

The Bogies Come on Hallowe'en

That time of mystery and merriment when parties, dances and dinners are turned into frolics of fairies and goblins.

Dennison's
TRADE MARK

Decorated Crepe Paper—Garlands—Festoons—Table Covers—Paper Plates—Lunch Sets—Caps—Paper Ties—Napkins—Dinner Favors—Cut-outs—Place Cards—Gummed Seals and decorations are indispensable on this occasion. Dennison's Bogie Book is full of suggestions for Hallowe'en affairs. We have it. Price 5c.

Bell & Painter

Langreder, The Tailor

Suits made from $12.00 up to $40.00
Overcoats made from $15.00 up to $35.00
Pants made from $4.00 up to $10.00

All Goods of the Latest Pattern.
SUITS CLEANED AND PRESSED.
Suits pressed while you wait..... 50c
Special Attention Paid to Alterations and Repairing.

LANGREDER, The Tailor.

Democratic Speaking

S. C. IRVING
OF CHICAGO

a speaker sent by the Democratic National committee, will speak at Leon, Thursday, Oct. 19

at the Court House at 2 o'clock

Lamoni, Thursday
Evening, Oct. 19
at the Coliseum at 8 o'clock

Mr. Irving is an old Iowa man, one of the best political speakers in the country, and a cordial invitation is extended to everybody to come out and hear the National issues discussed.

Get your wall paper at the Rexall store. 37-4f

Swift's tankage for sale by the Biddison Coal and Grain Co.

For Sale—A Tamworth male hog. F. A. Black, Grand River, Iowa. 10

We have some 5 per cent money for choice farm loans. Farmers & Traders State Bank.

See the latest in folders at the Harris Studio, $1.50 per dozen. North side of square. 9-1f

For Sale—Second hand Burroughs adding machine cheap. Address Reporter, Leon, Iowa. 9-2t

For Sale—White Wyandotte cockerels, choice lot, fine stuff. Inquire John Goodman, Leon, Iowa. 10

Miss Winifred Hamilton, who is a student at Drake University at Des Moines, has been pledged by the Zeta Phi sorority.

On Friday a license was issued to Hoyle McConnell and Nellie M. Scudder, both of Van Wert. This couple were married by Justice of the Peace H. A. Wirick—Osceola Democrat.

For Sale—Residence property in Leon, one block from paving, 1/2 block of ground, 6 room house and other good out buildings, lots of fruit, fine location, price very reasonable. H. S. Jenkins, Leon, Iowa. 48-

We have a bin of Illinois lump coal in a building on the railroad right of way. We wish to vacate this building and move it to our own ground, to save transferring we offer you this coal while it lasts for threshing purposes at $4.25 per ton. Biddison Coal and Grain Co.

W. A. Williams returned the first of the week from Rochester, Minn., where he took Mrs. Williams for treatment. It was found that an operation was not necessary and that her condition was better than at first supposed, which her friends will be glad to learn. Mrs. Williams is at present with her sister, Mrs. Ayers, in Des Moines.—Garden Grove Express.

Swift's tankage for sale by the Biddison Coal and Grain Co.

Found—A watch, which owner can obtain by calling at The Reporter office. 10-1t

Team of horses for sale or trade for good milch cows. Floyd Powers, Leon, Iowa.

Nifty panel photos at $1.25 per dozen at the Harris Studio, north side of square. 9-1f

For Rent—My residence property now occupied by J. Wesley Chew, November 1st. W. H. Howard. -1f

For Sale—Second hand German heater. Inquire at house, 1 block west of high school. C. C. Cornman.

If you want good insurance and fair treatment in case of loss, have Pease & Pease write your insurance.

Don't let a tramp repair your sewing machine, but see J. M. Pickering who lives in Leon and warrants all his work to give entire satisfaction.

A bouncing boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Hill, of Garden Grove, on Sunday, Oct. 8th. Mrs. Hill was formerly Miss Ruby Harvey of Leon.

The Leon Electric Company has the finest display room in this part of the state for showing electric light fixtures. The fixtures are beautiful and are priced very low. It would pay you to see them.

L. P. Landphair, a young man 30 years of age, was before the insane commission Monday, and was ordered taken to the state hospital at Clarinda for treatment. He has been a sufferer from epilepsy for a number of years.

The K. of P. lodge had a most enjoyable session Monday night when about a dozen Knights came up from Lamoni. The second rank was conferred upon Arthur Gaultier, of Lamoni, and L. Stubbs, of Leon, and the boys got their money's worth if you don't believe it just ask Stubbs if he was satisfied. Following the work there was a social session, refreshments being served.

For Rent—165 acre farm. Mrs. Willis Cress, Decatur, Iowa. 10-1f

For Sale—A steer calf. Inquire at my home 1 block west of High school. C. C. Cornman.

Harris is still making cabinet photos at $1.75 per doz. North side of square. 9-1f

For Sale—A few pure bred Chester White male pigs. Ralph Goodman, Leon, Iowa. 10-1t

For Sale—White Wyandotte cockerels, choice lot, fine stuff. Inquire John Goodman, Leon, Iowa. 10

Call on Monday, Oct. 30, from 7 a. m. to 2 p. m. at Hotel Leon, and leave your eye and ear troubles with Dr. Weber. 10-2t

Don't forget the Saturday afternoon matinee at the Idle Hour theatre at 3 o'clock. Admission 5 and 10 cents.

For Sale—On account of moving away, my Leon residence property on north Main street. W. C. Stempel, 2621 Santa Fe Avenue, Ft. Madison, Iowa.

Don't use common drop cords for your electric lights. Select an attractive fixture from the many displayed in the special fixture room at the Leon Electric Company's office. 1-

Warren Sankey drove in Saturday in his auto from Colorado Springs, Colorado, where he and Mrs. Sankey spent the summer. Mrs. Sankey is now visiting with a sister at Phoenix, Arizona.

For Sale—Good farm of 104 acres, 2 1/2 miles south of Leon on Jefferson Highway. Priced right and with easy terms. If interested, write, phone or call on owner. Cary O. Andrew, Grand River, Iowa. 10-1f

For Sale—Residence property on 30th Main street, six room house in good repair. City water and electric lights. Address J. B. McEndree, 213 Market street, Marshalltown, Iowa. 47-1f

John R. Bonnett and family, Mrs. John V. Bonnett and family and George Bonnett and family, of Chariton, were visitors in Leon Monday while enroute home in three autos from an over Sunday visit at the home of Frank Bonnett, near Davis City.

Ben Sears has leased the brick garage on the east side of the square recently vacated by the Decatur County Overland Co., and will use it as a salesroom and general garage. He handles the Empire line of cars and has sold a number of them this season.

Elmer Brown, of Murphy, Oregon, who is here visiting his father, Capt. J. D. Brown, says that President Wilson will carry Oregon by a big majority. Elmer is a staunch supporter of Woodrow Wilson, and cannot see how anyone would want for a better man for president.

Capt. T. H. Brown, who had been visiting his brother, Capt. J. D. Brown, and many old friends in this city, returned to his home in Chicago, Monday, as he had to be there Tuesday to register so as to vote a democratic ticket next month, and there is no better democrat on earth than Tom Brown.

John Archey, of east Leon, brought some samples of his potato crop to the Reporter office the past week, which have been greatly admired. They are of an unknown variety, but John thinks they are the best potatoes he ever raised, being large and smooth. He dug twenty bushels of them from his garden patch.

For Sale—On the Stone farm 6 1/2 miles northwest of Leon, native lumber, wood and posts. Lumber 4 to 10 feet, $1.50 per 100. Lumber 12 to 16 feet, $2.00 per 100. Fencing posts 8 to 20 cents a piece. Wood, stove length, $1.25 and $1.50 a load. Long wood, 3 foot load 75 cents. Come and see W. W. Fulton.

Leon, Iowa, Oct. 14, 1916.

I am now authorized to take applications for farm loans, at 5 per cent interest payable annually, without commission or charge, by the company furnishing the money, and no expense other than the cost of exchange, borrower to pay my commissioner, 1 per cent for one year, and expense of loan.

E. J. Sankey.

William Langreder and wife visited over Sunday in Des Moines. Mr. Langreder, who is one of the finest tailors in Iowa, made the trip specially to fit a suit for a Des Moines customer, who will have no one but Mr. Langreder make his clothes, and paid his expenses to that city in order to be fitted. This speaks mighty well for Mr. Langreder's tailoring.

For Rent—5 room cottage. See Harry Bradford.

Swift's tankage for sale by the Biddison Coal and Grain Co.

For Sale—Two bucks. George Evans, R. F. D. 2, Leon, Iowa. 9-2t

Pease & Pease write all kinds of insurance, and protect their policy holders.

For Sale—A few choice registered male Hereford calves. Ben F. Redman, Van Wert, Iowa. 9-2t

For Sale—My 80 acre farm southeast of Leon on Capitol Highway. A bargain if taken at once. S. M. Bracewell, Lineville, Iowa.

Yesterday was guest day of the Unity Club and the ladies very pleasantly entertained a large number of guests at the assembly room of the library building yesterday afternoon, refreshments being served.

E. J. Sankey buys and sells land on commission, makes farm loans on approved security at the best rates, and does a general real estate business. Has had 20 years' experience in the business. Office upstairs, northwest corner Main and Commercial streets, Leon, Iowa.

C. C. Beck, of Decatur City, returned last week from a stay of several months at Casper and Big Piney, Wyoming, and after a visit here expects to return to that country. Charley says there is big money in the cattle and sheep business out in that western country.

Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Robinson departed Sunday morning in their auto for a trip to Kimballton, Iowa, to visit their son Zell, and then to Herman, Neb., to visit their daughter, Mrs. Paul Hubbell. They went by way of Des Moines and attended the big Christian church convention on Sunday.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. John Stewart will be pained to learn that Mr. Stewart is critically ill at his home at Yates Center, Kansas, with but little hopes entertained for his recovery. They are old time residents of this county, having lived a short distance west of Leon for a number of years, and their old neighbors sympathize with them indeed.

M. F. Grimes, of the Kraft-Grimes Clothing Co., returned Friday morning from Chicago, where he attended the annual convention of the managers of the Kraft clothing stores. They had a big convention, elaborate entertainment being provided for them in that city, including a Kraft banquet. While at the convention the managers inspected the special display of clothing and furnishing goods made by representatives from the leading manufacturers of the country, and Mark says he placed the biggest orders for new goods for next spring and summer he has ever bought, and secured them at the old prices, so that he will be able to supply the needs of his customers next spring without advancing prices.

White Wyandotte and Rose Comb Red cockerels, good ones, $1.00 each until November 1. Mrs. Aaron Goodman. 10-2t

Dr. and Mrs. J. O. Woodmansee and Lloyd M. Smith autoed to Des Moines last Friday and visited a couple of days in that city.

Mrs. Robert Teale entertained a number of lady friends at her home last Saturday afternoon in honor of Mrs. W. H. Whigler, of Rock Island, Illinois, who is a guest at the Teale home.

Furnished Rooms For Rent—On east Commercial street, two blocks from Main, well ventilated, heated and lighted, bath and hot and cold soft water, transient and show folks solicited. 10-2t

A box supper at Hickory Grove school Friday evening, Oct. 27. Ladies will bring well filled boxes. Come prepared to buy and have a good time. Two and a half miles northwest of Decatur.

The fire department were called out twice the latter part of last week. Friday noon some papers in a house owned by Ed Biggs in east Leon caught fire around a stove pipe, but the flames were extinguished before the fire boys reached the scene. Then on Saturday evening the residence of D. G. Gammon, just north of the library building caught fire around the chimney, but the damage was slight.

Joe Fisher, former first trick operator at the Burlington depot, who recently took a lay off to visit his sisters in the east, has accepted a position in the general auditor's office at Chicago, of the C. B. & Q. R. Co., having secured a month's leave of absence as operator to see if he likes his new position.

Highest market price paid for seed. Biddison Grain Co.

On account of the revival meetings there will be no Lone Scout meeting next Monday evening.

Found—A Shriner's emblem button, which the owner can obtain at The Reporter office.

A marriage license was issued at Des Moines Monday to Lewis Lovelady, of Centerville, Iowa, 26, to Edna E. Johnson, of Lamoni, 20.

We have a few potatoes left and we are going to close them out this week, 1 bushel $1.40, 5 bushels at $1.35 per bushel, 10 bushels at $1.20 per bushel. These potatoes are the Early Ohio, are ripe and good keepers. A. M. Caster.

Several weeks ago Carl Monroe found a gold watch lying in the road about half way between Leon and Osceola, and it was advertised in The Reporter. He had about given up hope of finding the owner when it was claimed yesterday by Donald Price, of Van Wert.

Several weeks ago Carl Monroe found a gold watch lying in the road about half way between Leon and Osceola, and it was advertised in The Reporter. He had about given up hope of finding the owner when it was claimed yesterday by Donald Price, of Van Wert.

Joe Fisher, former first trick operator at the Burlington depot, who recently took a lay off to visit his sisters in the east, has accepted a position in the general auditor's office at Chicago, of the C. B. & Q. R. Co., having secured a month's leave of absence as operator to see if he likes his new position.

Highest market price paid for seed. Biddison Grain Co.

On account of the revival meetings there will be no Lone Scout meeting next Monday evening.

Found—A Shriner's emblem button, which the owner can obtain at The Reporter office.

A marriage license was issued at Des Moines Monday to Lewis Lovelady, of Centerville, Iowa, 26, to Edna E. Johnson, of Lamoni, 20.

We have a few potatoes left and we are going to close them out this week, 1 bushel $1.40, 5 bushels at $1.35 per bushel, 10 bushels at $1.20 per bushel. These potatoes are the Early Ohio, are ripe and good keepers. A. M. Caster.

Several weeks ago Carl Monroe found a gold watch lying in the road about half way between Leon and Osceola, and it was advertised in The Reporter. He had about given up hope of finding the owner when it was claimed yesterday by Donald Price, of Van Wert.

MAGAZINES

Let us know and we will save your Magazines each issue until you call for them.

By having a standing order you will avoid our being all sold out.

Cherrington's
OF COURSE

CLOTHING

KUPPENHEIMER Suits in all the new and attractive styles and patterns. Come into the store and let us show you real values for your dollar. Note the following prices on suits as good as we have ever shown for the money.

$10.00	$12.00
$15.00	$17.00
$20.00	$25.00

OVERCOATS

We have a fine line of KUPPENHEIMER and STYLEPLUS Overcoats in all the new and attractive styles and patterns to show you. Real values for dollar.

$10.00	$15.00	$20.00
$12.00	$17.00	$25.00

J. A. McINTOSH
"The Square Dealer"
LEON CLOTHING CO.