KEOKUK CHOSEN FOR NEXT MEETING

District Convention Royal Neighbors of America Will be Held Here in Nineteen Seventeen.

LOCAL WOMEN HONORED

Were Given Chief Offices at the Convention Held in Burlington Yesterday—Events of the Day.

Keokuk was chosen as the meeting place for the next annual convention of the Royal Neighbors of America, of this district, at the meeting held in Burlington yesterday. Keokuk members of the order were also elected to all the principal offices, as follows:

President—Miss Emma Dolan. Vice president—Miss Anna Smith. Secretary—Mrs. J. W. Steiger. Four hundred delegates from the district, including a large number from Keokuk attended the Burlington convention. Sessions were held in the morning, afternoon and evening. In the morning addresses of welcome and response were given, and in the afternoon, following a business meeting and musical program, officers were elected and Keokuk chosen for the next convention city. The sumptuous banquet was served from six to eight o'clock in the evening. During the banquet delightful music was furnished by the M. W. A. band. There were quantities of delicious things to eat, prepared in the best style of the Royal Neighbors. Seating of officers by Crystal Camp, Burlington, was the first event on the evening's program, and taking up of the password and a reading followed. A large class was initiated during the evening. The fancy drill by Eureka Camp, Keokuk, Iowa, was far above the average and showed the result of much practice.

It Takes A Master To Impart Style

Because this is so, we select our women's suits and coats from master makers who employ master designers—men who have made a most thorough study of women's fashions. You will find evidence of these master designers' work in every garment shown here.

One can find here just the suit or coat that was designed for her particular type of figure—a garment that will fit her as nicely as though it were made to individual order. We would deem it a pleasure to show you the new styles.

In view of the increasing scarcity of materials we suggest that you select your fall garments now while our assortments are so comprehensive.
