The Cody Road to Yellowstone

The ONLY Auto Route into the Park

The wonderfully beautiful scenery along this new route to America's only Geysersland has already won everlasting admiration from the enthusiastic tourists who have traversed its picturesque course. Experienced travelers, who know what's what, agree that in the sustained beauty and grandeur of the scenery it far exceeds the Park itself, except in one particular—the Grand Canyon of the Yellowstone River. The route lies through the "Buffalo Bill" country, up the great Canyon of the Shoshone River and across the evergreen-covered mountains of the Absaroka Range via beautiful Sylvan Pass. If you visit Yellowstone this summer, be sure and go at least one way via the Cody Road. You won't regret it. I'll be glad to help you plan your trip. Burlington trains run direct to Yellowstone Park.
