Quincy Herald: The annual river outing of Gem City lodge, Loyal Order of Moose, given on the steamer G. W. Hill Sunday, was a big success. The excursion went to Keokuk. The boat started from Hannibal at 8:30 o'clock, left Quincy at 10:30, reached Keokuk about 4:30 o'clock and after a lay-over of nearly two hours there, came back, reaching Quincy about 10 o'clock. The Hill was due at Hannibal at 11:30 o'clock, but was at least an hour late because of the storm, the boat going to the bank near the old Marion City landing, where it was tied up until after the storm had passed. Regular meeting, Loyal Order of Moose, Keokuk lodge No. 704, tonight at 8 o'clock, in Moose hall. Visiting brothers cordially invited. John G. Stadler, dictator. A. E. Moore, secretary. A violation of the flag law at Fort Madison is reported in the Democrat: W. E. Kleppisch, manager of the Grand opera house, was suffered the indignity of an arrest Sunday night for having among his other decorations for the famous picture, "The Battle Cry of Peace," the American flag reproduced in color on the sidewalk in front of the theatre. Complaint was made to the county attorney because the flag was being literally trampled under foot and the patriotism of local citizens was invoked but such was none less than that of Mr. Kleppisch when the slight to the flag was pointed out to him he was most willing to wield a mop to obliterate the replica of "Old Glory" from the walk. Such is said to be in contradiction of federal law.

MANY ATTENDING MEETING AT TENT

"Under the Law" Was Discussed Last Evening and Evidence Was Cited. [Communicated.] A goodly number gathered at the tent last evening. The subject for the evening was "Are we under the ten commandment law or under grace?" This question was answered to the entire satisfaction of all present. There is only one answer to it. It is too simple to have a question made of it. The sinner or the transgressor of God's law is under the law. The law condemns him and by the law he knows he is a sinner. Therefore he is under the law. The only way we can place ourselves from under the law is to keep it. The plain illustration of the laws of the land was used to show that we go under the law when we break it, but spect.
