

The Rexall Store

Check Your 'Grippe'

at the Rexall Drug Store

The recent influenza epidemic should be sufficient warning to all of us regarding the dangers of colds, coughs, grippe and similar ailments. The sequel to grippe often comes in the form of pneumonia.

Avoid such consequences by destroying grippe germs as soon as they appear in the system.

Rexall Grippe Remedy

will promptly destroy the poison which these germs bring to the blood and will have a tonic effect on your entire system.

Keep this remedy on hand and use promptly when first symptoms of grippe appear.

Price 25c

Wm. Langreder

The Only Tailor

in Leon

Smith Studio, Leon, for that Christmas picture. 14-3t

Two Poland China males in Geo. Baker's sale at Aaron Goodman's, November 8th.

For Sale—About 20 tons of hay. 10 tons of straw. Charles McCorky, Decatur, Iowa. 13-2t

An oven level with your shoulder requires no stooping. Look up Cole's combined High Oven Range and Heater.

For Sale—S. C. dark B. Leghorn cockerels, large type, bred from laying prize winners. Bargain for one week. Mrs. A. F. Beck, Kellerton, Ia.

For Sale—200 acres 6 miles south of Pleasanton, 5 miles north of Cainesville, and 106 acres two miles west of it. D. C. Wagner, Cainesville, Mo. 10-4t

Wanted—A sales representative in this territory to sell our guaranteed oils and greases. Excellent position for a hustler. The Glen Refining Company, Cleveland, Ohio.

I will close out at reduced prices, my entire stock of Rawleigh Merchandise, at Gardner's Second Hand Store, Leon, Iowa, Saturday, Nov. 9th. My stock is complete. Henry Esch, The Rawleigh Man.

W. T. Cooper, of Leon, came the first of the week to take the management of the local Standard Oil station. The station has been under the management of S. T. Cloonen for some time.—Afton Star-Enterprise.

Mrs. W. H. McCalla, of Davis City, who had been visiting with her daughter, Mrs. C. E. Chastain, southeast of Leon, went to Van Wert Thursday to visit a few days at the home of her sister, Mrs. George Hoffman.

Joe Brechtel and family, of near Weldon, were in Leon Monday, coming down with their son, John S., who left that day for Ames to enter the service in the motor truck division taking a sixty day training course at the state college.

Marion E. Wasson, of Des Moines, autoed to Leon Sunday, returning to Des Moines Tuesday, accompanied by Mrs. Wasson and daughter Dorothy, who had been here for a week visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Marion F. Stookley.

Mrs. F. M. Rhoades and daughter, Mrs. H. G. Wilson, of Redfield, S. D., who had been visiting with relatives at Cainesville, Mo., passed through this city Thursday on their way to Garden Grove for a few days visit before returning home.

Mrs. L. P. VanWerden and daughter, Miss Helen, and sons Charles and Benjamin, departed Thursday for Louisville, Kentucky, where Benjamin will enter the Kentucky Military Institute and then they go to Lexington, Virginia, where Charles will enter the Virginia Military Institute, after which Mrs. VanWerden and Helen will spend a few days in Washington, D. C., and other points before returning home.

Money to loan on some good farms Leon Savings Bank.

For Sale—Some good seed rye. E. C. Smith, Leon, Iowa. 21t

For Sale or Trade—A good 1917 Chevrolet touring car. See Earl Akes.

Two Poland China males in Geo. Baker's sale at Aaron Goodman's, November 8th.

For Rent—A 6 room house two blocks northeast of the court house. Phone Mack Cox, Leon, Iowa.

If you owe Henry Esch, The Rawleigh Man, make arrangements to settle your accounts with him at Gardner's Second Hand Store, Leon, Iowa, Saturday, November 9th.

We want men and women to permit us to care for their clothes. We don't scorch, burn or gloss garments while pressing them. Instead we make them look like new. The difference will delight you. G. W. Connor.

Mrs. Will McKern and daughters, Misses Sarah and Mae arrived Monday evening from Sioux Falls S. D., and will again take up their residence in this city. They have many friends here who are pleased to see them return to Leon.

Miss Margaret Meek, who had been visiting at the home of her parents in this city for a couple of weeks, returned to Nashua, Iowa, Friday, where she is teaching in the public schools, the schools at that place opening Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Mauk, of Charleston, autoed to Leon Sunday and spent the day with Mr. and Mrs. J. Hoffines, Misses Ruth Chase and Edina Kridlebaugh, of Charleston, accompanied them to Leon and visited at the C. W. Hoffman home.

For Sale—In Barton County, Mo., 125 miles due south of Kansas City, 3 good well improved farms. All choice farming lands, good crops, plenty moisture, fine climate. $55 to $60 per acre, 1/2 cash, balance east on loan, long time. Chas. R. Glenn, Lamar, Mo. 13-4t

W. M. Jackson, of Bedford, one of the candidates for district court judge in this district, spent a couple of days in Leon the latter part of the week, looking after his political chances. While in Leon he was a guest at the home of his cousin, J. V. Lemley.

Miss Maud Ogilvie went to Grand River Monday morning, it having been decided to open the schools at that place, but she returned home on the evening train, the authorities having decided to postpone the opening of the schools for another week at least.

E. L. Hutchinson returned from Cambria Friday evening, where he had driven the car of his son-in-law, Charles Donald, having borrowed the car to bring his son Glenn to Leon a few days previous. Glenn was suffering from a broken leg received when he was thrown from a horse, which he was riding at the home of his sister a few days previous.

P. O. at Bowsher's.

For Sale—A Duroc male hog. Dan Alley.

For Sale—Pure bred Poland China male hog. Robert Pearson.

Wanted to Rent—Nov. 1st 5-6 room house. Address Leon Reporter.

Wanted—Competent help for general housework. Mrs. V. R. McGinnis.

Two Poland China males in Geo. Baker's sale at Aaron Goodman's, November 8th.

If the quarantine is lifted there will be Eastern Star meeting Monday evening, November 11th.

For Rent—A three room house and ten lots in Smith addition. Phone Mack Cox, Leon.

Wanted—Experienced farm hand wants a farm on a salary basis. Am married man. Inquire at The Reporter office.

J. T. Caulfield, of northeast of Leon, has received word that his son Joseph C. Caulfield, a member of Co. C, 109th ammunition train, has arrived safely overseas.

My double standard Polled Durham bull, polled Lucy's Lad X14, 003 S. H. 467107, three years old, is for sale. Will also sell a few young bulls and Duroc Jersey boars. A. E. Cotterill. 12-4t

Election week is always a mighty hard week for a weekly newspaper as everything must be sidetracked for the election, and it takes a lot of rush work to get the returns prepared and in type.

I will close out at reduced prices, my entire stock of Rawleigh Merchandise, at Gardner's Second Hand Store, Leon, Iowa, Saturday, Nov. 9th. My stock is complete. Henry Esch, The Rawleigh Man.

Born, to Rev. J. A. F. Cunningham and wife, Oct. 29th, a six and one-fourth pound daughter named Giovanna Kathleen. Mother and babe doing well. Rev. Cunningham was formerly pastor at Decatur and Weldon.

Notice—Commen'g Monday, November 4th we will close our meat markets each evening at 6 o'clock, except Saturday night, when we will close at 10 o'clock. Penniwell Bros., W. D. Pleuss. 12-2t

Saturday evening a man and a woman traveling in a Ford Coupe turned upside down on the Davis City road a couple of miles southwest of Leon. They were not injured, and did not disclose their identity.

Max H. Morgan, who had been visiting at the home of his parents in Center township for three weeks while the state and college were under quarantine for influenza, returned to Quincy, Ill., Monday to resume his studies at Gem City Business College.

Mrs. Mary Frances Daily, wife of the late Allen W. Daily, died in Chicago, Nov. 2nd, aged 87 years. Funeral services were held from the residence of her son, Charles T. Daily, 417 Berkeley avenue, interment being in Mount Greenwood cemetery.

It's a pleasure to see a man with well pressed clothes. It means much to him and more to us to be able to press them better than they were ever pressed before. You can prove his statement to your own satisfaction by letting us show you. G. W. Connor.

Two Davis City soldier boys have been promoted as corporals. O'Neil Hamilton as corporal in the First Motor Truck Co., 9th Ammunition Train at Camp McClellan, Alabama, and Earl Cox as corporal of the 55th Field Artillery at Camp Donphan, Ft. Sill, Oklahoma.

E. J. Sankey buys and sells land on commission, makes farm loans on approved security at the best rates, and does a general real estate business. Has had 20 years' experience in the business. Office upstairs at northwest corner of Main and Commercial streets, Leon, Iowa.

On account of our junior member Frank Farquhar being in class one, and will be called very soon, we must have all book accounts settled at once, in order to settle up our partnership affairs. Please attend to your accounts at once. Farquhar & Sons.

The Reporter man made a little error of something over $500 last week when we stated F. S. Stewarts new Cunningham motor hearse cost him $4,000, as in fact it cost him a little over $4,500, and there was a war tax of $131.00 to pay on it. But it is worth every cent it cost.

Earl Ryan, who was employed as pharmacist at the Rexall drug store in this city until he enlisted in the navy, was visiting with friends in this city Saturday, having been spending a few days furlough from the Great Lakes Naval Training Station which he is spending at the home of his parents in Humeston.

Garden Grove, Iowa, Nov. 8th. Bowsher & Bowsher.

Kind Sirs: Received my shoes and was well pleased with them, am sending you the money. Thanks for the prompt attention and good work, I am,

Respect, yours, Ethel Merrifield.

W. H. Lloyd, of Decatur, was a visitor in Leon last Thursday. He had just received a letter from his son, Corporal Dick Lloyd, who is over in France, saying he had been enjoying a ten day furlough at one of the biggest summer resorts in France, and the French citizens had been showing the American soldier boys a great time.

Mr. and Mrs. Alva Woodmansee, of Corydon, motored to Leon Saturday and visited over Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John S. Gardner, of northwest of Leon. They were accompanied by their daughter and husband, Capt. and Mrs. S. E. Gibbs. Capt. Gibbs is an instructor in the aviation ground school at Champaign, Illinois.

Stephen G. Scott, who is stationed at a sailor on the U. S. S. Minnesota, arrived Sunday from Philadelphia, where his ship is in dry dock. A sixteen day furlough day had been in a hospital ship for some days prior, suffering from mumps and a bad cold. His wife, who is superintendent of Cottage hospital at Creighton, met him at Osceola, and they are visiting at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Scott, of northeast of Leon.

For Sale—Some good seed rye. E. C. Smith, Leon, Iowa. 21t

Two Poland China males in Geo. Baker's sale at Aaron Goodman's, November 8th.

For Sale—Some Rose Comb Rhode Island Red cockerels. Mrs. Aaron Goodman. 13-2t

John W. Culp was called to St. Joe, Mo., yesterday morning by the death of a nephew.

For Sale—75 shocks of corn with corn on. Offer Leeper. See J. E. Leeper if you want it.

For Sale—S. C. Brown Leghorn cockerels $1.00 each. Mrs. George Evans, R. F. D. No. 2. 12-2t

For Sale—White Wyandotte cockerels, pure white from high scoring stock, $2.00 to $2.50. John Goodman. 10-4t

There are more than two million Yanks over seas and more than five million Germans running away from them.

We want your business and will give you every reasonable banking courtesy and accommodation. Leon Savings Bank.

A single machine-gun, in the hands of an expert operator, is regarded as the equivalent of from fifty to eighty rifles.

If you owe Henry Esch, The Rawleigh Man, make arrangements to settle your accounts with him at Gardner's Second Hand Store, Leon, Iowa, Saturday, November 9th.

It is estimated that five per cent of the inhabitants of all the countries now at war are under arms, the percentage ranging from two in the case of Liberia to ten in the case of Germany, which has made by far the heaviest call on its male population.

Our junior member Frank Farquhar being in class one and expecting to be called to service right away, it becomes necessary to settle up our business, and all parties indebted to us, are requested to call and settled their accounts at once. Farquhar & Sons.

Big Type Poland Chinas.

We have for sale a limited number of spring and yearling boars, spring gilts and brood sows, of our famous Big Type breed. Manchester Bros., Leon, Iowa. 4t and difficulty for over ninety years The Youth's Companion has stood by the family. It has cheered and encouraged and entertained—delighting all, informing all, and making home life and loyal sentiment the ideal of all. For 1919 the publishers intend to make the paper worth more to family life than ever before. The splendid serials alone are events in next year's reading in the family life. Hundreds of short stories and articles by great contributors, and a steady stream of helpfulness in everything from the solid and serious to the happy humor for which The Companion is famed. In these days the whole family needs The Companion, and it is still only $2.00 a year for 52 splendid issues.

In Every Time of Stress

Don't miss Grace Richmond's great serial, Anne Exeter, 10 chapters, beginning December 12. The following special offer is made to new subscribers:

1. The Youth's Companion—52 issues of 1919.
2. All the remaining weekly issues of 1918.
3. The Companion Home Calendar for 1919.
All the above for only $2.00, or you may include
4. McCall's Magazine—12 fashion number. All for only $2.50. The two magazines may be sent to separate addresses if desired.
THE YOUTH'S COMPANION, Commonwealth Ave. & St. Paul St., Boston, Mass.
New subscriptions received at this office.

The Last and Best Reason

You Save $1.00

By Subscribing Today For

The Des Moines Evening Tribune

Now $4 a year After Nov. 30, $5.00

Now Lowest Priced Des Moines Daily.

The page of funny pictures in The Tribune is another very good reason why you should subscribe. Four or five different comics, headed by the famous "Dicks" in Bringing-up Father, afford a hearty laugh for every member of the family.

Subscribe Today

Mail your personal check or money order to The Tribune, Des Moines, Ia.

E. O. WILLS

Auctioneer

Van Wert, Iowa

Will give special attention to your sale. I guarantee satisfaction. For terms and dates address me at Van Wert, Iowa.

Notice of Appointment of Administrator.

In the District Court of the State of Iowa, in and for Decatur County, In Probate.

In the matter of the estate of D. P. Leahy, Deceased.

To Whom It May Concern: Notice is hereby given that the undersigned has been appointed and has qualified as Administrator of the estate of D. P. Leahy late of Decatur County, Iowa, deceased. All persons in any manner indebted to said deceased or his estate will make payment to the undersigned; and those having claims against said deceased or his estate will present them in manner and form as by law required, for allowance and payment.

Dated this 15th day of October, A. D., 1918.

George E. Leahy, 11-3t Administrator of said estate.

Nyal's Face Cream

Let your complexion defy the sun and wind by using

Nyal's Face Cream

the face cream without an objectionable features.

35c and 65c Jars

Blair & Prather

Van Wert, Iowa

HOUSEWIVES are searching everywhere for a better way to save in food and fuel. You can find the answer to these vexing problems in the efficient

Cole's High Oven Range

It saves the cost of an extra heating stove. It gives warm floors for the little folks. Oven shoulder high—saves stooping and backaches. Oven and flues made of copper-alloy iron, the strongest rust-resisting iron known.

We personally invite you to see this remarkable fuel saving modern range.

We Do First Class Hand Tailoring

Hats Reblocked and Trimmed
Piece Goods Carried in Stock
Suits Dyed
Cleaning, Pressing and Alterations

G. W. CONNOR
MERCHANT TAILOR, Over Penniwell's Meat Market.

J. L. GOODING

"The Live Auctioneer."

The man who will get you the most money for your stuff and who always makes a sale a success. He knows the value of stock. Has cried more sales than any auctioneer in this section.

Write or phone for dates.
Kellerton, Iowa.

C. A. McKERN, LEON, IOWA

Live Stock and Real Estate Auctioneer

The man who gets you the most money for your sales from start to finish. Town Sales on Saturday a Specialty.