ENRICH THE BLOOD

Hood's Sarsaparilla, a Spring Tonic-Medicine, is Necessary.

Everybody is troubled at this season with loss of vitality, failure of appetite, that tired feeling, or with bilious turns, dull headaches, indigestion and other stomach troubles...

Responded with grateful acknowledgment. E. M. Majors, the retiring president of the organization...

The Westminster Brotherhood, as Rev. Newcomb remarked, has been in active existence for almost twenty years now and has outlived every similar organization in the city...

STORY OF THE WAYWARD CLOCK

Up until a short time ago, there hung on the south wall of the city council chamber a clock. For over a year that clock pointed to two o'clock, and the hands never went a minute beyond that mark...

When the new administration went into the council hall, renewed efforts were made to get the clock started. All sorts of ruses were resorted to, but that clock would positively not go.

One day Fire Chief Anderson was in the council room. He spied the timepiece and said that it would be a good thing if one was put up in the station.

"For goodness sakes, take that one," said Mayor Lofton. "If you can get it to run you will have all the clock fixers in town, amateur and professional, beaten to a frazzle."

In a few minutes the clock was at the fire station and a few minutes later was on the wall, running and making more noise than a hen that had just laid an egg.

The clock was at the city hall, due to some mysterious reason, the minute hand had grown slightly, probably because of the quantity of oil in which the timepiece had been bathed, and the point of the hand had caught on a small obstruction near the two o'clock point.

JOINT PROGRAM WAS INTERESTING

Many Turn Out Last Night for Open House Physical Exhibition of the Two Associations.

WERE MANY FEATURES

Business Girls Under Miss Amanda Clement and Business Men Under H. T. Orsborn, Put on Performance.

Extra chairs had to be carried into the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium to accommodate the crowd that was present last night at the open house entertainment and physical exhibition given jointly by teams from the Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A. Those who took part were the business girls, under the direction of Miss Amanda Clement and the business men, seniors and juniors, under the direction of H. T. Orsborn.

The audience displayed a great deal of interest in the exhibition, the program proving to be one of special worth. The junior castles drill began at 8:00 o'clock and proved interesting. This was followed by several stunts by the business girls. There was marching, arm, leg and trunk drills, and dances, including the board walk, hop mother and the "ace of diamonds."

A demonstration of a game of handball was given by H. T. Orsborn and Albert Gebhart and the senior team composed of Messrs. Hall, Schmidt, Peterson and Orsborn went through the parallel bar exercises.

The business girls then took the gymnasium again and demonstrated aesthetic arm exercises, aesthetic dances, Indian club drill, Irish jigs and waltzes.

In the volleyball game between the first and second business men's team, which followed, the first team won by taking two games out of three. The winners opened up with the initial victory, lost the second game and won the third. In the girls' basketball game the Red team won from the Green team 11 to 9, after a hard game.

The program ended with a diving and swimming exhibition in the Y. M. C. A. natatorium.

Purity Gives Power. There are still many persons in the world that need to be impressed with the fact that the purer the blood is the greater is the power of the system to remove disease and the less the liability to contract it.

Persons whose blood is in good condition are much less likely to take cold or to be long troubled with it, or to catch any contagious or infectious disease, than are those whose blood is impure and therefore impoverished and lacking in vitality.

The best medicine for purifying the blood is Hood's Sarsaparilla, and persons suffering from any blood disease or any want of tone in the system are urged to give this medicine a trial. It is especially useful at this time of year.—Advertisement.

The Nauvoo Gate City

Nauvoo, Ill., May 13, 1916

Mr. Frank Kunzelman of Chicago, who came to Nauvoo a short time ago for the benefit of his health, was suddenly stricken by death as he was entering the postoffice, and drug store occupied by A. J. Beger, his brother-in-law, Friday afternoon at about 2:30 o'clock. The physicians of the windy city diagnosed his ailment as a severe case of tuberculosis and advised him to go to some country place and secure fresh air. He selected Nauvoo, his boyhood home, where he was born and raised. He was sitting on the porch in front of the hotel a short time before he decided to go to the postoffice building and when he arrived there and just entered the place, he staggered and was caught by Mr. Beger and assisted to a chair, when he suddenly expired without uttering a word to those who were in the building. A doctor was near by and he pronounced him dead. He was taken to the undertaking rooms to await word from his children in Chicago. Mr. Kunzelman was about fifty-seven years of age, was born in Nauvoo and was engaged for a good many years in one of our largest mercantile stores, after which he went to Chicago and was with the Marshall Field stores until sickness relieved him from his duties. He married Miss Sophia Beger of Nauvoo, and two children were the fruits of the union. The two sons who are grown young men, were notified of their father's sudden death. The body may be interred in Nauvoo beside that of his wife who died several years ago. Mr. Kunzelman was a splendid man and his death was a shock to many of his old friends in Nauvoo. A school picnic was held in Nauvoo Thursday afternoon in one of the shady spots about the city. Ed Simmons who is organizing a musical entertainment has received enough talent to make the venture a sure go and the black-face artists will appear before the Nauvoo public in a short time. A rehearsal will be called soon for the first workout.

In some places where considerable fruit is grown and shipped to market the shippers protect themselves by sending along men to market their produce themselves. They get more for their fruit and the consumer pays less. You hear more of tired business men and see less of them more than anything else under the sun, unless it is ghosts and ground hogs. A Cedar Rapids, Iowa, oil wagon was in Nauvoo Thursday. It was sent from Ft. Madison to this city to fill the large gasoline tank at Joe Ochsner's garage. A few of our people consider horse-radish as a living cost reducer, but it is a delusion and a snare. Horse-radish merely stimulates the appetite. Nauvoo's religious denominations should remember that it is not so much a question whether the men will attend their meetings in any numbers as whether they can. More and more every day now one can see Iowa automobiles strewn along the streets in our business section where Nauvoo's "irrigating" plants are situated. Mr. Cecil J. Baxter has written and had printed a pamphlet in defense of sobriety and the welfare of the city of Nauvoo and presents some excellent suggestions to the human mind and gives much food for thought to all who perused it and many secured and read the book with much interest. Something like it should have been placed before Nauvoo voters before the local option election which no doubt would have caused the "wet" vote to be much larger. The mother of Chas. Falg is expected to arrive in Nauvoo today from St. Louis for a visit. According to reports a fourth saloon is about to be launched in Nauvoo soon and our people will be surprised to learn who the parties are who are so brave and heroic to undertake this task after reading Nauvoo's mayor's printed message announcing his determination to invoke the law to the letter, governing the conduct of liquor entertainment houses. It is announced that the latest advance in therapeutics is the cure of the disease by hitting the patient on the back with a tack hammer. It has long been held that a brick rod similarly applied is good for the morals.

Nauvoo will soon be bragging about its balmy spring weather that as signs of frost have some a bumper fruit crop—prospects bids fairly to out-bump all others on record. School days in Nauvoo are now nearing an end, and Nauvoo's boy hustlers will be busy looking for jobs that will keep them employed during vacation days. To ease the situation, a place should be selected as headquarters for a sort of clearing house where prospective employers and prospective employes may meet and go over the fine points like they do in intelligence offices in cities. A boy looking for work and of the genius that does his loafing around a place selected should not have much trouble in finding a job. It would be a fine thing if Nauvoo would establish a bathing beach along the shore of Lake Cooper. County option for Illinois with Cook county eliminated from the provisions of the act may come up before the legislature next winter. If county option becomes a law in this state, it will mean goodbye saloons in Nauvoo and Warsaw. The funeral of Mrs. Susan Baughman of Nauvoo, occurred from the late residence to the Presbyterian church Thursday afternoon, Rev. Morgan of the Appanosee church officiating. Remains interred in the Nauvoo city cemetery. Her sons from California were unable to attend.

From some of her utterances regarding working hours for wives, a Nauvoo woman has given up all idea of getting married. She has never been asked to change her name and she is thirty-five years of age. The stork has again visited Nauvoo after an absence of several weeks. This popular bird arrived at the home of Professor and Mrs. O. Drake and left a bouncing boy baby last Wednesday morning and the professor was so highly elated that he was unable to teach school during the entire day. Mother and son doing splendidly and para teaching as usual. Several of the prettiest girls living in the rural districts on the Nauvoo-Niota road intend to hitch up the old gray horse to a road drag and drive the outfit along the worst thoroughfare while the men look on with mouths agape. In a few days if this is done the lesson may "take" and men will be seen out with teams dragging the roads. The girls may have to do it in order to wake up the men. It seems impossible for one to do his duty and keep off everybody's toes.

Hamilton Gate City

Hamilton, Ill., May 13

Finding the management of The Gate City is inclined to be very liberal in the treatment of the articles their correspondent sends them for the Hamilton Gate City, it has awakened an ambition in the writer to send in something which may be of value more than the mere record of local happenings. Still, it is not our purpose to neglect even those, and we shall be under obligations to those who are aware of any local incidents, if they will hand them in to us. One thing has impressed us lately so much we wish to call attention to it. A farmer has been driving through here with loads of corn for the Keokuk market. No doubt he got a good price for it. The man is on a rented farm. But in spite of the fact that a good price was paid for the corn, we wonder what this corn cost the landlord who usually does not think he is interested after his rent price is paid or secured for the land. But is this so? We think not. We feel safe in saying that as rents go, the owner of the land is losing from the value of his farm at least one-half the value of every bushel of corn which, as corn, is sold from. We say, which as corn, is sold from the place. Of course if the corn is fed on the farm and the stock sold, all the waste from the cattle, hogs, etc., carefully returned to the land; that is quite another matter. We knew years ago an old German who took a weed-grown, run down farm which no one else cared to have at any price, and by selling nothing but live stock, by going to his neighbors and cleaning up their feed yards for nothing except the manure, which they were fools enough to give him for taking it away, in the course of a few years made his place worth acre for acre as much as any farm in the county. There are just so many pounds of fertilizer in every ton of soil. Take those all or nearly all out and you may expect very light returns from anything planted in such soil. But if we had a farm even though it was rich as the valley of the Nile, we should insist that for every fifty bushels of corn sold there should be returned to the land at least two good two-horse loads of rotted manure and three or four such loads would be better. Take the Red river valley in North Dakota. Thirty to forty years ago, thirty-five to forty bushels of wheat per acre was common. It now runs from ten to twenty. Why? Because they took all out there was in the soil and put nothing back. They even grinded the poor land the benefit of the straw. It was easier to burn it. We see some so-called farmers in Illinois committing the same sort of suicidal act today with their corn stalks, raking and burning. If the lands of Illinois are to be kept worth farming, the time will come, and soon, when those corn stalks will be gathered and stored in piles where they may be covered with other refuse and finally rotted into fertilizers and returned to the ground. Too much work? If you by so doing, are growing bigger crops all the time and making more money, where is your kick? A banker could as well expect to be able to keep his bank running very long if he continually draw on his capital stock and took in no deposits, as the farmer who draws from his farm and returns nothing to it. Rev. H. L. Scherer is now established in the work at Bethel. He and W. E. Hall went to Knoxville, Iowa, the first of the week, where they attended the wedding of one of their classmates. Warren E. Hall left Friday for Battle Creek, Mich., where he will work during the summer as assistant in the First Presbyterian church.
