

DOUBLE WEDDING FOR CELEBRATION

This Will be Attraction One Day of Keokuk's Big Fall Festival October 3 to 7.

NAME OTHER FEATURES

Saturday Will be Big Day for the Anti Horse Thief Associations—Two Big Parades Planned.

A double wedding on Main street amidst the plaudits of the big celebration crowd; a big flower parade and industrial parade combined; a parade by the members of the U. C. T. organization; Saturday, October 7, as the big day of the celebration week, as the special day for anti-horse thief association and their branches, granges and farmers' institutes with special attractions and speakers—these are just a few of the special features for the big Keokuk free fall celebration October 3 to 7, which were announced today by the celebration committee.

The names of the couples will not be divulged until the day of the ceremony. This is a secret between Cupid and the fall celebration committee and Chairman Overton.

Saturday the Big Day. On Saturday, the closing day of the celebration, plans are in the making to have this the big day of the fair. The anti-horse thief association and their subordinate lodges, the granges and the farmers' institutes will be the special guests of the Keokuk merchants on that day. Invitations have already been sent out, some of the lodge officers have personally been interviewed and everything is arranged for a goodly attendance on that day. Special programs of interest and speakers who will talk along interesting lines to these people are being secured.

There will be two big parades, also, during the week. The industrial and flower parade will be combined. Several of the lodges of the city, un-solicited, have been working for three months on decorations for their auto-parades, and many individuals will enter the flower parade with beautifully decorated cars. The industrial exhibits will be designed to show what has been done and what Keokuk factories and industries have to offer.

The other big parade during the week will be that staged by the U. C. T. organization at Keokuk. The traveling men will be in line for some novel stunts on that day.

Chairmen Are Appointed. J. W. Winger has been appointed general chairman of the decorating committees. Rolla R. Ralston has been appointed chairman of the concessions committee. Already several of the best of these have communicated with Mr. Ralston. Jacob Schouten will have charge of the finances of the celebration. The flower parade will be in charge of C. S. Abell.

J. P. Ingie and M. E. Justice who returned last week from Des Moines, are negotiating for additional attractions for the big celebration and expect to be able to announce some of these contracts closed shortly.

Filled to Overflowing. Fremont Tribune: The corn crop—well, our cornucopia will be full of corn to pour out upon those who need.

Speaking of Heroes. Atchison Globe: If a man is a hero to his own wife, it is a sign he hasn't been married long.

BOSTON HAS TWO CLUBS IN FIRST

Braves and Red Sox Leading Both National and American Leagues by Narrow Margin.

THE RACE STILL CLOSE

White Sox Do Their Little Bit to Make Fight Interesting, by Trimming the Browns Twice.

[United Press Leased Wire Service.] NEW YORK, Sept. 5.—Both of Boston's major league clubs are in first place today. The Braves by splitting a double header yesterday with the Giants, while the Dodgers were losing two contests to the Phillies, went into the favorite pew, the Dodgers, separating them from the Phillies, and the Phillies who are tied for runner up honors. Today the Braves and Phillies meet in the big series, a double header being on the program. The Red Sox lost something of their lead. The Yanks who have boasted right along that they would do something for their country when they met the world's champions, made good by dividing a double bill with Carrigan's team.

Detroit, in the meantime, was hammering nearly all of Lee Fohl's pitchers and some of his outfielders for two victories. Hence, Detroit stands now just one game behind the bean eaters. Furthermore, the White Sox did their little bit to make the race interesting when they set the Browns back twice. They are only a game and a half in the rear of Ty Cobb. New York and St. Louis are sharing fourth place, with Cleveland only slightly in the rear. Even Washington has raised its head and has an average of better than .500.

The Phillies right now loom as the most serious contenders in the National league. Pat Moran has been doing some great pitching in the series with the Dodgers and by his team's consistent winning over Brooklyn, has placed his club in a tie for second place. The Braves, as well as the Red Sox, are working under something of a handicap. John Evers is out of the game for the season, while John Barry, Red Sox second baseman, is lost to the world's champs for a long time.

MORE TOURISTS VISITING DAM

Average of Visitors During the Week is More Than That of Last Season, According to Counts Kept.

CROWDS HERE SUNDAY

Close to 800 People Were Escorted Through the Plant on Sunday and Labor Day.

The Keokuk power plant and dam is proving a greater attraction for tourists this summer than last season. The good weather for motoring the good condition of roads leading into Keokuk, and the general popularity of automobile touring is believed to be the reason for the boost in attendance at the Keokuk power plant. Figures kept by the guides at the power house show that there are more people visiting the plant during the week days than on Sunday. This is taken to mean that more tourists have visited the big plant than excursionists, as the excursion crowds usually come on Sunday.

There have been about 235 people more in the power house on an average during the week than last year. Sunday proved a big day at the power plant when over 400 people were taken through the plant on inspection trips. Labor Day something like 252 people were shown over the plant. This was an increase over last year for the two days.

The parking space which has been provided by the power company at the entrance to the power plant and the government reservation has been used to a great extent this season, and there is seldom a day passes but that a number of cars are lined up in this space. Sundays and holidays the parking space is black with autos. Among the parties Sunday and Monday were Paul R. Isenberg and party from Honolulu. Several Burlington and Cedar Rapids people were on the dam, too.

Round the Corner From Old Keokuk

[By Hek.] Rumor says Opportunity lies round the corner. Advertisements say it lies in Oil stocks, in Fruit lands, in Florida Swamps, in city lots, in the Sand Hills of New Jersey, or in the Undug Holes of gold mines. It is Common Sense and Loyalty say it is right here—Here where You are. The same desire that makes the Cow risk the prick of a Barb wire fence for a bite of Dusty Grass on the Other Side prompts the Unwary to part with their Savings to enrich some Promoter.

The grass may be a little longer, the Promised dividends a whole lot larger, but inside the Fence the grass is surely Cleaner and there are no Barbs to Burst the Bubble. Distance nides Pitfalls. Its haze Magnifies Opportunity and limits the Luster of Shop at Home. The End of the rainbow with its Pot of Gold is Here. Dig and you will Find it. Encourage your Home Institutions. Instill Confidence by investing your savings in the Town That Feeds You. Give those who can invest a Chance to Do It Here. Expand with your own Capital. Don't force it into the Dim Uncertainty of round the Corner.

MISSION SERVICES TO BE HELD HERE

St. Paul's German Evangelical Church Will Become the Scene of a Big Festival Next Sunday.

PRELIMINARY MEETING

Rev. A. C. Ernst of This City Was the Speaker at the Quincy Meeting Held Last Sunday.

The first union mission festival of the Evangelical churches of Quincy and vicinity was held Sunday, the meeting took place in South park, Quincy. It was conducted according to the old time style with dinner and lunch on the grounds. Great enthusiasm was developed at the meetings both morning and afternoon. The spirited singing by the immense crowd and the splendid orchestra filled the air with music so the Germans would naturally feel right at home. It seemed that almost all of South Quincy, which is German to the core, had turned out. Rev. W. Bechtold of Kahoka, preached in the forenoon and Rev. A. C. Ernst of this city delivered the afternoon address to a crowd of 3,000 eager listeners. The mission work received a great impetus at this first large union meeting. The offering went above $500. This union meeting will be succeeded by the individual congregations.

Next Sunday two will be held, one at Urss, Ill., and the other at the German Evangelical church in Keokuk. During September and October mission festivals will be abundant throughout the Evangelical churches in the United States. The work of the Evangelical church in India has not been seriously affected by the war, only that those missionaries who are German born were either imprisoned or if they were American citizens they were forced by the British to leave the mission field. The work of such German missionaries who are American born is not being interfered with.

Important meetings are expected at St. Paul's Evangelical church next Sunday when the Rev. H. Leemhuis of Quincy will be present throughout the day. He is one of the most eloquent and powerful speakers in the denomination. He received his theological education in Germany and his theological training in this country. He speaks both languages very fluently and it will be a treat for the people of Keokuk to hear him. The details of the services will be announced on Saturday.

WARSAW, Ill., Sept. 5.—Fernando C. Wolfenbarger passed peacefully to rest after a progressing illness of several weeks, on Monday morning, September 4, 1916, aged sixty-five years. Since the first of his illness, which came suddenly about seven months ago, he seemed to decline in strength and while dear ones offered encouragement, he seemed to realize that the end was near. He was a Christian home and his parents being firm believers in Christ. As a boy he realized the loss of dear ones and the many hardships which were brought about by the civil war. In the year 1872 he came to Illinois, living near Warsaw several years, during which time he was united in marriage to Miss Virginia Osborn of this vicinity at that time, they having known each other as children in Virginia. In the year 1888 he moved to Plattsmouth, Nebraska, living there eight years, when he returned to Warsaw, where he has since resided. Three children were born to them, Mrs. A. D. Griffith of Carman, Illinois, Miss Ethel Wolfenbarger of Miles City, Montana, and Mrs. D. Baker, of this city. In the year 1908 he united with the First Baptist church of Keokuk, to which faith he was true until death, professing his fellowship with Christ, and the hope and expectation of joy of eternal life. His last illness came on Tuesday of last week, and while all that could be, was done for him, and there were faint hopes for his recovery, he realized he must pass away. He leaves to mourn his departure a devoted wife, his three daughters, one sister, Mrs. Milton Shiffley, of Ewing, Virginia, two brothers, S. Wolfenbarger of Dinuba, California, and John, of Sentinel, Oklahoma. Funeral services will be held at the residence Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, Rev. McAllister of Keokuk and Rev. Thompson of Warsaw, officiating. Mrs. Ed Hagerbaumer and three children, Paul, Ed, Jr., and baby Mary Ann of Quincy, returned home Sunday after a delightful visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. K. Bernhard. Mrs. Hagerbaumer was Miss Emma Bernhard. Arthur Hambleton of Keokuk, was well known by parties in Warsaw, who extend their sympathy to the sorrowing relatives. J. T. Battles expects to occupy his new and elegant modern home in about two weeks; it is an ornament to that portion of the city. Henry Leiferman, Sr., and wife of Quincy, are here visiting friends; they are old Warsaw people, having lived here many years. John Miller of Mason county, Illinois, is guest of his brother, who farms 320 acres with him in the bottoms; Mr. Miller came over in his

To Discard Freckles, Tan, Pimples, Wrinkles

The use of creams containing animal substance sometimes causes hair to grow. You run no risk of acquiring superfluous hair when you use ordinary mercurized wax. There is nothing better for a discolored skin, as the wax actually absorbs the offensive cuticle. The latter is naturally replaced by a clear, smooth, healthy complexion, full of life and expression. It's the sensible way to discard a freckled, tanned, over-red, blotchy or pimply skin. Get an ounce of mercurized wax at any druggist's and apply nightly like cold cream, crasing in the morning with soap and water. It takes a week or so to complete the transformation. The ideal wrinkle remover is made by dissolving an ounce of powdered saxolite in a half pint of witch hazel. Bathing the face in the solution brings almost instantaneous results.
