

PURELY PERSONAL

C. Howard, of St. Joe, Mo., was a visitor in Leon Monday. Mrs. W. A. Boone was a visitor at Lamoni last Thursday. Harry Rust, of Decatur, was visiting in Leon last Thursday. H. B. Kirk went to Grimes, Iowa, Saturday, for a few days visit. Mrs. Gold Elmore, of Pleasanton, was a visitor in Leon Saturday. J. J. Crees, of Grand River, was a business visitor in Leon Friday. Phillip Little, of near Pleasanton, was a visitor in Leon last Friday. Mrs. F. O. Maynard, of Lamoni, was visiting in Leon last Saturday. Mrs. G. P. Reed, of Pleasanton, was a visitor in Leon last Friday. Charles Hall, of Cainsville, Mo., was visiting in Leon last Saturday. E. A. Merritt, of near Koyle, was a business visitor in Leon Saturday. Otto Stephens, of Davis City, was a business visitor in Leon Saturday. Mrs. A. J. Kindred, of Pleasanton, was visiting in Leon last Saturday. Dan Myers, of near Decatur, was a business visitor in Leon Saturday. Mrs. Thomas Forbes, of Lamoni, was visiting in this city last Friday. John Attebury, of Davis City, was a business visitor in Leon Monday. Mrs. C. H. Edwards, of Pleasanton, was a visitor in Leon last Saturday. Mrs. Cliff Woodard, of Decatur, was a visitor in this city last Saturday. I. C. Norman, of near Decatur, was a business visitor in Leon Saturday. O. W. Irving, of Van Wert, was a business visitor in Leon last Thursday. Roy Hall, of Weldon, was a business visitor in this city last Thursday. Mrs. F. E. Still, of Garden Grove, was a visitor in this city last Thursday. Roy Hoadley, of Garden Grove, was a visitor in this city last Thursday. Harve McClaran, of near Decatur, was a business visitor in Leon Friday. Mrs. Will F. Horn, of Pleasanton, was visiting in this city last Saturday. E. A. Landphair, of Pleasanton, was a business visitor in Leon Saturday. J. H. Wilson, of near Pleasanton, was a business visitor in Leon Saturday. G. C. Calbreath, of Davis City, was a business visitor in Leon Saturday. W. Glassburner went to Eagleville, Mo., Friday for a few days visit. Mrs. W. G. Cummins, of Davis City, was visiting in this city last Friday. J. V. Lemley returned last Thursday from a business trip to Des Moines. J. R. Bowsher returned Thursday evening from a business trip to Des Moines. Mrs. G. A. Stephens, of Melcher, Iowa, was a business visitor in Leon Monday. L. V. Tullis, the Decatur auctioneer, was an over Sunday visitor at Mt. Ayr. Mrs. C. R. Barnhizer, of Saline, Mo., was a visitor in Leon last Saturday. Miss Beulah Butcher, of Davis City, was visiting in this city last Saturday. Mrs. Ed Barnett, of near Blockley, was a visitor in this city last Saturday. Miss Lois Rudibaugh, of Davis City, was a visitor in Leon last Saturday. Misses Meryl and Ada Crees, of Decatur, were visitors in Leon last Saturday. Conrad Devorak, of near Davis City, was a visitor in Leon last Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Vail, of Garden Grove, were visitors in Leon last Saturday. L. E. Clark, of near Pleasanton, was a business visitor in Leon last Saturday. R. P. Curry, of near Weldon, was a business visitor in Leon last Saturday. George Hass, of Mt. Ayr, was a business visitor in this city last Saturday. C. K. Rauch, of near Davis City, was a business visitor in Leon Thursday. Mrs. Mattie Horn, of Davis City, was visiting in this city last Friday afternoon. R. K. McBroom, of Leroy, came Saturday for an over Sunday visit in this city. Mrs. H. L. McClaran, of Davis City, was visiting with Leon friends last Friday. Thomas Williams, of Garden Grove, was a business visitor in this city Monday. Lee Davis, of south of Leon went to Davis City Thursday on a short business trip. Delbert Scull returned from Chariton Monday, where he was visiting his grandparents. G. W. Reader left Friday afternoon for Mason City, where he is writing insurance. Mrs. Belle Stockton went to Garden Grove Tuesday to visit a few days with friends. Mrs. John Robertson returned Friday from a short visit with relatives at Davis City. Postmaster Theodore Wall, of Osceola, was a business visitor in this city last Thursday. Mrs. Howard Mose, who is staying at Decatur temporarily, was a visitor in Leon Friday. Mrs. Glenn Frazier and son Raymond, of Davis City, were visiting in Leon last Saturday. Mrs. H. Moran and Miss Lotie Vanderpool, of near Koyle, were visiting in Leon Saturday. Arthur Parker went to Des Moines Thursday afternoon for a few days visit with friends. Miss Vera Vandel, of Lineville, was in Leon Monday on her way to Lamoni for a few days visit. Mrs. J. W. Robinson went to Humeston Thursday and visited a couple of days with relatives. Miss Cecel Bright, of north of Leon, went to Decatur Friday for a few days visit with relatives. Charles S. Hobson, deputy state fish and game warden, was a business visitor in Leon Saturday. C. A. Sykes and A. W. Callahan, of Manilla, Iowa, were business visitors in Leon last Thursday. Joseph Willis went to Lamoni Thursday evening and visited a few days with relatives and friends. Mr. and Mrs. J. L. LaFollette, of Cainsville, Mo., were visiting with Leon friends this city last Saturday. A. M. Umphress went to Garden Grove Saturday for an over Sunday visit with relatives and friends. Mr. and Mrs. Alva Zimmerman, of Cainsville, Mo., were visiting with Leon friends last Saturday. Mrs. D. M. Glover returned Thursday afternoon from a few days visit with relatives at Saline, Mo. Abe Bellamy went to Garden Grove Thursday for a few days visit with relatives in that vicinity.

Mrs. F. A. Wagoner and little daughter went to Creston Sunday for a few days visit with relatives. W. H. Graham went to Lamoni Thursday evening for a few days visit with relatives and old friends. A. P. Sinclair, of Woodland, was in Leon Thursday on his way to Cainsville, Mo., for a few days visit. C. M. Sprague, of Lamoni, who had been here serving on the grand jury, returned home Friday evening. Joseph Dailey, who had been working here for some time, returned to his home in St. Joe, Mo., Saturday. Mrs. N. E. McBee, of Van Wert, came Saturday for a visit with her sister, Mrs. J. A. Keerans, in this city. Mr. and Mrs. Sam Scull and children motored to Chariton Sunday for a visit with relatives in that city. W. J. Cleveland and Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Houk, of Des Moines, were here last Thursday, looking at a farm. Mr. and Mrs. P. O. Ebrecht and children went to Davis City Thursday for a few days visit with relatives. Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Crowell, of Des Moines, came Tuesday to attend the funeral of their nephew, Stephen Hurst. Miss Nelle Fenton, of Pleasanton, was in Leon Friday on her way to Lamoni for a few days visit with friends. Mr. and Mrs. John Sell went to Davis City Monday to visit at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Arthur Doolittle. Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Ridgeway, of north of Leon, returned Friday from a week's visit with friends at Humeston. Otto Gilpatrick, who is working near Leon, went to his home at Blytheville, Mo., Saturday for a few days visit. E. H. Peck, of St. Louis, was in Leon Saturday on his way to Decatur for an over Sunday visit with his family. J. E. Leeper, of northwest of Leon, went to Pleasanton Saturday to visit a few days with relatives and friends. Miss Beulah Petty returned to her home at Davis City Saturday evening after a short visit with friends in this city. Mrs. A. E. Jervis and little son Jack, went to Ottumwa Monday morning for a few days visit with her mother. R. W. Braden, of Leon, and A. F. Place, of Garden Grove, went to Manilla, Iowa, last Thursday on a business trip. G. A. Price, of Redding, was a visitor in Leon last Thursday, being enroute home from a visit at Fargo, North Dakota. Mrs. Anna Hayden, of Beaconsfield, passed through Leon Saturday returning from a visit with relatives at Davis City. Theodore Smith returned to his home at Cainsville, Mo., Saturday after a few days visit with friends in this vicinity. Mrs. M. Ricks, of Davis City, was visiting at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Ray Marvin, in this city last Friday. H. D. DeKalb, of DeKalb, came Friday and visited a few days at the home of his mother, Mrs. M. A. DeKalb, in this city. J. J. Quigley, who had been in this section with a car of apples, departed Tuesday evening for his home at Gravette, Oklahoma. Jas. W. Hurst returned to his home at Des Moines Thursday after visiting a couple of days with relatives in this city. Tom Brown, the Des Moines insurance man, came down Saturday evening and visited over Sunday with friends in this city. Miss Edith Beers, who is a student in the Leon High School, went to her home at Delray Friday for an over Sunday visit. O. E. Black, of southwest of Decatur, was a business visitor in Leon Friday, and went from here to Osceola that afternoon. F. E. O'Brien, of Grand River, was visiting in Leon last Saturday, being on his way to Pleasanton for an over Sunday visit. Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Cummins returned to their home at Saline, Mo., Saturday, after a short visit with relatives in that city. Mrs. S. J. Slanender, who is employed as engineer on the federal road work in this vicinity, made a business trip to Chariton Tuesday. Rev. Ray Johnston, of Indianola, was in Leon Saturday on his way to Decatur, where he preached in the M. E. church Sunday. Mrs. J. C. Hartshorn, of Osceola, came Friday evening for a few days visit at the home of her brother, J. H. Ryan, in this city. A. T. Weidin, of near Davis City, returned home Thursday after visiting a couple of days with relatives and friends in this city. Mrs. Artie M. Legg, of Bartlesville, Oklahoma, came Thursday for a visit at the home of her uncle, A. R. Warford, in this city. Claude Perkins went to Pleasanton Saturday evening and visited over Sunday at the home of his sister, Mrs. Merle Cornett. Mrs. H. M. Chubbick, of Griswold, Iowa, were in Leon Tuesday on their way to Bethany, Mo., for a visit with relatives. Mr. and Mrs. William Reasoner, of Dodson, Montana, came Tuesday for a visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Quier, in this city. Rev. A. E. Jervis went to Des Moines Monday morning to attend the big convention of church workers in that city this week. Clyde Richardson went to Ridgeway, Mo., Tuesday evening to assist a few days in the Miner & Frees lumber yard at that place. G. C. Caldwell returned to his home at Humeston Monday after a few days visit at the home of Dr. J. W. Robinson, in this city. Martin Little, who is a student in the Leon High School went to his home at Pleasanton Friday evening and visited over Sunday. Mrs. Harold Rush, who is visiting at Davis City, came Friday afternoon for a short visit at the home of Mrs. Jennie Rush, in this city. Charles Manning, of Kansas City, Mo., came in Tuesday afternoon for a visit at the home of his brother, Frank Manning, in this city. Mrs. Bert Craig, of Omaha, Neb., came Friday for a few days visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Bigley, in this city. Ed Stanley, who had been here visiting at the home of his sister, Mrs. Matt Pullen, returned to his home at Omaha, Neb., Friday. Mrs. John A. Fulton went to Des Moines Thursday to visit her sister, Mrs. Ray Whiteley, of Alberton, who is recovering from an operation at the Methodist hospital. D. L. Robbins returned to his home at Carille, Arkansas, Friday after visiting a couple of weeks in this city at the home of his mother, Mrs. Caroline Robbins. Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Bassett, of Warshamille, Iowa, came Saturday evening for a visit with her sister, Mrs. W. A. Albaugh and other relatives in this city and vicinity.

Mrs. Clie Collier, of Osceola, returned home Monday after a few days visit in this city at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Joe Culp. Mr. and Mrs. Solon Woodley and baby, of Bethany, Mo., were in Leon Tuesday, enroute home from a visit with relatives at Griswold, Iowa. Mrs. John McDaniel returned to her home at Osceola Saturday after a few days visit in this city. The next of Mrs. John S. Parrish. Mrs. Wm. Stanley returned to her home at Leroy Friday after a few days visit in this city at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Ralph Pettigrew. Mrs. O. C. Brenizer returned to her home at Lamoni Saturday evening after a short visit in this city with her uncle, James Grandstaff. Rev. Jas. A. Armstrong returned from Santa Rosa, Mo., Tuesday, where he had been conducting a series of meetings for several weeks. Mrs. Marion F. Stookey went to Des Moines Saturday to visit a couple of weeks at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Marion E. Wasson. John F. Hurst, of Chicago, arrived in Leon Sunday evening for a few days visit, being called here by the death of his nephew, Stephen Hurst. Mrs. U. G. Griffith, of Davis City, passed through Leon Monday morning on her way to Ft. Dodge for a few days visit at the home of her son. Mrs. John Kerrins, of Pleasanton, came Saturday and visited over Sunday at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. McClaran, in this city. Charles DeLong, who is working in a poultry plant at New Hampton, Mo., came up Saturday for an over Sunday visit with his family in this city. Loren L. Long, who is teaching this winter at Woodburn, was here Saturday visiting with relatives returning to Woodburn that afternoon. W. H. Darnier, of Des Moines, returned home Friday after visiting a couple of days at the home of his nephew, Roy Hines, southwest of Leon. Miss Marie Horney, who is a student in the Leon High School, went to her home at Davis City Friday evening for an over Sunday visit. Prof. R. M. Evans, manual training instructor in the Leon High School, went to Mt. Ayr Friday evening and visited over Sunday with friends. Mrs. J. W. Jacobs and daughter, Audrey, went to Garden Grove Saturday for an over Sunday visit at the home of her mother, Mrs. John Sowers. Mrs. Rosa Reed, who had been visiting at the home of her son, Ivan Reed, of northeast of Leon, returned to her home at Pleasanton Saturday. E. D. Bean, of Shenandoah, came in Tuesday morning to attend the funeral of Stephen Hurst, and visit a few days with his many friends in this city. Mrs. Mattie Walker returned to her home at Van Wert Saturday after a visit at the home of her mother, Mrs. Caroline Robbins, in this city. Mrs. M. E. Motherway, who had been here for a short time visiting relatives and friends, departed yesterday for her home at Pueblo, Colorado. Mrs. Lee Booth, who had been here visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Elliott, returned to her home at Sedan, Oklahoma, last Thursday. Emanuel Meryman, of Moweaqua, Illinois, came in last Friday evening for a few days visit at the home of his brother, Zeke Meryman, of near Leon. W. H. Snyder returned from Fairfield Saturday, having spent the week of his vacation assisting with the Farm Bureau campaign in that county. Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Davenport, who had been visiting at the Frank Graham home near Leon, returned to their home at Hutchinson, Kansas, Saturday. Misses Clara and Mae Burrell, who are students in the Leon High School, went to their home near Davis City Friday evening and visited over Sunday. Lem Gammon, of Lyman, Colorado, came Monday for a visit with his brother, Harrison Gammon, and numerous relatives and old friends in this vicinity. Mrs. Sadie Brewer and children, Ma and Lloyd, who had been visiting with relatives in the vicinity of Lamoni, returned to their home at Clarinda Friday. Mrs. E. Moore returned to her home at Kellerton Friday evening after a few days visit at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Elliott, in this city. Mrs. B. O. Meadows returned to her home at Chariton Thursday afternoon after a few days visit at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Elliott, in this city. Mrs. Ed Woodley, of Knoxville, who had been visiting with relatives at Davis City, came to Leon Thursday evening for a few days visit with relatives in this vicinity. Ervin Miner, of Ridgeway, Mo., came up Monday and spent a few days in this city, looking after business matters connected with the Miner & Frees lumber yard in this city. Mr. and Mrs. Jas. W. Hurst and children, Kathryn and White, of Des Moines, drove to Leon Sunday for a few days visit, being called here by the death of his nephew, Stephen Hurst. Mrs. Maurice Elder went to Humeston Saturday and visited over Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. L. Edwards, being joined there by Mr. Elder, who is now stationed at Derby. Mrs. Jas. F. Harvey went to Chillicothe, Mo., Friday for a few days visit with Mr. Nan Price, of Winnipeg, Manitoba, who was at Chillicothe for a short visit with her mother. John W. Chew, of Grand River, who had been visiting at the home of his son, county treasurer J. Wesley Chew, near Leon, went to Pleasanton Saturday to visit his son, Bert Chew. Mrs. H. R. Stover, of Pleasanton, was in Leon Saturday on her way home from Indianola, where she had been visiting a few days with her sisters who are attending Simpson College. Raymond Hurst, of Chicago, arrived Tuesday evening to attend the funeral of his cousin, Stephen Hurst, not arriving until after the funeral on account of the trains being blocked by snow. Mrs. J. W. Jones, of Des Moines, arrived Friday afternoon from Stratford, Texas, where she had been visiting, for a few days at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Bryan Robbins in this city. M. E. Gammill, of near Akron, Colorado, was visiting at the home of his brother, M. A. Gammill, in this city, went to Pleasanton Thursday evening to visit a few days with relatives and old neighbors, Mrs. Gammill being there on a visit.

New Court Cases. Minnie Mull vs. Charles Mull. The parties were married at Mt. Ayr on July 3, 1919, and lived together until Dec. 3, 1919. Plaintiff asks for a divorce on the grounds of cruel and inhuman treatment and alleges defendant has become addicted to the use of intoxicating liquors. She asks for a decree of divorce, the custody of their 9 year old daughter, and such alimony as the court may find just and equitable. McGinnis & McGinnis attorneys for plaintiff. Luella Woodard vs. Albert E. Woodard. These parties were married at Des Moines March 22, 1913. Plaintiff asks for a decree of divorce on the grounds that defendant has become habitually addicted to the and inhuman treatment. She also asks for the custody of her nine year old son by a prior marriage who was adopted by defendant and she have temporary alimony of $300 and permanent alimony of $5,000 together with an allowance of $200 a year for the support of her son, and that she have the right to occupy their home in Leon and that defendant be enjoined from visiting her or annoying her. S. A. Gates, attorney for plaintiff. Viola Williams vs. George Williams. These parties were married at Tuskego on April 2, 1911, and lived together until May 2, 1919. Plaintiff asks for a decree of divorce on the grounds of cruel and inhuman treatment and non-support of herself and children, and that she be awarded the custody of their three minor children. B. M. Russell, attorney for plaintiff.

Furs Wanted

I want to buy your furs this season, and will pay the very top price for every thing in the fur line. See me before you sell.

Bob Akes

Phone A16 Leon, Iowa

J.W. Hurst & Company The Cash Store

Do Your Christmas Shopping Early

A Beautiful Showing of Furs

Furs are still popular as holiday gifts. They will give the best service and should, therefore, be considered a practical necessity rather than a luxury.

Table with 4 columns: Children's Fur Sets, Misses' and Ladies' Sets, Ivory, Silk Hose, Neckwear, Handkerchiefs, Waists, Towels, Women's Cape Gloves, Silk Underskirt. Includes prices like $14.50, $68.00, $3.50, $5.95, $1.00, $2.35, $5.75, $11.00.

TAKE The Register Next Year

The Des Moines Register advertisement featuring a circular illustration of a family reading together. Text includes 'Please MOTHER and CHILDREN' and 'The Register receives the full reports of the Associated Press'.

Mother likes to read the stories and special articles and the departments in the daily paper that help make her housework easier. The children like the stories, the funny pictures and puzzles that entertain them and make them laugh. So when you choose your daily paper for next year consider how well The Des Moines Register will please Mother and the children. A whole page in The Register and parts of other pages are devoted to stories and entertaining features—just the kind that Mother and the children are bound to like. There are more of these features in The Register than in any other Iowa paper. You will be certain to please every one in the family, and yourself, too, by taking The Register next year.

And GET THE WORLD'S NEWS THE SAME MORNING PRINTED You can order The Register at The Leon Reporter office.