The Right Way to Save

DON'T look for the lowest price when you buy shoes. Good shoes cost money, but they are less expensive than low priced ones.

To save a dollar or two in buying shoes usually means less wear, and lack of style. To buy better shoes assures long wear and proper fit—greater satisfaction for each dollar invested.

When you select your next pair, buy for quality—buy Florsheims for satisfaction in service, comfort and appearance—and you'll receive value that proves a real saving in the end.
