ECONOMY CLAIM IS FALSE.
 Economy claims advanced by Republican leaders in the House, where Representative Mondell and others assert that the majority party has through a policy of retrenchment saved the taxpayers a billion and a half dollars, are based on false premises and their figures are arrived at by tricky methods.

The appearance of retrenchment is offered by claiming that cutting appropriations under departmental estimates is a saving, which Democrats declare is an utterly transparent and fraudulent device. Automatic reductions in expenditures by reason of the termination of the war are also claimed to be a Republican saving, but the trickiest method resorted to by these party leaders is to reduce appropriations for the ensuing fiscal year below amounts actually necessary in order that the various Federal bureaus may function, then make up in deficiency bills after the election, as well as the practice of concealing large sums of money by merely authorizing departments to expend unexpended balances as well as amounts that accrue to various departments from their operations, without requiring them to be paid into the Federal treasury and then appropriated in the regular way. By this process, hundreds of millions of dollars authorized to be expended by Congress do not appear in the appropriations at all.

IN SORRY PLIGHT.
 Bent upon having Congress take a summer vacation, despite the large number of vexing problems that are still unsolved, Republican leaders in Congress are fighting one another, and on the eve of their national convention find themselves in an unenviable predicament.

With insurgency rampant in both houses, the party leaders don't know into what way to turn. In the Senate, progressive Republicans are in revolt because of the "steering committee's" refusal to give place on its calendar to the bill for control of the packing-house industry and other progressive legislation while over in the House "Uncle Joe" Cannon, former Floor Leader Mann and other of the "Old Guard" are in revolt against the Ways and Means Committee's soldier cash bonus proposal.

Driving the elephant into a corner at the same time is a job not even the G. O. P. ringmasters can do. The party leaders have maneuvered themselves into a predicament.

Judge H. K. Evans this week told a representative of this paper of a farmer down in their section who sold his farm and invested $40,000 in a packing house enterprise, but he managed to get out of the payment of most of it. This party made the investment because a prominent banker accompanied the salesman to call on him. A man who will hook up with this kind of an outfit ought to be shot on the spot. This farmer said he was not acquainted with stock buying and would not have invested had not this supposed friend been along. This stock selling and membership soliciting by designing parties is getting close to an end—in this section.—Corning Free-Press.

Secretary Colby having advised the House Republicans that he knows of no reason relating to the country's foreign relations why they should not take "any action which is dictated by good judgment in respect to the Irish question, on which lengthy hearings were held and loud expressions of love for Ireland were voiced, there seems to be no reason why they should not go ahead and prove their good faith, else confess that they were merely angling for the Irish vote.

From a high republican authority, The Washington Post, the following confession of the complete failure of the present republican congress is taken: "If adjournment is taken in June, the republican party will have to go into the presidential campaign confronted by the necessity of dodging or apologizing for the sorriest record ever made by any congress in recent years."

With one candidate for the presidency in prison for ten years and one republican member of the senate under sentence to the penitentiary, it begins to look as if politics were an effort to put a premium on crime.

It may not be out of order to inquire if republican leaders in congress calculate that pruning appropriations to stimulate agriculture, thereby curtailing production, will tend to reduce the cost of living?

Since his sentence is not yet operative, and he is still a "distinguished member of the senate," it is assumed that Senator Newberry will be "among those present" at Chicago.

Those Chicago hotel men took what little the GOP delegates had left after paying their railroad fare. The extortion practiced was simply past comprehension.

HAD CHRONIC BRONCHITIS FOR TWENTY-SIX YEARS NOW WELL AND HAPPY THIS IS WORTH READING
 The experience of Mr. E. J. Tou-palik, 1438 Rose street, LaCrosse, Wisconsin, is chiefly remarkable on account of the length of time he was afflicted.
 He writes: "I have been suffering with chronic bronchitis for twenty-six years and every winter I would catch cold and become so hoarse I could not speak for six or eight weeks. I could get only temporary relief.
 "This winter I was taken with Grip and was in awful shape. A fellow workman advised me to take PE-RU-NA. By the time I had used three-fourths of a bottle, the hoarseness was gone, also that tired feeling. I am on my second bottle. Hereafter PE-RU-NA will be constantly in my house. It is the best medicine ever put up for the purpose."
 For any disease due to catarrh or catarrhal conditions, PE-RU-NA is equally dependable. Coughs, colds, catarrh of the head, stomach trouble, constipation, rheumatism, pains in the back, side and loins, bloating, belching gas, indigestion, catarrh of the large and small intestines, are some of the troubles for which PE-RU-NA is especially recommended.
 PE-RU-NA can be purchased anywhere in either tablet or liquid form.
