Hundreds of Remnants Cheaper Than Ever.

This is the last week of the Remnant Sale and we want to sell them so its your chance to buy.

Mrs. Ed Fisher and children went to Pleasanton Thursday to spend a few days at the home of her parents. Her sister, Miss Dollie Maynard, who had been here on a visit returned to her home at Pleasanton the same day.

Mrs. E. G. Brothers, of Darling Ford, Canada, who had been visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Richardson, at Pleasanton, came Friday to visit a few days at the home of Dr. O. W. Foxworthy in this city.

Fred Redman, who has been out at San Francisco, California, for some time, passed through this city Monday, enroute to Grand River to visit his children. He reports things pretty dead out on the coast since the close of the exposition.

P. E. Brady departed Tuesday for Kansas City to attend the annual convention of the Missouri State Lumber Dealers Association, being joined here by J. M. Halstead, of Van Wert, and there will sure be two live Iowa lumber men at the Kansas City convention.

Jas. F. Harvey went to Des Moines Saturday to meet his friend Karl Parrish, who spent Sunday in Des Moines while on his way to Chicago and other eastern points on business. Karl has been in South America for several years where he is operating a gold mine.

Mr. and Mrs. Cyrus Weaver, of Des Moines, came last Thursday evening to visit a few days at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Harry Marvin, in this city. Mrs. Weaver had been quite sick for some time, so they decided to come to their old home until she recovered.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Redman, of near DeKalb, departed Tuesday for San Antonio, Texas, where they expect to remain for several weeks to escape the cold weather in Iowa. Mr. and Mrs. Redman are doing considerable traveling around in their old age but they have earned these vacation trips and are enjoying life to suit themselves.

Miss Alpha Long, who has been visiting for the past month at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. F. Long, of Center township, departed Saturday for Bedford to resume her duties as teacher in the High School at that place. The Bedford schools have been closed since before the holidays on account of an epidemic of scarlet fever in that town.

George J. Spaeth, of Garden Grove, was a business visitor in Leon last Saturday. Mr. Spaeth was 85 years of age last September, but no one would judge him to be anywhere near that age, for he is remarkably hale and hearty for one of his age. Uncle George don't believe in loafing on account of old age and he is always working at something around his home.

A. B. Owens, of Willow Springs, Mo., dropped in last Thursday evening and visited over night with friends in this city, while enroute home from a visit with a sister at Corning. Mr. Owens has been manager of a poultry business at Willow Springs, Mo., for several years, but goes now to Little Rock, Ark., to take charge of a big new poultry plant being erected by the same firm.

Mrs. Wm. Langreder and her sister, Miss Irene Henry, arrived Monday afternoon from Saffordville, Kansas. Miss Henry was taken very sick with appendicitis last week and Mrs. Langreder was called to that place, and after arriving there decided to bring Irene back to Leon for treatment. Miss Irene has been employed for some time as a trained nurse at Topeka, Kansas, and was on duty at Saffordville, when she was stricken.

Mrs. Mabel Still Rusk.
Mabel Still Rusk, the daughter of J. M. and Mary Still, was born at Leon, Iowa, Dec. 11, 1894, and died at the home of her mother, Leon, Iowa, Monday evening, January 10, 1916 at the age of 21 years, and one month lacking one day. She grew to womanhood's estate in the home community. She was a member of the First Day Advent church of this city. There being no services at her own church she was active in the services of the Christian church, and especially in the service of songs. We who received her ministry in days gone by are called upon today to return that ministry in last respects to her and in a service of comfort and hope to the bereaved.

She was united in marriage to Earl Rusk, January 17, 1915. With her husband she made her home at Mt. Ayr, Iowa. To this union a babe was born, Oct. 24, 1915. She leaves to mourn her departure her husband, her mother, the babe, D. N. Still, Fieldsburg, Calif., Mrs. Bert Ballou, Kellerton, Iowa, Mrs. Albert Farms, Broadview, Mont., Mrs. Guy Bremer, Newton, Iowa, Jim Still, Leon, Iowa, Joe Still, Broadview, Mont., Roy Still, Clarinda, Iowa, and Nina Still, Leon, Iowa, and a host of friends who have been drawn near to her because of her beautiful disposition and queenly christian character. We believe that our sister departed this life firm in her faith in God, her Father, and Christ her Elder Brother.

The funeral services were conducted from the Christian church at 1:30 p. m., January 12, 1916, by the pastor, Henry Esch.

Mrs. D. J. Barlean.
Mrs. Nettie Arnold Barlean was born near Albia, Monroe county, Iowa, August 20, 1866, died Sunday, January 2, 1916, aged 49 years, 4 months and 13 days. She was united in marriage to Daniel Jacob Barlean, Dec. 14, 1884, and to this union were born ten children. They are Mrs. Dora Brees of Holyoke, Colorado, John, Oscar, George, Pearl, Walter, Floyd, Elmer, Ruth and Charles, all who survive with the husband, and Oscar Elmer and Charles who preceded her in death.

In the year 1902 she was converted and united with the Peoria Missionary Baptist church in Wayne county, of which she was a faithful member until two years ago she removed her membership to the Bethel Baptist church near Davis City of which she remained a faithful member until the time of her death. She leaves besides her husband and children an aged mother, two sisters, one brother, three half-brothers and a host of friends to mourn her death.

The funeral was held Thursday, Jan. 6, 1916, conducted by Rev. Elba Dale. Interment was at the Manchester cemetery. Though she is gone from our sight, yet her memory will ever be fresh in the hearts of her loved ones.

Gets Conscience Stricken.
Ft. Madison, Jan. 18.—H. B. Manley, of Osceola, Iowa, has sent the Lee county treasurer $8 in payment of personal taxes on property due thirty-seven years. The sum also pays interest on the taxes. Mr. Manley recently wrote the treasurer, saying he believed he owed the county a small sum and that he would like to free his conscience on the subject. After much search the amount was found buried in old documents in the garret of the court house. The amount of the taxes and the interest were totaled and sent to Mr. Manley and a check soon arrived at the county treasurer's office.

Former Leon Resident Burned When Gasoline Stove Exploded at Des Moines.
Mrs. John Farrens, a former well known resident of Leon, was seriously burned when a gasoline stove exploded at the home of her son in Des Moines last Thursday evening. The following account of the accident is taken from Friday evening's Tribune:

Mrs. John Farrens, 53 years old, was painfully burned on both hands last night in throwing from the house a blazing gasoline stove which had exploded in the home of her son, J. W. Farrens, Fourteenth street and Pleasant View drive.

Mrs. J. W. Farrens started to heat something on the stove before the family retired for the night. The stove suddenly blew up. Gasoline was thrown about the room and the floor set afire, but Mrs. Farrens leaped out of the way.

Mrs. John Farrens, hearing the explosion, ran in from another room, seized the stove and threw it out the door. Her burns are not dangerous though severe.

The house was not damaged extensively by the fire.

Notice of Appointment of Executor.
In the District Court of the State of Iowa, in and for Decatur county. In Probate.
In the Matter of the Estate of Mary B. Rains, Deceased.
To Whom It May Concern:
Notice is hereby given that the undersigned has been appointed and has qualified as executor of the estate of Mary B. Rains, late of Decatur county, Iowa, deceased. All persons in any manner indebted to said deceased or her estate will make payment to the undersigned; and those having claims against said deceased or her estate will present them in manner and form as by law required, for allowance and payment.

Life Was a Tragedy, Said Iowa Woman
Mrs. William Litzenberg of Montezuma, Iowa, suffered from stomach troubles for a long period. She grew weak as a result of the failure of her digestive processes. She was always tired.

Then came Mayr's Wonderful Remedy and showed her the way back to health again.

The first bottle, the very first dose, put Mrs. Litzenberg on her feet. She wrote:

"I have taken four bottles of your Wonderful Remedy. I can't be thankful enough for it. I must say that it is the best medicine that I ever tried. I was so weak that I did not think life was worth living—had no appetite—everything I ate worked against me, but now I can eat anything at all that looks good. I feel so strong—have been able to do a good day's work ever since I took the first bottle."

Mayr's Wonderful Remedy gives permanent relief for stomach, liver and intestinal ailments. Eat as much and whatever you like. No more distress after eating, pressure of gas in the stomach and around the heart. Get one bottle of your drug-gist now and try it on an absolute guarantee—if not satisfactory money will be returned.

Big Farm Sale.
One of the largest farm sales ever made in this part of the country was consummated this week, when J. R. Smith sold his farm of 1,040 acres just south and east of Lamoni to his sons, Arthur H., and T. J., of Lamoni, and his daughter, Mrs. Bert Teale of Mt. Ayr. Art has leased the place for five years from his brother and sister and will continue to operate the place as a stock and grain farm. Mr. J. R. Smith purchased a part of this farm in an early day, settling on the place in the fall of 1867. He lived on the farm until a few years ago when he purchased a home in Lamoni where he now resides with his estimable wife. Mr. Smith has from the start had unbounded confidence in Iowa soil and has from time to time purchased land adjoining his first purchase until the 1,040 acres were secured, practically in a body which has made him plenty of money in the past. He now turns it over at a good round price and the new owners will also make plenty of money out of it.—Lamoni Chronicle.
