

Come to us for your Easter dyes and let us supply the medicines and toilet things

When you buy your dyes or anything else in the drug line from us you may KNOW that you get the best. We do not allow anything to grow stale and palm it off on our patrons. We want the CONFIDENCE of this community; the way to get it is to DESERVE it. We want those who do not buy their drug store things from us to ask about us from those who DO.

BELL & PAINTER

The True Druggists West Side Square Leon, Iowa

Langreder, The Tailor

Suits made from $12.00 up to $40.00 Overcoats made from $15.00 up to $25.00 Pants made from $4.00 up to $10.00 All Goods of the Latest Pattern. Suits pressed and cleaned, while you wait . . . . . 50c SUITS CLEANED AND PRESSED. Ladies' suits cleaned and pressed . . . . . 50c Special Attention Paid to Alterations and Repairing. LANGREDER, The Tailor.

Lunch at Cherrington's.

Get your meals at the Park Hotel. 25 cents.

Our harness department can't be equaled in the state. Bowsher & Bowsher.

For Sale—Two Eclipse 245 egg incubators, good as new. Mrs. W. L. Armstrong, Decatur, R. F. D. 3.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Teale entertained a number of friends at a six o'clock dinner Monday evening.

The ladies of the C. W. B. M. will meet at the home of Mrs. Mollie Harris, Wednesday, March 3, at 2:30 p. m. Ell Jenkins, secretary.

Geo. W. Sears, day engineer at the electric light plant, has been confined to his home by illness the past week, but is able to out again.

Mr. George Brotherton, father of Mrs. E. G. Monroe, who with his wife have been spending the winter here, is very sick at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Monroe.

Capt. A. A. Jenks has received word that his grandson, Francis Jenks, of Kewanee, Illinois, met with a severe accident one day last week. The little fellow was roller skating and fell and fractured his arm in two places.

Mrs. O. M. Gass was hostess to a number of lady friends last Saturday evening at her home in this city. A pleasant afternoon was enjoyed, which was enlivened by a hunt for hidden articles, the prize, a box of candy being won by Mrs. J. W. Rowell.

A bouncing boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Boyce, of Boyce last Saturday night. Mr. Boyce started Saturday to Chicago with a car of extra good cattle, of his feeding, struck a good market Monday, and he'll be tickled to death to see the fine boy which arrived at his home during his absence.

M. W. Hart and family, of Center township, departed the first of the week for Edgar, Neb., where they will again make their home. They resided there for many years before coming to Decatur county a few years ago. During their residence here Mr. and Mrs. Hart made many good friends who are indeed sorry to see them leave this community.

There are all kinds of religion, all kinds of politics and all kinds of implement dealers but there is only one kind like we refer to. If you will stop at Bashaw & Shular's jewelry store you will see the biggest lot of Rogers' Silverware in one bunch you or anyone else ever saw except at the factory. This lot was not even in Chicago, but had to come from the factory. This whole lot will be given away free by the biggest implement stores in Iowa; Bowsher & Bowsher, who are this year adding a big new store at Salina, Mo., which is 16280 feet, which is just completed.

Spectacles cheap at Butler's.

Meals at the Park Hotel, 25 cents. Get your meals at the Park Hotel. 25 cents.

For Sale—Cane fodder and some corn. Inquire of Clarence Rumble on the farm. J. W. Cox. 28-44

Dipping harness every day. You can take them home with you the same day. Bowsher & Bowsher.

For Sale—Five extra good, heavy boned, registered yearling Hereford bulls. F. M. Gittinger, Leon, Ia. 2847

For Sale—Five extra good Aberdeen Angus bulls, 4 yearlings and a two years old. J. A. Record, Leon.

Pease & Pease, the "Old Reliable" insurance agents, handle the best fire, lightning and tornado insurance.

I have a thoroughbred Holstein bull at my farm adjoining Leon. Service fee $1.50 in advance. John Dale. 28-31

Wanted—A good girl for house work at the county home residence. Steady employment and good wages. Apply to E. L. Shira, steward. 11

Miss Ona Riley, of Decatur, who is traveling with the Dixie Bureau, as a violinist, is now filling engagements in the province of Tamaulipas, Old Mexico, and the company is playing to big business.

Next Tuesday evening a jollification will be held at the court house at 7:30 to celebrate the repeal of the mulct law by the present legislature. A special program is being prepared. Everyone is welcomed.

W. S. Pottorff, of Leon, was called to Mt. Ayr, by Manager Carl Lunney, of the Mt. Ayr Telephone Co., to locate the trouble with the underground cables of the company's lines. Mr. Pottorff was successful in locating and remedying the trouble and he returned to his home Wednesday evening.—Mt. Ayr Record-News.

Supt. J. P. Cummins, of Ottumwa, was here Monday conferring with C. M. Akes in regard to some improvements in the train service on this branch of the Burlington for stock shippers, and it is thought arrangements will shortly be made which will be satisfactory to the shippers. Mr. Cummins is superintendent of the Ottumwa division and he is a mighty fine fellow.

Fire which started from a defective fuse caused some damage to the house owned by Mrs. F. A. Heberner in northeast Leon last Thursday morning. The house was occupied by Ed Spencer and as the fire was just under the roof of all his household goods were removed before they were burned away. The first boys soon had the fire under control, but the damage from fire and water will be considerable. The loss is fully covered by insurance.

"Meet me at Cherrington's."

All dealers sell "Havana Spikes," best 5c cigar.

Flour, feed and coal. Gammon Bros. Mill.

Our second hand Maxwell auto for sale. Bowsher & Bowsher.

Board and rooms, first house east of Brady Lumber Co. Claude Bevans.

Notice—Regular meeting of the W. R. C. Saturday, Feb. 27th, at 2:30 p. m. at the G. A. R. hall.

For Sale—As I have disposed of my business interests and expect to leave Leon, I will sell my residence property at a bargain. J. F. Smith.

Mrs. Gus Ehm slipped and fell at her home in northeast Leon one day last week and severely sprained her back and wrist, the injuries being very painful.

All persons interested in Chautauqua for 1915 will meet in the parlors of the Exchange National Bank Thursday evening, Feb. 25th, at 7:30 p. m. Helen VanWerden, secretary.

The following bought harness of us the past week: Henry Butler, Leon; C. S. Vaughn, Garden Grove; T. P. Fulton and Jasper Baker, Leon. Bowsher & Bowsher.

Notice to Telephone Patrons—All bills for telephone rent and tolls must be paid every 30 days. This means everybody and the rule will be strictly enforced. Decatur County Mutual Telephone Co.

A dainty little miss, who has been christened Miss Bessie Hoover, came to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Simon Hoover of Eden township Tuesday morning and she will remain with them for several years to come.

Leslie Grimes returned Friday from Pleasanton, where he had been for several days on account of the illness of his little son, the little fellow having been dangerously sick for some days, but is now improving.

Mrs. Fred Killilay, of Pleasanton, was a visitor in this city last Friday, coming to meet Mr. Killilay's mother, Mrs. Lavina Graves, who was returning from a visit of several months with relatives at Wilmore, Kansas.

County engineer Frank Mallette and county bridge foreman Fred Barrett went to Davis City Thursday to examine the bridge over Grand River, on which it will be necessary to do some extensive repair work the coming summer.

Miss Maude Lilley, of Kirksville, Mo., a classmate of Miss Ollie Foxworthy at Drake University in Des Moines, visited over Sunday with Miss Ollie at the Foxworthy home in this city. They returned to their studies Monday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. L. N. Hamilton, who had been visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. Gammon in Eden township, went to Cainsville, Mo., Friday to arrange to move their goods to Leon and they will make their future home in this city.

Mrs. E. A. Adams, of near Grand River, who was visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. McCalla, at Davis City, was a visitor in Leon Saturday. She was accompanied by her son, John, who is attending the Davis City schools this winter.

Mr. Alonzo Woodard and daughter, Mrs. May Fagan, returned to their home at Biggsville, Illinois, last Saturday, having been here for a few days visit at the home of his nephew, Marion Woodard, while attending the funeral of his brother, Wm. Woodard.

Horry Redman, of near DeKalb, was a business visitor in this city Monday. Horry has rented the big farm of his father, W. B. Redman, for the coming year and Mr. and Mrs. Redman will leave in a short time for an extended pleasure trip to the Pacific coast.

Clyde Weldon went to Cainsville, Mo., Tuesday evening and with his father, John Weldon, of near Delray, are taking charge of the Cainsville mill which they traded for about a year ago. We regret to see any of the Weldons leave Decatur county, but they may come back.

J. R. Bowsher and Will Ferren left yesterday for Webster City to attend a big drainage convention. Mr. Bowsher is interested in the drainage proposition, having already put in a big lot of tile on his farms near Woodland, and is contemplating considerable more work in this line.

E. J. Sankey buys and sells land on commission, makes farm loans on approved security at the best rates, and does a general real estate business. Has had 20 years' experience in the business. Office upstairs, northwest corner Main and Commercial streets, Leon, Iowa.

Willard Gammill, of Denver, Colorado, came in Saturday and visited until Tuesday with his uncle, M. A. Gammill and other relatives and friends in this city. He was called to Charlton last week to attend the funeral of his sister, Mrs. Allie Gammill Wright. Willard for several years has been employed as city mail carrier in Denver.

Just peep in Bashaw & Shular's window and see the largest display of silver chests, sets of twenty-six pieces each, and one gross of teaspoons besides. These are all to be given away free by Bowsher & Bowsher, so if you don't get some of this it is your own fault. It is a gorgeous sight and the women will tell John where to go to trade. Everybody turn your eyes in on this display and take the hot step to Bowsher's to trade.

"Meet me at Cherrington's."

Meals at the Park Hotel, 25 cents.

For Sale—At a bargain, three dozen R. C. R. I. R. pullets. Mrs. P. C. Morgan.

We can use some choice first mortgage farm loans. Farmers & Traders State Bank, Leon.

Just received a car of bran and shorts and a car of oil meal. Gammon Bros. Mill.

If men must dye their hair, why always black; why not sometimes red?

Alfalfa, red clover, timothy, cane and millet seed and blue grass for sale. Bowsher & Bowsher.

Farm Loans—We have been offered a limited amount of money to place on farm security at 6 per cent, with 1 per cent annual commission note. Exchange National Bank.

Don't forget to look in Bashaw & Shular's window and see the most silverware you ever saw, all to be given away free. Bowsher & Bowsher.

Order cut flowers and floral designs from O. E. Hull, local agent of Lozier, of Des Moines, at The Reporter office. Orders sent by phone or mail, but order as early as possible.

For Sale—On the Stone farm, 6 1/2 miles northwest of Leon, 4 1/2 miles northeast of Decatur, native lumber of all kinds, fence posts, split or sawed and stove wood. W. W. Fulton.

L. S. Robinson, a former well known resident of this city, but who has been a prominent business man of Glenwood, Iowa, was last week elected president of the Glenwood Commercial Club.

Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Bennett, of Davis City, who had been visiting at the home of Howard Bennett at Decatur City, came Friday for a short visit at the home of his brother, Kay Bennett, in this city.

E. E. Keller, of northeast of Leon, returned Monday from a few days visit at Humeston. He has sold his farm near this city and will move to Humeston, where he has purchased residence property.

Rev. S. M. Smith, pastor of the Christian church at Allerton, came Monday evening and will assist Rev. J. W. Johnson with the revival meetings which are in progress at the Leon Christian church.

Elmer Hall, of Trenton, Neb., who had been visiting at the home of his uncle, K. P. Baker, in Woodland township, departed last Friday for Lincoln, Neb., where he will visit a few days before returning home.

Charles Richardson, our new lumberman has moved into the new cottage owned by Miss Zilpha Davenport, recently vacated by Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Price, and they now have one of the coziest homes in Leon and very convenient to Mr. Richardson's place of business.

For Sale—On the Stone farm 6 1/2 miles northwest of Leon, native lumber, wood and posts. Lumber 4 to 10 feet, $1.50 per 100. Lumber 12 to 16 feet, $2.00 per 100. Fencing posts 8 to 20 cents a piece. Wood, stove length, $1.25 and $1.50 a load. Long wood, 3 foot load 75 cents. Come and see W. W. Fulton.

Miss Lou Sears, daughter of S. W. Sears, of northeast of Leon, received a hard fall on the pavement at the corner in front of the residence of James Grandstaff last Thursday. The little lady was riding a pony and was indulging in a little brush with a schoolmate, and in turning the corner her saddle slipped and she was thrown to the pavement and pretty badly stunned, but was able to be in school again the next day.

Laundry Agency. J. A. Caster has secured the agency for the Iowa Steam Laundry. Baskets sent Monday and Wednesday. Satisfaction guaranteed.

Notice of Dissolution. The partnership heretofore existing under the name of Bell & Robinson, has this day been dissolved by mutual consent, Mr. C. W. Robinson retiring from the firm. All book accounts due the firm of Bell & Robinson are payable to the new firm of Bell & Painter and all accounts owed by the firm of Bell & Robinson are assumed by Bell & Painter. E. E. Bell, C. W. Robinson. Leon, Iowa, Feb. 6, 1915.

Pressing. Is Our Business. but we make no claims in the way of making new men out of old ones by pressing out their joints and other deformities, but we can make your old clothes look like new by our

Up-To-Date Methods of cleaning and pressing them. This will add greatly to your personal appearance. A trial will convince you of this fact.

G. W. CONNOR. Pastorium. Over Pennington's Meat Market.

White Beauty. Advertis in Leading Magazines.

The New Hoosier. Nothing in the world will save so much time in your kitchen as a Hoosier Kitchen Cabinet. It is truly a step saver, a health saver, a time saver and a great help in the preparation of palatable meals. It is economy from many view points—a most necessary addition to any kitchen.

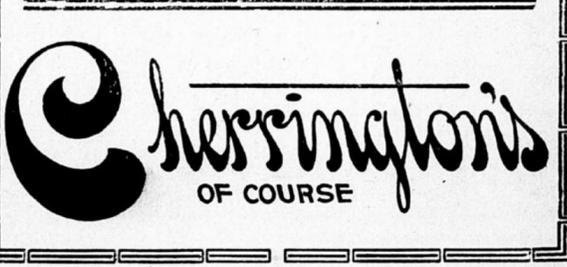

Its convenience will appeal to you strongly. We have a car load of the new models now in stock. Call and let us show you what they are.

F. S. STEWART. The Big Furniture and Rug Store. First Door North of Hansell's : Leon, Iowa.

Vose & Sons, the home piano. Edwards Piano Co., Humeston, Iowa. Alfalfa seed for sale by Eldisson Coal & Grain Co.

LET US DO YOUR KODAK FINISHING

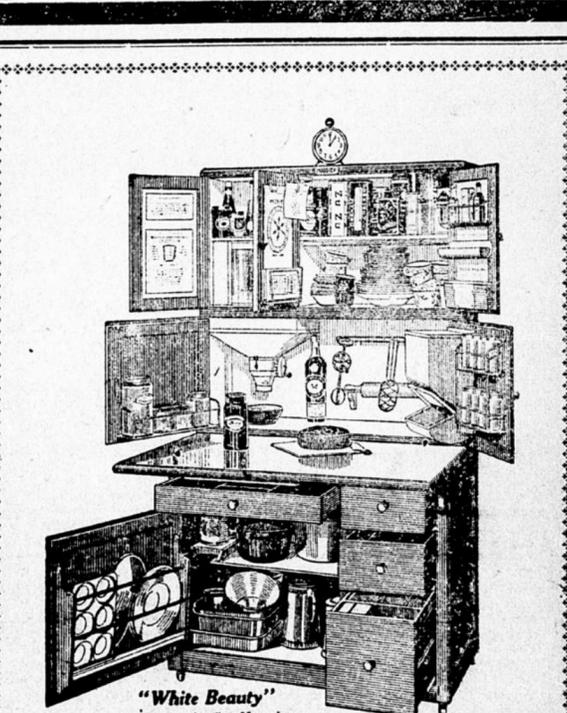

Owing to new equipment which we have just installed we are better fitted to do your Developing and Printing, and at great saving in price. Hereafter we will develop any size roll of film either 6 or 12 exposure at 15 cents. Bring or send in a roll of film and see the quality of work we turn out.

Bread Bread Bread

At the price of flour—you will find our large loaves of Des Moines Bread as cheap as doing your own baking. Just received a shipment of fresh salt White Fish and Mackerel. Try our Mackerel, 3 for . . . . . 25c Mother Oats, fresh, large package. In each 30c package you get a piece of aluminum ware worth from . . . . . 10c to 30c. SOAP—White Laundry, Crystal White, White Russian, Santa Claus, Bob White. 7 bars for . . . . . 25c Coffee—Liner Brand, Steel Cut, can. . . . . 35c This is a superior blend and equal to any 40c grade, if not satisfactory your money refunded.

J. A. CASTER "The Store of Satisfied Customers"

The New Hoosier

Nothing in the world will save so much time in your kitchen as a Hoosier Kitchen Cabinet. It is truly a step saver, a health saver, a time saver and a great help in the preparation of palatable meals. It is economy from many view points—a most necessary addition to any kitchen. Its convenience will appeal to you strongly. We have a car load of the new models now in stock. Call and let us show you what they are.

F. S. STEWART. The Big Furniture and Rug Store. First Door North of Hansell's : Leon, Iowa.

