

Lowe's

This paint goes farther and costs less to make it go

Lowe Brothers High Standard Paint has a way of spreading out and covering more surface than any paint you have ever used. Not only covers more surface, but covers it better.

That's why it always costs less than cheap paints. High Standard not only saves you money—it makes you money because it makes your property worth more.

Besides lasting longer, this paint looks better as long as it lasts.

If you want to prevent painting troubles you want to use High Standard. Come in and talk it over. Ask for booklet and color card. Both are free.

E. E. BELL

Paints

For Bread-Biscuits-Cakes

T-H FLOUR

For Sale by LEW GILLHAM, LEON, IOWA

CLEAN CLOTHES WEAR LONGER

One of the facts to be remembered in these days of high priced clothing.

We specialize in laundering silk shirts—hand washed with Ivory Soap.

LEON LAUNDRY COMPANY

Dr. O. R. Crain
OSTEOPATH
Office over Exchange National Bank
LEON, IOWA

Dr. V. A. Englund
OSTEOPATHIC PHYSICIAN
Acute and Chronic Cases Treated
Night calls treated same as day calls
Office in Biggs block.
Phone 16 Leon, Iowa.

Will press your suit any hour you say.
Leon Laundry.

For Sale or Trade—Ford touring car in good condition. See Eugene Massey.

Look Here—Some Leon residences and two farms for sale on good terms. Jap Cesler, 3-81

Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Lorey are the parents of a bouncing ten pound boy born to them Tuesday night.

Dr. C. H. Mitchell will leave next Sunday for Iowa City, where he will spend a month taking a post graduate course at the State University.

The residence property in north Leon owned by Mrs. M. H. Wood, was purchased last week by Harley Ellis, of west of Leon, the consideration being $2,700.

Order cut flowers and floral designs from O. E. Hull, local agent of Lozier, of Des Moines, at the Reporter office. Orders sent by phone or mail, but order as early as possible.

The "Story Hour" picnic will be held Saturday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock in charge of Mrs. Roy Stout, city librarian. All boys and girls are invited. Bring your baskets and be at the library on time.

Mrs. Zell Johnson, of Alliance, Neb., arrived last Saturday for a visit at the home of her uncle, W. W. Craig and other relatives in this city and at Davis City. Mrs. Johnson will be remembered as Miss Zell Tharp, whose girlhood days were spent in Leon.

Manager L. J. Hill, of the Collins Filling Station in this city, thinks tourists are doing their best to wreck the fine new building as two have tried to knock it down the past week. A traveling man driving a Ford did his best to drive right in at the door, but about the only damage he did was to twist an axle on his car, and then a lady tourist driving a big car tried to knock down one of the brick pillars, but she could not hurt it, although she scraped the side of her car considerably.

For Sale—Good residence property 7 rooms and bath. See E. G. Monroe for price and terms.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Varga and children motored to Des Moines Tuesday evening for a few days visit.

For Sale—Case separator and Avery engine in running order. Separator almost new. Will sell either one or both. D. B. Bright, Grand River, Iowa. 44-6t.

See Smith & DeKalb who sell or trade Red River Valley lands. One fare for the round trip every Saturday. Call or write us at either Van Wert or DeKalb, Iowa. Smith & DeKalb. 13-1f.

Charles Akers, who accompanied the remains of his father, Thomas J. Akers, who died in Denver, Colorado, last Thursday, to this city for burial in the Palestine cemetery Sunday, left Tuesday for New Hampton, Mo., where he will visit a few days at the U. G. Gibson home, before returning to his home in Denver, Colorado.

The members of the Social Club and their families enjoyed a lawn picnic at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. Housh on South Main street last Thursday evening. They had a dandy good lot of eats and a very pleasant social evening with music was enjoyed.

Miss Goldene Chastain, who has been attending Drake University and the C. C. C. College at Des Moines the past year, taking a business course, came Saturday to spend the summer at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Chastain, east of Leon. She was accompanied to Leon by Miss Mary Miller, of Creston, who is also a student at the C. C. C. College.

Miss Cora Lunbeck, who had been visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. C. M. Ketcham in this city since her return from California, left Monday for Lake Okobohi, where she will spend the summer with her sister, Mrs. G. S. Robinson. Her sister, Mrs. A. L. Curry, accompanied her as far as Des Moines where she will visit a few days with friends.

Room for Rent—Phone 325.
Will press your suit any hour you say.
Leon Laundry.

Dynamite for Sale—Slade Engineering Co. 41-1f

For Sale—Millet seed. Joe F. Hamilton. 42-1f.

For Sale—Have a few loads of corn for sale. Guy Chambers 44-2t.

Lost—In Leon, a gold pencil. Finder please return to The Reporter office.

For Sale—Pure bred yearling Angus bulls. L. G. Overholzer, Van Wert. 43-4t.

For Sale—Refrigerator, corn and a good team. Simon Goodman, Leon, Iowa. 11.

Force your late planted corn with high grade fertilizer and beat the early frosts. Slade Engineering Co. 41-1f.

For Sale—Pure bred coming yearling Jersey bull calves and some Jersey cows. Ralph Herrold, 5 miles north of Leon. Phone on Van Wert line. 44-1f.

I will be in Leon this summer and will teach violin and piano. Those wishing to study with me, phone 239 or call at my home on South Main Street, Mabel Bradley. 45-1t.

Glen Tapscott, who has been a student at the State University at Iowa City, was a visitor in Leon Thursday going from here to Davis City to visit his sister, Mrs. Glen Frazier, before returning to his home at Lamoni.

B. F. Robison and sons, Milo and Moore, who had been here for a week visiting with relatives, returned to their home at Elkston Friday, his sister, Mrs. A. F. Smith, of near Leon, going home with him for a few days visit.

Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Wright and grandson Raymond Wright, of this city, and Mr. Wright's sister, Mrs. S. J. A. Johnson, of west of Leon, returned Wednesday evening from a visit with relatives at Rockwell City and Lake City.

D. E. Smith, of Griswold, Iowa, came Tuesday evening for a two days visit at the home of his niece, Mrs. J. C. Johnson, of west of Leon. Mr. Smith was an old time resident of Leon, but had not been here for twenty-six years.

Miss Florence Coffin, who had been spending a couple of weeks at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Coffin, in this city, returned Wednesday evening to resume her studies at the C. C. C. College Wednesday morning.

Dr. F. A. Bowma has commenced the work of remodeling his brick store building on the west side of the square. A new modern front will be put in, new floors laid, water and sewer connections made, and the office rooms on the second floor will also be remodeled and made up-to-date.

Miss Elda Moore, of Gregory, S. D., who has been attending Drake University at Des Moines the past year, came to Leon Saturday for a visit with relatives, her mother, Mrs. Milo Moore, of Gregory, S. D., having arrived in Leon a few days before to visit her father, W. H. Jenkins, and other relatives and friends.

Prof. R. P. Sibley, of Lake Forest University at Lake Forest, Illinois, arrived Tuesday for a few days visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Stewart in this city, coming to join friend on an auto trip to Yellowstone National Park and other points of interest in the west.

Mr. Chas. Piercy, wife and daughter, Luez, started on an extended trip by auto trip. They would first go to Omaha, Neb., then to northern Kansas, through Colorado and Utah, and into Idaho. They have relatives in the different states to visit and will take their time in making the trip, not expecting to return home before early fall.—Lamoni Chronicle.

Some of the young friends of Mr. and Mrs. J. Lawrence Calhoun, who were married in this city last Saturday, gave them a pretty lively time of it when they started on their honeymoon auto trip. Auto labeled "Newly Weds," with cow bells and tin cans dragging behind apprised everybody of the fact that they were married, and they paraded the streets ahead of the bridal party until they drove out of town.

Dr. J. W. Robinson returned Thursday evening from Bowling Green, Kentucky, where he and Mrs. Robinson had been visiting with their son, Zell Robinson and wife, Mrs. Robinson remaining there for a longer visit. Friday Dr. Robinson received a message saying Mrs. Zell Robinson was dangerously ill with peritonitis, and had been taken to a hospital at Louisville, Kentucky, and he left for that city on the afternoon train.

A letter from G. W. Brown, formerly of Grand River, now living at Torrington, Wyoming, says crops are there are looking fine, and he and Mr. Ackerley have out 15 acres of corn, which is looking good. They have plowed it over the first time, and he says he never had a better prospect for corn, but that now how long it will last in that western country, as the old settlers say, "gets pretty dry there sometimes, but they had a good rain there last week.

C. E. Chastain returned Sunday from a six weeks stay at Siloam Springs, Arkansas. Willard Lewis, son of J. P. Lewis, of Siloam Springs, accompanied him to Leon and after a visit here will return with his father in their car which was left here when the family moved to Siloam Springs last fall. Willard is a student in Utah but a very late product, and mighty glad to get back even for a visit, as he says he does not like Arkansas near as well as good old Iowa.

Mrs. Rosetta Bedler, of Green River, Utah, a former well known Leon resident, in remitting again for The Reporter which she writes she cannot do without, says she is very sorry to read of so many old friends crossing the "Great Divide," while numerous others are leaving the old town for the land of "Sunshine and Flowers." At the present time she is enjoying a visit from her youngest son Logan Bedler and family who live in Colorado. Mrs. Bedler says they had a very late spring in Utah but the warm weather and plenty of water for irrigating is doing wonders for all kinds of crops, the farmers having commenced cutting alfalfa last week and fruits of all kinds will be plentiful.

Persons wanting cherries call A. 16.
Will press your suit any hour you say.
Leon Laundry.

Wanted—Timothy Seed. Biddison Imp. Co.

Found—Two keys on ring. Get them at The Reporter office.

For Sale—Yearling Pedigreed Poll Angus bulls. George W. Baker. 44-4t.

Pasture—Have 60 acres of pasture for rent, or will take in stock by the head. Floyd Powers, Van Wert, Iowa. 37-1f.

Poland China Hogs For Sale—Young stock took care of all times. Write or phone Eugene Massey, Garden Grove. 44-1f.

I will be at the farm Tuesday, June 22, to deliver corn. Parties wanting corn call on that day. J. H. Bowsher.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Rumley left Sunday for the Sanitarium at Boulder where Mrs. Rumley will undergo an operation on Thursday morning, June 19th, for the relief of an ailment of long standing.—Ft. Collins, Colorado, Express.

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Bell returned to come Saturday evening for a few days visit with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gould Wallace, and to visit her sister, Miss Grace Wallace, who returned last week from a three years stay in south Carolina.

Miss Zella Stuteville returned to Pleasanton Tuesday after visiting a few days at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Stuteville, of west of Leon. Her little sister, Glendine, went to Pleasanton with her for a few days visit.

F. A. Garber, of northeast of Leon, went to Sedalia, Mo., Friday to attend the general conference of the Church of the Brethren being held in that city. Lewis Sears also went to Sedalia a few days before to attend the conference.

Dr. J. W. Robinson left Friday afternoon for Louisville, Kentucky, being called there by the serious illness of his daughter-in-law, Mrs. Nell Robinson, who was sick at Bowling Green, several weeks ago and taken from that city to a hospital in Louisville.

E. J. Sankey buys and sells land on commission, makes fast and approved security at the best rates, and does a general real estate business. Has had 20 years' experience in the business. Office upstairs at northwest corner of Main and Commercial streets, Leon, Iowa.

Mrs. Lillie Reynolds, of Los Angeles, California, arrived Monday evening for a few days visit at the home of her cousin, G. A. Long, and other relatives in this city and vicinity. Her daughter, Miss Beatrice Reynolds, had been a guest at the Long home for several weeks.

A. L. Ackerley went to Iowa City Friday morning to attend the commencement exercises at the State University and visit his children, Leland and Lois, who are students at the University. Miss Lois being one of the graduates this year in the Liberal Arts course, and Leland is a law student.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Voth and son Carl, of Oakland, Iowa, motored to Leon Thursday and visited over night with their daughter, Mrs. C. R. Barnum. The Barnum family accompanied them home Friday, Mr. Barnum returning to Leon Monday, but the family will visit at Oakland for a couple of weeks.

Mrs. J. S. DeBaum, of Los Angeles, California, who had been visiting at the home of her mother, Mrs. Cynthia Schaffner, in this city, went to Decatur Tuesday for a few days visit, her mother accompanying her. Mrs. DeBaum will be remembered as Bertha Schaffner, daughter of the late Charles P. Schaffner.

Mrs. J. A. Caster, Mrs. Fred Bowman, Mrs. Stephen Varga and Mrs. D. Frank Long went to Des Moines Tuesday to attend the big Biennial Women's Club convention which convened yesterday for an eight day session. Quite a number of the club ladies of Leon will go later in the week to attend the convention.

Mrs. Florence Bennett and son Finley John, of Portland, Oregon, who had been visiting for several weeks at the home of her aunt, Mrs. T. S. Arnold, in this city, left yesterday morning for a visit with relatives and friends at Des Moines and Carlisle, but will return to Leon for another visit before going back to Portland.

Ralph Stewart returned from Lake Forest University last Sunday, completing the four year course in three and a half years. He will be joined here this week by his friends, Prof. R. P. Sibley, of Lake Forest, and his classmate, Herbert Toos, of Waukegan, Illinois, and the three expect to leave the latter part of the week for an auto trip of a month or six weeks, visiting the Yellowstone National Park and other points of interest. They will take a complete camp outfit with them and enjoy camp life while on their trip.

Word was received here by friends of the marriage of Miss Sarah Lentz, adopted daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hardy Lentz, well remembered former residents of Woodland, who moved to Alfalfa county, Oklahoma, a year or more ago, the marriage taking place at the home of the bride's parents in that county on Thursday, June 3rd. The groom is said to be a prominent and wealthy farmer of that county and the many friends of the bride in this section of the country join in extending congratulations and best wishes for their future happiness and prosperity.—Linville Tribune.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Raymond, of Des Moines, motored to Leon Saturday evening and visited over Sunday at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Horace Farquhar. Mr. Raymond is a district secretary of the Greater Iowa Association, and was recently given his choice of taking charge of the office at Des Moines, or going with a similar organization to Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, but he chose to remain in good old Iowa.

Harry has been climbing up rapidly upon one of the best men in this line in Iowa. Mrs. Raymond has been teaching in the high school at Cedar Falls, the past year, but they are now located in their new home in Des Moines, where they expect to be permanently located.

Farms Wanted.
I will buy several farms in Decatur county. See me if you want to sell worth the money.
351t C. M. Akers.

THE CHURCHES.
Providence Baptist Church.
Services Saturday evening at 8 o'clock. Sunday morning—Sunday school at 10 a. m. Preaching at 11. Children's exercise at night. A cordial welcome to all.
Bethel Baptist Church—Rev. E. C. Vanderpool will preach at Bethel at 3 p. m.
Rev. E. C. Vanderpool, Pastor.

Methodist Church Notes.
All our services as usual next Sunday. We are placing special emphasis on making the morning service special in the church. The pastor will endeavor to give an appealing sermon. The choir will assist with the music, and Miss Dorothy Hoffman will sing a solo.
Evening service will be held in the open air, just west of the church. It was a decided success last Sunday evening, and the people enjoyed sitting promiscuously on the lawn, and in their cars. We have a special place to park twenty cars, and the usher will direct you. The orchestra will play for the music, old time hymns, bring your friends. Just west of church. Cool, breezy service.

Brethren Church Notes.
Sunday services next Sunday morning as usual. Sunday school at 10 o'clock. Preaching at 11. The Children's Day program last Sunday was splendid, the children and the committee in charge deserving great credit.
Next Sunday evening the semi-annual communion services will be held. All members are urged to attend. The members of the country churches are cordially invited to be present. C. E. services will be at the usual hour.
Members of the Christian Endeavor and others interested in the work are asked to meet at the church on Friday evening at 8 o'clock. Prayer meeting on Thursday evening at 8 o'clock at the church.

Eggs—White Pekin duck, 75c per setting. Ralph Phipps, Decatur. 34-1f.

Presbyterian Church Notes.
In spite of the hot weather, last Sunday was a good day with us. The Sunday school attendance was extra large. In the evening a large delegation of Knights of Pythias attended in a body and listened to a special sermon. The pastor appreciates this fine courtesy on the part of his fraternal brothers; it is one of those kindly things that after all makes life worth the living.
Next Sunday morning we will have our regular preaching service at eleven o'clock. Sunday school at ten and Christian Endeavor at seven o'clock. Sunday evening the choir assisted by Miss Faye Rhoades as special soloist, and others will present a musical program. Don't miss this evening service. You will enjoy it.

A Birthday Surprise.
Friday, June 11th being the 67th birthday of Allen Ramsey, of Van Wert, his son, Claude, planned a little surprise on him for that night. It was lodge night and the two men were already at the hall when a younger son, Lloyd, called them out with the news there was a sick horse out home. They hurried out, but when Mr. Ramsey came in for the lantern he found the room full of his brothers and sisters and their husbands and wives. At first he was too surprised to speak, but soon recovered enough to bid the visitors welcome. Ice cream and cake was served and all report an enjoyable evening. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Allen Ramsey, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Ramsey, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Edwards, Jr. and Mrs. Jim Smith, Claud Ramsey and family and Mr. and Mrs. Ben Barker and wife.

All accounts and past due notes must positively be paid at once. I need the money NOW and must have settlement immediately.
Biddison Implement Co.

For Rent—Several good farms. Want men with plenty of help, have one farm of 240 acres, with lots of good farm land. See me quick. C. M. Akers.

Eversharp Pencils

Are you tired of the old fashioned lead pencil that is never sharp and always needs sharpening?

The Ever Sharp is always ready for use. Contains enough led for months of use and can be refilled for a few cents.

Makes an ideal gift for anyone that writes.

$1.00 and up

Cherrington's

OF COURSE

IDLE HOUR THIS WEEK

Friday and Saturday, June 18 and 19—Constance Binney in—
"ERSTWHILE SUSAN"

A powerful appealing photo drama in six parts the picture with a moral, its big, it reaches heart and soul. A picture you won't forget. Every man, woman and child should see this picture. Also a two reel Comedy "She Loved a Sailor." A scream from start to finish.

Sunday and Monday, June 20 and 21—Special—
"VIRGIN OF STAMBOUL"

This is the story of a girl raised from the position of a beggar to take her place in the Sheik Harem and how her American lover rescued her and their escape to America. Arabians are noted for the finest horsemanship in the world, and there are real Arabians in this picture. If you miss this picture you will be sorry ever afterward. Also big V Comedy "Roavers and Lovers," a scream from start to finish.

Tuesday and Wednesday, June 22 and 23—Constance Talmadge in—
"A TEMPERAMENTAL WIFE"

I want a man who will love no one but me "and Billie." He must not speak to other women. He must be mine all the time, heart and soul, from tooth to toe nail, and one old maid who had been trying to land a man for twenty-six years, stuck her tongue against a false tooth, winked her left eye and said wisely "There ain't no such animal" but Billie thought there were. And did she find him? Come and see for yourself. Also Tuesday "The Silent Avenger" and Wednesday "The Lost City."

Thursday, June 24—Special
"MYSTERIOUS MR. BROWNING"

That's the title—sounds quite interesting doesn't it? and there are rescues, raids and fights, too, action galore and the sort of love interest that only Melber and Panzi can supply. Don't miss this wonderful picture. Also Christie Comedy "Kids and Kidlets."

Matinees Wednesday, Saturday, and Sunday 3:00 p. m. Night show 7:30 Saturday and Sunday 7:00—9:00—10:30.