Even if you are not quite ready to select yours, come in if it's only for just a little peep at these Spring Beauties.

There is a profusion of unusually attractive new models. While the long graceful lines are accented in each, the different styles are distinctive, the individual taste of our patrons is given a wide range for selection.

Expert attention and unusual care is given to the proper fitting. That a shoe is wide and long enough and doesn't hurt is no longer sufficient; the instep, the arch, the heel seat, and the correct model must each be intelligently looked after.

Dozens of ladies who formerly found it necessary to rely on the high priced city stores for correctly fitted footwear, now flock to our shoe section.

It may be that neither of the four chic spring models illustrated pleases you; we have a score or more of equally attractive styles along different lines.

We will appreciate the opportunity to show you this dainty footwear; we are anxious to supply your everyday needs as well as for dress occasions; but if we can't fit you correctly we'll frankly tell you so. Your good will is our most valuable asset.
