R. F. D. No. 3.

The fine rain Sunday and Monday nights made the farmers smile. Gil Vanderpool spent Monday at the home of Nel Still, who has been sick all spring. Vernon Baker had business at Davis City Monday. Harry Reynolds is working the roads in this section. There are no new cases of black jack in this vicinity. Wade, Leslie and Clyde Fulton spent Saturday night with their cousin, Enock Burrell. Almond Cox and Henry Jaeger are working the roads this week. Floyd Smith helped Ray Manion with his sheep shearing Monday. George Cox is hauling corn to the Biddison elevator at Leon. There are the best prospects for all kinds of crops in this section we have had for several years. David Smith sold a horse last week to Ed Rushing, of Humeston, for $250.00. This don't look like they were going very cheap. Ed Antrim and Luther Trent, of Trenton, Mo., spent last week at Mac Cox's. Bert Millsap and wife visited with friends in Leon Sunday. Lloyd Barlean spent Saturday night and Sunday with Will Hoover. No woman would ever quarrel with a man if it were not for the pleasure of making it up again.

Steep Hill Ridge.

Quite cool at this writing. Miss Lottie Vanderpool was a caller at Mrs. Hoover's Friday. Fred Smith and sons were callers at Leon Saturday. Miss Ruth Barlean was a visitor at Mrs. George Cox's one day last week. Henry Jaeger and son Harry were visitors at Davis City Friday. Wade, Leslie and Clyde Fulton were visiting Mrs. Nell Burrell Saturday and Sunday. The farmers are busy getting their corn planted. Those who haven't screen doors had better save up money to buy screen doors, for the flies are coming fast. Paul Fulton was dragging the roads Tuesday. Levi Gatton is plowing corn this week. Wilma and Bessie Hoover called on Opal and Dorothy Fulton Sunday afternoon. Joe and Bill Barlean were callers at the home of their brother, Dan Barlean, one day this week.

Fairview District No. 8.

Misses Hildah and Celia Hughes motored to Van Wert Friday. Frank Lewis, of Shoam Springs, Arkansas, is here, coming to take his car to his home. Several families in this vicinity attended the dedication of the new Franklin church Sunday. A few from here were present in the evening to hear Mr. Miller talk on "Ocean Life" and it was sure a fine talk. Misses Edythe and Vera Moore, of Osceola, took supper Sunday evening with H. E. Hughes and family. H. E. Hughes departed last Tuesday for Albia, Iowa, and returned home Saturday, having visited with relatives there. Wilma Garber spent Saturday night with friends near Leon. Virgil Herold had his tonsils taken out Saturday. Misses Hildah, Neva and Celia Hughes and Wilma Merrill spent Monday afternoon of last week with Misses Mae and Julia Hughes. One resents being teased by his neighbor, and just as much by a thousand of his neighbors.

A Harvest of Dollars

Mr. Iowa Farmer:
You sow between $250 and $500 to an acre. What kind of a harvest do you reap? Onondaga County farmers are paying from $50 to $150 an acre for farms and getting $5 a bushel for potatoes; 22c a pound for dressed pork; 11c for dressed beef; 24c for lamb and over $3 a bushel for corn. Will any Iowa market pay you this? We suggest you write for our list of Onondaga county farms. Syracuse has a population of 200,000, situated in the center of Onondaga county and New York state, the greatest market in the world.

560 acres, 32 cows, 4 horses and tools—$23,000. 300 acres timothy, 100 acres timber, variety fruit, land gently rolling high and dry but well watered. The stock includes 18 heifers, 40 hens. Machinery consists in part of grain drill, seeder, 3 mowing machines, horse rakes, wagons, hay loader, cultivator, plows, drags, planters, harnesses, a new two Double Unit Fine Tree Milling Machine, etc. 2 large barns, 55 stanchions, hay track, etc. An 8 room house in good repair, 2 1/2 miles to railroad and good town.
