—The necessity for a coliseum in Keokuk is growing and the agitation is also growing.

—We have many attractive ladies' pumps and oxfords at $2.50 and $3.50 per pair. Ludwig's, 1004 Main.

—There is, at least from the feminine class, quite an anxiety being manifest over the question of weather for next Sunday.

—Largest assortment of Easter candies fit for children to eat. At The Rose.

—California is advertising for eastern tourists the year round, presenting the advantages of a cool summer and a warm winter.

—Coffee demonstration Saturday. Fred DeYong.

—Patrons of the classified column are urged to send cash with their advertisements as this class of business is on a cash basis.

—Second Presbyterian market, Keokuk Electric Co., Saturday, 2 p. m., 8th and Main.

—The council has ordered $3 paid to W. B. Barney, state food inspector, for a license to operate the city coal weighing scales at 320 Bank street.

—Give us your order early for chocolate Easter eggs, at The Rose.

—Fort Madison expects to have its Perfection Tire plant in operation within the next two weeks. Keokuk's tire factory is now a going concern.

—The Moose beach, co-operating with a hot summer, ought to be an attractive place. Last year weather conditions retarded the activities and pleasures of this resort.

—Pucketchuck lodge No. 43 meets every Friday evening at 8:00 o'clock. C. W. Randall, N. G.; George W. Imme-gart, permanent secretary. Tonight work in the first degree.

—The Kahoka newspapers are urging Clark county, Mo., residents to join the corn clubs, baby pork clubs and canning clubs that are being promoted by the Keokuk Retailers' league.

—Regular meeting Keokuk council No. 538 tonight at 8 o'clock, Hawkes hall, 11th and Main. Visiting brethren fraternally invited to attend. C. E. Powell, regent; J. L. Annable, secretary.

—In an information filed in the superior court this morning, Mrs. Nancy Horn of 928 Des Moines street, charges that four bulldogs owned by J. W. Chambers of 916 Palean street, attacked a cow belonging to her.

—Free aluminum ware, coffee demonstration Saturday. Fred DeYong.

—Did you know that it snowed last night? Well, it did, according to the testimony of the firemen who were out late fighting a fire. They say that about 11 o'clock, flakes of snow fell. Of course, as everybody else in the city was in bed at that hour of the night, the story must stand on the firemen's word.

—Sigmund's vacuum cleaner does your house cleaning. Phone 383.

—The Y. W. C. A. will hold a special Easter service on Sunday morning at 7:00 o'clock. Miss Harriet Solomon will be the leader. On the program will be a violin duet by Misses Dorothy and Margaret Aldrich; a solo by Miss Amanda Clement and a vocal duet by Miss Ethel Irsborn and Miss Helen Whetstone.

—Curtis M. Hart filed his nomination papers yesterday for the office of county clerk. Mr. Hart will be a candidate on the democratic ticket at the primaries. Through an error in last night's Gate City, Mr. Hart was said to be a candidate for recorder. He is after the clerkship, the position which he held a couple of years ago.

—Christian church Easter apron sale and market Saturday, April 22.

—The Lenten season at the Evangelical church will close this evening with a preparatory service for holy communion on Easter Sunday. The service will open at 7:30. It will be conducted in English and will be largely liturgical. A meditation on scripture will take the place of the sermon. Friends and strangers are welcome.

—The volley ball team of the Quincy Business Men's class will journey to Keokuk April 29, to engage in the four team tournament there and are going with blood in their eyes, for they went to Hannibal last long ago and were defeated. Hannibal, Burlington, Keokuk and Quincy will compete in the meet.

—Speaking of the city council's order to bootleggers to get out, the Warsaw Bulletin makes the following caustic comment: If the Keokuk authorities are really in earnest (and there are people who doubt it very greatly) they can get a line on some of their bootleggers if they will send a spotter to Warsaw almost any day, or watch the home coming of chaps who get off the interurban laboring under the weight of well loaded grips or suit cases.

—The political announcement of C. M. Hart appears in this issue of The Gate City. Mr. Hart is a candidate for county clerk and not for county recorder as was incorrectly stated last evening. His selection as the candidate for this place is up to the voters of the county at the primary election to be held next June. Mr. Hart served in this capacity and gave good satisfaction. He is widely known over the county and his friends will work enthusiastically for his nomination.

FUNERAL NOTICE.

SMITH—The funeral for the late Samuel Smith will be held at 2:30 Saturday afternoon at Pilgrim Rest church. Friends invited.
