

PURELY PERSONAL

W. M. Wood, of Weldon, had business in this city Tuesday.

C. C. Beck, of Decatur City, was a visitor in this city Tuesday.

R. W. Hall, of Weldon, was a business visitor in this city Tuesday.

Mrs. J. W. Walles, of Davis City, was visiting in this city Tuesday.

Tom Williams, of Weldon, was a business visitor in this city Tuesday.

G. O. Benton, of Decatur City, was a business visitor in this city Tuesday.

Mrs. David Jenkins and baby, of Davis City, were visitors in Leon Tuesday.

M. Dingman, of near Decatur City, was a business visitor in this city Tuesday.

A. J. Edwards, of Van Wert, was transacting business in this city Tuesday.

Charles Bechtel, of Decatur City, was a business visitor in this city Tuesday.

H. C. Quiett went to Kellerton Tuesday evening to visit his son, L. C. Quiett.

Dr. J. P. Maxwell, the Pleasanton banker, was a business visitor in this city Tuesday.

J. H. Warrington, of Garden Grove, was a business visitor in this city Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. John McCully, of Davis City, were visitors in this city Tuesday afternoon.

Phillip Williams and son Jenkin returned Tuesday from a short visit at Cainsville, Mo.

Editor Grant Mallory, of the Davis City News, was a business visitor in this city last Saturday.

Mrs. Herman Deck and Mrs. Arthur Cresswell, of Decatur City, were visitors in this city Tuesday.

C. E. Blair, of Lamoni, was visiting at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Henry Minor, in this city, Tuesday.

Mrs. Mary Smith, of Pleasanton, returned home Tuesday evening after visiting a couple of days in this city.

Attorney G. W. Baker returned Tuesday evening from Beaconsfield, where he was called on legal business.

Miss Rose Bigley, of Davis City, passed through this city Tuesday, going to Saline, Mo., for a few days visit.

Mrs. J. S. Butts, of Bemidji, Minn., was in Leon Tuesday, being on her way to Mt. Ayr for a visit with relatives.

Miss Nora Bennett returned to her home at Davis City Tuesday evening after a few days visit with friends in this city.

Miss Katie Ripple went to Decatur City Tuesday to visit a few days with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Finkbone.

Charles Smith, of Pleasanton, returned home Tuesday evening, having spent a couple of days in this city on business.

Mrs. J. D. Wilhite and Miss Wilmoth Hall, of Cainsville, Mo., were in Leon Tuesday returning from a visit at Higby, Mo.

George Bowman departed Tuesday for Komalty, Oklahoma, being called there by the serious illness of his daughter, Mrs. Mary Brazil.

County superintendent Miss Mabel Horner returned Thursday from Davis City, where she had been for a few days on official business.

S. H. Covington, of Decatur City, came over Friday evening and spent a couple of days in this city looking after some business matters.

Mrs. A. H. Keller, of Seymour, Iowa, has been visiting the past week in this city at the home of her grandmother, Mrs. Willis Cornett.

Miss Anna McDaniel, who is employed as one of the operators in the Leon telephone exchange, went to Garden Grove Saturday and visited over Sunday with friends.

Mrs. D. S. Reeder and daughter, Mrs. Maud Ames, returned to their homes at Olathe, Kansas, last Friday, after visiting a few days at the home of Mrs. Reeder's sister, Mrs. Samuel Farquhar, in this city.

Miss Hattie Lionberger returned Monday evening from Cambria, where she had been visiting a few days at the home of her sister.

Silas Weaver returned to his duties at the state capitol in Des Moines Tuesday after visiting a few days with relatives in this city.

F. O. Spurrier, who had been in this city looking after some business matters, departed Monday for his home at Scott's Bluff, Kansas.

Miss Ethel Hewlett, who is a student in the Leon High School, went to Grand River Friday and visited over Sunday with her mother.

Mrs. Tincie Shelton returned to her home at Decatur City last Thursday, having been visiting a few days with relatives in this city.

Mrs. Frank Binning returned to her home near Delray Tuesday after visiting a few days in this city with her mother, Mrs. L. J. Cox.

W. H. Geist, of Sabula, Iowa, passed through this city last Thursday, going to Blythedale, Mo., to visit his sister, Mrs. J. B. Alman.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Akers Jr., of near Leon, returned Friday evening from Osceola, where they had been visiting a few days with relatives.

Miss Vena Smith returned to her home at Blockley Monday after a few days visit at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Millard Gardner, in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Wesley Chew returned Thursday evening from a few days visit at the home of her sister, Mrs. C. M. Wheeler, in Des Moines.

Miss Madge Craig returned to her home at Davis City Saturday evening after a visit at the home of her sister, Mrs. C. L. Ingram, near this city.

Jas. W. Hurst returned Saturday noon from a week's stay in Chicago where he had been buying spring goods for the J. W. Hurst & Co. store.

Clark Beck, of Casper, Wyoming, who had been visiting at Decatur City, came Tuesday and visited a few days at the home of his cousin, E. E. Beck.

Misses Fay and Bessie Benefel went to Des Moines Thursday morning where they will trim for several weeks in a wholesale millinery house.

Mrs. Ben Scadden and baby returned to their home near Ellston Saturday after a visit in this city at the home of her mother, Mrs. M. E. Sharp.

Roy Bright, of near Leon, went to Decatur City Saturday and visited over Sunday at the home of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Bright.

County engineer Frank Malette returned Thursday from Garden Grove, where he had been visiting his father, C. D. Mallette, who has been very ill.

R. N. Leeper, of south of Pleasanton, came up Sunday and visited until the following day at the home of his brother, J. E. Leeper, northeast of Leon.

G. W. Cox, of Garden Grove, passed through this city last Thursday on his way to his former home at New Virginia to visit a few days with relatives.

C. J. Price, of Van Wert, and David McPherson, of Leslie, passed through this city Monday on their way to Springfield, Mo., on a business trip.

W. W. Craig and daughter, Miss Nelle, accompanied the Gospel Team to Cainsville Sunday and visited with relatives at that place until Monday afternoon.

H. B. Cushman, the piano salesman employed by W. A. Alexander, went to Bethany, Mo., Saturday and visited over Sunday with relatives and friends.

Miss Clara Graham, who is a student in the Leon High School went to her home near Davis City Friday evening and visited over Sunday with her parents.

Mrs. Mettie Gardner returned Tuesday from Chicago, where she had been visiting for several months at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Stella Dodge.

Dan Griffin, of southeast of Leon, departed last Thursday for Presho, S. D., to look over the country up there, and may conclude to locate there. He expected to be absent a week or ten days on the trip.

L. S. Greenwood, of Kansas City, returned home last Friday, having been visiting at the home of his mother, Mrs. Daniel Greenwood, near Pleasanton.

Mrs. Ralph Avery returned to her home at Van Wert Thursday, after a visit of a few days at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Snyder, east of Leon.

W. M. Newton and children, Delsie and Lenette, returned to their home near Akron, Mo., Monday, after a visit at the home of George Gray in this city.

L. W. Mullin went to Beaconsfield Monday to assist in crying some big sales in that vicinity the next few days, and at the same time will visit with friends there.

Mrs. J. W. Atteberry and children, of Cainsville, Mo., were in Leon Saturday on their way to Davis City to visit over Sunday with her mother, Mrs. L. A. Brown.

Rev. Allan Judd, of Des Moines, was visiting in this city Saturday, being enroute to Garden Grove, where he preached at the Episcopal church on Sunday.

Lafe Weaver and family departed Monday morning for Cheyenne, Wyoming, where they expect to make their future home, having filed on a claim near that place.

W. D. Henderson and his mother, Mrs. Margaret Henderson, of Grant City, Mo., were in Leon Tuesday, enroute to Cainsville, Mo., for a few days' visit with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. John D. Gardner returned to their home at Decatur City Saturday after visiting for several days in this city at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Fred Fisher.

Misses Glada and Muriel Warnstaff went to Davis City Saturday evening to visit over Sunday and attend the Apostolic meetings.

C. Virden, of Moweaqua, Illinois, who had been visiting with relatives in this vicinity, went to Kellerton Saturday evening to visit at the Geo. Virden home for a few days.

James Alexander and Miss Katie Forbes returned Tuesday evening from Allerton, where they had been visiting for a few days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Wibley.

J. W. Chew returned to his home at Grand River Tuesday, having been visiting with his sons, J. Wesley Chew in this city and Bert Chew in near Leon.

Mrs. James Ironside and niece, Miss Opal Cameron, returned Friday, from Centerville, where they had been visiting a few days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Doss McDowell.

At Pleasanton, for a few days.

Geo. M. Hamilton left Tuesday morning for Cheyenne, Wyoming, on a combined business and pleasure trip and may visit Colorado and other points before returning home.

Mrs. G. E. Turner and baby returned to their home at Kellerton Saturday evening after visiting a few days in this city at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Kim Hickman.

M. E. Grimes, of the Kraft, Grimes Clothing Co., returned Friday from Des Moines, where he had been for several days attending the annual convention of the Iowa Retail Clothiers.

Miss Margaret Smith, who had been in Des Moines for several weeks, came Thursday evening to visit a few days with her mother, Mrs. Caroline Young Smith in this city.

John Weldon, of near Delray, passed through this city Saturday, going to Cainsville, where he will shortly move and take charge of the mill property which he purchased at that place.

Mrs. M. I. Marshall, who had been visiting with friends in this city, returned to her home at Davis City Thursday evening. Mrs. Jane Simpson, accompanied her home for a short visit.

O. J. Gustin and family departed last Thursday for West Liberty, Iowa, where they will make their future home, Mr. Gustin being manager of a new co-operative creamery at that place.

Dr. George Younkin, of Weldon, was in Leon last Thursday on professional business. Dr. Younkin is a cousin of Mr. W. W. Craig, of this city and was a guest at his home while here.

Misses Grace and Marcia Campbell, who live near Leon and attend the Leon schools are confined to their room at present with an attack of measles. Their mother is here caring for them.

Geo. P. Campbell, of Davis City, was in Leon Friday, being on his way home from Saline, Mo., where he had been visiting at the home of his brother, A. E. Campbell, whose wife is critically ill.

N. E. Medlock, representing the Tate-Sibberson Syndicate Co., of Omaha, Neb., returned to Omaha Thursday, having been here for a few days looking after some land interests in this county.

J. A. Brumback, of Bloomington, Ill., who is visiting at the home of C. A. Carrithers near Leon, accompanied by Mrs. Carrithers, went to Lamoni Monday evening for a short visit with relatives.

Mrs. J. H. Hill, of Decatur City, was in Leon Monday to take the train to Indianola, being called there to attend the funeral of her sister, Mrs. Elizabeth Ingalls, who passed away Sunday morning.

H. W. Moorman and O. J. Hill, of near Pleasanton, were visitors in this city Monday, Mr. Moorman having bills printed at The Reporter office for a public sale which he will hold on Wednesday, Feb. 24th.

James Dunn, of Abbeyville, Kansas, who is here visiting relatives, went to Humeston Saturday and visited a few days with the family of P. C. Watsabaugh. He was accompanied by his nephew, James H. Dunn.

Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Hubbs, of Loveland, Colorado, who had been visiting with relatives at Cainsville, Mo., passed through this city Thursday, going to Davis City to visit with relatives and friends before returning home.

Abe Blakesley returned Tuesday evening from a visit of several weeks with relatives at Buffalo, Kansas. He was accompanied by his granddaughters, Miss Maggie Markham, of Buffalo, and Miss Violet Brooks, of Gothenburg, who will visit for several weeks with relatives in this vicinity.

M. C. Woodward, of southeast of Davis City, was a business visitor in this city Monday. He told us the river was getting out of banks east of Davis City.

Mrs. C. L. Norton departed Monday for Bowman, N. D., and after a visit there will go to Belfield, N. D., to make her home. Her son Roy Gore, who had been here visiting returned the same day to his home at Belfield, N. D.

Mrs. Ella Mahaffey, Mrs. Anna Galey and Mrs. Nellie Shepherd returned to their homes at Ottumwa Friday, having been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. David Boatright in this city and attending the Apostolic meetings.

Robert Cox, of Des Moines, who is employed as a postal clerk on a run on the Rock Island road north from Des Moines, has been visiting at the home of his aunt, Mrs. Robert Albee, in this city. Mr. Cox was a former resident of this city.

Jas. H. Dunn returned last Thursday from Hutchinson, Kansas, where he had been visiting at the home of his uncle, James Dunn, who accompanied him to Leon, and they went Thursday to Pleasanton and visited a few days with relatives in that vicinity.

Mrs. Marion E. Wasson, of Des Moines, arrived Monday for a week's visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Marion F. Stookey. While here Mrs. Wasson will direct the production of the High School class play to be presented at the opera house Friday evening.

Mrs. Charles Brooks, who had been visiting in this city with relatives, went to Cainsville Saturday where Mr. Brooks is moving on the big farm owned by VanWerden & Ogilvie. The past year Mr. and Mrs. Brooks resided on the DeKalb farm at DeKalb.

Additional Personals on Supplement

Nation-wide Special Sale
HOTEL STYLE
OSTERMOOR

Regular $23.50 Full Size—6 ft. 3 in. x 4 ft. 6 in.
All built (not stuffed) layer-wise, in the Ostermoor way, and are much better even than the regular Ostermoor Mattress. Weigh 50 pounds, 5 pounds more than regular, and are even more luxuriously comfortable. Coverings are the most expensive Tickings made, both Dust-Proof Satin Finish and French Mercerized Art Twill. One of the biggest opportunities ever offered our customers.

Sale Price $16.50

The Big Furniture Store
F. S. Stewart
First Door North of Hansell's
LEON IOWA

COLLEGIAN CLOTHES

are as perfect in fashion, fabric and fit as if the best-known and highest-priced custom-tailor in America produced them. You'll appreciate their quality the minute you see them. They are smart, serviceable, 365-day-to-the-year-value.

There are no better clothes to be had, for no better or smarter clothes could be made. And, we have a dozen styles at $18.00.

KRAFT, GRIMES & CO.

Some of the Cash PRICES

- 7 bars Crystal White soap.....25c
- 7 bars Galvanic soap.....25c
- 1 box matches.....04c
- 7 boxes matches.....25c
- 5 gallon oil.....40c
- 3 gallon oil.....25c
- 1 gallon oil.....09c
- Oranges, large size.....33c
- Oranges small size.....20c

Keep your eye on
BRADFIELD
The Cash Grocer
All orders Collect on Delivery