Watching the Score Board

Yesterday's homers-Beall, Cincinnati, off Hendrix, Cubs; Felsch, White Sox, off Covelski, Detroit; Luders, Philadelphia, off Stroud, Giants; Foster, Washington, off Keating, Yanks.

President Wilson and the Missus were rooters at the Yank-Senators game. The president and the first lady are regular fans. Wilson started the game with a toss of the ball, bought a score card and kept it up by the aid of Mrs. Wilson.

Some opener at the Cub park. The Cincinnati Reds tried hard to put a dampener on the first showing of Chicago's new club, but the Cub-Whale aggregation just had to make good with 18,000 fans looking on, even though they had to play eleven innings to do it.

"Happy" Felsch of the White Sox is the champion long distance swatter of the week. He has two four base drives to his credit this week. Batting average stock went up yesterday. Total of hits made were 142 in seven games, averaging a little over fifteen hits to a game.

Backstop Fischer of the Cubs, led with three singles and a double. White Sox-Detroit game was a heart breaker. After the pale horse had the game nicely tucked away up to the ninth, Detroit turned and smashed out two runs, winning the game.

The Braves also opened their local season with a win, while the Red Sox were taking Connie Mack's White Elephants into camp at Philadelphia. The Giants and Phillies battled to twelve innings, Pat Moran's gang ending the session when Faskert doubled and scored on Cravath's single.

Jimmy Callahan, Pittsburgh pilot, got mouthy with an umpire yesterday because he didn't like the way the indicator was making decisions so Jimmy was just naturally benched.

Was Runaway Affair. CHICAGO, April 21.-August Kieckhefer's win over Charles Otis, of Brooklyn, N. Y., in an interstate three cushion league game here last night was a runaway affair, Kieckhefer, winning 50 to 27.

Baseball Reminiscence

To the Editor of The Gate City: The files of the Warsaw Bulletin preserve for the hall of fame the names of those participating in the baseball game at Keokuk on Aug. 14, 1867, and editorially referred to in The Gate City of last Saturday. From the Bulletin of August 16, 1867, the following account of the game is taken:

The Mutual Baseball club of Warsaw took a trip to Keokuk on Wednesday last, to play a friendly game with the Gate City club of Keokuk. Arriving there they were met by the latter club and escorted to their grounds on the corner of Sixteenth and High streets. The following is the score:

Umpire, F. F. Cook of Galesburg club. Scorers, Fay S. Worthen for Mutuals and John N. Irwin for Gate City.

The game lasted three hours and grew more and more interesting until its close. Good feeling predominated. Not a harsh word was uttered, and everything passed off pleasantly and to the entire satisfaction of both the players and the spectators.

After the game was over the clubs entered omnibuses and were driven to the Deming House, and after supper the visitors were shown around the city.

On Thursday, August 22, a return game was played at Warsaw when the Mutuals won by a score of 60 to 55. The only change in the Gate City line up was Knowles pitcher, instead of Lewis. Elder pitched for the Mutuals, Dodge going to center field instead of Hilker, while Hill played second and Prentiss went to third, and Reynolds went to right field, instead of Andrews. After the game the Edwards house where an elaborate supper was served them. Of the thirteen men representing the Mutuals in the two games, but one is still residing in Warsaw, James B. Dodge, president of the Hill-Dodge banking company. Only two others are living, Morris Baker

Yale Pitcher to Giants

NEW YORK, April 21.-Pie Way, for two years pitcher of the Yale varsity, is slated to join the New York Giants in June, just after his graduation. He is not pitching for Yale this year because of condition in his studies. Way has shown big league calibre in exhibition games against both the Giants and Yanks.

SPEND MILLIONS TO PUT SOLDIERS ON FARMS

J. S. DENNIS, ASSISTANT TO LORD SHAUGHNESSY

The providing of employment for returned soldiers is a question that is demanding much attention, and it has been with great satisfaction that Canadians learned that the Canadian Pacific railway is to take action in this regard.

J. S. Dennis, assistant to the president of the Canadian Pacific, makes this statement: "The decision of Lord Shaughnessy to provide farm homes for returned soldiers is a further proof of his willingness to devote his great energy and ability, and the resources of the company, to the solution of the problems facing Canada."

"The task of preparing 1,000 farms involves building 1,000 houses and 1,000 barns, constructing 1,200 miles of fence, digging 1,000 wells, breaking and cultivating 50,000 acres. The buildings will require 20,000,000 feet of lumber; preparation of the farms will entail an expenditure of $3,500,000."

"One thousand farms will provide for an extremely small proportion of returned soldiers, and the government must adopt some general policy of providing these homes."

An Immense Project. "The enlistment of 250,000 additional men called for by the government will double the number to be taken care of after the war. The western provinces have responded nobly to the call of the empire and already there is a shortage of labor of all kinds. In the effort to meet this shortage, the government is now advertising in 4,000 papers in the United States for 50,000 laborers."

HANCOCK COUNTY CORONER DEAD

Dr. John A. Barr Expires at His Home at Fountain Green, Thursday Morning, April 20.

A RESIDENT 30 YEARS

Had Held Office for Eight Years and Enjoyed a Large Medical Practice-Survived by Widow.

[From the Quincy Whig.]

CARTHAGE, April 21.-Dr. John A. Barr, coroner of Hancock county, passed away at his home in Fountain Green at 8:30 o'clock Thursday morning, aged over 70 years.

Dr. Barr was born in Kentucky, and located in Fountain Green some thirty years ago, having formerly resided in the Burnside vicinity, and during all these years has been actively engaged in the practice of medicine. He was well known throughout Hancock county and has enjoyed an exceptionally large practice in the community where he resided, often being called to various parts of the county to consult with other doctors on serious cases of illness. Dr. Barr was very liberal with his patients in his charges, taking into consideration the fact as to whether or not they were financially able to bear the expense of a long sickness and many times has he waited upon patients from whom he did not receive one cent, knowing well at the time he made the calls that he would receive no compensation. He was just as faithful to these cases as to others. He was kind and courteous to all with whom he came in contact, and having been Hancock county's coroner for eight years, was brought in touch with the people throughout the entire county.

Dr. Barr's death is not a great surprise to his friends, as he had been in a serious condition for some time, having had pneumonia more than a year ago, since which time a tubercular trouble developed, baffling all medical skill.

He leaves his widow surviving. Their only son, Tressler, a lad of some twenty years, passed away ten years ago, after his graduation from Carthage college, when he and a college chum had started west for the summer. Upon reaching Salt Lake City, he was taken suddenly and seriously ill, and before his parents could reach his bedside, had passed away. No arrangements have as yet been made for the funeral services. Interment will be in Moss Ridge cemetery, Carthage.

Shortage of Labor

"The recognition of this shortage and the efforts of the government to meet the situation by bringing men from the United States is a contradiction of the statement at a meeting in Montreal a short time ago by Gen. Sir Sam Hughes, minister of militia, that the enlistment in the west was not causing any shortage of labor. "Every true Canadian realizes that Canada must ultimately send her last man and spend her last dollar to enable the empire and her allies to bring the way to a victorious termination, but why enlist men before they can be used? "It is now recognized that under the most favorable circumstances it will be the end of the year before all the men now enlisted can be transported across the Atlantic, and after that only 10,000 men a month can be sent. Many of the battalions now authorized are much below full strength, and it will be months before they will enlist their full quota. Why then go on authorizing additional battalions and removing men from useful employment in helping feed the empire or supply it with munitions. "Of the men already enlisted, western Canada has provided more than its share on the basis of population. We are proud of that fact, but why drive a willing horse off its feet?"

SAYS HOT WATER EACH DAY KEEPS THE DOCTOR AWAY

Drink glass of hot water before breakfast to wash out the poisons.

Life is not merely to live, but to live well, eat well, digest well, work well, sleep well, look well. What a glorious condition to attain, and yet how very easy it is if one will only adopt the morning inside bath.

Folks who are accustomed to feeling dull and heavy when they arise, splitting headache, stuffy from a cold, foul tongue, nasty breath, acid stomach, can, instead, feel as fresh as a daisy by opening the sluices of the system each morning and flushing out the whole of the internal poisonous stagnant matter.

Everyone, whether ailing, sick or well, should, each morning, before breakfast, drink a glass of red hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it to wash from the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels the previous day's indigestible waste, cleansing, sweetening and purifying the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach. The action of hot water and limestone phosphate on an empty stomach is wonderfully invigorating. It cleans out all the four fermentations, gases, waste and acidity and gives one a splendid appetite for breakfast. While you are enjoying your breakfast, the water and phosphate is quietly extracting a large volume of water from the blood and getting ready for a thorough flushing of all the inside organs.

The millions of people who are bothered with constipation, bilious spells, stomach trouble, rheumatism; others who have shallow skins, blood disorders and sickly complexions are urged to get a quarter pound of limestone phosphate from the drug store which will cost very little, but is sufficient to make anyone a pronounced crank on the subject of internal sanitation.
