

PURELY PERSONAL

Ed Turner, of Davis City had business in this city last Thursday. S. Schenck, of Decatur City, was a visitor in this city last Saturday. Mrs. B. Atherton, of Davis City, was a visitor in this city Monday. Mrs. G. D. Tallman, of Van Wert, was a visitor in this city Saturday. Mrs. Ellen Daniels, of Davis City, was a visitor in this city Monday. Constable George Myers had official business at Davis City Tuesday. G. F. Acton, of Davis City, was a business visitor in this city Tuesday. Mrs. E. F. Allen, of Decatur City, was a visitor in this city last Saturday. Miss Marea Tullis, of Decatur City, was a visitor in this city last Saturday. Asa Cochran, of Lamoni, was a business visitor in this city last Friday. Will Henderson, of Garden Grove, was a visitor in this city last Thursday. Miss Clara Statler, of near Koyle, was a visitor in this city last Saturday. Mrs. W. E. Kemp went to Davis City Friday and spent the day with friends. Wilbur Hill went to Garden Grove Tuesday for a short visit with friends. J. D. McIntosh, of near Davis City, was a business visitor in this city Monday. L. H. Shoemaker, of Davis City, was a business visitor in this city Monday. Lawrence Caster, of Garden Grove, was a business visitor in this city Monday. Mrs. W. M. Baker, of near Koyle, was a visitor in this city Monday afternoon. Geo. J. Spaeth, of Garden Grove, was a business visitor in this city Tuesday. Mrs. Martha Vandall, of Pleasanton, was visiting in this city last Saturday. W. L. Browning, of Garden Grove, was a business visitor in this city last Saturday. Oren Elmore, of Pleasanton, was transacting business in this city last Saturday. C. E. Wood was down at Davis City Tuesday enjoying a few hours of fishing. Mrs. U. G. Griffith, of Davis City, was a visitor in this city Tuesday afternoon. Curtis Burrell, of Davis City, was a business visitor in this city last Thursday. B. S. Parker, of Davis City, was a business visitor in this city last Thursday. Mrs. B. S. Parker, of Davis City, was a visitor in this city Saturday afternoon. Miss Amy Spurrier, of Lamoni, was a visitor in this city Saturday afternoon. Dr. O. E. Macy, of Pleasanton, was a business visitor in this city Monday afternoon. Miss Hazel Swanson went to Grand River Monday for a few days visit with friends. A. H. Simmerman, of near Van Wert, was a business visitor in this city Monday. Mrs. James McIntosh, of Davis City, was a visitor in this city Sunday and Monday. "Chick" Kimball, of Davis City, was visiting with old friends in this city Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. Orel Estes went to Des Moines Thursday on a short business trip. Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Campbell, of Saline, Mo., were visitors in this city last Thursday. Mrs. A. O. Walters, of Humeston, was a business visitor in this city last Thursday. Mrs. Stella Hamilton, of Davis City, was a visitor in this city Saturday evening. C. W. Hoffman returned Friday evening from a short business trip to Des Moines. Mrs. W. J. Cummings, of Davis City, was a visitor in this city Saturday afternoon. L. B. Boldman, of Davis City, was a business visitor in this city Saturday afternoon. Mrs. Myra Howard, of Davis City, was transacting business in this city Monday forenoon. C. R. Riley, of Decatur City, was a business visitor in this city last Friday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Petticoat, of Decatur City, were visitors in this city last Saturday. Harrison Orfield, of near Decatur City, was a business visitor in this city last Thursday. Edgar Perdue went to Davis City Saturday evening and visited over Sunday with friends. Miss Capitola Robison, of near Blockley, came Tuesday to visit a few days in this city. Earl Akes went to Pleasanton Saturday evening to conduct the band concert at that place. George Brenner, of near Davis City, was a business visitor in this city Friday afternoon. Mrs. F. A. Townsend returned Monday from a two weeks visit with friends in Des Moines. Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Marvin went to Centerville Friday and visited over Sunday with her sister. Miss Mae Spargur, of Pleasanton, came Tuesday to visit a few days with friends in this city. Mrs. P. A. Long and little daughter, of Garden Grove, were visitors in this city last Thursday. Mrs. Lee Flora and D. W. Watsabaugh were up from Davis City Friday afternoon between trains. Mar'ion Osborne came in Saturday evening from Grand River and spent Sunday at his home in this city. Mrs. J. S. Parrish and children went to Osceola Tuesday to spend a few days with friends in that city. Fay Hatch and Fred Epperly went to Centerville Saturday afternoon to attend the Ringling circus. Mrs. Ellen Beck returned Friday from Decatur City, where she had been visiting a few days with friends. Wm. McIntosh, of Davis City, was a business visitor in this city last Friday, returning on the evening train.

Mrs. Tuger Davenport and baby and Miss Fay Johnson, of Kellerton, were visitors in this city last Saturday. Miss Elizabeth Hurren, of Lincoln, Neb., is a guest at the home of her friend, Mrs. Jas. R. Penniwell in this city. Henry Turpen returned to his home at Davis City Monday evening, after working in this city for several days. Prof. Russell Manley and wife returned Saturday evening from a visit of several days with relatives at Osceola. Wm. Goodman, the extensive live stock breeder of near Van Wert, was a business visitor in this city last Friday. Mrs. H. J. Bradley and Miss Eula Cunningham were visiting with friends at Decatur City Saturday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Wheeler, of Albany, Mo., came Sunday and visited a couple of days with friends in this city. Mrs. Lawrence Caster, of Garden Grove, came Saturday for a short visit with relatives and friends in this city. Miss Ruth Epsy returned to her home at Decatur City Monday after visiting a few days with friends in this city. Will McKern returned Saturday evening from Shenandoah, where he had been for a few days on nursery business. County treasurer W. C. Cozad returned Monday evening from a short visit with his brother, J. S. Cozad, at Moulton. Miss May Waters returned to her home at Garden Grove Friday after visiting a couple of days with friends in this city. Mrs. Frank Staley, of Derby and Mrs. George Wright, of Smyrna, Iowa, were visitors in this city last Saturday. Miss Lucille Darr returned Monday from Koyle, where she visited over Sunday with her friend, Miss Virgie Cox. S. H. Lorey, of Pleasanton, came up Saturday for a short visit at the home of his son, sheriff F. L. Lorey, in this city. Attorney H. H. Fuller, of Mt. Ayr, was a business visitor in this city last Thursday, going from here to Des Moines. Mrs. John Holden returned Saturday afternoon from a visit of several weeks at the home of her niece in St. Joe, Mo. Miss Esther Jones, who is attending the Summer School, went to her home at Decatur City Thursday for a short visit. Mrs. S. A. Edwards, of Pleasanton, was a visitor at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Leslie Grimes, in this city Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Harmon went to Pleasanton Monday to visit a few days at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Bert Chew. Mrs. Daisy Smith went to Grand River last Thursday to visit a few days at the home of her sister, Mrs. Richard Hewlett. G. W. Elston returned to his home at Pleasanton Monday evening after spending several days in this city on business. Miss Laura Steckel, a student in the Summer School, went to her home at Lamoni Saturday evening to visit over Sunday. Miss Nellie Moreland, of Bethany, Mo., came last Thursday to visit a few days at the home of Will Johnson near this city. Mrs. Bertha Davis, who had been attending the Summer School in this city, returned to her home at Lamoni Friday evening. County superintendent Mabel Horner went to Lamoni Saturday evening and visited over Sunday with relatives and friends. Mrs. M. E. Bucy, who had been visiting with friends at Mercer, Mo., returned last Thursday evening to her home at Lamoni. Ora Petty, of near Davis City, who is a student in the Summer School, went home Friday evening to visit over Sunday. Miss Blanche Tapscott, who is attending the Summer School, went to her home at Lamoni Friday evening to visit over Sunday. Mrs. Clell Collier, of Osceola, came Friday and visited a couple of days at the home of Dr. and Mrs. W. F. Wright in this city. Miles Chapman, of Des Moines, came Saturday evening to visit over Sunday at the home of Frank Chastain in Eden township. Miss Marcia McNeill who is a student in the Summer School, went to her home at Tuskeego Friday evening to visit over Sunday. Aunt Carolyn Robbins returned last Thursday from a few days visit at the homes of her children at Van Wert and Decatur City. Miss Alice Jeffries returned to her home at Davis City Thursday evening after visiting a couple of days with friends in this city. Miss Christina Jones, who is a student in the Summer School, went to her home at Davis City Friday evening to visit over Sunday. Miss Ruby Cress, who is attending the Summer School in this city, went to her home near Decatur City Friday to visit over Sunday. Miss Helen Renfro returned to her home at Clarinda Monday after visiting for a few days with her father, Fred Renfro, in this city. Squire S. L. Cox and wife, of southwest of Leon, went to Corydon Friday and visited over Sunday with relatives in that vicinity. H. C. Moore, wife and baby went to Davis City Saturday evening and visited over Sunday at the home of his brother, Elmer Moore. J. E. Downey, of Lamoni, was visiting with friends in this city Friday afternoon while returning from a business trip to Ottumwa. Fred H. Kemp, of Des Moines, passed through this city Saturday noon going to Pleasanton to attend to some business matters. Mrs. John Sell and son Lester went to Davis City Tuesday to visit a few days at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Arthur Doolittle. Mrs. T. S. Arnold accompanied Dr. and Mrs. Layton as far as Carlisle last Wednesday on their way to Lake Okoboji, and is visiting at the home of her niece, Mrs. Robert Wade, for a few days.

Mrs. Ethel Pickering and children and Mrs. Frank Pickering and children enjoyed a picnic party at Davis City last Friday afternoon. Miss Esther Jones, who has been attending the Summer School in this city, returned to her home at Decatur City Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. Jacob Beardley went to DeKalb Saturday afternoon and visited over Sunday at the home of her sister, Mrs. Georgia Snyder. Mrs. J. W. Laney of Decatur City, came Saturday evening to visit a few days at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. W. Long in this city. Dr. W. C. Ward, Harry Sheffer and Alva Roberts, of Garden Grove, were visitors in this city last Friday evening, driving down in an auto. C. L. Wood and Harve Pitman departed Monday for St. Paul, Minn., where they expect to work in the big harvest fields for a few weeks. Mr. and Mrs. Doll Zimmerman returned to their home near Grand River Thursday after visiting a few days with relatives in this city. Mrs. Edna Maire returned Saturday evening from a two weeks visit at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Pugh, at Clearfield. Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Stanley returned Monday evening from Harvard, Iowa, where they had been looking after their store for a few days. Miss Letha Bunch, who is a student in the Summer School, went to her home at Decatur City Friday to visit over Sunday with relatives. Mrs. J. F. Hacker, of near Van Wert, came Friday evening for a short visit at the home of her mother, Mrs. J. C. Bullard, in this city. Mrs. H. L. McClaran returned to her home at Davis City Thursday after visiting a couple of days with friends at the home of Mrs. Ed Biggs. Miss Georgia Gardner returned Friday evening from Des Moines, where she had been for several weeks taking some special studies. Miss Coy Krouch, of near Allerton, who is attending the Summer School in this city, went to Humeston Friday to visit over Sunday with friends. Mrs. J. M. Brown returned Friday afternoon from Mt. Moriah, Mo., where she had been visiting for a week with relatives and old friends. Mrs. Maggie Ward, of Beaconsfield, came Saturday evening to visit a few days with numerous relatives and friends in this city and vicinity. Miss Ruth Edgington, of southeast of Leon, went to Kellerton Saturday evening to visit a few days at the home of her sister, Mrs. Mary Allen. Mrs. F. L. Lorey and children went to Davis City Friday evening for a short visit at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. McDowell. Mrs. A. C. Craig departed last Thursday afternoon for Council Bluffs, where she will visit for several weeks at the home of her daughter. Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Johnson returned Thursday evening from Winterset, where they had been visiting a few days at the home of her sister. Riley Buchanan, who has been working in a barber shop at Jefferson, Iowa, came in Monday for a few days visit with his family in this city. Miss Erna Anderson returned to her home at Lamoni Monday evening after visiting over Sunday with her friend, Miss Alice Gittinger, near this city. A. L. Howard, who is employed in the Democrat office at Osceola, came down Saturday evening and visited over Sunday with his family in this city. W. T. Barlean, of Eden township, went to Humeston Tuesday for a few days visit with relatives. He was accompanied by his niece, Miss Lizzie Ellis. Steve Crouse departed Saturday noon for Winfield, Kansas, where he will spend a few weeks visiting at the home of his daughter, Mrs. G. M. Tharp. Miss Myrtle Young returned Monday from an over Sunday visit with home folks at Garden Grove, and resumed her studies in the Summer School. Claude Moore, of Pleasanton, was a visitor in this city Monday, being on his way home from Davis City, where he visited over Sunday with friends. Misses Alice Jones and Merle Cress, who are attending the Summer School, went to their homes at Decatur City Friday to visit over Sunday. Max Ray departed Monday for his home at Maquoketa, Iowa, after visiting for several weeks in this city at the home of his grandmother, Mrs. A. J. Allen. Miss Rosa Bennett returned Friday evening from Weldon where she had been visiting at the home of her uncle, J. L. Mendenhall, for a couple of weeks. David Ironside went to DeKalb Monday where he will be engaged for several days doing some masonry work for Mrs. B. D. DeKalb on her residence. Sheriff F. L. Lorey was down at Davis City Tuesday, subpoenaing witnesses for the preliminary hearing of James McIntosh which was set for yesterday. Misses Mary and Thelma Franklin, of Pleasanton, were Leon visitors Saturday, being on their way home from a few days visit with relatives at Davis City. Mrs. A. L. Hedrick and son Clyde, of Knoxville, came Tuesday to visit a few days at the home of her brother, E. Richards, who lives southeast of this city. Dan Griffin, of southeast of Leon, went to Lovilia, Iowa, Saturday to visit a few days with relatives, a cousin who resides there being dangerously ill. D. C. Cowles, of Davis City, was in Leon Tuesday, being on his way to Pleasanton to visit his brother, H. A. Cowles and look after some business matters. Miss Gladys Muck returned to her home near Crown Friday after visiting a few days in this city at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Scott. Mrs. Harry Bowen and children Phania and Frederick, of Harris, Arkansas, arrived last Thursday for a visit of several weeks in this city at the home of her parents, Dr. and Mrs. W. F. Waigla.

Miss Eva Rhea and father, M. C. Rhea, went to Brimston, Mo., Monday where they will visit a week with relatives and friends. Miss Edna Kridlebaugh and little nephew, of Charlton, were guests at the home of Mrs. S. W. Hurst in this city Sunday. Mrs. R. J. Richardson returned to her home at Pleasanton Monday after visiting for a couple of weeks in this city at the home of her brother, Rev. Wm. Biggs. Miss May Hutchinson returned to her home at Cambria Saturday after visiting a few days at the home of her cousin, Miss Irene Hutchinson, east of this city. J. H. Boswell, who had been visiting for several days at the home of his sister, Mrs. Ollie Blatt, in this city, returned to his home at Lamoni Monday evening. Miss Leah Hullinger returned to her home at Davis City Saturday evening after visiting a few days in this city at the home of her uncle, C. E. Henderson. Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Potts, of Malvern, Iowa, who had been in Leon for several days taking orders for carpet rugs, went to Davis City Thursday evening. Miss Grace Nish went to her home at Weldon Saturday and visited over Sunday with her mother. Miss Mattie Evans accompanied her for an over Sunday visit. Miss Minnie Hazlet returned Saturday evening from Melbourne, Iowa, where she had been visiting for several weeks at the home of her sister, Mrs. Otto Wiesley. Mrs. Anna Donald, who had been visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Hutchinson, east of this city, returned to her home at Bentonsville Saturday. F. Woolsey returned to his home in Des Moines Friday after a visit at the home of his brother, A. J. Woolsey and other relatives and friends south of Leon. Mrs. Charlotte Wagener, of Freeman, Mo., came last Thursday to visit a few days at the home of her brother, R. T. Piercy, and other relatives in this vicinity. Mrs. J. H. Kling, of Bloomington, Neb., who had been visiting with relatives in this city, went to Weldon Saturday to visit a few days with friends in that vicinity. Harry Sell, who is building a fine residence for one of Davis City's prominent farmers, came up Saturday evening and visited over Sunday at his home in this city. Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Harris, of Union, Iowa, who were here looking for a farm to purchase, went to Davis City Thursday to investigate some land at that place. Miss Bessie Armstrong returned to her home north of Decatur City Saturday after visiting for a week with her sister, Mrs. W. H. Akes and other friends in this city. Miss Cecil Grimes accompanied her little brother Marion to Davis City Saturday where he visited a few days at the home of his grandmother, Mrs. E. S. Grimes. Miss Mary Lillie, of Woodbine, Iowa, who had been visiting with friends in this vicinity, went to Davis City Saturday evening to visit a few days before returning home. Miss June Cummings, of Columbus, Ohio, who had been visiting with relatives at Lamoni, returned to Leon Saturday afternoon for a visit with relatives in this vicinity. Mrs. George Stewart, of Kansas City, Mo., arrived Saturday for a week's visit at the home of her niece, Mrs. Harl Williamson and other relatives in this vicinity. Wm. VonNostrand returned Friday noon from a visit with his son, I. N. McDonough, at Unionville, Iowa, and also with relatives at Bloomfield and Fairfield, Iowa. Bert Gardner, of Murdo, S. D., who is visiting in this vicinity, went to Pleasanton Monday evening to visit a couple of days at the home of his cousin, Mrs. Walter Morey. Mrs. W. T. Cartwright, of Garden Grove, passed through this city Saturday afternoon, returning from a few days visit with her daughter, Mrs. L. C. Reick, at Cainsville. Misses Caryl and Irene Williams and Susie Tmyl returned to their home at Mt. Ayr Friday evening after visiting a few days in this city guests of Miss Alma Kindblade. George Henry, a real estate dealer from Ridgeway, Mo., was in Leon Monday on business, being accompanied by D. R. Eversole, a prominent merchant of Maryville, Mo. Mrs. J. D. Bruce, of Kansas City, Mo., came Tuesday afternoon to visit a few days with her mother, Mrs. W. J. Darr and sisters, Mrs. J. A. Harris and Mrs. Lucy D. Ray in this city. Misses Lola Shelton and Marie Mannsforth, of Decatur City, came Tuesday evening to take the teacher's examination being held today by county superintendent Mabel Horner. John Akes, the hustling piano salesman, came in from northern Iowa Tuesday evening and will enjoy a ten day vacation with his family before going out on the road again. Mr. and Mrs. Richard Sanders departed Friday noon for their home at Sterling, Colorado, after visiting a few days in this city at the home of their friends, Mr. and Mrs. George Wax. Silas Acton returned to his home near Grand River last Thursday after visiting a couple of days with his brother, Uriah Acton, in this city who has been very sick for a long time. Sam Johnson came in from Garden Grove Saturday and visited over Sunday in this city. He has just completed painting the farm residence of Ben Woolley, near Garden Grove. Mrs. M. M. Grayson and children, of Des Moines, who had been visiting with relatives at Decatur City, came to Leon Friday to visit a short time with her mother, Mrs. Paralee Moore. Miss Ethyl Smith, of Tingley, who had been visiting at the home of her brother, Lloyd M. Smith in this city, returned to Mt. Ayr Saturday evening where she is attending Summer School.

Mrs. Nelle Flick, who had been visiting at the home of her mother at Cainsville, Mo., came to Leon last Thursday to visit a few days with friends in this city. Mrs. S. Whisler returned Friday evening from Weldon, where she had been visiting her daughter, Miss Maggie, who is running a millinery store at that place. Mrs. D. K. Sutherland and baby who have been visiting for several weeks in this city at the home of her mother, Mrs. M. E. Tharp, departed Saturday for their home at Hominy, Oklahoma. Mrs. W. E. Smith and children, of Eden township, went to Des Moines Saturday for a visit with her mother, Miss Frank Woolsey. Her brother, John Woolsey accompanied her to Des Moines. Mrs. Belle Turner returned to her home at Lavis City Saturday after visiting for several days at the home of her sister, Mrs. C. E. Chastain, and brother, J. S. McCalla, of southeast of Leon. Mrs. Mary Bennett and Miss Ollie Wells, of Davis City, were visitors in this city Tuesday. They left on the afternoon train for Shenandoah, where they will visit a few days with relatives and friends. Mrs. M. E. Noble returned to her home near Kellerton Thursday evening after visiting a few days at the home of her brother, A. E. Ellis near Davis City and at the home of Al Gardner, southwest of this city. Miss Maggie Whisler, of Weldon, came Tuesday evening to visit for several weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Silas Whisler in this city, having closed her millinery store at Weldon until the fall season opens. Mrs. Perry Albaugh and daughter, Mary Louise, came Tuesday evening to visit a few days with her friend, Miss Georgia Gardner and other friends in this city. She was accompanied by her sister, Miss Dorothy Eagle. Miss Martha Vanhoosen, of Kansas City, who was visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. C. M. Harris, in this city, went to Blytheedale, Mo., Thursday to visit a few days with relatives before returning home. Mrs. Frank Manning, of Kellerton, who had been visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. Harl Warrington, near Garden Grove, stopped off in this city Tuesday and spent a few hours with old friends, while on her way home. Mrs. J. L. McCutcheon and daughters, Marie and Maud, of Belfield, N. D., arrived Monday for a visit of several weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Jenkins and other relatives and friends in this city and vicinity. Misses Louisa Butcher and Florence McNeely went to their homes at Davis City Friday evening to visit over Sunday. They returned to Leon Monday morning to complete their studies in the Summer School which closes this week. Uncle John Moon returned last Friday from his visit to Ohio and Michigan. He had a nice trip but on account of the extreme heat, cut his visit somewhat shorter and decided to return home where he could be as comfortable as possible. Mrs. C. L. Moore and daughter Doris, of Curtis, Neb., who had been visiting with relatives in Chicago, came Thursday to visit a few days at the home of her sister, Mrs. J. G. Long, northeast of this city. They will return home from here. Mrs. C. E. Adams, of Denver, Mo., who had been visiting with relatives and old friends at her former home near Grand River, stopped off in this city Thursday evening while enroute home and visited over night at the home of M. I. Marshall. Mr. and Mrs. L. P. VanWerden, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Sharp and daughter, Miss Margaret McKlveen, and Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Smith, of Sharpsburg, Iowa, who are visiting at the VanWerden home, enjoyed a picnic at Davis City last Thursday.

Mrs. Marlon F. Stookey returned Friday evening from a two weeks visit with her daughter, Mrs. Marlon E. Wasson, at Davenport, Iowa. She also visited a few days with friends in Des Moines on the way home. Mr. and Mrs. Wasson accompanied her to Leon for a visit. Brown Caster came down from Des Moines Tuesday to visit a week with relatives and friends in this city. He expects to leave the first week in August for Berkeley, California, to resume his studies in the University of California, which he has attended for the past two years. Mrs. Samuel Woods and children, Russell and Loretta, departed Saturday for Kansas City to visit a few days before returning to their home at Wichita, Kansas. They had been visiting with Misses Ella and Kate Grogan and other relatives and friends in this vicinity. Mrs. W. G. Jeffries, of Chicago, who is visiting at the home of her parents at Davis City, returned to Davis City Thursday evening after visiting a couple of days with friends in this city. Mrs. Jeffries says they are nicely located in Chicago and Dr. Jeffries is enjoying a fine practice. Mrs. H. B. Ford and son Lyndol, of Des Moines, stopped off in this city last Saturday and visited until Monday at the home of her uncle, Arthur Forbes, being on her way home from a visit with her mother at Enid, Oklahoma. They went to Humeston Monday and from there will return home. Miss Helene Griffin, who has been one of the instructors in the Summer School held in this city, returned Tuesday to her home at Grand River. Wednesday morning in company with her sister, Miss Gussie, she departed for a visit of several weeks with friends at Sheridan, Wyoming. Will F. Lindsey, the new editor of the Producer and Consumer, came down from Des Moines Saturday evening and visited over Sunday with his family in this city. He says he is well pleased with his new work and that it is much easier than the grind of being editor of a Leon weekly. Mrs. S. F. Shaw, who had been visiting at the home of her mother, Mrs. A. Fulton, south of Leon, returned to her home at Des Moines Saturday afternoon. Her son Paul, who had been here for several weeks went to Garden Grove the same afternoon to visit a few days with his grandmother Shaw. Frank N. Hansell departed Tuesday evening for St. Louis, where he will spend several days buying new goods for his big department store and then goes to Bell Trees, Illinois, to join his family who have been visiting at the home of Mrs. Hansell's parents for several weeks, and accompany them home. Walter Metz, one of the popular salesmen at Hansell's store, returned Saturday from a week's vacation which he spent in a visit to relatives at Peoria and Quincy, Illinois. On the way home he enjoyed a steamboat ride from Quincy to Burlington and spent a day seeing the sights at the big dam at Keokuk. Miss Nora Dobson, who has been stenographer in C. W. Hoffman's law office in this city, resigned her position last week and departed Monday morning for Des Moines, having accepted a position as stenographer with the law firm of Strock & Wallace, who have offices in the Citizen's National Bank building. Uncle John Phipps, who is almost 102 years old, who had been visiting at the home of his daughter, Mrs. F. A. Gardner for a few days on his way home from a visit with his brother in Oklahoma, returned to his home near Shenandoah last Thursday. The unusual spectacle of a man more than one hundred years old, who was traveling alone, and not wearing glasses attracted the attention of all who were at the depot.

It Depends Altogether
ON HOW EARLY OR HOW LATE
You Send Us Your Order
Which Method Of Delivery We Use
We Aim To Reach You On Time.

Our Weekly Recipe.

Rice Pudding. Wash and boil two tablespoonfuls of rice in water to cover. Dissolve a quarter of a box of gelatine in cold water, stir into the rice while hot, cool, add a cupful of sugar, two tablespoons of chopped preserved ginger, vanilla to taste, and two tablespoons of preserved figs. Put on ice several hours; serve with whipped cream.

Order These Early

Fresh Peaches and Canteloupes

HARRY BRADFIELD
 Pure Food Grocer
LEON Phone 236 IOWA