ATTEND CHAUTAUQUA

Leaguers Will be Present at the Opening Session of the Montrose Entertainment.

The Keokuk Retailers league will go to Montrose on Thursday evening August 10 for their monthly meeting. They will be served supper by the Ladies Aid society of the Methodist church and after supper the Keokuk merchants will attend the opening session of the Montrose chautauqua. If the weather permits, supper will be served in the school yard.

The Retailers were planning to have the Montrose society serve supper at Bluff Park, either in the dance hall or in some convenient place. There was a complaint raised against this scheme by the man who has the dining room concessions at Bluff Park and the society was unable to make any agreement on this score.

AIR BUBBLE MURDER CASE

One Night in the Life of Dead Girl, Has Not Been Accounted For.

OLNEY, Ill., Aug. 6.—One night in the life of Elizabeth Ratcliffe, "air bubble" murder victim, just one week before her death on a lonely country road near this city, has not been accounted for.

According to Mrs. Bert Fancher, sister of the tragedy victim, Elizabeth spent, at least the evening of that night in the company of Roy Hinterliter, held in the county jail here awaiting action of the grand jury on a charge of murder.

Mrs. Fancher declared Hinterliter took the girl on the evening later she returned saying it was "all off" between her and Hinterliter and that she would spend the evening with a chum, Miss Carrie Cole. Miss Cole declares she saw nothing of Elizabeth on that night. Elizabeth returned home, Mrs. Fancher says, at five a. m. the next morning, dusty and evidently not having slept.

The information given caused the authorities to place considerable credence in the rumor from Charleston, Illinois, that the couple visited there several days before the tragedy. The rumor declares Hinterliter attempted to hire a physician there to perform an operation upon the girl.

Realizing that verification of the rumor would go a long way toward showing Hinterliter contemplated an operation, such as is alleged to have caused the girl's death, State's Attorney Morris is leaving no stone unturned to run it down.

It would have been possible, the state points out, for the couple to take an evening train to Mattoon and thence to Olney by interurban, returning to Olney by automobile.

RIOTING BEGINS IN THE CITY

boys, men and even little girls, poured out of close-bull tenements and swarmed to the streets and tracks. The crowds carried chairs, stools, buckets and all kinds of portable furniture. At times it was necessary for cars to stop thirty minutes before police reserves could pass and shove a passage through the mob.

Police arrangements have been completed, with flying strike squads as the important unit of the force. Police Commissioner Woods said today he anticipated no necessity for calling on Governor Whitman for troops.

Big firms whose employees are multitudinous were using automobiles today to transport their workers. The subways and elevated roads, the only ones continuing regular schedules in New York, were jammed and packed almost beyond human belief during the morning rush hour.

Preparing for Strike. PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Aug. 5.—Officials of the Philadelphia Rapid Transit company were today given thirty hours in which to grant higher pay and recognition of the union or assume responsibility for a strike on all lines.

Seamen Want Concessions. CLEVELAND, Ohio, Aug. 5.—Officials representing unions of 10,000 lake seamen and firemen in every port on the great lakes met here today to decide how to carry out demands made on employers.

Methods were discussed to force lake carriers to grant better working conditions and obey the new federal seamen's act which the unions say is disregarded. A referendum vote of the seamen and firemen has authorized the officials to act and in the event of a strike all lake traffic would be paralyzed.

While lake employers granted a $10 a month increase in wages this week, union officials declare their main issue now is better working conditions and abolition of the blacklist.

Strikers Hurl Bricks. LASALLE, Ill., Aug. 5.—Despite serious rioting here last night following the departure of state troops, sent here to keep order during the cement workers' strike, city officials today declared no attempt would be made to have the militia recalled.

"We can handle the situation," one official said. The rioting broke out early last night when half a dozen special deputies at the Oglesby plant started for town. They were met by strikers who hurled bricks at them. As the deputies fled, shots were exchanged and two deputies, James P. Kelly and Fred Burkhardt, both of Chicago, were hit. The injuries were not serious.

When Mayor Morrison of Oglesby attempted to interfere, the strikers forced him to flee, stoning him all the way to his home. Plans for a huge parade here Sunday, August 13, were being made today by the cement workers. All unions in this county have been invited to participate. John H. Walker, president of the state federation, will speak.

in the industrial cities of the nation," he asserted. "The fact that southern republicans of the democratic party is individualistic in its thinking, sectional in its sympathies and inherits a tradition against common labor as servile. The democratic primary voter mass control in the industrial cities is the most heterogeneous of our national groups and the excessive pressure of living and industrial competition renders it the most fertile field for boss control in the service of selfish personal and corporate interests.

"The primary voter mass control of the republican party is in the rural communities of the central, western and New England states. This group represents the highest literacy in America." Robins cited republican achievements in New Hampshire, California, Wisconsin and Pennsylvania "broke boss control." He denounced the present Illinois democracy as being "more completely under control of a corporation boss who represents the worst in our political system, than at any time in twenty years."

Blind Esquimo Girl. PORTLAND, Ore., Aug. 5.—New York's surgeons will endeavor to restore the sight of a seven year old Esquimo girl who arrived in Portland in charge of Mrs. Call. Mrs. Call says the Esquimos left the girl in an ice hut, hoping she would die. She has been totally blind for five years. The trouble is diagnosed as an eruption of the cornea. In New York the cornea of a rabbit was grafted upon one effected eye and a cataract removed from the other.

Mrs. Call declares many little girls of the Esquimos are bitten by savage dogs and then left to die.

Restrained by Pride. Atchison Globe: It is possible that many of the henpecked men attain that status because they are too proud to fight a woman.

MAN WAS SHOT BY A WOMAN

Police Hold Five of Them to Pick Out Which One Was Guilty.

CHICAGO, Aug. 5.—Five women were held by police here today in connection with the mysterious shooting of Russell Bovee, found lying in the water off the shore of a wooded island in Jackson park last night with a bullet wound over the heart. Police say jealousy was the motive for the shooting. Bovee's condition is serious. The bullet tore a large hole in his left breast.

The shooting occurred shortly before midnight. Two park employees were startled by the sound of two shots and a woman's scream. Rowing in close, they made out the form of a man lying in the water. They carried the victim to a boat and, as they were about to row away a girl came running down the bank.

"Take me with you," she said. "He's my friend." "Tell 'em it was a negro, Maudie," the wounded man kept moaning. "Be careful what you say."

To police she gave her name as Maudie Sacks.

AUTOMOBILE AND STREET CAR HIT

Dr. H. A. Kinnaman Escapes Injuries in Accident on Main Street Yesterday Afternoon.

A west bound street car and an automobile driven by Dr. H. A. Kinnaman, collided on Main street between Seventh and Eighth streets at 5:45 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The front wheels of the machine were broken and the body damaged and the right side step of the street car smashed. No one was injured. The motorman on the car was Bert Phillips and the conductor, William Clark. In their report to the Keokuk Electric company, they state that the car was moving slowly and had almost stopped when the collision occurred.

Dr. Kinnaman states that he was proceeding west on Main street and attempted to pass a milk wagon to the front of him. In doing this he swerved too far out and seeing the car approaching and not wishing to get hit on the side he was driving, turned the machine around so that a head-on collision occurred. Dr. Kinnaman was of the opinion that the street car could have been stopped.

IS BOUND OVER TO GRAND JURY

Bert Ross, Colored, is Held on Charges Filed by Olive Dore of Quincy.

Bert Ross, colored, who was arrested at Fort Madison two weeks ago, was bound over to await the action of the federal grand jury by U. S. Commissioner A. C. Miller this afternoon. Ross was charged with violation of the Mann act. His bonds were fixed at $750.

The prosecuting witness was Olive Dore, a musician from Quincy. She said she played for dances and for a church at Quincy. She said she met Ross in the winter at the Hotel Dun can at Quincy. July 21 she had a telegram from a man named Red at Des Moines, asking her to come to Fort Madison to play for a dance. She said he wired a round trip ticket from Quincy to Ft. Madison, and accepted her terms for playing. When she arrived at Fort Madison she met the defendant Bert Ross, whom she later recognized. He took her to a place at 225 North Fifth street, she testified, and then she realized what he had intended. He threatened to kill her, she said if she didn't do as he said. She said she couldn't get away, although she did try to get him to let her out to get some lunch, hoping to escape then. He accompanied her, however, and she wasn't allowed to leave until the following morning, when she asked for the arrest of Ross and told her story.

Chief of Police Thatcher and a colored woman at whose house Mrs. Dore and Ross were said to have spent the night were the other witnesses. Assistant District Attorney Moon conducted the hearing for the government.

TWO INJURED IN ACCIDENT TODAY

Ellsworth Frankenkfield and G. H. Seal on Motorcycle, Ran in to the Rein Milk Wagon.

ON MAIN STREET ROAD

One Leg of Horse Was Completely Severed—Men's Injuries Are Not Serious.

Ellsworth Frankenkfield, 512 Morgan street, and G. H. Seal, 1112 Concert street, both foremen at the Standard Four Tire plant, were severely cut and bruised about the face and body when a motorcycle they were riding, struck a Rein milk wagon on the Main street road near the tire plant, at 12:10 o'clock this afternoon. The horse attached to the wagon became frightened at the motorcycle and shielded directly in front of the machine on which the two men were driving to town from the tire plant. The motorcycle was knocked over and the two riders thrown to the ground, sustaining injuries, none of which are serious, however. In some manner one leg of the horse was completely cut off and the animal had to be killed.

The two injured men were rushed to town in a passing automobile and their injuries dressed by Dr. C. E. Armstrong. No bones were broken, but both have severe cuts and bruises on the face and body.

GIVEN CHANCE TO COOL DOWN

Governor Foukes Given Thirty Days Sentence for Assault and Battery by Justice Burrows.

Governor Foukes, colored, is resting in the county jail for thirty days as the result of his being found guilty of assault and battery on Mae Jackson. Plaintiff claims that when she repulsed the defendant's advances, he struck her. It is further claimed by the police that Foukes walked down Main street from the Jackson residence to a restaurant and offered to mix with anyone who thought he couldn't take care of them, and that he also made trouble in adjoining buildings. At the police station he was still rough and was given a separate cell.

This morning he admitted beating the woman and Justice Burrows gave him thirty days in which to become peaceful.

and Lee county became their permanent home. On April 26, 1866, she was united in marriage to Geo. Kirchner, the ceremony being performed by Rev. Braschler. This union was blessed with seven children, one son dying in early childhood. During the fifty years of their married life, Mrs. Kirchner was indeed a helpmate to her husband, loyally and lovingly sharing with him the joys and sorrows of a half century. She was a true christian woman, devoted wife, mother and grandmother, and will therefore be sadly missed, not only in her home where her aged husband now is left alone, but by all her relatives, in fact by the whole community. Up until eleven years ago Mr. and Mrs. Kirchner lived on the farm where they went to housekeeping after their marriage, since then they have resided in Donnellson. The sudden and unexpected death of Mrs. Kirchner occurred during the night from Sunday until Monday, she having retired as usual on Sunday night. On Monday morning when she didn't arise as usual, her husband went to see why she didn't arise and found her cold in death, the end coming quietly. She reached the age of sixty-nine years, eight months and eleven days. She leaves to mourn her loss her aged husband, four daughters and two sons, Mrs. John Bentzinger, Mrs. Fred Neumann, Mrs. Wm. Stock Market Notes. NEW YORK, Aug. 5.—An extremely dull session marked the stock market today. Opening was dull and during the first half hour not a single sale of mountain shares such as Gravel and Westinghouse was reported. Trading was also dull in all other issues with small price changes.

The market remained dull throughout the morning. Trading in the first hour was the lightest for that period in 19 months, only 18,106 shares being handled.

Daily Stock Letter. NEW YORK, Aug. 5.—The New York Evening Sun financial review today said: On a light volume of business, prices opened at fractional changes from the closing of the preceding day, with the early tendency, however, in the direction of lower levels. Outside interest in the operations was lacking, while there was no evidence of participation in the market by the more important Wall street interests.

Trading was confined to a few issues, notably the mercantile marines, Alaska gold mines, Mexican petroleum, Cuba cane sugar, United States steel and some of the motors in which as a rule small gains were recorded in the first half hour. Stocks in the traction companies were inactive, but there were a few deals in the New York railways fives and Third avenue adjustment five at slight price concessions. Interborough 4 1/2c opened unchanged.

Total dealings in the first hour were smaller than in any similar period in the current year, while for the two hours a new record for dullness was reported so far as the greater number of prominent issues were concerned. Price changes in the second hour were unimportant.
