KEYNOTE SPEECH BY MR. HUGHES

him to give the country a sample of the sort of campaigning that made him famous in the gubernatorial race. Mr. Hughes assailed the administration for the course it has pursued with reference to Mexico, maintenance of American rights during the European war, preparedness, and other great questions of the day.

He declared for a new policy of "firmness and consistency" toward Mexico, "for the unflinching maintenance of all American rights on land and sea," and for "adequate national defense; adequate protection on both our western and eastern coasts."

Must Suppress Plots. "We denounce all plots and conspiracies in the interest of any foreign nation," Mr. Hughes said, "utterly intolerable is the use of our soil for alien intrigues. Every American must unreservedly condemn them and support every effort for their suppression."

The nominee assailed the administration for its "direction of diplomatic intercourse" from the beginning, declaring that where there should have been complete strength and expertness, there had been weakness and inexperience.

He cited San Domingo as an instance where appointments had gone to "deserving democrats" and to the failure to continue Ambassador Herick in his post in Paris after the war had started as "a lamentable sacrifice of international impulse."

"I endorse the declaration in the platform in favor of woman suffrage," Mr. Hughes declared. And he added: "Opposition may delay, but in my judgment, cannot defeat this movement. I favor the vote for women."

Reviews Mexican Fiasco. One-fourth of the speech was devoted to Mexico. Step after step taken by the administration with reference to Mexico was assailed, from the days of Huerta to the note sent the de facto government by the state department June 20, last, part of which was quoted in the speech.

The seizure of Vera Cruz, the nominee said, "was war, of course." "Later we retired from Vera Cruz," he continued, "giving up this noble warfare. Recently the naked truth was admitted by a cabinet officer. We are now informed that we did not go to Vera Cruz to force Huerta to salute the flag. We are told that we went there to 'show Mexico that we were in earnest in our demand that Huerta must go.'"

Wants Peace in Mexico. America, Mr. Hughes continued, had no policy of aggression toward Mexico, no desire for any part of her territory, but wished her to have peace, stability and prosperity.

"The conduct of the administration has defeated difficulties we shall have to surmount," he said. "We demand from Mexico the protection of the lives and property of our citizens and the security of our border from disturbances."

Securing American rights abroad had not been accomplished, Mr. Hughes said, by the administration. There had been "brave words in a series of notes," but "what does it avail to use some of the strongest words known to diplomacy if ambassadors can receive the impression that the words are not to be taken seriously?"

The nominee reiterated his declaration that had this government left no doubt that it meant to hold Germany to "strict accountability," there would have been no loss of life on the Lusitania.

"Shockingly Unprepared." Mr. Hughes said it was apparent that the United States was "shockingly unprepared."

"The administration has failed to discharge its responsibilities," Mr. Hughes continued. "Apparently it is now seeking to meet political exigencies by its naval program. But it has imposed on the country an incompetent naval administration."

"We demand adequate protection on both our western and eastern coasts. We demand thoroughness and efficiency in both arms of the service. It seems to be plain that our regular army is too small. We are too great a country to require of our citizens who are engaged in peaceful vocations, the sort of military service to which they are now called."

Living in Fool's Paradise. On the present prosperity, Mr. Hughes said, "we are living in a fool's paradise." It is, he said, a prosperity brought about by the abnormal conditions of war. For the protection of the industries and workmen of the United States, against the competition of "an energized Europe," Mr. Hughes said it was plain that we must have protective, upbuilding policies. Other measures, too, should be applied, he said, notably the upbuilding of a merchant marine.

Mr. Hughes also declared for the "conservation of the just interests of labor," for conservation of national resources, and for a national budget.

Mr. Hughes closed with an endorsement of the republican platform adopted by the national convention and a formal acceptance of the nomination.

Editorial Comment. Following is a synopsis of editorial comment on the acceptance speech of Judge Hughes in New York City last night.

New York Tribune: One clear note runs through the whole of Mr. Hughes' speech. It is a challenge of incapacity, an indictment of failure. It is rightly an indictment of Mr. Wilson's scattered point of view. But it would be idle to pretend that portion of the address which deals with the Lusitania massacre, is satisfactory to the Tribune.

New York Times: Little that is new appears in the speech. It will be remembered he wishes to make the Mexican question the burning issue so that citizens accused of hyphenation may have an opportunity to show their patriotism.

New York World: Mr. Hughes' speech of acceptance is a public confession of a candidate who is without an issue and without a policy. His policy is to be one of firmness. But what form is the firmness to take? War? Intervention?

where along the eastern front, have pressed the Germans and Austrians hard, according to today's war office statement.

Heavy counter attacks from Kovel and Luzk were repulsed after the Russians had attacked in the region of Tehekuv and Dubeenka. Crossing the Dniester toward Koropets was accomplished despite destruction of bridges by retreating Germans, the czar's troops wading across, reaching the west bank of the swollen stream and taking 1,000 of the enemy prisoners.

The German line was again bent backward in the bend of the Stokhod in the region of Velicki and Kuchary.

WILL BE CLOSEST TO BORDER LINE

First Regiment of Iowa, including Co. L, Nearer Mexico Than Any Other Regiment.

ONLY 100 YARDS AWAY

Captain Clarence E. Powell Detailed as Recruiting Officer for the Iowa National Guard.

The First Regiment of Iowa, which includes Company L of Keokuk, is nearer the Mexican border than any other regiment, according to the following from Brownsville, Texas:

Three hundred Mexicans have been employed for a week clearing the forest where the First regiment will have the honor of being farthest south and closest to the border of any of the militia regiments. The regulars at Fort Brown are the nearest, being only a block from the river. The First is not much farther away.

According to a dispatch from Des Moines the militia yesterday abandoned Camp Dodge for assembling troops recruited for the national guard organizations for Mexican service.

In the future the station will be at Fort Des Moines. The order was received yesterday by Col. George Morgan, U. S. A., and Adj. Gen. Guy E. Logan.

Preparations are being made at the fort to receive the force. Charles C. Reynolds, in charge of Fort Des Moines, has been promoted from second to first lieutenant with instructions to report to the Fifth field artillery. Maj. D. H. Clark, retired, has been placed in charge.

Of the sixty married men at Camp Dodge waiting orders to return home the privates have been discharged and returned to their homes. The discharge for the noncommissioned officers must come from Washington.

Adj. Gen. Guy E. Logan today was ordered to proceed with recruiting. Capt. Clarence E. Powell of Keokuk has been detailed as a recruiting officer.

The recruiting officers will enlist to war strength. It is estimated 1,500 can be accepted.

CHASING MEXICANS INSTEAD OF BEING IN TENNIS MATCH

A familiar figure will be missing this season when the Illinois-Iowa and Missouri Tennis association tournament starts at Burlington. Ralph B. Joy of this city, who has been secretary of the association, one of its organizers and one of its best players will not be in the list of entrants. Mr. Joy is on the border with the Keokuk troops, and his place will be hard to fill in the tennis court.

The Hawk-Eye of Sunday carried a picture of the Keokuk man together with pictures of Musselman of Quincy and several other players and officers.

PLAN FOR HEALTH SURVEY OF COUNTY

Visiting Nurse Association Board This Morning Takes up Matter of Tubercular Patients' Summary.

HEAR SANITARY REPORT

Permanent Committee is Named Which Will Endeavor to Secure Some Real Results From This Survey.

The board of directors of the Visiting Nurse association met this morning in regular monthly session. A report of the recent tour of inspection of local sanitary conditions was made by Mrs. Rich, the detailed report of which appeared in Friday's issue of The Gate City. It was reported that Mayor Ed. S. Lofton had said that the city could aid in promoting sanitation by ordering that the number of families living in houses could be limited, and that certain houses could be condemned and declared uninhabitable. A permanent sanitary committee was appointed. Mrs. W. N. Sage, Mrs. D. A. Collier and Miss Laura Alton, the latter being the board's representative in the Baby Welfare league.

Miss Younker read a letter from Mrs. Joseph J. Casey, promising the co-operation of the King's Daughters of Ft. Madison in carrying out the plan for a tubercular survey of Leo county to be made by a demonstrating nurse to be sent by the State Anti-Tuberculosis association. The president of the V. N. A. will appoint a committee of three from the board of directors and the industrial association will be asked to appoint three men to serve on the committee.

This committee with a committee of six from Ft. Madison will pass on the findings of the survey and decide what action shall be taken. The names of the committee will be announced later.

The Nurse's Report.

Miss Alexander made the nurse's report as follows: District nursing service—Number of nursing visits made...114 Number of instructive visits made...42 Number of friendly visits made...6 Number of extra visits made...6

Total in district...168 One patient died, one was dismissed as cured and six dismissed as improved.

In the baby welfare department—Prenatal visits made...3 Feeding visits made...3 Prophylactic visits made...68

Total...74 There are no sick babies, except one, who fell and injured his knee which became infected.

Metropolitan visits made...49 Miss Brown is absent from the city on her vacation and will not return until September 1. Mrs. C. M. Rich presided at the meeting. Miss Mary Irwin was secretary and Miss Elsie Buck made the treasurer's report.

Weather Forecast. For Keokuk and vicinity: Partly cloudy tonight and Wednesday; warmer Wednesday.

For Iowa: Unsettled this afternoon; partly cloudy tonight and Wednesday; slightly warmer east portion tonight. Warmer Wednesday.

For Missouri: Partly cloudy tonight; Wednesday generally fair; slightly warmer north portion.

Weather Conditions. The crest of the northern field of high pressure, which caused cooler weather in the central valleys and eastern states, is passing through the Lake Superior region this morning.

Rainfall has been confined to scattered local showers or thunderstorms between the northern plains states and the Upper Mississippi valley, and a heavy thunderstorm was in progress at Omaha this morning. The temperature is rising slowly, with generally fair weather in the plains states.

READY TO REPLY TO HUGHES' SPEECH

President Wilson Anticipated What the Republican Candidate Would Say.

WASHINGTON, August 1.—President Wilson had Charles Evans Hughes' speech of acceptance for breakfast this morning. He had plenty of time thoroughly to digest it—the speech—before the cabinet meeting, when that body convened, they all went to it.

The speech followed lines anticipated by the president and his advisers, it was declared. So certain were administration leaders that Hughes would say what he did—so they said today—that the president has been preparing his own speech of acceptance for several weeks and it is now partially completed with only a few changes necessary.

It is understood his reply will be largely constructive, dividing itself into two major parts: Development of a declaration that the republican party is a "trailing center" with a platform of policies, some of which it failed to handle when in power and many of which the democrats have put into laws during recent months.

Enunciation of a constructive business policy for the future, showing what has been done and what will be done through industrial preparedness to meet the economic upheavals after the war.

The president's address will not be as long as that delivered by Hughes. It will include a defense of the administration's diplomatic course in Mexico and toward European nations. It will point at length to prosperity and peace.

There is now no intention on the part of the president to reply to Hughes' address previous to his speech of acceptance at Long Branch.
