The Brunswick ALL PHONOGRAPHS PATHE DISCS

Prices $32.50 to $180

The Brunswick Phonograph and Pathe Discs The Ideal Combination

Although The Brunswick plays all records and has won its fame largely because of this feature, we recommend Pathe Discs especially.

And we believe you will agree, too, that you would not want a phonograph which would prohibit you from buying Pathe Discs if you wanted them.

The Pathe principles of record making and reproducing give more natural tones. With each Brunswick we supply a reproducer for Pathe Discs with Sapphire Ball needles. The Brunswick has a tone chamber built entirely of wood, like a violin. So the tones are soft and vibrant, never metallic or harsh.

A Musical Treat

The Pathe collection of records is the largest the world has ever known. It includes all the European selections, where Pathe originated, and most of the leading American selections. Many of the foremost singers, musicians, bands, etc., perform exclusively for Pathe. But do not get the impression that The Brunswick plays only Pathe Records. It plays them all as if on their own machines. And better, music lovers say, because of our scientifically constructed sound chamber.

Buy Any Make of Record

The Brunswick removes all restrictions as to what you shall play and what you shall not play. You do not have to buy one make of records. You can take your choice from them all. So you may enjoy your favorite selections with your favorite artists.

The Brunswick is the latest and final type. It includes the best features of all the finest phonographs. It is truly a composite instrument.

Note all The Brunswick's superiorities. What other leading phonographs offer such advantages? In The Brunswick are united all the desirable features in one instrument. Together with later improvements—costly extras—numerous refinements—all without increased price.

Hear The Brunswick Today

Do not be content with these claims. Investigate them. Check them over. Make comparisons solely for yourself.

And then, after you are satisfied that The Brunswick surpasses them all, compare the prices. You will be surprised that, with all the Brunswick advantages, you do not have to pay more, but somewhat less. Come in today with a "show me" attitude and we'll be glad to give you a Brunswick demonstration.
