

Now is The Time for Straw Hats and Low Shoes

G. B. PRICE

The Home of Hart Schaffner & Marx Clothes

Get to Know
The Clothier.

The Price Fighter
For Decatur County

PURELY PERSONAL

Miss Leslie Pullen went to Van Wert Tuesday.

Elmer Harris returned from Grand River Monday evening.

Mrs. Bert Adams went to Decatur Tuesday on a short visit.

Fletcher Honn, of near Blockley, was in Leon last Saturday.

Miss Elizabeth Griffin, of Pleasanton, was in Leon Saturday.

John Franklin was a business visitor at Davis City Saturday.

J. T. Harris was a business visitor at Pleasanton last Saturday.

F. S. Stewart made a business trip to Pleasanton last Thursday.

Mrs. S. P. Rogers, of Pleasanton, was visiting in Leon Tuesday.

Leland Heberer returned from Humeston Saturday afternoon.

Emsign Biddison was a business visitor at Pleasanton Monday.

Henry Butler was a business visitor at Davis City last Saturday.

Miss Mary Latta went to Kansas City Tuesday for a few days visit.

J. M. Lantz, of Davis City, was a business visitor in this city Friday.

Lloyd Severe, of Davis City, was a business visitor in this city Friday.

Mrs. M. Mitchell, of Pleasanton, was a visitor in this city last Friday.

Miss Agnes Shell, of Decatur, was a visitor in this city last Thursday.

D. E. Boatright was visiting in Davis City last Thursday afternoon.

Miss Helen Jones, of Decatur, was a visitor in this city last Saturday.

Ed Underwood, of Leon Saturday, was a business visitor in this city.

Mrs. Mary Roberts went to Kellerton Tuesday evening for a short visit.

E. D. Metier, of Weldon, was a business visitor in this city Monday.

A. C. Stephens was a business visitor at Lamoni last Saturday evening.

Harry and Tom Crago, of Garden Grove, were visitors in this city Monday.

W. H. McCalla, of Davis City, was a business visitor in this city Tuesday.

Miss Harriette Swope, of Garden Grove, was visiting in this city Saturday.

Mrs. M. M. Young, of Cainesville, Mo., was visiting in Leon last Saturday.

W. L. Barry went to Davis City Saturday to look after business matters.

Willis Cornett went to Albany, Mo., Monday on a short business trip.

Lennie Davenport went to Centerville Monday on a short business trip.

M. I. Marshall, of Davis City, was a visitor in this city Monday afternoon.

I. K. Fisher, of Decatur, was a business visitor in this city last Saturday.

J. G. Smith, of near Blockley, was a business visitor in this city last Friday.

F. B. Cartwright, of Davis City, was a business visitor in this city last Friday.

Mrs. Maud Shoemaker, of Decatur City, was a visitor in this city last Friday.

J. A. Daniels, of Garden Grove, was a business visitor in this city Monday.

Mrs. Frank Ricks and son, of Davis City, were visiting in this city Tuesday.

Charles Bain, of Cainesville, Mo., was a business visitor in Leon last Saturday.

L. N. Horner, of near Davis City, was a business visitor in this city last Saturday.

Charles McCroskey, of Decatur, was a business visitor in this city Saturday.

Harve Morgan, of near Koyle, was a business visitor in this city last Saturday.

Mrs. C. S. Frazier, of Davis City, was visiting with friends in this city Saturday.

Arthur Forbes went to Des Moines Thursday afternoon on a short business trip.

A. M. Caster went to Des Moines last Thursday afternoon on a business trip.

Mrs. T. J. Graves, of Pleasanton, was visiting in this city last Friday afternoon.

Miss Eva Rhoades went to Ottumwa for a few days visit Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. Fred Killilly, of Pleasanton, was visiting in Leon last Friday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Baker, of Koyle, were visiting in this city last Wednesday.

Grant Mallory, of the Davis City News, was a business visitor in this city Friday.

Mrs. W. A. Tong, of Pleasanton, was visiting with friends in this city last Friday.

C. H. Fisher, of Weldon, was looking after business matters in this city Monday.

Wm. Gibson, of near Garden Grove, was a business visitor in this city Monday.

J. O. McKibben, of near Garden Grove, was a business visitor in this city Monday.

Mrs. H. J. Vogt went to Grand River Tuesday for a few days visit with friends.

G. C. Brothers, of near Grand River, visited over Sunday in Leon with friends.

Curtis Farmer, of near Garden Grove, was a business visitor in this city Monday.

Wm. Lamb went to Pleasanton Tuesday, where he is working for S. P. Rogers.

J. A. Daniels, of Garden Grove, was a business visitor at Pleasanton last Saturday.

W. C. Stempel came over from Decatur Saturday for an over Sunday visit at home.

H. S. Bartlett, of Davis City, was in Leon attending to business matters Saturday.

Thos. A. Churchill, of Garden Grove, was a business visitor in this city Saturday.

Mrs. Geo. W. Roberts went to Des Moines Tuesday for a few days visit with relatives.

Raymond Jenkins, of Garden Grove, was a visitor in this city Monday afternoon.

Willis Cornett went to Albany, Mo., last Thursday to visit his brother, Aaron Cornett.

F. M. Lowrance went to Lamoni Monday evening to help Chas. Piercy during harvest.

W. H. Colter, of Decatur, was a business visitor in this city last Saturday afternoon.

W. L. Fletcher, of near Decatur City, made a short business visit in this city Monday.

Miss Freda Ferren went to Des Moines last Friday for a few days visit with friends.

R. D. Lockwood, of Woodland township, was a business visitor in this city Tuesday.

Miss Grace Campbell went to Garden Grove Tuesday for a few days visit with relatives.

C. W. Sutherland, of Davis City, was a business visitor in this city last Thursday afternoon.

Robert Beemie, of Creston, was a business visitor in this city last Thursday afternoon.

Eugene Alexander returned from High Point last Saturday where he had been on business.

Miss Lulu Shields went to Grand River Monday afternoon for a few days visit with friends.

Miss Adaline Crawford went to Pleasanton last Saturday for a few days visit with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Bud Owens and baby went to Cambria Saturday to visit a few days with friends.

Matt Pullen went to Des Moines Tuesday afternoon to drive home one of the new Buick Sixes.

Mrs. P. B. Walker and Mrs. Mary Gatten went to Pleasanton last Friday for a few days visit.

Mrs. Anna Hale went to Garden Grove Tuesday for a few days visit at the home of relatives.

Mrs. Sherman Wheeler went to Davis City Monday evening for a few days visit with friends.

Mrs. R. E. Lee, of near Decatur City, went to Pleasanton last Friday evening for a few days visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Epperley and baby went to Kellerton Saturday evening for a few days visit.

Miss Freda Ferren returned Tuesday evening from Des Moines, where she had been visiting friends.

Mrs. A. B. McClaran and daughter, Miss Veta, of near Pleasanton, were visitors in this city Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Caldwell and daughter, Miss Jessie, of Decatur, were visiting in Leon last Saturday.

Pleas Wishon, of Bethany, Mo., was in Leon last Friday on his way to Cainesville for a few days visit.

Wm. Kimball, who has been working in Leon for some time, went to his home at Davis City Thursday.

H. T. Rauch, of Lamoni, passed through this city Friday on his way home from a visit at Decatur City.

Mrs. Ed Biggs and daughter, Miss Edna, went to Davis City Tuesday for a few days visit with relatives.

W. H. Shields returned last Saturday evening from Corydon where he had been on a short business trip.

Miss Geraldine Johnson went to Cainesville, Mo., last Friday afternoon for a short visit with friends.

Mrs. F. Hackett, of Lamoni, passed through this city Tuesday on her way to Des Moines for a short visit.

Mrs. Alice Marble, of Davis City, who had been visiting in this city, returned to her home Friday evening.

Dr. Enos Mitchell, of Cainesville, Mo., was visiting Friday at the home of his son, Dr. C. H. Mitchell, in this city.

Miss Margaret McKlveen returned from Grand River Friday, where she had been visiting friends for a few days.

Mrs. Will White, of Garden Grove, passed through this city Tuesday enroute to Clarinda for a few days visit.

County auditor Walter Osborn went to Davis City Saturday to look after business and visit with relatives.

Mrs. Roy Gray, of Akron, Mo., came last Saturday to visit at the home of her father-in-law, John Gray.

Mrs. A. C. Scott and children went to Davis City last Saturday to visit a few days with relatives and friends.

C. R. Bisplinghoff, of Des Moines, was in this city for a few days on business, returning home last Friday evening.

Miss Alice Gittinger returned from Garden Grove Monday noon where she had been visiting at the Wm. Scott home.

Mrs. Fred Pullen, of Cainesville, Mo., came Thursday to visit a few days at the home of her mother, Mrs. F. J. Stanford.

Dr. J. P. Maxwell, the Pleasanton banker, was in Leon last Thursday on his way to Des Moines on a short business trip.

County Superintendent Miss Mabel Horner went to Lamoni Friday noon to attend a demonstration by Miss Logan of Iowa State College at Ames, who gave a lecture and demonstration on canning.

Dr. Enos Mitchell, of Cainesville, Mo., stopped off in Leon Tuesday for a few hours visit with his son, Dr. C. H. Mitchell.

Mrs. Belle Hines went to Kellerton last Thursday to visit a few days at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. J. Branham.

Misses Olive and Elma Gray returned Tuesday afternoon from a visit of a few days with friends at Cainesville, Mo.

Mrs. L. G. Reick, of Cainesville, Mo., passed through this city last Saturday on her way to Davis City for a short visit.

Rev. C. W. Keeder returned last Thursday afternoon from Tanier, where he has been holding a series of revival meetings.

Mrs. B. C. Melvin went to Cainesville, Mo., Monday to visit a few days at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Clyde Weldon.

D. Elmore, of near Pleasanton, passed through Leon Thursday enroute to Kellerton for a few days visit with relatives.

Mrs. S. A. Edwards, of Pleasanton, was visiting in this city Monday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Leslie Grimes.

Mrs. Walter Metz and children returned home from Garden Grove Friday, where they had been visiting relatives and friends.

Mrs. Nellie Flick returned from Cainesville, Mo., Tuesday where she had been visiting relatives and friends for a few days.

Elder Stebbins passed through this city Monday evening enroute home after spending a few days visiting in northern Iowa.

Mrs. A. R. Doolittle and baby, of Davis City, came Saturday to visit a few days at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Sell.

Charles Coen, of the Big Furniture Store in this city, went to Afton last Saturday to visit over Sunday at the home of his parents.

Misses Mandie and Mattie Johnson returned Monday from Garden Grove where they had been visiting at the home of relatives.

Miss Irene Wilson, of Garden Grove, came down Saturday to spend a few days with her friend, Miss Mildred Merwin, in this city.

Miss Fay Decker, of Albert City, came Friday evening to visit a few days at the home of her sister, Mrs. C. V. Maynard, in this city.

I. N. McDonough, of Moravia, came Monday evening for a few days visit with relatives and to look after business matters in this city.

Mrs. Edward Musas, of Decatur, was a visitor in this city at the home of her father-in-law, John Muse, last Saturday evening.

Miss Josephine Mulcahey, of Chicago, arrived in this city Thursday for a few days visit at the home of Ed Owens, southeast of Leon.

Misses Parsons, of Pleasanton, passed through this city Monday enroute to Clinton, Mo., to visit a few days at the home of relatives.

Miss Loretta Estes, who had been visiting at the home of her brother, Orel Estes, in this city, returned to her home at Pleasanton Friday.

Misses Dorcas and Mercedes Zimmerman went to St. Charles, Iowa, last Friday for a visit at the home of their aunt, Mrs. A. Colzier.

Mrs. Mack Brooks returned Monday afternoon from a few days visit at the home of her son, Charles Brooks, of near Cainesville, Mo.

S. H. Elliott went to Kellerton Tuesday to visit a few days at the homes of his daughters, Mrs. Ed Moore and Mrs. B. O. Meadows.

Mrs. M. E. Stiffer, of Norwalk, came last Saturday evening to spend a few days at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Guy Stark, in this city.

Miss Fern Patterson, of Kansas City, Mo., returned to her home Friday after visiting a few days in this city at the A. L. Ackerley home.

Miss Anna Slaughter, of Davis City, passed through this city Tuesday enroute home from a few days visit with friends in Des Moines.

S. Sharp, of Bethany, Mo., who had been visiting at the home of his son, E. H. Sharp, in this city, returned to his home last Thursday.

Miss Thelma Woodmansee returned Saturday from Ridgeway, Mo., where she had been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Combs.

Miss Nora Brammer returned to her home at Grand River Saturday afternoon after visiting in this city at the home of friends and relatives.

Mrs. Lanie Laney, of Covington, Indiana, came Monday for a few days visit at the home of her father, Richard Meek, of southeast of Leon.

Mrs. F. R. Porter, of Van Wert, who had been visiting at the home of her brother, W. H. Bobbitt, in this city, returned to her home last Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Horace Farquhar and daughter, Miss Ruth, departed last Saturday for Spirit Lake, Iowa, to attend the Knights Templar convocation.

Miss Stella Landes returned to Grand River last Thursday afternoon after a few days visit in this city at the home of her sister, Mrs. Elmer Harris.

C. A. Cherrington went to Omaha, Neb., Monday to attend a three day course in photography which is being conducted by the Eastman Kodak Co.

Miss Elizabeth Osenbaugh, of Lucas, who had been visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. Ed Shinn, of near Leon, returned to her home Monday.

Mrs. J. F. Smith, of Omaha, Neb., and Mrs. George Carman and children, Jeanette, Georgia and Evan, of Bancroft, arrived Friday evening for a visit at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Evans.

Mrs. J. B. Hardinger returned to her home at Davis City Tuesday after spending a few days in this city at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Fred Epperley.

Mrs. Riley Buchanan and children returned from Garden Grove Saturday noon, where they had been visiting for a few days at the home of relatives.

"Stub" Gardner, who is employed in a cigar factory at Unionville, came in last Wednesday to visit a few days with his numerous friends in this city.

Mrs. Muriel Gaines and baby arrived last Thursday from Osborne, Mo., for a visit at the home of her mother-in-law, Mrs. Charles Gray, in this city.

Mrs. Mattie Walker and little daughter, of Van Wert, came down last Thursday afternoon to visit at the home of her mother, Mrs. Caroline Robbins.

Miss Jennie McNeill, who had been visiting for some time in this city with her sister, Mrs. W. B. Hook, returned to her home at Murray Monday.

Mrs. Minnie Booth returned to her home at Cainesville, Mo., Tuesday after a visit of a few days at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Osborn.

Mrs. Jasper Baker went to Garden Grove last Thursday afternoon to attend the funeral of her nephew, George Honn, which occurred on the following day.

Miss Pauline Kemp, who had been visiting in this city at the home of her aunt, Mrs. F. L. Lorey, returned to her home at Chariton last Saturday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Wilson, of Chariton, who had been visiting in this city at the home of her brother, Henry Wilson and family, returned home Monday.

Miss Grace Wise, who had been visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. Hale Lorey, in this city, returned to her home at Van Wert Saturday afternoon.

Miss Cecelia Mahoney, who was called home by the serious illness of her mother, returned to Des Moines Saturday, her mother being considerably improved.

Misses Glen Doris and Wilma Gloscher, of St. Joe, Mo., came last Saturday afternoon for a visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Browning, near Leon.

Charles Bechte, of near Decatur, was in this city enroute to points in Minnesota. He expects to visit with relatives at Hendricks, Minn., before returning home.

Miss Zora Cummins, of near this city, and her niece, Miss June Cummins, of Davenport, who is visiting here, went to DeKalb Tuesday for a few days visit.

Mrs. C. B. Simpson went to Davis City Monday to visit a few days at the home of her parents. She was accompanied by Miss Louise Coleman, of this city.

Mrs. J. M. Henry and son, Truman, who had been visiting at the home of M. S. Phipps, in this city, returned to their home in Creston Monday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. George Arney, of Van Wert, came last Saturday evening to spend a few days at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ike Evans, in this city.

Mrs. Milton Goin and Mrs. M. O. Goin, of Garden Grove, passed through this city Tuesday enroute to their homes after visiting a few days at Pleasanton.

E. N. Smith and family, of Silver City, New Mexico, arrived Tuesday to spend a short time at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. McKee, near this city.

Mrs. Agnes Daniels, of Kellerton, who had been visiting a few days at the home of Mrs. J. C. Bullard in this city, went to Osceola Monday for a few days visit.

O. P. McGinnis, of Coshocton, Ohio, who had been visiting at the home of his brother, V. R. McGinnis, in this city, left for his home last Thursday afternoon.

C. L. Rudibaugh, who was called to Weldon by the serious illness of his brother-in-law, J. P. Kline, was in this city Friday enroute to his home at Davis City.

Miss Gleta Carrington, who had been visiting at the home of her uncle, Elmer Boyd in this city, departed for her home at Stroud, Oklahoma, last Thursday.

Clem and Harry Jenkins and T. E. Wallace, who are working on the Haag building at Pleasanton, came up Saturday afternoon for an over Sunday visit at home.

Fred Watsbaugh, of Omaha, returned to his home Tuesday after spending a few days in this city at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Watsbaugh.

Misses Verna and Edna Andrew, of Lamoni, went to Grand River last Thursday afternoon after a few days visit in this city at the home of their brother, Arthur Andrew.

W. W. Fulton, who is operating a saw mill near Decatur, passed through Leon Saturday on his way to his home at Davis City to spend Sunday with home folks.

Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Sires and baby returned to their home at Centerville Monday after visiting a few days in this city at the home of his mother, Mrs. Lydia Sires.

Mrs. Laura Asbury returned Monday evening from a few days visit at the home of her sister, Mrs. J. F. Smith, at Lorimer, and in Des Moines with relatives and friends.

Mrs. L. P. VanWerden and Mrs. R. D. Gardner returned from DeKalb Friday, where they had been visiting at the home of Mrs. VanWerden's mother, Mrs. B. D. DeKalb.

Miss Inez Skidmore returned to her home at Van Wert last Saturday after spending a few days in this city at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Gardner.

Miss Zula Hamilton returned to her home at Davis City Monday evening after spending a few days in this city visiting at the home of county auditor Walter Osborn.

Miss Lillian Pullen went to Pleasanton last week and spent a few days at the home of her father, returning to Leon Monday afternoon, accompanied by her sister, Miss Leslie.

Mrs. J. N. Stanley returned home last Friday evening after visiting at the homes of her daughters, Mrs. Tom West at Coon Rapids, and Mrs. Tom Pennisten, at Maryville, Mo.

J. H. Evans went to Des Moines last Friday to see his brother, Walter Evans, who lives near Grand Grove, and who was operated upon at a hospital in that city on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Dunn, of Des Moines, who had been visiting in this city for a few days, went to Van Wert Monday to visit with relatives. They will return home from there.

Mrs. Jack Wallace and children, who had been visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Garner, near Leon, returned to their home at Creston Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. W. S. Hoke and two children, who had been visiting at the homes of her brothers, S. G. and Lare Mitchell, in this city, returned to their home at Bement, Illinois, Monday.

Master Miles Pryor, of Kansas City, who had been visiting in this city at the home of his uncle, John Fulton, went to Davis City Saturday evening to visit relatives and friends.

Mrs. G. E. Turner and baby, who had been visiting in Leon at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Kim Hickman, returned to their home at Kellerton last Saturday evening.

Miss June Cummins, of Davenport, Iowa, came from Des Moines Thursday, where she had been visiting, to visit at the home of her grandfather, F. M. Cummins, near this city.

Mrs. George Meek, of Chicago, came last week and is visiting at the home of her father-in-law, Richard Meek, of southeast of Leon, and at the home of her brother, Win Cash, in this city.

Miss Grace Smith, of Caldwell, Kansas, arrived Tuesday from Iola and Ottawa, Kansas, for a visit of several days at the home of her aunt, Mrs. J. H. Evans, and other relatives and friends.

Roy Paschall, of Osceola, came Saturday for a short visit with his friend, Arthur Howard, in this city. The two young men are students at the Iowa State School for the Deaf at Iowa Bluffs.

M. G. Hall, of Centerville, Leon's city engineer, returned to his home Saturday after being in this city for a few days on official business connected with the putting in of Leon's new sewer system.

Lester Hutchinson went to Cambria Thursday afternoon to drive his father's car home. His father, E. L. Hutchinson, was compelled to leave the car there a day or two before on account of the mud.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Marvin, who have been at Kookuk to have a look at the big dam, and stopped off in this city for a few days visit at the home of their cousin, Mrs. Fred Marvin, returned to their home at Shenandoah Monday.

Miss Rose Kalrick and Mrs. Laura Tucker, of Keyser, West Virginia, arrived Thursday evening for a visit at the home of Mrs. Amelia Hull and other relatives in this vicinity. They are nieces of Mrs. Hull.

Mrs. Grace Worden, who had been visiting at the home of her brother-in-law, Perry Worden, in this city, went to Thayer Monday to visit relatives there before returning to her home at Mullen, Nebraska.

Mrs. Will Masterson, of Creston, came Monday for a few days visit with her parents and other relatives and friends near Leon. She was accompanied by her sister, Miss Helen Barrett, who has been visiting in Creston.

Frank N. Hansell left last Wednesday for a business trip to St. Louis, Mo., and from there went to Bell Trees, Illinois, to accompany Mrs. Hansell and the children home after a visit of several weeks at the home of her parents.

Mrs. Carrie Jenkins and daughter, Mrs. L. Stone, and son, Wayne, of Indianapolis, Indiana, who had been visiting at the homes of relatives and friends in this city, went to Chariton last Friday for a few days visit. They will return home from Chariton.

Mrs. E. A. Grimes returned to her home at Davis City Tuesday after spending a few days in this city at the home of her son, M. P. Grimes. She was accompanied home by granddaughter, Miss Cecil Grimes, and grandson, Master Marv Grimes.

Grissom Grimes, who recently chased the interest of I. N. Beard in the Kraft-Grimes Clothing store in this city, came up from Davis City last Friday afternoon on business. He expects to make his home in this city as soon as he can find a suitable residence.

Uncle Closson Campbell, who had been visiting for some time in this city at the home of his son, James Campbell, and family, and with other relatives and friends, went to Osborne, Mo., where he will spend some time at the home of his son, Sam Campbell.

Ray Fisher, of Mt. Airy, visited in Leon with his sister, Mrs. H. S. Penniwell, Tuesday while enroute home from Chariton, where he had been on business. He is planning on installing new fixtures in his store at Mt. Airy and otherwise greatly improving it in every department.

Mrs. G. E. Butin and daughter, Miss Josie, of Fredonia, Kansas, came last week for a few days visit at the home of her niece, Mrs. Clyde Marvin, whose mother, Mrs. R. A. Waddell, is very ill. Mrs. Butin and daughter also visited at the home of her sister, Mrs. L. A. Blackman, at Blockley.

Mrs. Fanny Bunning and little son of London, England, arrived in this city last Thursday and will join her husband, Harry Bunning, who is employed in Wm. Langreder's tailor shop. Mr. Bunning came to America last September and hadn't seen his wife or little son since, and the reunion was a happy one. They will make their home in Leon.

Mrs. Ernestine Otten returned last Wednesday evening from Des Moines, where she had been in the Luthren hospital for a number of weeks, having been operated upon for gall stones. She was greatly benefited by the operation and her many friends are glad to see her back in Leon again, with every prospect of being completely restored in health.

Pay Cash and Save Money

Leave your orders for peaches for canning about August first.

Bring me your eggs, I pay cash or trade for them

Keep your eye on BRADFIELD The Cash Grocer

Phone 236 All orders Collect on Delivery