According to the United States Public Health Service there is at least one rat to every person in the country and it costs about half a cent a day to support each rat. In other words, rats cost us about $180,000,000 a year. They hardly seem worth it.

The Reporter man enjoyed some fine California head lettuce for his Sunday dinner. W. H. Shields having shipped a crate of it from Los Angeles to his daughter in this city, and they kindly remembered us with a generous supply.

Mrs. Julia Meyer, of Iowa City, will speak to the women at the Presbyterian church on Friday, March 19th, on the subject of "Americanization." This is a postponed date from the Extension Division of the State University. We expect a large attendance from all over the county. She also addresses the Parent-Teachers in the evening.

A letter from our old time friend, W. H. Wilson, for many years a resident of Woodland, now living at Columbus, Ohio, says they are having lots of flu back there, but neither he or his wife have had it. He writes the winter there has been a very severe one, and wants to be remembered to all of his old Decatur county friends.

Keller & Pryor's big spring millinery opening is next week, Thursday, Friday and Saturday, March 11, 12 and 13. They have bought heavily this season and will show the ladies of Leon and Decatur county the greatest showing of new spring millinery ever brought to this city. The new styles are very pretty and you will want to see them, so make sure that you attend one of the days of the opening. Everybody will be welcome whether you want to buy or not, so come.

A small fire at the residence of J. A. Harris called out the fire department Saturday evening about six o'clock, sparks having set fire to the roof, but the fire was extinguished, the only damage being a handful of shingles burned. Monday afternoon an engine set fire to the railroad right of way in west Leon, and the fire department was called out as the fire was creeping up to C. M. Harris' residence. A short time later the same afternoon, a small chicken house at the home of Dr. J. W. Rowell was burned, catching from a yard fire started by Rev. G. T. Ronk, which got beyond his control, but the loss was not very large.

Manager R. R. Wilcox, of the Leon Telephone Co., returned last Friday from Kansas City, where he went to try and secure needed material for their equipment here. They have orders for a number of new telephones, but he was only able to get four instruments at Kansas City. The company is doing everything they can secure the needed supplies, and hopes to secure them soon, but it is a hard matter to get them. The Leon office is now one of the best equipped exchanges in this part of the country, but they have been badly handicapped on account of being unable to secure operators, which causes delay in getting central, but hope to have this trouble remedied in the near future.

A card from J. P. Lewis who recently moved to Illinois Springs, Arkansas, says they are having beautiful weather down there, and they keep their house open most of the time. People are making gardens, and dandelions and violets are in bloom. The Lewis family are mighty well pleased with their new home.

Friends in Leon have received cards announcing the marriage of Miss Anna M. Sowers to Mr. J. W. Seibert, at Omaha, Neb., on February 21st. The bride was for many years a resident of Leon, being a sister of Mrs. W. L. Barry, of this city. Mr. and Mrs. Seibert are at home at 2818, South 34th street, Omaha.

Mrs. Cora Brant writes us to send her The Reporter at 1444 Vina Ave., Long Beach, California, where she has purchased a nice residence. She writes the Decatur county people have been enjoying the climate and taking in all the sights out there, and several of them have started home, but their leaving does not make her homesick.

Grover Tye, of the firm of J. B. Tye & Sons, of Pleasanton, last week bought a fall male pig out of Mr. Grover's herd at Kansas City, Mo. sired by the world famous record price boar, "The Liberator." Grover paid more for him than any pig of his age has sold for this year. Fieldmen and breeders say they will have to go to beat him at the fairs and hog shows next year. This pig will be shown at the Iowa State Fair and the Decatur County Fair this fall. Decatur county is fast coming to the front in the pure bred stock business.

Lewis B. Jackson, the Sapulpa, Oklahoma, millionaire, an old time Leon boy, returned home last Friday after spending a few days at the home of his brother-in-law, C. W. Hoffman, in this city. Mr. Jackson is one of the big men of Oklahoma, and recently brought in a new oil well, being offered a cool million dollars for the property, but decided not to sell at this time, as he would have to pay $500,000 of the million as income tax. Lewis is the same genial fellow he was when he was a struggling young lawyer in Leon, his immense wealth not changing him a bit.

Next week is the time, Thursday, Friday and Saturday, March 11, 12 and 13, and Keller & Pryor's millinery store is the place, which will be the meet-up of all the ladies in Decatur county, for on these days they will hold their big spring millinery opening, and will show an unusually large and well selected line of new spring millinery.
