

PURELY PERSONAL

Miss Faye Rhodes, of Lamoni was a visitor in this city last Thursday. Mrs. Eli Hayer, of Lamoni was a visitor in this city last Thursday. F. R. Flora, of Davis City, had business in this city Monday. J. M. Francis, of Davis City, was a visitor in Leon Monday. W. L. Barry was a business visitor at Davis City last Thursday. W. L. Fletcher, of Decatur City, was a visitor in Leon Tuesday. Mrs. W. L. Severe, of Davis City, was visiting in Leon Tuesday. F. E. Fuller departed Saturday for a few days' visit in St. Joe, Mo. Mrs. Alice Marble, of Davis City, was a visitor in Leon Tuesday. Father J. J. Maher made a business trip to Des Moines Monday. Mrs. Scott Jones, of Decatur City, was a visitor in Leon Saturday. Henry Silvers, of Garden Grove, was a visitor in this city Tuesday. A. A. McKee, of Calmesville, Mo., had business in this city Monday. Mrs. J. L. Hewson, of near Blockley, was a visitor in Leon Tuesday. M. Shippy, of Lamoni, was a business visitor in this city last Friday. W. B. Redman, of Grand River, had business in Leon last Saturday. Mrs. J. M. Adams, of near Leon Monday. Mrs. G. W. Smith, of Davis City, was a business visitor in this city Monday. Albert Comer, of Lamoni, was a business visitor in this city Monday. George Arney returned Tuesday from a business trip to Des Moines. Miss Carrie Lamphiear, of Lamoni, was a visitor in Leon last Saturday. W. K. Macy, of Garden Grove, was a business visitor in this city Saturday. Miss Loretta Campbell, of Decatur City, was a visitor in this city Saturday. Fred Jones, of Blockley, was a business visitor in this city Saturday. F. H. Bartlett, of Davis City, was a business visitor in this city last Friday. J. W. Hannah, of Decatur City, was a business visitor in Leon last Friday. D. Ashford, of Decatur City, was a business visitor in Leon last Friday. Mrs. O. M. Gass returned Friday evening from Des Moines, where she had been visiting a few days. C. Johnson, of Humeston, came down Monday for a short visit at the home of his mother in this city. Miss Maud Hamilton went to Osceola Friday to visit a few days with her cousin, Miss Clara Burrell. Miss Marcia Wallace returned Saturday evening from a few days' visit with friends in Des Moines. Dan Anderson, of Lamoni, passed through this city last Friday, going to Des Moines on a business trip. Mrs. Belle Cummings and daughter, Miss Crystal, of Davis City, were visitors in this city Saturday. Mrs. J. Hoffines returned Wednesday evening from a ten days' visit with relatives at Plattsburgh, Neb. Miss Jane Griffin, of Pleasanton, was in Leon Saturday, being on her way home from a visit at Humeston. A. T. Weldon, of near Davis City, came up Friday afternoon for a visit with relatives and friends in this city. J. Grogan, of southeast of Leon, returned Friday evening from a few days' visit with relatives at Beaconsfield. Mrs. Guy Stark and son Paul returned Saturday evening from a few days' visit with relatives at Norwalk. Mrs. Grant Mallory and little daughter, Rosamond, of Davis City, were visitors in Leon Friday afternoon. Mrs. M. Seward and children, of near Leon, went to Leslie Tuesday, where they will make their future home. Mrs. Anna Benefield returned Monday evening from Elletton, where she had been visiting with relatives and friends. Gilbert Johnson, who is working in this city, went to his home at Davis City Saturday and visited over Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Will Lee and her mother, Mrs. W. T. Cartwright, of Davis City, were visitors in Leon Monday. Mrs. John Wilson went to Des Moines Thursday to visit a few days with her daughters who reside in this city. Mrs. Maria Gray returned Tuesday from Garden Grove, where she had been visiting a few days with relatives. Mrs. A. B. Bixler and daughter Vera, of Garden Grove, were in Leon Friday on their way to Des Moines for a visit. Mrs. E. H. Alexander came down from Humeston Thursday to visit a few days with relatives and friends in this city. Mrs. Clyde Marvin and son Lester, of Bedford, came Thursday evening for a few days' visit with relatives in this city. Mrs. A. J. Rumley returned Thursday from a visit at the home of her daughter, Mrs. E. E. Daugherty, near Pleasanton. Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Rumley, of near Leon, went to Saline, Mo., Saturday for a short visit with relatives and friends. Mr. and Mrs. I. P. Stanford, of Garden Grove, came Monday for a short visit with relatives in this city and vicinity. Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Robison, of Elletton, came Friday evening for a few days' visit with relatives in this vicinity. Mrs. C. M. Richardson and mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Bevington, went to Tingley Tuesday to visit a few days with relatives. Mrs. Isabelle Henderson, who had been visiting with friends in this city, returned to her home at Davis City Saturday. Mrs. S. J. Clearwater and granddaughter, Miss Dorothy Clearwater, of Decatur City, were visitors in Leon Saturday. G. M. Truitt and daughter, Miss Sarah, returned Thursday from a few days' visit with relatives in the vicinity of Blockley. Miss Ruby Allen, of Decatur, came Saturday evening for an over Sunday visit with her friend, Miss Nora Johnston. Miss Ethel Lovins, of Davis City, came Monday for a stay of several weeks at the home of F. A. Townsend in this city. Mrs. Isabelle House went to Humeston Saturday and visited over Sunday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Clay Pryor. W. L. Lewis returned to his home at Kansas City, Mo., Monday, having been the guest of Miss Tith Chamberlain for a few days. Miss Ruby Huston, who attends the Leon High School, went to her home at Pleasanton Saturday for an over Sunday visit. Mrs. Jane Landis returned Friday evening from Decatur City, where she had been visiting her daughter, Mrs. T. R. Roberts.

Mrs. Edith Carman returned Tuesday evening from Centerville where she was called to attend the funeral of an aunt. Judge Maxwell returned to his home at Centerville Thursday, having adjourned court that day until Monday, as he was suffering from an attack of the gripe. Mr. and Mrs. Bert Teale, of Mt. Airy, visited over night in this city, where they were at the home of his brother, Fred Teale. Mrs. David Bain, of Calmesville, Mo., came Saturday to visit a few days at the home of her son, Frank Bain, south of Leon. Mrs. J. R. McClann, of Omaha, Neb., came Monday to visit a few days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Stark in this city. Mrs. J. C. Brothers, of Grand River, came Thursday evening to visit a few days at the home of George Cox, south of Leon. Mrs. Fred Pullen and children returned to their home near Kellerton Monday evening after a visit with relatives in this vicinity. Mrs. W. W. Potts and daughter, Mrs. M. J. Snyder, went to Des Moines Monday to visit a few days with friends in that city. Miss Gladys Dunn, who is teaching near Van Wert, came Friday evening for an over Sunday visit at her home near this city. Mrs. L. Hutchinson returned to her home at Garden Grove Monday after a short visit at the home of her son, Will Hutchinson, in this city. Mrs. Ella Sang, who had been here visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. H. R. Layton, returned to her home in Chicago Monday. H. G. Goss returned over Sunday with friends at Mercer, Mo. hunting rabbits he said, but he failed to bring any home with him. Mrs. J. H. Evans returned Thursday evening from a two weeks' visit with relatives in the northern part of the state and in Des Moines. C. O. Reynolds, of southwest of Leon, went to Humeston Thursday to visit a few days with her daughter, Mrs. Jack Kendall. Harold Wright, who is employed in Des Moines, came Tuesday evening to visit a few days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Wright. H. C. McKee, the Creston contractor who is building the new Catholic church in this city, made a business trip to Des Moines Saturday. Miss Almeta Henderson, of Davis City, who had been visiting with friends in this city, went to Pleasanton Thursday for a short visit. Mrs. Josephine Beavers, of east of Leon, returned Saturday evening from Des Moines, where she had attended a teachers' meeting. H. W. Townsley and Fred Hurley, of near Leon, returned Friday from Omaha, Neb., where they had been to purchase a shipment of sheep. Mrs. S. A. Bullum, of Garden Grove, came Tuesday to visit a few days at the home of her daughter, Mrs. E. O. Alexander, in this city. Mrs. S. C. Maxwell, of Calmesville, Mo., passed through this city Monday going to Davis City to visit a few days with relatives and friends. Mrs. W. E. Webb and baby, returned Monday evening from Cornsington, where she had been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. B. McClure. Mrs. Catherine Griffith, of Kansas City, Mo., came last Friday for a visit with her aunt, Mrs. Lucy D. Ray, and other relatives in this city. Mrs. J. W. Rowell returned Thursday evening from Des Moines, where she attended the Red Cross meeting and visited a few days with friends. Dr. J. P. Maxwell and daughter, Miss Madge, returned to their home at Shenandoah Tuesday after visiting a few days with friends in this city. W. J. Innes, of St. Charles, Iowa, and his sister, Mrs. W. M. Caskey and son Roy, of Big Springs, Neb., were visitors in Leon last Thursday. Mrs. George Webster and children, of near Leon, returned Saturday from Bethany, Mo., where they had been visiting with relatives. Miss Zora Baker, who is teaching near Pleasanton, was in Leon Saturday, being on her way to her home at Lamoni for an over Sunday visit. Mrs. W. J. Darr and son returned Friday from Deadwood, S. D., where they had been visiting with Mrs. Darr's sons for several weeks. J. M. Ward, of Reville, S. D., who had been visiting with relatives and friends in this vicinity, went to Lamoni Friday evening for a short visit. Miss Zula Hamilton returned to her home at Davis City Saturday evening, after a visit in this city with her friend, Miss Ardes Woodard. Mrs. Maggie Craig and brother Albert, of Davis City, came Thursday to visit a few days at the home of her sister, Mrs. C. L. Ingram, near Leon. Miss Ruth Smith and brother Edward, of Garden Grove, were in Leon Thursday, being on their way to Des Moines for a few days' visit with relatives. Mrs. Mary J. Craig and daughter, Miss Lulu, drove to Centerville Sunday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Craig's sister-in-law, Mrs. Emma Pratt. Mrs. Fred Martin and son Robert returned to their home at Mt. Airy Thursday evening, having been here for a short visit with relatives and friends. Mrs. Mabel Wright went to Des Moines Saturday and visited over Sunday with her brothers, Cecil and Carroll Wright, who are employed in that city. John F. Hurst and little son, James, of Chicago, came Saturday evening for an over Sunday visit at the home of his mother, Mrs. S. W. Hurst, in this city. Mrs. Geo. T. Ogilvie went to Denver, Colorado, Thursday evening to visit her son, Victor, who is employed as an electrical engineer in that city. Mrs. James Bridges, who had been visiting at the home of her mother, Mrs. Chet Pullen, in this city, returned to her home at Shenandoah Tuesday. Miss Margaret Meek, who is attending Drake University at Des Moines, came Thursday evening for a few days' visit with her parents, near this city. Ben Gardner, the well-known cigarmaker, who has worked at Albia for several years, came in Saturday for an over Sunday visit with friends in this city. Mrs. T. S. Arnold returned Monday evening from Carlisle, where she had been visiting a couple of weeks at the home of her niece, Mrs. Robert Wadsworth. Mrs. Earl Trisler and children, of Des Moines, came Thursday to visit a few days with her mother, Mrs. Bebel Pickering, and other relatives in this city. Harry and Dr. Fred Penniwell, of Moines, came Monday morning for a few days' visit at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Penniwell in this city. Col. Charles Woods, of near Saline, Mo., the auctioneer who cries most of the sales in northern Missouri, and a good many over the line in Iowa, was a business visitor in this city Monday.

Mrs. C. G. Shane, Mrs. E. E. Jeffries and Miss M. J. McPherson, of Charleston, spent a few hours on Leon Tuesday, being on their way to Kellerton for a short visit. A. L. Luke and wife, of Kansas City, came last week and will spend the winter here, Mr. Luke being employed at the poultry plant of Aaron & Co. in this city. J. L. McClann, of Bay City, Texas, who was here on business, accompanied his cousin, A. T. Weldon, to his home at Davis City, Saturday for an over Sunday visit. John M. Smith of Garden Grove, was in Leon Monday, enroute home from Mt. Airy, where he was called to attend the funeral of his brother-in-law, Mr. L. C. Knight. Mrs. W. W. Onstott returned to her home at Ridgeway, Mo., Thursday, after visiting a few days in this city at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Fred Epperley. Will Newman, of Coin, came Friday evening to visit a few days at the homes of his brothers, S. E. Newman, of south of Leon, and J. H. Newman, of this city, and evening from a few days' visit at the J. C. Atz home in Osceola. Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Truitt returned to their home at St. Joe, Mo., Monday, having been visiting for a few days in this city at the home of his father, Martin Truitt. Lou Pease went to Centerville Monday, where he will work life insurance, having been appointed agent for Appanoose and Davis counties for a big eastern company. Mrs. R. D. Avery and little daughter, Mrs. W. E. Avery, came Tuesday evening to visit a few days at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Snyder, of east of Leon. Judge R. L. Parrish, of Des Moines, came down Tuesday evening to attend to some legal business in the district court and visit with many friends in this city. Miss Tracy Brisbane, domestic science teacher in the Tingley public schools, came Thursday evening to visit over Sunday at the home of her mother in this city. Mrs. Marion P. Stookey returned Monday evening from Des Moines, where she had been visiting a few days at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Marion E. Wasson. Ex-county treasurer W. H. Young, of near River, was in Leon Monday, looking after some business matters and visiting with his many good friends in this city. Postmaster E. E. Beck returned Monday evening from Des Moines, where he visited over Sunday with his sister, Mrs. Zoe Cherry, and brother, Claude W. Beck. Miss Gladys Chambers, who teaches in the Van Wert schools, returned to Leon Monday noon, the schools at Van Wert being closed on account of the prevalence of smallpox. Mrs. W. H. Acton and granddaughter, Wilma Acton, of Davis City, came Thursday for a few days' visit at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Charles Coffin, in this city. Mrs. L. H. Black, who had been visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Pickering, in this city, departed Tuesday for her home at Tulsa, Oklahoma. J. L. C. Brooks, who had been serving on the grand jury, returned to his home near Togo Thursday, the grand jury having completed its work for this term that day. Mrs. Rose Thomas, of Weldon, departed Tuesday for Deming, New Mexico, where she will visit for some time at the home of her daughter, Mrs. John Fairall. Mrs. Earl Trisler and children, of Des Moines, who were here visiting her mother, Mrs. Ethel Pickering, went to Garden Grove Saturday to visit a few days with relatives. L. H. Whisler, of Pueblo, Colorado, who was visiting at the home of his brother, Silas Whisler, in this city, went to LaPlatte, Mo., Monday for a visit with relatives at that place. Evangelist F. G. Coleman and wife returned Tuesday evening from Stuart, Iowa, where Rev. Coleman has been for several weeks, conducting a successful series of revival meetings. Mrs. E. Menter and daughter, Mrs. F. Kennell, of Beaver City, Okla., came Monday to visit a few days in this city, after which they go to Plano, Iowa, for a visit with relatives. L. H. Whisler, of Pueblo, Colorado, who had been visiting a few days with relatives at Ridgeway, Mo., came Saturday for a visit at the home of his brother, Silas Whisler, in this city. Mrs. J. H. Warrington, of Garden Grove, were visitors in Leon Saturday, being on their way to Pleasanton for an over Sunday visit at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Ralph Judd. Geo. P. Campbell, of Davis City, passed through Leon Saturday, being enroute from Des Moines, where he attended the funeral of grand secretary, R. L. Tilton, of the I. O. O. F. grand lodge. George J. Spaeth and wife, of Garden Grove, were visitors in Leon Tuesday. Mr. Spaeth has about recovered from his severe illness which confined him to his home for many long months. Mrs. H. H. Thomas, of Wray, Colorado, who had been visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. G. B. Hawk, in this city, went to Lamoni Saturday evening for a short visit before returning home. Mrs. Leon Overton was in Leon Tuesday, enroute from Sac City to her former home at Pleasanton. Mr. and Mrs. Overton moved a few months ago to Sac City, but will again locate at Pleasanton. Mrs. Mattie Walker and daughter Emma, and Mrs. I. N. Edwards and daughter Eloise, of Van Wert, came Thursday for a few days' visit at the home of their mother, Aunt Caroline Robbins, in this city. Miss Nora Gardner, of southwest of Leon, departed Saturday for Wichita, Kansas, to be with her sister, Mrs. John Stewart, of Yates Center, Kansas, who is in a hospital at Wichita seriously ill. Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Boord and Mrs. James Caldwell, of near Decatur City, departed last Friday in Mr. Boord's auto for Ft. Riley, Kansas, to visit a few days with their sons, who are in the army at that place. James McGraw, of near Grand River, was a business visitor in Leon Tuesday, and called to push his Reporter ahead another year, having taken this paper continuously for more than thirty years. T. E. Horner, of Osage, Iowa, was a visitor in Leon last Thursday, being en route home from Lamoni, where he had been visiting his brother, Dr. J. B. Horner. T. E. is now in the drug business at Osage. Miss Lucille Alexander departed Thursday for Shenandoah where she will visit a few days with her aunt, Mrs. O. S. Long, and will also visit with relatives and friends in Omaha, Neb., before returning home.

E. C. Eicher, of Burlington, was a business visitor in this city last Thursday. Mr. Eicher is connected with the legal department of the Burlington railroad, and was looking after some legal business here. Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Warford went to Decatur City Monday for a short visit with relatives. They were accompanied by their niece, Miss Artie Legg, of Holy, Colorado, who is visiting at their home in this city. Mrs. F. S. Bell, of Twin Falls, Idaho, arrived Tuesday evening for a few days' visit at the home of her niece, Mrs. E. E. Bell. Mrs. Bell has many friends in this city, being better known as Miss Birdie Lester. Mrs. Vernon Wylie, of San Francisco, California, who is visiting at the home of her mother, Mrs. A. J. Allen, in this city, went to Mt. Airy, Thursday evening to visit a few days with her sister, Mrs. D. R. Dudley. Mrs. John M. Caldwell, who had been visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. Marion Osborn, in this city, returned to her home at Des Moines last Thursday. Mrs. Osborn accompanied her sister, Mrs. D. R. Dudley, to C. S. Guilford returned Thursday from Marshalltown, where he had been visiting at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Edna Collison, and getting acquainted with a new grandson which arrived at the Collison home last week. Mrs. Guilford returned to Marshalltown. Mr. and Mrs. Art Smith, of Lamoni, were in Leon Monday, having driven up in their auto with Mrs. Smith's sister, Mrs. D. J. Walker, who took the train here for her home in Waterloo having been called to Lamoni by the illness of her father, Dr. J. B. Horner, who is now considerably better. A. L. McDonald, of Bay City, Texas, and his brother, A. J. McDonald, of Tar River, Oklahoma, who had been here visiting their cousin, A. T. Weldon, of near Davis City, and attending to some business connected with the estate of their uncle, Larkin McDonald, departed Tuesday for a visit at Mitchell, S. D., before returning to their homes. C. W. Barr, of near Pleasanton, passed through this city Monday, returning from a two weeks' trip out in South Dakota, Wyoming, Colorado and Nebraska. He says he never saw so many potatoes in his life as they have in these states, and he thinks there will be no danger of a potato famine the coming winter, but that many owners expect to hold their potatoes for higher prices in the spring. Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Price, of Albany, Mo., motored to this city last Sunday morning in their new Willys-Knight, and accompanied by their son, G. B. Price and wife, of this city, drove on to Camp Dodge to visit their son, Hershel Price, who is in service there. On the return trip they spent the night in Leon, going on to Albany Monday morning. J. S. Butts, of Bemidji, Minn., who had been here for a few days' visit with relatives and old friends, went to Mt. Airy Monday evening for a few days' visit. Mr. Butts was for many years a resident of Decatur county, but went to Minnesota thirteen years ago, and this is the first time he has been back, and he was greatly surprised at the many changes made in this city. He says when he left Bemidji last week there was about eight inches of snow on the ground. Do you get up at night? Sanol is surely the best for all kidney or bladder troubles. Sanol gives relief in 24 hours from all backache and bladder troubles. Sanol is a guaranteed remedy. 35c and $1 a bottle at the drug store. 38-18 We have some 5 per cent money for choice farm loans. Farmers & Traders State Bank.

When company comes there is no time to waste—no chances to be taken—so mother sees that there is always a can of CALUMET BAKING POWDER on hand. Cakes, pies, doughnuts, muffins and all good things to eat must be dressed up in their best taste and looks. Then, too, her reputation as a cook must be upheld—and she "stakes" it on Calumet every time. She knows it will not disappoint her. Order a can and have the "company" kind of bakings every day. Calumet contains only such ingredients as have been approved officially by the U. S. Food Authorities. You save when you buy it. You save when you use it. HIGHEST QUALITY G. F. HENDERSON LICENSED UNDERTAKER No. 1755 DAVIS CITY, IOWA New Overland Auto Hearse DRAIN TILE For prices and information write OTTUMWA BRICK CONSTRUCTION CO. OTTUMWA, IOWA

Well "Armed"! CALUMET BAKING POWDER. When company comes there is no time to waste—no chances to be taken—so mother sees that there is always a can of CALUMET BAKING POWDER on hand. Cakes, pies, doughnuts, muffins and all good things to eat must be dressed up in their best taste and looks. Then, too, her reputation as a cook must be upheld—and she "stakes" it on Calumet every time. She knows it will not disappoint her. Order a can and have the "company" kind of bakings every day. Calumet contains only such ingredients as have been approved officially by the U. S. Food Authorities. You save when you buy it. You save when you use it. HIGHEST QUALITY G. F. HENDERSON LICENSED UNDERTAKER No. 1755 DAVIS CITY, IOWA New Overland Auto Hearse DRAIN TILE For prices and information write OTTUMWA BRICK CONSTRUCTION CO. OTTUMWA, IOWA

The American Viewpoint

of the United States' activities and accomplishments in the great

World War

is assured the readers of

THE LEON REPORTER

which, through special arrangement, is able to place subscriptions for the

CHICAGO HERALD Fair and Square

the newspaper that has earned the distinction of giving, day after day, the news of the world war from the American standpoint so clearly and well defined as to place it entirely and alone on its present plane of pre-eminence.

HERE'S OUR OFFER: CHICAGO HERALD, (Daily, One Year) Regular Price...$4.00 THE LEON REPORTER...$1.50 Total...$5.50 Our price for both...$5.00 You keep the difference...$.50

As a newspaper product, furnishing the news of happenings at home and abroad, the Chicago Herald represents journalistic leadership. Edited by James Keeley, whose reputation is international, the Chicago Herald is recognized and acknowledged as a leader among the foremost newspapers of the world.

PLACE YOUR SUBSCRIPTION TODAY THE LEON REPORTER