E. J. Sankey buys and sells land on commission, makes farm loans on approved security at the best rates, and does a general real estate business. Has had 20 years' experience in the business. Office upstairs, northwest corner Main and Commercial streets, Leon, Iowa.

W. F. Cleveland, a prominent banker of Harlan, Iowa, died at his home in that city Saturday night of heart failure, his death following an illness of several months. Mr. Cleveland was a prominent Mason, and delivered the dedicatory address at the laying of the corner stone of the Leon court house a few years ago, being Grand Master of Iowa at that time. He was 71 years old.

Quite a bunch of High School boys were considerably wrought up last week as the result of a school boy prank. A bunch of the students went to the home of F. C. Mullinix and captured a lot of candy which was made for a sophomore party and the boys had a fine time eating it, but a damper was put on their spirits when they were summoned before Mayor Farquhar on Friday and with visions of a jail sentence looming up before them, and a scathing lecture from His Honor, they were finally let off on condition of making an apology to Mrs. Mullinix which they proceeded to do like gentlemen.

Miss Mabel Horner, county superintendent, will give an entertainment of dramatic and humorous selections at the Camden Baptist church in Richland township on Saturday evening, Feb. 26th. Admission 25c to adults and 15c for children—two children from the same family for 25c. Miss Horner speaks under the auspices of the public schools of the township among whom the profits of the entertainment will be divided. All who know the ability of Miss Horner to entertain will be glad of this occasion to hear her. She will also speak on education on Sunday evening, Feb. 27th, at the same place. All are invited.

Henry Sparling suffered a stroke of apoplexy or heart failure Friday morning of last week while at the depot. He had wheeled a case of eggs from their home in the east part of town to the depot. He had gone into the office and was standing between the stove and Mr. Strohl, who was seated at his desk. Joe Layman, George Bartlett and others were present when Mr. Sparling fell to the floor quite heavily. The men came to his assistance and got him seated in a chair and after working with him some little time he regained consciousness. Those present thought at first that he had passed away. "Bunk" Shaw, the drayman, was there with his sled and he was taken home in it—Garden Grove Express.

Editor Grant Mallory, of the Davis City News, was a business visitor in this city last Friday. Grant has shied his hat into the ring as one of the republican candidates for member of the legislature and he says he is going to give the other fellows a horse race for the nomination.

Business has been so slack in Mayor Farquhar's court for several months that it was hardly worth reporting, and in reply to an inquiry from one of our readers, we will state that only three persons have been fined since our last report. On Jan. 21st Wm. Baker was fined $25 and costs for intoxication, on Jan. 24th Sam Downey was fined $10 and cost on the same charge, and on Jan. 25th O. M. Zimmerman was fined $10 and costs on a similar charge.

P. N. Parsons left here, last Tuesday to accompany his brother to Rochester, Minn., where they are taking the brother, hoping to find some relief from a growth on his neck which is causing the family much concern. The brother, O. H. Parsons lives with his parents in Garden Grove. P. N. Parsons and wife went over on Sunday to visit the father and family, returning Monday, and P. N. left again Tuesday, to take his brother to Rochester.—Allerton News.

The Delta Delta Delta sorority gave a beautiful post-valentine party at their chapter house on Iowa avenue, Thursday evening. American beauty roses and ferns and palms furnished the main part of the decorations along with strings of hearts, cupid, and arrows. The guests were surprised, when they found little cards in their red hearts of ice cream bearing the announcement of the coming marriage of Miss Helen Cook, a Tri Delt of Rock Island, Ill., and Robert Teale, a Phi Delt, of Leon, Iowa, which is set for the 21st of June.—Iowa City Daily Old Gold.

M. E. Parsons and Drew Davis, who were in jail having been indicted by the recent grand jury on the charge of selling liquor, were taken to Creston last Thursday by deputy U. S. marshal Wm. Exline, and on Friday were arraigned before Federal Commissioner J. C. Hunt, both entering pleas of guilty to the charge of bootlegging, and asked that their hearings be transferred from the southern to the western district, and they will probably be sentenced at Council Bluffs this week. On Friday, Arthur Campbell, who had been indicted on the same charge was taken to Creston by nightwatch Frank Smith. He was able to give bond and was released to appear at the next term of the Federal Court.

Halton Powell's "For the Love of Mike," one of the most famous cartoon musical farces ever produced on the American stage, is to be the attraction at the Leon opera house on Thursday, March 2nd. Its coming is in keeping with the efforts of the house management to present a series of the highest class of attractions this season. Mr. Powell, who is sponsor for the attraction will be remembered as the producer of "Henpecked Henry," "Safety First," "This is the Life," etc. In presenting "For the Love of Mike" Mr. Powell feels assured that you will say it is his biggest success. It is most laughable and to add to its charm it is presented by an especially fine company headed by the well known eccentric comedian of note, James L. McCabe. Comment and criticism that have preceded the show are of the most favorable nature and its engagement here should be one of the notable events of the season for amusement lovers in this city.
