Metal, Patent Colt, Russia Calf, Suede and Vici Kid.

Special attention is directed to the illustration as the season's most popular style. This pump is shown here in Tan Russia and black Gun Metal. With each pair straps are included that may be left off or put on as you choose.

Hurst Bros., Leon, Ia.

Rugs Carpets Linoleums

BRADFIELD'S

The Reliable Grocery

Home Grown
STRAWBERRIES
From the Jenkins patch.

Will have them every day
15c per box or two boxes 25c.
All this week or cheaper if the market is lower.

I will also have sweet potato plants.

HARRY BRADFIELD
Pure Food Grocer
LEON Phone 236 IOWA