

Woodland.

Dr. and Mrs. C. E. Lovett drove to Milo Monday afternoon and spent the night with Dr. and Mrs. F. P. Fielding and on Tuesday drove on to Des Moines returning home the same evening.

Orel Eestes and Harry Wright of Leon, were business callers here Monday.

Dr. McNay of Garden Grove, was a caller here Monday.

Matt Pullin and Jim Ausman of Leon were here Tuesday.

Jas. F. Newlin, Novia S. Beavers and Roy Beavers attended the alfalfa meeting last Monday at the Fred Woolley place north of High Point.

A number of farmers sold and delivered hogs to Leon, Lineville and Garden Grove Tuesday.

Dr. Lovett reports the birth of a son to Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Karns on Wednesday morning, July 30.

Miss Marie Clarke of Lineville, has been a guest at the H. O. Petty home the past week.

Miss Alta Lockwood returned Wednesday from a week's visit with her sister, Mrs. Arthur Smith near Tingley.

Claude Beavers delivered 60 head of hogs to Leon Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Lockwood and Miss Nora Rains spent Friday at the J. Q. Lockwood sr. home.

H. O. Petty went to Chicago Tuesday with a car load of cattle and one of hogs which he had fattened.

Miss Margaret Perkins of Leon, came Friday to visit at the Tom Lane home.

Homer Massey of Cainsville, rode his wheel here Friday and is visiting relatives and friends.

J. H. Lockwood and wife spent Sunday at the Carl Rains home.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Lane and daughter Hazel and Miss Margaret Perkins were Lineville callers Saturday.

Guy Beavers and family were over Sunday guests at the Jas. S. Beavers home.

John Q. Lockwood jr. and family spent Sunday at the John A. Adair home.

Jas. F. and Kent Newlin were Garden Grove callers Saturday afternoon.

Ruth Truitt of Indianola, who was visiting relatives at High Point, came Wednesday and visited with Audrey Woolman until Saturday when she returned to High Point.

Harvey Northrup and Rev. Wilson of Garden Grove, were in this vicinity Wednesday distributing literature for the Chautauqua to be held at that place August 29 to Sept. 2.

Misses Adah Petty and Marie Clarke spent Wednesday night with the former's sister, Mrs. Oka Beavers.

A large number of persons from this community attended the Yankee Robinson show at Leon Friday.

Master Robert Walker of Ft. Madison, who is visiting relatives at Humeston, came home with Mr. and Mrs. Novia S. Beavers Thursday and stayed until Sunday when he returned to Humeston.

Mrs. Mary Bethards went to visit her daughter, Mrs. Orville Brown Thursday and to Leon Friday.

Lloyd Duden and family of Lineville, were over Sunday guests at the A. P. Coontz home.

J. E. Lentz and Jas. S. Beavers were Lineville callers Saturday.

Ruth Truitt and Audrey Woolman were guests Thursday of Mrs. E. L. Beavers.

Dave Duffield and family of Lineville, spent Sunday at the J. H. Johnston home.

Mr. and Mrs. Austin Johnston were over Sunday guests of their sons, Elmer and Perry, near Garden Grove.

Ellsworth Dye and family from South Dakota, Mrs. Robert Dye of Leon, Mr. and Mrs. N. S. Beavers and Master Robert Walker were entertained Saturday by Mr. and Mrs. C. Dye.

John Speer and family of Carlisle, Iowa, were over Sunday guests at the D. E. Lentz home, also Mr. and Mrs. Sid Tuller and George Allen spent the day there.

Mrs. Ben Vostley and daughter Ruth of Des Moines, came Saturday for a visit at the J. C. Thornton home.

Howard Sage, Misses Grace Beavers and Edith Stewart of Leon, Roy Woods and family of Big Springs, were guests at the Freeley Beavers home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo McGhee from near Lineville, Jesse McGhee and family, were guests of relatives at LeRoy Sunday.

Mrs. Will Hayes died Thursday night after a lingering illness of ulcers of the stomach and was buried near Lineville Friday afternoon. This is indeed a sad case as the little 4 year old son choked to death on a piece of meat a few days before and was buried on Wednesday previous. The entire community extends its deepest sympathy to the bereaved husband and son who are left to mourn these loved ones.

John Moore and family, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Still and Mrs. J. S. Coontz and children were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Still Tuesday.

Some people spent more going to the cheap circus at Leon last Friday than would supply their entire family with Chautauqua tickets for the whole week. The Leon Chautauqua program is a good one and we expect to attend.

Rid Your Children of Worms.

You can change fretful, ill-tempered children into healthy, happy youngsters by ridding them of worms. Tossing, rolling, grinding of teeth, crying out while asleep, accompanied with intense thirst, pains in the stomach and bowels, feverish and bad breath, are symptoms that indicate worms. Kickapoo Worm Killer, a pleasant candy lozenge excites the worms, regulates the bowels, restores your children to health and happiness. Mrs. J. A. Brislin, of Elgin, Illinois, says: "I have used Kickapoo Worm Killer for years, and entirely rid my children of worms. I would not be without it." Guaranteed. All druggists, or by mail. Price 25c. Kickapoo Indian Medicine Co., Philadelphia, and St. Louis.

REPORTER FOR SALE BILLS.

Garden Grove.

J. L. Ratliff and son of Lawrence, Kansas, came last week to visit at the Matthews home, and he is making arrangements to buy the Racket store if he can get a house to live in.

Mrs. Roscoe Mitchell, of Perry, was here last week visiting her friends, Mrs. Raleigh and Miss Eva Jennings.

G. W. Hoadley went to Chariton last week on business.

A. E. Northrup will open a dry goods store in the room formerly occupied by Dr. Wilkin.

One day last week the little son of Mr. and Mrs. Nels Johnson was successfully operated on for appendicitis at Des Moines.

O. R. Stout, of Leon, was here last week on business.

Little Florence Farquhar who has been visiting at her grandfather's home here, returned to Ottumwa Thursday.

Dr. Horner of Corydon was here over Sunday.

Mrs. Potts and daughter Miss Gretchen came Sunday for a visit at home, Mrs. Potts returning to Grinnell Monday.

Mrs. R. D. Young, Bernice and Mrs. Lyman Young returned Monday from a visit with her daughter, Mrs. Leo Sullivan at Blythedale.

Mrs. W. E. Lyon returned Sunday from Chariton.

Miss Ruth Stearns has been the inspiration for several delightful pre-nuptial affairs, her mother, Mrs. A. W. Stearns entertained last Tuesday about forty friends, when formal announcement of her daughter's approaching marriage to Dr. Horner was made. On Tuesday of this week she was tendered a miscellaneous shower by her young friends at the home of Miss Mabel McClung, and on Thursday she will be honor guest at a linen shower given by Miss Lucy Sullivan. On Monday afternoon Mrs. C. S. Stearns entertained at cards in her honor.

Mrs. Harry Beall of Omaha, came Monday to visit her cousin, Mrs. W. C. Ward.

Mr. and Mrs. Owen of Des Moines, who were here visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Smith, returned home Monday.

Don't forget that the big Chautauqua commences at Leon on August 15th and make arrangements so that you can attend the entire session.

Little River.

Hot and dry weather still continues in this section at this writing.

George Davis and wife spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Charley Graham and family.

Those who spent Tuesday at the Spargur home were Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Starr and daughter Estella, Mr. and Mrs. George Davis, Mrs. John Henderson, Mrs. Marion Davis, and family and Leslie Davis.

Page Drury returned home Saturday from a week's visit with her sister, Mrs. Lawrence Wilson and family.

Hazel Graham spent Saturday night with Homer Davis and wife.

Many from these parts attended the Yankee Robinson show at Leon Friday.

Mrs. Lawrence Wilson and daughter Blanche came Saturday to visit a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Drury and family.

A. W. Spargur called on Charley Graham Sunday afternoon.

Homer Davis and wife spent Sunday at Charley Graham's.

Edith Spargur called on the Drury girls Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Starr and family spent Saturday at George Davis'.

Mrs. Will Henderson and family, Mrs. Tyra Henderson and sister spent Wednesday at the Spargur home.

Hazel Graham was the guest of Miss Fleeta Drury Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Drury spent Sunday at the James Drury home.

The circus is gone and many are kicking themselves for spending their money to see it when so much more enjoyment could be had from attending the Leon Chautauqua which commences August 15th.

Salem.

Several from this vicinity attended the show at Leon Friday.

Next Sunday is the regular meeting day at this place. Everyone come.

Ralph Judd and wife spent Sunday at Garden Grove.

Mrs. Beulah Turpen, who has been visiting in the Dakotas returned home Friday for a visit with her parents, J. E. Drury and family.

Mrs. LeRoy Dillon of Humboldt, Iowa, came the latter part of last week for a visit with her parents, M. Linden and family.

A large number of the people from this place attended the show in Leon Friday.

Miss Faye Linden who has been in Des Moines the past six months attending the Highland Park College returned home Saturday.

The people of this place were shocked last week to hear of the death of Henry Cowles, of Pleasanton. His remains were brought here and laid to rest in the New Salem cemetery.

Dr. S. H. Stover and family of Northfield, Minn., R. L. Stover and family of Smithville, Texas, and G. D. Stover and wife of Des Moines, visited last week with their mother, Mrs. J. H. Stover and family.

We have heard many good words of the splendid program which is offered at the Leon Chautauqua August 15th to 20th. You should arrange so that you can attend the entire session and a season ticket does not cost very much. It's better than a circus.

The King of All Laxatives.

For constipation, headaches, indigestion and dyspepsia, use Dr. King's New Life Pills. Paul Mathulka, of Buffalo, N. Y., says they are the "King of all laxatives. They are a blessing to all my family and I always keep a box at home." Get a box and get well. Price 25c. Recommended by Bell & Robinson.

Sand Creek No. 2.

D. A. Williams, wife and children visited over Sunday with her brother, Frank Henderson near Decatur.

F. W. Sellers and wife and Rubie and Julian McLaughlin were Decatur callers Saturday.

Miss Pearl Epperley is on the sick list this writing.

Mrs. Logan departed Friday for Akron, Colorado.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Orfield visited over Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harrison Orfield.

F. W. Sellers and wife visited Sunday with Alf Miller and wife.

Crystal Miller has returned from Mills county, where she has been visiting her aunt, who was very sick for some time, but is much better at this writing.

Several from this vicinity attended the meeting at Decatur Sunday evening.

Lola Williams returned to her home after visiting a few days with her grandmother Henderson at Decatur.

Henry Bedell called on John Sellers Thursday afternoon.

Jane Tillett called on Mrs. Andrew Kier one day last week.

Jim Baker returned home from Des Moines where he went to see a physician on the account of poor health. He has been ailing for some time, but is some better at this writing.

Miss Cleve Eilers is assisting Mrs. Record with her house work during threshing.

Mrs. Jim Reynolds was a Decatur caller Saturday.

Bob Cheney and son called on Alf Miller Sunday.

Alf Miller and wife and little son Harmon and F. W. Sellers and wife spent Sunday evening at D. A. Williams'. The evening was spent with ice cream. All reports are of a good time.

Ed Williams is assisting his brother Dannie with stacking his oats.

Clarence Williams called one day last week on Mrs. F. W. Sellers.

Are you going to the Leon Chautauqua August 15th to 20th. We are and advise all our friends to attend if they want a week's real solid enjoyment of brilliant lectures and good music.

Baker.

Charley McLaughlin and family of near Lamoni, took supper with J. L. Wion and family Friday evening.

E. McGahuey and wife of Kellerton, called on his daughter, Mrs. Arthur Bogue Wednesday afternoon.

The funeral of Mrs. Mary Akers was held at Elk chapel Friday afternoon.

Ruth Piercy spent Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. Fred Wiley.

Paul and Vesta Andrew visited Sunday with their sister, Mrs. Roy Brown and family.

Dewey Ross began work for J. E. Woodmansee Monday.

Mrs. Ray Thompson and sons Wayne and Ronald came Saturday to visit a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed McGahuey and family.

Mrs. Joseph Boord called on Mrs. C. L. Boord Thursday afternoon.

Jake Wiley hauled corn to Tuskego Wednesday.

Jesse Akers spent Sunday with Lewis Payton.

George Ross called on Frank Powers Monday morning.

J. L. Wion and family visited Sunday with his parents, Henry Wion and wife.

C. R. Piercy and wife and Charley Layton made a trip to Leon Saturday night.

John Wiley called on his grandfather, Jake Rhoades Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Oiler and son are visiting with her parents, John DeVries and family.

With good crops assured and harvest work well in hand all our farmers should give their families an outing by attending the splendid Chautauqua at Leon, August 15th to 20th.

Bradney.

George Lowe and wife came Friday to visit their daughter Mrs. Cora Brooks a few days.

Mrs. Alice Boyce and children and Miss Ita Grogan returned Monday from Grand River.

Henry Brannen and family of near Decatur visited over Sunday at Dwight Freeman's.

Nearly every one attended the show at Leon Friday.

Oscar Beavers and Dwight Freeman delivered hogs to Leon Monday night.

Several from this vicinity attended the funeral of George Hurst Monday.

Ye correspondent expects to attend the Leon Chautauqua August 15th to 20th, and we hope to meet many of our friends during the session.

REPORTER FOR SALE BILLS.

Sunny Side.

Mr. Jeff Strange and family called on Grandma Rumley Monday afternoon.

Mrs. Minnie Woodmansee and daughter Thelma were callers at the Sam Southern home Monday evening.

Miss Carrie Cummins has been on the sick list the past week.

About all the people in this vicinity laid aside their work and business and took a day off to attend the Yankee Robinson circus in Leon Friday.

Henry Ross and Ed Rumley delivered wheat to Chas. Badison for Mr. Jimmie Hull Monday and Tuesday.

Mrs. Dollie Southern spent Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. Bertha Strange.

Miss Jennie Ross spent Thursday night with the Misses Carrie and Zora Cummins.

Floyd Rumley motored to Lineville Sunday to attend the ball game between Leon and Lineville.

Miss Jennie Ross and little sister Pearl spent Thursday afternoon at the Rumley home.

Mrs. Bertha Strange and children called on Mrs. John S. Gardner Monday forenoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Smith and baby Wilma of Blockley were Sunday visitors at the Sam Southern home.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Rumley and son Warren were callers at the Jeff Strange home Sunday evening.

A. E. Woodmansee has begun to build a new granary. He is making a cement floor to prevent the rats from damaging the grain.

Misses Ruth Tharp, Josephine Corder and her cousin Edna Gatchell, of Omaha, were Sunday dinner guests with Jennie Ross.

Misses Zora and Carrie Cummins and Belle Freestone and brother called on Mr. and Mrs. Homer Townsley near Blockley Sunday.

Aunt Mary Akers passed away at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Hattie Claypool Wednesday evening after an illness of several months. This community extends sympathy to the bereaved children and relatives in their time of sorrow.

Some miscreants entered the Henry Ross home Friday afternoon while the family were absent to town to attend the show and plundered the entire house and several articles of clothing were missing and a good supply of eatables were also gone. And they left the house in great confusion.

Lee Little and family and Ben Lanning and family of Leon drove out to the Scott Gardner farm Sunday morning and spent the day enjoying the good country fresh air and shade from a mammoth native tree, the elm, and ate their dinner in true picnic style, which made them forget the heat and dust of the city for once.

Sol Bright, of Leon, assisted Ed Rumley with his new granary one day the past week.

Floyd Rumley assisted Clifton Mills with his stacking of timothy the fore part of the week.

We have heard many favorable comments on the program which is offered for the Leon Chautauqua which convenes August 15th and are anticipating great pleasure in attending.

Crown.

It must rain soon or the corn crop will not amount to much.

J. F. Lewis and family started for Casper, Wyoming, Tuesday to visit at the home of Ross Hopton.

C. A. Carrithers and family will move into Leon for the present.

F. C. Morgan received a car load of coal last week and one this week and sold it out for threshing purposes.

The Crown Christian Endeavor had an interesting session Sunday evening. It will convene again next Sunday evening.

M. L. Swearingen is intending to build a new house soon on his home place.

Rev. Ronk will preach next Sunday at 11 and in the evening at 8 at the chapel.

Dan Bright is threshing just west of Crown.

We are glad that the Leon Chautauqua dates are later this year, for we will all be done harvesting and can get away to attend it.

Crown No. 1.

(Delayed.)

My. I hope we get rain in this neck of the woods before long.

Lloyd Watson and family, Ott Vanpel and family attended church Sunday evening at the Chapel.

Bert Scott is working for Dan Alley this week.

Robert Pearson attended the concert in Leon Saturday evening.

Miss Sadie Rex returned home Saturday from Decatur where she has been visiting relatives.

Ransom Pease and wife were shopping in Leon Monday.

The Bunch machine threshed for Jamie Long Saturday.

Mr. Macy, the road boss is getting ready to work the roads.

W. H. Akers and brother-in-law, Mr. Hughes were in this neighborhood last week.

Mrs. Joe Leeper was shopping in Leon Wednesday.

Are you making arrangements to attend the Chautauqua at Leon August 15th to 20th. We know you will not regret going and will be pleased with the program.

Center Township.

George Garber and Malchi Hart has been helping with the harvest at Pine Grove Farm.

1913 will go down in history as the bumper crop of all the years likely to reduce the price of grain over production.

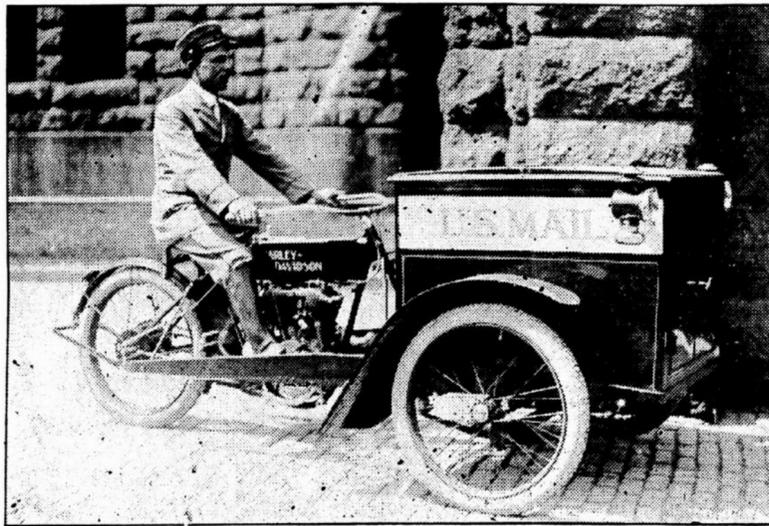

D. F. Long is going to build a new barn this summer.

Everybody is talking of going to the Leon Chautauqua which commences Friday, August 15th.

For Cuts, Burns and Bruises.

In every home there should be a box of Bucklen's Arnica Salve, ready to apply in every case of burns, cuts, wounds or scalds. J. H. Polanco, Delvalle, Tex., R. N. 2, writes: "Bucklen's Arnica Salve saved my little girl's cut foot. No one believed it could be cured." The world's best salve. Only 25c. Recommended by Bell & Robinson.

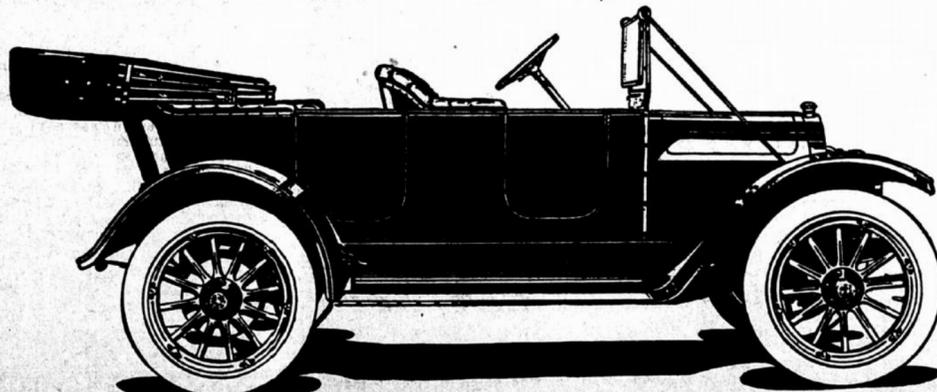

Money can't make brains, but it can buy them.

Will be pleased to give you a demonstration any time.
R. W. HALL,
Harley-Davidson Agent. Weldon, Iowa.

Over One Thousand Satisfied Customers.
This alone speaks volumes for this bank.
Ask Them Why?

REO
and Studebaker

Will be pleased to show you these cars and give you a demonstration.

Tires, Batteries, Oil, Gasoline. A full line of Accessories, Vulcanizing Tires and Tubes. Repairing, etc.

Teale Auto Co., Leon, Ia.